DIANE SWEET AND BRENDA GALLANT TEST SAGE LOT POND HARD WAY.

Perfect Skating Weather

Weather much of last week was perfect for ice skating as these pictures, taken at the Sage lot pond in the Sunset Meade subdivision, attest. The weather man hasn't been quite as cooperative the past few days, but area skaters are hoping for several more cold snaps.

Country Market Opening Feb. 1

A branch of the Clinton Country Market will be opened in Tecumseh at former Kroger building about Feb. 1, announces Joseph Busch, one of the firm's owners.

Starting from the bare walls, the Country Market completely remodeled the structure, is now installing all new equipment, including wall-in coolers and freezers.

New lighting has also been added.

Parking facilities are also being enlarged by the removal of a home formerly located to the east so that 125 cars can be accomodated. All of the new area will be hard-topped this spring, states Mrs. Busch.

Merle Hoag of Ann Arbor has been named manager of the store here, which like other Clinton Market outlets will feature meat.

He will be assisted by Merle McKeever.

The remainder of an 18-employee staff will be hired locally.

Kroger Employees Split $500 Melon at Tecumseh Store

Christmas gift checks totaling approximately $22,390 will go to employees of The Kroger Co. of the Toledo Division, announced today by Carl Fuller, vice president of the Toledo division which operates local stores.

Christmas checks go to all full-time employees with six months or more service, with the exception of those who participate in a company incentive plan, Mr. Fuller said.

Incentive plan checks will be distributed early in 1959.

Toledo division personnel are among more than 30,000 Kroger employees in stores, warehouses, offices and manufacturing plants in 20 middlewestern and southern states who will receive Christmas checks totaling approximately $875,000.

Eighteen employees at the Tecumseh store received nearly $500 this year.

Christmas gifts of this type have been given for the past 21 consecutive years.

THE Long & Short OF IT

By TOM RIORDAN

AT THE CHRISTMAS EVE service in St. Peter's Episcopal Church, the Rev. Frank Hawthorn was asking children about holiday customs.

Each question was answered promptly until the minister queried "Why do we ring bells at Christmas?"

There was silence for several moments until four-year-old Paula Damon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Damon, turned to her brother Craig, age 6, and in a stage whisper urged.

"You tell him why, Craig."

Her brother stared back dumbfounded.

Mrs. Al Russell, who was seated next to Paula, asked her, "Why do you think Craig should know?"

Paula's reply was immediate: "Well he can spell potato chip."

BASED ON A HANDFUL OF reports picked up during recent weeks, I'd like to make a prediction on retail business in Tecumseh for 1959.

The year should be a good one —possibly extra good.

If several things, which have been rumored in a pretty substantial way, happen in '59 they could help it to make it boarder on a retail boom.

While merchants in at least one city were heard to do some moaning about their Christmas season receipts, most Tecumseh storemen had the opposite story to tell.

Sales began a climb in December, better than Christmas last year. They should continue to keep rolling with the advent of another calendar year.

Why?

The major reason, I feel, is unity up and down business row, thanks greatly to organizational efforts of the Chamber of Commerce.

One of the first units of the Chamber to begin functioning last summer was the retail division.

Badly needed, its members went right to work on a series of town-wide promotions. Attention was focused, not on any one store, but on selling Tecumseh as a shopping center.

Results showed dividends to nearly everyone.

The Rambler automobile giveaway capped the '58 series.

Now the group has dug into plans for '59.

A calendar committee on retail promotions met last week and carefully went from month to month, establishing a special event for each.

Starting with January Clearance Days, which opens in another week, the calendar runs the gauntlet of Valentine Day Bargains, Easter and Spring Buys, April Shower of Values, etc, to another Sidewalk Carnival next fall and a giant Christmas season effort.

Similar to the car give-away, a drawing on a major prize has been proposed and if the general membership approves it I'm afraid it will make the Rambler pale in comparison.

The phrase "In unity there is strength" may be overworked, but it certainly has rung a bell in Tecumseh.

☆

Patients at Herrick Memorial Hospital who were confined during the Christmas season got a pleasant lift last week when 65 youthful voices caroled them.

They were boys and girls from St. Elizabeth School, directed by their principal, Sister Anne Xavier, O.P.

Four Families Aided When Groups Combine

Members of Kiwanis and Mothers of Twins Clubs combined efforts to provide Christmas for four needy families, including 26 children.

Food, household items and clothing were divided among the families.

New toys were donated by Western Auto and a bicycle and clothing was donated by the Tecumseh Saw Shop. Parents were also remembered with gifts.

Muscular Dystrophy Gets $1,000 — IF

A check for $1,000 has been sent to the Lenawee County Chapter for Muscular Dystrophy by the County United Fund, announces Howard White, chairman.

The County drive went over the top 107.5% and portions of the overage are being given to national charities which did not participate in the drive this year and are being invited to join in 1959.

In a letter to Mrs. Charles Guile of Adrian, Muscular Dystrophy chairman for the county, Mr. White said:

"Our board of directors, upon consideration of this campaign success, our organizational objectives, financial obligations to member agencies and inherent responsibilities to the contributors-at-large, have adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, that in view of the above considerations, a sum of $1,000 be offered to the Lenawee County Chapter-Muscular Dystrophy Association of America, Inc. to apply toward your current campaign with the understanding that you join our Lenawee County United Fund campaign efforts in October 1959."

"Therefore, we enclose our check in the amount of $1,000 for this purpose. May we look forward to a favorable response from you in order that we may work toward a mutually satisfactory solution of this important civic problem.

His Odds: 3,200 to 1

Take it from Mr. and Mrs. Richard Close, there is no thrill like hearing your name announced as the winner of a brand new automobile.

Especially when you're driving a 1949 model and wondering when you can afford to get a replacement.

That was the big story last week when the drawing for the 1959 Rambler, given by Tecumseh merchants, was staged on a blustery cold Dec. 23 at the four corners.

Folks didn't have to be present to win, but the Closes wanted to see the "impossible happen so badly" they came downtown half an hour before the drawing started.

About 80,000 chances were in the container from which the winners were chosen. Of these, 25 had been filled in by Mr. and Mrs. Close—odds of 3,200 to 1.

But the odds that night took a beating. First ticket drawn by a little volunteer and announced over the public adress by Dr. Richard Coak, Chamber president, was "Richard Close."

Later on, as other awards were made, the same name was drawn two more times, both opportunities to purchase appliances at Falpant's Gas and Appliances with $25 discounts.

So, it was truly Richard Close's night.

As his name first came over the PA as Rambler winner, Mr. Places aid to himself, "I don't believe I'm hearing right."

Through his wife's mind ran the thought, "This couldn't be the Rambler ticket."

But it was.

Dick pushed through the crowd, up to the platform on which the car was located where he received Dr. Coak's congratulations.

TECUMSEH HERALD PHOTO

HERE COMES WINNER!

Richard Close (note arrow) pushed his way through the crowd the night of drawing to claim his 1959 Rambler.

He was asked to wait until the other prizes were awarded. Then the flat trailer could be taken back to Whelan Implement and the Rambler unloaded.

The drawing continued, but Mr. and Mrs. Close didn't mind the wait in the cold at all after that.

At their home, 3591 Russell Rd., their two children, Barbara Ann, 15 and Dale, 12, were really excited.

A brother-in-law of Mrs. Close, Richard Roost, had called the youngsters to tell them their folks had won. He called later and said he wasn't sure they had.

Then a neighbor phoned to congratulate them and Dale argued that the family hadn't gotten the car.

"But I was there, they really won," the neighbor said.

About that time there was some excited horn tooting in front of the house and the youngsters knew it was surely true.

Two days before Christmas and what a present.

Mr. and Mrs. Close were so excited they couldn't go to sleep, that night so sat up until 3 a.m.

In 17 years of marriage, the Closes have won only two other things besides the Rambler; she received five books of TV stamps at the Kroger store; he acquired a radio in a drawing while in the army.

With the car problem out of the way, the family plans to finish up their home which, Mr. Place has been building himself in off-hours from his job at Tecumseh Products.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Baker of Rogers Highway and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Edward Williams, Sr. of Savannah, Tennessee.

The double ring ceremony was performed in candlelight by E. S. Boring before 155 guests.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a white gown of lace and net over satin featuring a fitted bodice with scalloped neckline trimmed in seed pearls and sequins.

Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a crown-shaped pearl tiara. She wore lace mitts and a pearl choker which was the gift of the bridegroom. Her bouquet was white butterfly roses.

CRACK THE WHIP — Great fun for younger set, but sometimes a mite tough for gals on the end, as Ann Hodges and Brenda Gallant are about to learn. Providing the momentum are Bonnie Bucheimer, Suzette Velandra and Carol Bilby. From the shine on some of these sharp white skates, one might guess these were Christmas gifts, getting their first workout.

Crop Loan Deadline Is Four Weeks Away

Farmers have only a few more weeks in which to apply for loans or purchase agreements on most of their 1958 grain and related crops.

Feb. 2 is the deadline for obtaining price support on wheat, barley, grain sorghums, oats, dry beans, rye and soybeans in most areas.

Lenawee County loan rates and eligibility standards for 1958-crop commodities:

WHEAT — $1.85 per bushel for No. 1.

BARLEY — $.96 cents per bushell for Grade No. 2 or better (except mixed barley).

GRAIN SORGHUMS — $1.75 per cwt. for Grade No. 2 or better (except mixed grain sorghums).

OATS — 63c per bushel for Grade No. 3.

RYE — $1.16 per bushel for Grade No. 2 or better or No. 3 on test weight only.

SOYBEANS—$2.08 per bushel for No. 2 or better, green and yellow.

Badly Bruised, But Not Broken Arm as Reported

Mrs. John Furry was badly bruised in an automobile accident on the Tecumseh-Macon Road.

She did not however, receive a broken arm and nose and chest injuries as was reported in another publication.

She is slowly improving at her home where she was taken from Herrick Memorial Hospital the day following the accident.

Mrs. Furry's car was struck by another driven by Mrs. Manual Torres who was backing out of the driveway of her home and did not see the Furry car approaching.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Solarski and Mrs. Fred Weseloh were received into the membership of the Gloria Dei Lutheran Church during the morning worship hour Sunday.

THE REV. ROBERT BERGMAN IN GLORIA DEI CHURCH HERE.

Next Stop: California

For Tecumseh's hard-working Lutheran minister, the Rev. Robert Bergman, next stop will be Covina, Calif.

Dedicated to the job of building up young or brand new parishes, Mr. Bergman came here in April, 1957.

His task: establish a Michigan Synod congregation in this community.

In about 22 months he had accomplished the job and the result is a flourishing Gloria Dei Church with a membership of 140 and a property which is in the process of being purchased worth $39,300.

The job here took plenty of organizational work and pavement pounding.

Starting with a house-to-house canvass, the Rev. Bergman called on nearly 1,600 homes to learn who would be interested in joining the new congregation.

This took nearly three months, produced 54 adult members.

Next came a two-year $8,500 fund drive, which still has a year to run.

☆

THE PARISH held services at Tecumseh High School until it purchased the old Brownville School and members remodeled it into a church.

With the Tecumseh parish on stable ground, the Rev. Bergman has accepted an invitation to take over Our Saviour Lutheran Church in Covina, which is 20 miles east of Los Angeles.

The parish is five years old, but still doesn't have a church and the congregation of 200 meets in a school.

Rev. Bergman's immediate task is to get a building underway. He begins the new pastorate in February, he announced to the Gloria Dei membership Sunday.

This marks the third post for the 31-year-old clergyman, who graduated from Hamma Divinity School in 1953. This is a division of Wittenberg College, Springfield, Ohio, a Lutheran school, from which the Rev. Bergman also has a degree.

His wife is a Wittenberg alumnae and they have three daughters.

Before coming to Tecumseh, Mr. Bergman organized and built the 300-member Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Cincinnati.

Conservation Program Begains

Arthur Capper, Chairman of the Lenawee County ASC Committee, announced that the Agriculture Conservation Program opened Dec. 29 on a first come first serve basis.

Practices such as liming materials on farmland, contour stripcropping, field stripcropping, tree or shrub planting for forestry purposes, tree and shrub planting for erosion control and windbreaks.

Ponds for livestock water, pruning crop trees, thinning, release and protection of desirable trees, site preparation for natural reseeding, fencing, establishing and sod waterways.

Special purpose vegetation for protection against erosion, terracing, field diversions, structures for erosion control, open farm drainage ditches and tile drainage.

Ponds for irrigation water, winter cover crops, summer cover crops, green manure crops, can be carried out by the expectation date of the practice.

Applications must be made out at the Lenawee County ASC Office, located at 118 Church St. in Adrian.

Applications must be made prior to the starting of the performance on any of the above practices.

The ACP funds are intended by Congress to be spent in the interest of additional conservation practices that should be carried out in Lenawee County as there are available funds.

Any farmer who will perform conservation practices with the use of this cost-share that has been appropriated by Congress should make application just as quickly as possible.

WHEN PEOPLE WORK—

When people work, everyone benefits. Workers are able to buy the things their families need. The merchant sells more goods. There is more work in the trades, the services, professions and elsewhere. These are things of which prosperity is made.

The factory payroll dollar rolls all around the town. As it rolls, it grows and there is some of it for everybody.

The economic research department of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States made a study and found that 100 more factory jobs in a town mean that . . . 296 more people are brought into the community . . . 112 households are created . . . annual personal income in the community increases by $590,000 . . . bank deposits increase by $270,000. It's up to all of us to help build payrolls.

Join hands with your local industrial development organization and the Michigan Economic Development Department to help your community prosper.

This ad is one of a series published as a public service by this newspaper in cooperation with the Michigan Press Association and the Michigan Economic Development Department.

MICHIGAN MEANS BUSINESS

VOICE of THE HERALD

Just What He Wanted

Often when an expensive prize is given in a drawing, some well-to-do person wins it—and everyone present walks away groaning.

This was not the case when the Rambler automobile was presented by 43 Tecumseh merchants to Richard Close last week.

Mr. Close isn't heading for the poor house, but like most of us he has to hustle from week to week to keep ahead of the bills for grocery, telephone, electrical, gas, doctor, clothing, etc.

In the automobile department, his family had to content itself with a used '49 model. But in recent months Dick and his wife had decided they somehow would have to get a new car in 1959.

And guess which model they had been looking at? The Rambler, at the newly opened Wilson Rambler Sales in Tecumseh.

When his name was drawn, Mr. Close was doubly happy. He had won a valuable prize (actually just what he wanted, no pun intended) and he had solved for himself the weighty problem of putting new wheels in the Close garage.

There has been considerable expression of approval around town concerning the winner. We'd like to say we're happy, too.

The merchants who cooperated to stage this promotion are certainly to be congratulated.

Their Job Is Charity

One of Tecumseh's little known organizations is the Service Club.

A Community Chest group, its members work mainly behind the scene. Their job is charity, deemed as the greatest of all virtues.

Lending a helping hand to those in need, the Service Club shrouds its work in anonymity helping someone here, another there, 52 weeks out of the year.

The biggest job of all comes at Christmas time when the task is to make sure that all the needy families in the area have some sort of a memorable holiday.

This year the duty was extremely heavy with 52 families for which to provide, among which were 115 children.

Greatly aiding the effort were a variety of Tecumseh people and business places, including the Jaycees who mended used toys.

We're sure that as everyone concerned got a special inward glow as they went about the job of preparing baskets for the unfortunate families.

Tecumseh is proud of its Service Club and all those who gave their time in the Christmas effort.

Leave It to Weekly Editor

Leave it to the weekly editor to come up with some off-beat copy. Carl Richards of the Palos (Illinois) Regional produced this gem:

WE WHILE AWAY a lot of pleasant evenings parked in front of our TV watching the many western cowboy and gunslinging programs. Tops, of course, is "Gunsmoke" which we enjoy every Saturday night. Then there's "Wyatt Earp," "Cheyenne," "Jim Bowie," and near the top, "Tombstone Territory."

In "Tombstone Territory" the publisher of the Epitaph, a weekly newspaper, spends most of his time out with the marshall chasing the "bad guys."

We often wonder when he finds time to put out the paper. But that's fiction, as we know, because we put out a weekly paper and we can't find time to chase a dog off our front lawn.

Now there's a new program which features a publisher who goes around pounding the tar out of the "bad guys." We saw him in "Jefferson Drum" the other night and watched him beat up a "bad guy" with his fists. When does he find time to put out the paper? This, too, is fiction because this editor and most editors couldn't beat up a grey-haired old lady.

But, we get a wallop out of watching those big tough editors slugging it out with the "bad guys."

In between our trips to the kitchen to get something to eat, we swagger through the living room and dining room practicing a fast draw, squaring away with our fists and picturing ourselves as a big tough western editor.

Then our wife brings us back to reality with something like this, "Get away from that ice box. You're too fat now."

Yes, we kids around 50 enjoy living in a world of make-believe. But you be careful! Don't rush into the Regional office with some complaint because we are the fastest gun in Palos Heights.

Tractor School Will Be Jan. 14 at Whelan Store

For the past several years the local farm implement dealers, in cooperation with the 4-H Program Michigan State University and Standard Oil Company, have helped to carry on winter Tractor Schools as projects for 4-H members.

The organizational meeting this year will be held January 14, 7:30 p.m. at the Hoyt E. Whelan Co. store in Tecumseh.

The 4-H Tractor Club deals with maintenance of machinery rather than repair.

It helps lay the foundation for sound thinking and good practices in handling tractors as well as other tools.

Completion of any one of the three units available for study will entitle a 4-H member to participate in the County Plowing and Operator's Contest.

There is an age limit of 14 to 21 set for those who participate in these contests.

Winners are eligible to attend the succeeding elimination contests which end on a national basis.

Turkey Sausage Is New Gimmick Experts Report

Turkey sausage — ground turkey meat with seasoning—is a new and delicious way for you to prepare turkey for your family.

Michigan State University poultry researchers, who developed the sausage recipe, claim that the sausage tastes like a one-bite combination of the whole turkey — white meat, dark meat and stuffing.

The original recipe makes 25 pounds of sausage, but you can make any amount you want by reducing the amount of each ingredient to the proper proportion.

Here's the recipe:

25 pounds of turkey (ground raw)
9½ teaspoons salt
4½ teaspoons sugar
3 teaspoons sage
4½ teaspoons black pepper
½ teaspoon red pepper
1 teaspoon ginger
9½ teaspoons dried milk

Mix the dry ingredients with the ground turkey and stuff into sausage casings. Fry the sausage in a skillet or electric fry-pan.

GALS TRY IT—Not all the hockey stick-handling talent in town belongs to the boys say this trio of Central Junior High students from left, Lettie Ringman, Brenda Gallant and Barbara Colgrove. The stick Lettie uses still has a gay Christmas bow attached. Actually the young ladies borrowed the equipment when the photographer sought some glamour in a winter sports picture.

FOR ALL WE HOLD SACRED . . . ATTEND CHURCH !

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	John	6	1-14
Monday	John	6	22-35
Tuesday	I Corinthians	10	16-17
Wednesday	I Corinthians	11	23-26
Thursday	II Corinthians	9	10-15
Friday	Matthew	26	26
Saturday	Acts	3	41-47

Have you tried to satisfy your appetite with a bit of candy or a hurried snack? The keen edge of hunger may leave—but only temporarily.

There is another hunger innate in each of us. It is a spiritual hunger, our desire to have protection and help from God. Sometimes we do not really recognize this need. We feel only a restlessness, a longing for something better, an unexplained loneliness.

We often try to satisfy this mysterious hunger with the sweets of pleasure, to cover it up with the hurry of many activities. But it can never be really satisfied until we know God as our Heavenly Father, His Son as our Saviour.

Jesus Christ said, "I am the bread of life; he that cometh to me shall never hunger."

In the Church we find this Christ who offers us the true bread from heaven, the bread which alone satisfies our spiritual hunger.

Through My Window

GIVE IT TO THE BIRDS!

In our home, as in many others, it has almost became a tradition that on New Year's Day the Christmas tree comes down.

The job is started early enough so that everything is finished and tucked into packing boxes by the time the televising of the Rose Bowl football game begins.

(Watching this and rooting like mad for the Big Ten representatives is also traditional).

The tree de-trimming is always accomplished with mixed emotions. After all the hustle and bustle and confusion of the holidays it is nice to think about having a little orderly peace and quiet but on the other hand, when the last ornament is put away and the last string of tinsel wound up, the Christmas festivities are over.

It will be a long tough pull until spring.

Once our Christmas tree is stripped of its crinkly tinsel, shining ornaments and holiday lights, we have learned not to carelessly toss it aside, a sorry reminder of the two magical Christmas weeks.

As soon as the tree is bare, we start to trim it again. We try not to recapture the glittery charm that was it's bright and shiny glory but instead, with the suet and peanuts, etc. it becomes a Christmas tree for the birds.

Just as we are careful to place our bird feeders so they can be easily seen from the house, so too is the tree put outside, near a convenient window.

☆

AFTER IT HAS been festooned with strings of bright red cranberries, tasty roasted peanuts, popcorn (too stale and tough for us to eat, but relished by the birds) and, of course, many, many balls of suet, the tree is once again a gay happy thing. The birds certainly find it so—they are busy, busy, busy.

And they are fun, fun, fun to watch.

Food is the lure and their antics are priceless. Black capped chick-a-dee is a most able acrobat and he often ends up on the underside of a ball of suet—the upside-down position does not in the least interfer with his eating.

Pert tufted tit-mouse is in seventh heaven when roasted peanuts are available. Clinging to a string, hung between two branches, how he will work to peck through the outer shell and thus get at the tasty nut.

The cardinals are Mother Nature's most beautiful ornaments as they perch, in all their flaming red glory, amid the soft, bright green foliage.

The scene is even more breath taking if the ground is blanketed in white and the tree has been frosted with snow.

On the practical side the retrimmed, re-dedicated tree serves two most useful purposes. The long, cold days of January are apt to bring hard times to the birds. North winds can send the temperature dropping and mid-winter blizzards can cover natural sources of food.

The dense and shaggy outstretched branches offer shelter from the raw winds and, when the tree has been well decorated, how nice to be able to eat in comfort.

You will be surprised at how many birds will flock to your tree and you will also be surprised at how many "food decorations" you will find to use.

Snug and warm and well fed, the birds will be happy and grateful to snuggle in the Christmas tree protecting shelter.

WE THINK it is a happy thought to give the tree, which during the holidays so proudly afforded us such great pleasure, this second chance to please and serve.

Once we are through with our Christmas tree it is wonderful to watch the birds enjoying it. This year, why not give your tree to the birds?

(Note: A word of warning. Be very particular, before you put your tree outside, that all the icicles have been picked from it. Their long shimmery shininess adds so much to the trees appearance inside, but they can be deadly once they have been taken outside.

(To any unfortunate bird who perchance would try to peck and nibble the icicles, the lead they contain would prove fatal. Let us give our trees to the birds, but let us make sure they are safe.)

Corn Prices Probably Will Hold Steady

Corn prices probably won't change much during the next few years despite the new corn program that is going into effect.

John Ferris, extension farm economist at Michigan State University, says he believes corn prices will be tied closely to the support rate. The support price on the 1959 corn crop will be around $1.15 a bushel.

Price supports will be available for all corn of eligible quality in approved storage, Ferris points out. Market prices at harvest time could drop to around $1.

But if prices were to drop more than 15 cents below the support, many farmers would consider the government loan or purchase agreement.

☆

THE ECONOMIST thinks there is little chance of corn prices going much above the support level unless thesre is a short corn crop or a shooting war.

The carryover of corn and other feed grains is large but at least 75 per cent of it is in government hands.

The government can't sell feed grains domestically until market prices are at least 5% above support levels plus reasonable handling and carrying charges.

Prices would have to be 10 to 25 cents above supports before the government could sell. It can, however, sell corn at a lower price that is in danger of "going out of condition."

The $1.15 support for the 1959 crop is based on 90 per cent of $1.28, the average farm price for corn during 1956-58.

52 Needy Families Enjoy Christmas, Thanks to Many

Many organizations and individuals assisted in providing Christmas for 52 families in this area, including 115 children.

The response to the Jaycee's public appeal for toys fell somewhat short but Hite's Hardware, Gamble's, Western Auto, Baldwin Hardware, D&C, Brandt's, Carl's Body Shop, Butler's Motor Sales, Henry's Texaco and Schneider Bros. Garage helped make up the difference.

The Jaycee Auxiliary responded to the call for dressed dolls. Duane Service generously furnished the building for handling and repairing the toys.

The Tecumseh Service Club has expressed its thanks for the close assistance received from the Jaycee organization in preparing Christmas for families in need.

Also thanked for providing trucks are Easton's Friendly Service, Beach's, Butler Motor Sales and Herman Dick, who also supplied drivers for deliveries.

What Is The Largest "Woman's Club" In Michigan?

1,690,000 Women Who Save Trading Stamps Are The Largest "Woman's Club" In Michigan.

Every day over 1,690,000 Michigan women make it a point to shop where they get trading stamps. This large group of smart, thrifty Michigan shoppers, with their common interest in trading stamps, can be thought of as a huge "woman's club" with membership in the state.

Of course this "club woman" gets wonderful things for her home and family through such favorites as S&H Green Stamps. Through her thrift and diligence she provides "extras" for her family. And although she may seldom think about it, her active saving is enormously good for business in our state.

Last year, for example, trading stamp companies purchased $9,816,000 worth of products from Michigan manufacturers. Making these things provided jobs for 1,016 Michigan people. S&H Redemption Stores, paying local rent and taxes, employ many more.

In the light of these facts it would seem that not only Michigan women, but everybody in the state can be thankful that the trading stamp is a part of our way of life.

Farm Land Value Is Still on Increase

Michigan farm land prices will continue to move up in 1959, although the change will be quite small in some areas.

That's the report made by John Ferris, extension farm economist at Michigan State University.

Demand for land comes from several places, explains Ferris. Farmers want more land to expand their operations, investors want real estate as a hedge against inflation, cities and industries want to grow and urbanites want a "place in the country."

This coming year land prices may not climb as much as the average annual increase has been in the past 10 years. Lower farm product prices plus attempts to control inflation may hold the increase down.

Mr. Ferris points out that farm land prices in Michigan have risen continuously every year since 1940, with the exception of 1950.

In mid-1958, farm land prices were 61% greater than in 1947-49.

Over the past year, real estate prices in Michigan have gone up about 4%, a somewhat smaller increase than the average for the past 10 years.

Jan. 31 Deadline for Alien Filing

All aliens in the State of Michigan who have not yet filled out alien address report forms, should do so before Jan. 31 at the nearest Immigration Service office or local post office.

The Immigration official pointed out that the law requires all non-citizens, except persons in diplomatic status, foreign representatives to certain international organizations, such as the United Nations, and aliens here temporarily as agricultural contract laborers, to report their address to the Government each January.

If farmers gross income is $600 during the year, they must file an income tax return even though no tax is due.

Some farmers might not have gross income of $600 or more during the year, but must file a Form 1040, which is the tax return, in order to pay the self-employment tax.

Ski Industry Booms

There was a time when you could tell a skier by his jacket. Snowbunnies (beginners) were a cinch: bulky potato sacks topped with a fancy Tyrolean hat or cap.

But no more. Today it's hard to tell a "sitzmarker" from a "steilhanger"—off the slope anyway.

For with the conversion of millions of men, woman and children to the slat-set, foreign ski experts and instructors invaded the nation's ski areas and brought with them a whole new sports vocabulary (schussboomer: hot-rodder on skis; sitzmark: hole left in the snow by fallen skier), and a fashion trend toward elegantly tailored windproof clothing.

Once considered a singular form of Scandinavian suicide, skiing is now the fastest growing sport on two feet.

Its followers number some four million in the nation, and skiing has become a $14 million industry in Michigan, according to the state Tourist Council.

☆

BEHAVIOR OF this winter cult may seem a bit peculiar to the non-skier. At the first sight of snow clouds that send most of us scurrying for the nearest fireplace, the dedicated skier takes to the hills.

And in Michigan this season, three more snow-making machines (now totaling nine), additional rope tows, T-bars, Pomalifts, and another chair lift have been added to this vacation state's winter sports facilities, the council reports.

But skiing, of course, is old as the hills. It all began in Norway some 7,000 years ago. According to historians of the sport, skis were first used during the battle of Oslo in 1200 A.D.

Earliest ski runners, they tell us, were made from animal bones and strapped to the skiers' feet with leather thongs. This primitive contraption later evolved into 12-ft. timbers steered by a single long pole.

With this refinement, the sport caught on and spread from Norway to the Alps in the late 1800's and by immigration to the United States.

☆

IN MICHIGAN the sport of skiing has been around for more than half a century.

Ishpeming, in the state's upper peninsula, has been holding ski-jumping tournaments since 1887, and the National Ski Association was organized there in 1904. Ishpeming also boasts the National Ski Museum and Hall of Fame.

Yet, even a decade ago, skiing was not generally popular, except with a fringe of the college crowd. Hiking on the long slabs of wood and climbing uphill "herringbone" style was tricky, not to mention hard work. And jumping was for daredevils in the newsreels.

But downhill skiing, this was real sport—if you could get to the top of the slope.

So when the chance came to ride up and schuss down, as long as your legs and skis held out, the fun really began. And skiing's fantastic growth got underway.

NOW WITH fast and easy uphill transportation by every conceivable means except the skiers' feet, and ski slopes practically in the backyard, skiing is everyman's (and woman's) winter sport.

This season the Michigan Tourist Council's statewide ski map—available on request—lists 69 winter sports centers in operation.

Interest in Michigan skiing has been booming since 1953 when there were 38 ski centers in the state hosting some 65,000 skiers.

By the end of the 1958-59 season, at least 150,000 skiers will have skied Michigan slopes, averaging three trips each.

On the basis of a $33 expenditure per trip, Michigan's skiing fraternity will swell the state's vacation travel business by some $14 million during the season.

TV LETTERS

If you ever wondered how TV stations got their names, you are alone because several people have asked us at COOK ELECTRIC about it.

Those letters are usually abbreviations of some message, station locale, initial of an owner or company or maybe just a bunch of "no meaning" letters picked by the government. Here's a few classic examples:

St. Petersburg's WSUN, Why stay up North . . . Milwaukee's WXIX, Latin for 19 channel . . . Chicago's WGN, World's Greatest Newspaper.

We notice that people have difficulty in remembering station letters and just remember the numbers on their TV sets. Another good number to remember is 692-J, our phone number for reliable electronic services. Jot it down now on your phone pad for future reference.

Reading time: 4 minutes (and worth every second)

A special message for people who plan to buy a '59 car

By now you've had a chance to look over all the 1959 models. They're all on the market now, bright and shiny and dazzling as only new cars can be.

Now is the time to ask yourself the question, "Which car should I buy? Which car will give me the most value, the most satisfaction for my money?"

What do you want in a car?

We don't expect to sell everyone in 1959. We know that some people will end up buying small cars, and some, foreign imports. We accept the fact that a few will buy high-performance sports cars, and that others, because of their position, cars that cost far more than any Dodge. That's fine. We don't expect to sell them all.

But if you're in the market for a smart-looking, solidly built, full-size car that's reasonably priced and that performs beautifully, a car designed for your comfort and convenience that you can drive with pride anywhere —WE ARE TALKING TO YOU.

Imitation is the sincerest form of flattery

Let's start with styling. How a car looks is an important consideration; no one buys a car they don't like. But styling, like beauty, is relative. What is hot stuff to one person is cold potatoes to another. So we will only say this about Dodge styling: Our competitors obviously like it. We think that's quite a tribute.

Rumor: Some '59 cars are hard to get into

You'd think all cars would be about as easy to get into and out of, and as comfortable to sit in. After all, they all have doors and they all have seats. The fact is, there's a big difference—particularly this year.

Frankly, some '59 cars are known to be a little difficult to get into, as well as out of. This wasn't intentional, of course. In trying to design a car that was as low and modern as our Swept-Wing Dodge, it just worked out that way.

This is not true of Dodge, because Dodge is designed around you. You get in easily and naturally, without banging your knee on the door post or the steering wheel. You sit on seats that give you wonderful support. There are no high door sills to trip over.

Of course, we won't even mention the fact that the other '59 cars don't offer Swing-Out Swivel Seats. Oops!

Which do you want: Push Buttons or a shift stick?

We know that a number of people like a lever-type automatic transmission. They've used them for years and they're satisfied. We have no quarrel with them. But there's a lot of wisdom in what Alexander Pope says in his Essay on Criticism: "Be not the first by whom the new are tried, nor yet the last to lay the old aside."

Push-button driving isn't new. This is the fourth year that Dodge has had it. We would guess that, conservatively, over two million owners have used it—and loved it. So we're not going to try to sell you on the ease of push-button driving; we do hope you'll just give it a try.

You want a modern ride, don't you?

You can divide all the '59 cars into two groups. Those (like Dodge) that have Torsion-Aire and those that have coil springs. Now don't get us wrong. Coil springs are okay. They've been used on cars for years.

But that's just the trouble. When you buy a 1959 car, you want a 1959 ride to go with it. That's Torsion-Aire. It's the newest, finest, most advanced suspension system in the industry. (Pardon our enthusiasm.) And remember this. You don't pay a penny extra for the extra comfort you get with Torsion-Aire. It's standard equipment.

Wouldn't you like to be pampered a little?

There's almost no end to the wonderful convenience features you can get in a '59 Dodge. Swing-Out Swivel Seats. (They're great!) Push-Button TorqueFlite transmission. Full-Time Power Steering. Outside mirrors that adjust from the inside. Inside mirrors that adjust themselves electronically to banish glare. They're all available at extra cost—and well worth it.

A few words about quality, performance and price

These are things that are hard to measure. What do you mean by quality? What constitutes good performance? What is a good buy? We would sum up our case for Dodge in this manner: It is a car that is well engineered and well built to give you years of driving satisfaction. It will more than match any other competitive car in the performance department. It is, we honestly believe, an extremely good buy for the money.

Are we prejudiced? You bet we are!

We'll admit we're prejudiced about our '59 Dodge. We think it's a great car. And if a new car is in your plans for 1959, we'd like the opportunity to convince you of this. How about giving us a chance, to show you this Dodge, to point out its many exclusive advances, to hand over the keys so that you can drive it and draw your own conclusion. We're ready any time you are. Why not make it soon?

Tuttle Co. Moves Here February 15

First in a series of moving dates—Feb. 15—will start the arrival in Tecumsen of the H. W. Tuttle Co. from its present Adrian locations.

Interior renovation work will be completed by mid-February so that the 100-odd pieces of Tuttle machinery — punch presses, spot welding gear, metal forming and tool room equipment—can be installed.

The office and engineering addition won't be done until the end of next month and the balance of the move will come then, explains, H. W. Tuttle, Jr., executive-president.

"If it means living between the two plants for 30 days we'll do it. It can't be much worse than now," he said.

☆

IN ADRIAN, the Tuttle firm has several locations, one three stories high, making an efficient production flow impossible.

The Tecumseh arrangement at the former Admiral building on S. Evans St., will be vastly different, explains Mr. Tuttle.

"We purchased a shell of a building When everything is complete, we'll have a model plant. (All manufacturing will be on one level.

"New heating, wiring, plumbing and air lines are being installed.

☆

"IN ADDITION the interior will be painted in various tones following the Pittsburgh Paints Co. 'Dynamics Color' plan.

"It helps create safer working conditions (danger areas on floor and machines are painted red, for example) and gives workers greater eye-ease," Mr. Tuttle added.

He expects that about 60 days will be needed to reach a semblance of order after all portions of the business have been moved.

Exterior painting and landscaping will not be completed until May or June.

New Plant Going Up Here

Construction of a new plant in Tecumseh will be started in late summer or early fall.

Arrangements are being made by Thornton Products Co., a patent licensing firm which is gradually moving from its present Dearborn locale to Tecumseh.

Being built by Ted Templeton and Joe Weyn as Templeton Construction Co., it will be used for one of three things, or a combination of this trio: 1. Light metals plating; 2. Chemical manufacturing; 3. Automobile parts manufacturing.

The plant here will be situated on a 10-acre plot on S. Maumee St., directly east of the United Products Workers Union Hall.

Preliminary plans for the structure are now on the drawing board, explains Mr. Weyn.

Thornton offices are being built along Tecumseh-Clinton Rd., opposite River Acres by Templeton Construction Co. They should be ready in late March.

At present, Thornton Products Co. has licensed Lightmetals Plating and Chemical Co. exclusively in Michigan with a revolutionary lightmetals plating process. This firm, of which Mr. Weyn is a vice-president and director, operates a plant in Wayne, Mich.

The Lightmetals board of directors meets in two weeks to consider phases of the operation here.

'Crash' Plans Could Be Ended With New Fund

How the city can avoid "crash" financing and at the same time help citizens with installation of necessary utilities was discussed at last week's Rotary meeting.

These objectives could be realized if voters approve a revolving fund of $100,000 in a special election next month, Rotarians were told.

Conducting the session were Dr. Richard Coak and Don Murphy, representing the Chamber of Commerce, which advocates adopting the the fund.

On hand to participate in a question-and-answer period were all members of the city councilmen and manager Ed Nelson.

Dr. Coak outlined the revolving fund.

He stated that the city would sell bonds worth $100,000, paying approximately 3% interest.

In turn it would provide for sewer and water lines, curb and gutter or sidewalks — all items which are assessed to property owners. They in turn would pay the city in installments at about 4½% interest over a period of several years.

At no time could the $100,000 be used for any improvements which would not be repaid, the Chamber president said.

Passed two years ago, the state law, which permits revolving funds, requires that the city at all times have the total amount either in cash or accounts receivable.

☆

WHY A figure of $100,000?

Mr. Nelson explained that right now a portion of Tecumseh Acres, needing sewer and water, will cost $90,000.

Should the fund be OKeyed next month, this project would be started as soon as the city bonds are sold.

One-hundred-forty-two homes are involved, Mr. Nelson stated, and for several years now residents there have had considerable trouble with septic tanks and wells.

About one-third of the Tecumseh Acres district has been provided for already.

This was partially done, as most such city projects, on the old "crash" basis — float a loan just large enough to handle the immediate operation.

Dr. Coak pointed out that each year between $15,000 and $20,000 has to be borrowed by the city and it gets to be an expensive proposition, also time consuming.

☆

MR. NELSON added that sometimes it requires three, four and five months to sell bonds. In the case of the new bridge on N. Evans St. eight months were needed.

With adequate funds on hand, city fathers could map a long-range plan, which would include the entire city, not just new housing.

Where sewers and water problems exist in older streets in town, the entire area could be replaced at one time.

Under the old system a single location, which has completely broken down, would be repaired.

In half a year the same might be done for a house two doors down.

Clearance Days Start

An eight-day parade of bargains begins Friday in Tecumseh stores as merchants open January Clearance Days, which run to a week from Saturday. Moving Christmas merchandise is paramount in the minds of shop keepers, who have slashed prices by as much as 50% in many cases. Many of the exceptional buys are listed in this week's Herald advertisements. This promotion is the first in a series of '59 events for area shoppers.

Polio Receives Check for $100 from County Fund

The March of Dimes has received a check for $1,000 from the Lenawee County United Fund.

With the money comes the proviso "that your current campaign goal be reduced by an equal amount and that you join our Lenawee County United Fund campaign efforts in October, 1959 for fiscal year 1960."

The comment is part of a letter sent by Howard White of Deerfield, president of the Lenawee drive, to Paul Ahleman, chairman of the County's March of Dimes chapter.

A similar offer was made last week to Muscular Dystrophy.

Mr. White concludes his correspondence, "May we look forward to a favorable response from you in order that we may work toward a mutually satisfactory solution of this important civic problem."

(Editor's note: Please see in this week's "Voice of The Herald" an editorial pertaining to the current March of Dimes drive, first page, record section.)

When Mayor and Mrs. Oley Hanna went west for an extended vacation just before Thanksgiving he dropped in to say goodbye and promised that he'd write

"I'll just address the letter to the Biggest Little City on Earth Lenawee County" Oley grinned.

Then he told how such a piece of corresppondence had been received here some years ago and he was sure his would arrive in jig time.

True to his word Oley wrote, from Anaheim, Calif., addressing the envelope:

"Tom and Jim
"Long and Short Journalists
"Biggest Little City on Earth
"Lenawee County, Mich."

Now we'd love to report it breezed through without incident, but the note suffered a slight detour.

It arrived to us in an Adrian Daily Telegram envelope with an accompanying note from Hoig Gay, city editor.

"Our ego is completely saturated today.

"Uncle Sam's men in blue delivered the enclosed letter to The Telegram today which certainly must make Adrian the 'Biggest Little City on Earth.'"

Touche, Hoig.

JANUARY CLEARANCE DAYS in Tecumseh stores, which open this week, start a year of monthly promotions by local merchants.

When a whole lineup of stores stage sales simultaneously, the results are bound to be profitable — for the individual merchants and especially for the shoppers hunting bargains.

☆

YOU CAN BE SURE BEYOND any doubt that one of the city's medical men, Dr. Carlton Cook, dearly loves his adopted home.

When the lovely Mrs. Cook presented the medico with his first son (see adjoining picture) after they had had four daughters, Dr. Cook calmly announced what the little fellow's middle name would be,

Tecumseh, what else?

It took Mrs. Cook two days before she was convinced he meant it and when she finally was, she made a smiling comment:

"Carlton will have to do the explaining when the little guy grows up and want to know 'how come?' "

D & C Stores Merge with Green Chain

Tecumseh's D&C stores, along with 32 other Michigan outlets, has been merged with the H. L. Green, Co., Inc., a national variety chain.

Announcement was made by J. H. Dancer, D&C president, of Stockbridge, Mich.

To be known now as H. L. Green, the new chain will consist of 385 stores throughout the United States and Canada.

All personnel, including Mr. Dancer, and P. C. Dancer, secretary and treasurer, and other executives will remain with the merged organization, it was announced by Mr. Dancer and Maurice E. Olen, president of H. L. Green.

Adding over $5,000,000 in sales to H. L. Green's gross sales, the merger is part of a program of acquisition and strengthening of Green's national structure.

It is one of the first major steps taken by the new management since the merger of H. L. Green and the Olen Company of Mobile, Alabama.

D & C Stores has become one of the most respected chains in the Middle West since its founding 30 years ago by the Dancer family.

Consisting of 33 variety stores throughout Michigan, it has been a progressive chain maintaining a high level of sales and earnings throughout its history.

Mr. Dancer said the merger is subject to approval of stockholders at their Jan. 15 meeting.

The merger will give the stores greater buying power, points out Dick Hicks, local manager, and will facilitate getting new items much quicker.

Minnie Gittis Marries Bert R. Moore

The Britton Methodist Church was the scene of a beautiful candlelight New Years Eve wedding when Minnie Gittus became the bride of Bert R. Moore.

Rev. Thurston Taylor performed the double ring ceremony before the altar decorated with poinsettias and evergreen.

A selection of wedding music was played by the organist, Mrs. Fred Schober, while the guests were being seated. She also accompanied the soloist, Kenneth John, of Milan as he sang, "I'll Walk with you" and "Always".

The bride was escorted to the altar by her oldest son, Wilton Gittus, in a street length gown of blue lace on taffeta and her corsage was white orchids.

Barbara Gibson, granddaughter of the bride, was maid of honor in a street length dress of blue taffeta with a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Dick Ehlert, grandson of the groom, served as best man. The ushers were Jerry Ehlert of Deerfield and Jimmy Miller of Britton.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church dining room. The brides table covered with a white linen cloth was centered with a three tiered wedding cake beautifully decorated with white bells and surrounded by white roses.

The cake was baked by Mrs. Wilton Gittus and served by Gail Ehlert. Four other granddaughters, Pat Gibson, Sandra Gittus, Donna Miller and Virginia Ehlert assisted with the serving of ice cream, punch and coffee.

When Mr. and Mrs. Moore left on a wedding trip to Florida, Mrs. Moore was wearing a green two piece knit suit with black accessories. The rehearsal dinner was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Miller Tuesday evening for the wedding party.

ZERO WEATHER STALLS—This week's bitter cold stalled construction work at the H. W. Tuttle Co. plant here, but the end-of-February deadline is still expected to be met. Meanwhile, interior work is scheduled for completion early next month, permitting the first move of machinery to be made Feb. 15.

Mrs. C. E. Morley Dies Last Week Following Fall

Services were held Sunday in Hillsdale for Mrs. Carrie E. Morley who passed away Thursday at Herrick Memorial Hospital where she had been a patient for a week.

Mrs. Morley had been ill for about a month following a fall.

She was taken to Hillsdale Hospital and then to the home of her son, Donald Morley of 711 Ternes Rd. preceding her admittance to Herrick Memorial Hospital.

She was 77-years-old.

☆

MRS. MORLEY was born in Adrian, Feb. 23, 1881, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hack.

She and Mr. Morley were married Sept. 14, 1905, at the home of her parents in Adrian. Mr. Morley died Oct. 23, 1943.

She was a member of the Bacon Street Baptist church in Hillsdale, and was a trustee of the church for years. She was also active in the missionary society and in the Ladies' Aid society.

Surviving are her son, Donald, a sister, Mrs. Rose Rowe of Denver, Colo., seven grandchildren and four great grandchildren. A daughter, Mrs. Beatrice Diremyere of Brooklyn preceded her in death.

Burial was in the Oak Grove Cemetery at Hillsdale.

Sallie Williamson Marries in Monroe

Sallie Ellen Williamson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lucien Williamson of Monroe and granddaughter of the late Naomi Williamson of Tecumseh, was united in marriage last Saturday to Lawrence Patrick Donovan, also of Monroe.

After the ceremony in St. Johns Church a reception was held at the Park Hotel.

Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Leon Williamson, Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Williamson of Kalamazoo and other relatives from Adrian and Morenci.

Our Readers Write

TO The Editors:

My compliments to Herrick Memorial Hospital where I spent a pre-holiday vacation in the newest wing, which I had not yet seen.

I had seen pictures of the new head dietician and food warmer, but I was lucky to have a chance to enjoy it, its tempting dishes supplied with the help of some of the best of cooks, I think.

Then, too, with the help of the efficient doctors associated with this hospital and under the capable supervision of those in charge and the kindness of nurses and aides.

The household staff helped in their cheerful way by their cleanliness and the importance in which they went about their duties, the custodians may have had problems, but for all of me I could have been in Florida.

The children across from my room also helped to keep out the loneliness and make my stay bearable.

The ministers help and prayers, flowers of friends, all helped to speed my recovery allowing me to return home in time to enjoy Christmas with my family.

All I can say is, if space is available and I need help again, you will know where I'll be, if possible. Thanks for the wonderful care and a Happy New Year to one and all.

Mrs. Lucille Warren

To the Editors:

At our recent board of directors meeting a resolution was adopted directing that we offer a sum of money from our campaign overage to three National Health agencies.

We are doing this to carry out the wishes of many of our contributors who have expressed their objections to "too-many-campaigns". This also demonstrates that the United Fund wants all worthwhile community services and health agencies to participate in our campaign.

Sincerely yours,
Howard D. White,
President
Lenawee County United Fund

To the Editors:

While I am down here this Winter I want to keep track of my friends in Michigan and I know of no better way than to take The Herald.

I am therefore enclosing my check and ask that you send my paper to me here until you get instructions to change my address to Britton.

One thing I want for sure and that is that weekly letter from Marda Gene Duncan. My, what a lot of hypochondriacs (most "sick" people) could be cured by reading this part of your paper.

Especially would this be true if they but knew the life story of the author. People with nothing more serious than ulcers would be ashamed to talk about their ailments and then maybe they wouldn't have the ailments any more.

Yours Sincerely

Potluck Supper Preceeds Meeting

Tecumseh chapter No. 51, held their school of instruction Monday evening, January 5th.

The meeting was preceded by a potluck supper, with about 28 officers and members present.

The school was conducted by Erma V. Wolfin, Grand Chaplain, of the Grand Chapter of Michigan, Order of the Eastern Star. Mrs. Wolfin was accompanied to Tecumseh, by her sister, Mrs. Lee Robison, both of Saline, Michigan.

LONG & SHORT

ON THE SUBJECT OF babies, Orrie Gilbert, Herrick Memorial Hospital administrator, reports that during December 69 births were recorded.

With everyone wondering who would be the first baby here in '59, the stork seemed to completely forget Tecumseh, not visiting here until Jan. 3.

Maybe he figured doctors and nurses needed a little rest after that busy December.

☆

ICE COVERED EVERYTHING last week following that New Year's eve rain.

When the Rev. James Nixon saw how slippery the parking lot at his Methodist Church was he phoned city manager Ed Nelson and asked if the town street sander, while in the neighborhood, could make a few passes at the lot and send the Church a bill.

In a short while the truck arrived and sanded the area.

Moments later, Mrs. Nixon happened to glance out the parsonage window. This is what she saw: a group of youngsters sweeping off the sand as quickly as they could. It seems this was their private skating rink.

Mr. Nixon stepped outside and asked the kidds to hold up on the "rink cleaning", suggested he join them in a search for another spot, which they promptly found.

☆

ACCORDING TO THE BIBLE of the car-manufacturing industry, Ward's Automotive Report, production this month will top January of one year ago by 22%.

December was up and would have been better had not strikes hamstrung the Chrysler line.

Car building has always been an excellent barometer for our economy and thus what appeared in this space last week (a prediction that business in Tecumseh was going to be good) should begin proving itself real soon.

'Cold' Indians Continue Losing

A "cold" Tecumseh team continued its losing ways over the holiday vacation, dropping decisions to Adrian, 52-41, and to Monroe Catholic Central, 70-63.

Undefeated Adrian had little trouble with the Indians here Tuesday night of last week, rolling up a 33-17 half time lead and completely dominating play against a jackluster Tecumseh team.

Monroe CC staved off a late rally by the Indians to win at the Lake Erie city last Friday.

The Falcons left the floor at intermission with a 43-22 lead, as the Indians connected on only seven of 43 field goal attempts in the initial two periods.

A full court press in the second half nearly pulled the game out. Tecumseh at one time closed the gap to three points before a final CC spurt iced the game.

Dan Cisco and Larry Yoakum topped local scorers against Adrian with 10 points each.

Four Tecumseh players hit in the double-figures in the CC tilt with Cisco collecting 14 points. Yoakum had 11 and Jack Sisson and Steve Kruger each scored 10.

Adrian	18	15	10	9—52

RACKS UP PAIR—Dan Cisco, leaping from left, starts a twisting jump shot which swished through for a Tecumseh score. Adrian players in dark jerseys are Robert Knight (24), Felix Valdez (23), Dave Matheson (55) and Ed Gallup (45). No. 31 in the corner is Tecumseh's Larry Yoakum. The Indians entertain Airport Friday evening.

Now the 'March'

Folks in the area face a perplexing problem. With the opening of the annual "March of Dimes" drive, we find ourselves reaching once more for our wallets.

The Lenawee County United Fund held recently grouped nearly 40 worthy charities so that we might "give once for all."

But like the misnomer "World Champions", which the U.S. dubs all its professional sports winners, the slogan "once for all" stretches a point.

Conspicuous by their absence were several large charitable groups—Muscular Dystrophy and Polio, to mention two.

The March of Dimes is one of the best known of all and through the years has grown to gigantic proportions. When fund-raising time comes, it marches alone.

Numerous attempts have been made to lure Polio into United Funds all over the nation, but the answer is almost always "no".

In Lenawee County the reason is that not enough could be included in a United budget for the needs of polio, so a separate drive is necessary.

Last year's March produced $20,162.96 in the County. Bills for citizens needing hospitalization, therapy, surgery, braces topped $33,800, which meant the national group will probably be asked to make up the difference of nearly $13,700.

It costs between $800 and $900 each month for a polio patient confined to University Hospital in Ann Arbor. By far, this is probably the greatest outlay per person in any given charity.

After the hospital stay there are usually treatments, operations, and special equipment. Expensive indeed and vitally necessary.

So it's little wonder we puzzle over the dilemma.

And just as most of us gave to Muscular Dytrophy, which sought donations close on the heels of the United Fund, we'll probably come through for the March of Dimes.

Like Working Capital

Tecumseh has established a name for itself in many ways—mainly for compressors built here.

If the proposed $100,000 revolving fund for city improvements is OKeyed by citizens next month, we'll be in the limelight for another reason.

Our city would be the first Michigan municipality to establish such a fund and take advantage of a law enacted 18 months ago by the state legislature.

We fiken revolving fund monies to "working capital".

It gives the city government ready cash for certain needed improvements on a planned, rather than crazy-quilt basis.

One important stipulation is that these improvements only be cases where the city is eventually repaid via special assessments to property owners. Thus, city fathers couldn't use the money to build a park or erect a garage or buy a new snow plow.

Right now there is a pressing problem facing local officials; sewer and water for 142 homes in Tecumseh Acres. As city manager Ed Nelson has pointed out folks there have had to suffer through many hardships.

Some residents have had to shell out several hundred dollars for septic tank and well maintenance, Mr. Nelson has been told.

By far the cheapest and fastest method to bring sewer and water to this area is via a revolving fund. In fact, without it, there is a definite chance that such facilities would be unavailable for three or four years.

This is just one improvement project.

There are many others, which under the revolving fund plan, could be tackled systematically and economically. Older sections of town, plagued with inadequate and balky sewers, would then be brought into the picture.

The city would have available funds for improvements on a board, carefully-planned program.

Citizens no doubt will have many questions about the revolving fund and The Herald suggests to Council that it plan a town meeting on the subject.

At that time each angle of the proposal could be considered and explained.

ONE IN A SERIES 'OUR CHURCHES'

Missionary Baptists Built in '57

Four years ago—Aug. 8, 1954—the Tecumseh Missionary Baptist Church was founded by the Rev. Edgar Owens.

Its 11 members first held services in the Odd Fellows Hall, later moved to the Pythian Hall.

As the number grew, a Church was planned to be located at Cairns and Sunset Sts., the cement block structure was completed in June 1957.

Today the congregation numbers 173. Valuation of the property is $40,000.

Mr. Owens explains that the church has ordained the Rev. Burton Cosby, who is now in school at Pineville, Ky., where he serves as pastor of a nearby church.

Also licensed to preach are the Rev. Otey L. Dyke and the Rev. E. L. Sneed.

☆

WHAT ARE the distinguishing principles of the Missionary Baptists?

Mr. Owens mentions five major points:

1—The Scriptures are the only, all-scientific guide book for our religious life. There may be no appeal from, or addition to their precepts and principles.

2—The individual, and direct relation of every soul to God—none between man and God, save only the God-man.

3—The complete separation of Church and state in their respective fields. The Church dealing with religious, and the state with civil affairs.

4—The simple policy of individual churches governments — each Church a unit and a democracy in itself.

5—The Baptism of believers only as a prerequisite to Church membership. Baptism by immersion only. According to the Scriptures, symbolizing the death, burial and reasurrection of Christ.

Baptist also believe, that the new testament is all the Law of Christianity and that it will always be all the law of Christianity.

"This does not deny the inspiration of the Old Testament", he states for the New Testament is a development of the Old, it affirms, however, that the Old Testament has been fulfilled in Christ, and as a revelation of the way of salvation, was nailed to the Cross of Christ and thereby taken out of the way.

"That the New Testament gives the true idea of the Christian church, its members, its ordinances, its governments, its offices, its worship, its mission, its ritual, or its Ministry."

"The Church, a New Testament institution preaches that salvation is free to all who will accept it, and that it is by grace through faith in the crucified buried and risen Lord Jesus Christ that we are saved," he adds.

☆

FIVE PERCENT of church income is given to our cooperative program for world-wide Mission Work, five per cent is kept for local Mission needs. Here are some of the things that are being done through the cooperative program of Southern Baptist:

1—Support the work of 1,255 missionaries in 40 countries of the world.

2—Enable Home Mission board to establish new work in underchurched areas of our own country and to carry on a ministry among numerous language groups.

3—Support seven Baptist seminaries enrolling nearly 7,000 students.

4—Support 63 Baptist colleges, academies and Bible schools with a total enrollment of more than 60,000.

5—Minister to the sick in 37 hospitals which last year cared for almost 17,000 charity patients

6—Care for almost 5,000 homeless children in 30 orphanages.

7—Aid in the spread of the gospel, which last year reached almost 400,000 souls in America alone.

☆

Hot Rod Show Opens Friday

DETROIT — A display of $1,000,000 worth of cars which seldom if ever take to the road.

That's the story behind the seventh annual Autorama, sponsored by the Michigan Hot Rod Assoc., at the Michigan State Fair Grounds, starting Friday, and continuing through Sunday.

The show opens at noon, continues until 11 p.m.

As an added attraction this year, a huge variety show composed of some of the nation's greatest recording stars will be featured.

Proceeds of the event will be used to complete and to modernize the 43-acre drag racing site near Selfridge Field.

The M.H.R.A. has spent more than $50,000 to date on the project but still has a long ways to go before it will match the strips in California and other West Coast states.

Korean Vets Can Convert Insurance

Approximately 45,000 Korean veterans in Michigan who hold non-convertible five-year level premium term insurance are now able to convert their term insurance to one of six permanent plans of Veterans Special Life Insurance.

Applications should be made now and the term insurance policy must be in force at the time of conversion. Written application for conversion must be filed.

If they desire, eligible persons may exchange their present term policy for a limited convertible five year term policy.

Premium rates for Veterans Special Life Insurance are generally lower than the rates for WWI and WWII insurance. The insurance will be issued on a non-participating basis, that is, no dividends will be payable.

Detailed information is available at all VA offices or hospitals.

Auto Owners Must Get Applications

James M. Artman, of the local Secretary of State's office, issued a word of warning this week to those motorists who have not yet purchased their 1959 auto license plates.

Due to the fact that no forms are being sent out from Lansing this year, it will be necessary for motorists to pick up their applications for plates prior to time of purchase to avoid the last-minute rush.

Background for the Study of Bible Opens

Methodists in Tecumseh will hear sermons on the general subject of "Background for Bible Study" the next three Sundays.

The Rev. James D. Nixon points out that, as the series theme suggests, these sermons deal with how to study the Bible, rather than being a study of specific biblical material.

On Jan. 11 the theme will be "The Bible — to Date", dealing with the formation and transmission of the Bible and the origin of various versions.

"On Asking the Right Questions" will be the theme for Jan. 18. The pastor will suggest the kinds of questions that one should ask in studying scripture.

☆

THE SERMON on Jan. 25, "Changeless Truth in a Changing World", will conclude the series.

Mr. Nixon has sent a letter to the membership of the church about this series.

A further element in this Sunday's service will be the observance of the 131st Anniversary of the founding of the church.

Sunday evening the School of Missions will meet for the second time, with lunch at 5:30 and closing at 7:15 p.m. With Bible study in the morning and Mission study in the evening, Methodists should have plenty of "home work" in January, muses Mr. Nixon.

With Tecumseh Teens

BY MARY V. SEAGER

SCHOOL RESUMED ON MONDAY after sixteen days of exhausting Christmas vacation. There was a continuous string of parties, dances, and open houses for the teen-agers of the town.

It began with the high school dance the nineteenth of December. On the twentieth there was a record shop at the Teen Club. The Teen Club Christmas Dance with a live band was held Dec. 26. The twenty-seventh, Saint Elizabeth's Fellowship held a record dance.

Sunday evening the twenty-eighth, there was an open-house at Jane Crawford's home on Outer Drive. About eighty high school and college students attended. There was a New Year's Dance at the Catholic school. After the Adrian game there was an open-house at Jim Randall's home on Red Mill Drive. There were over one hundred high school and college students attending the party.

There was an open house at Doris Oliphant's home on Maiden Lane and a Teen Club record dance after the Monroe C.C. game last Friday.

Many tired and run-down students descended on the high school only to find that there are tests and book reports due.

☆

OVER VACATION THERE was a meeting of the Scout staff at Marilou Layton's House to set up the issue due to be published and sold on the thirteenth of January.

'Managing Your Family's Credit'

If one of your 1959 resolutions is to straighten up family finances, the Michigan State University leaflet, "Managing Your Family's Credit" may come to a timely rescue.

The publication is authored by Lucile Ketchum, extension specialist in home management and may be obtained by request to Bulletin Office, Agricultural Hall, Michigan State University.

COLORED INDEX CARDS

Using colored index cards for your recipe file is a good idea suggested by Michigan State University extension home economists. Try white ones for meat, pink for desserts, green for salads. It gives an efficient life to the recipe box.

What Is The Largest "Farm Group" In Michigan?

112,000 Farm Families That Regularly Save Trading Stamps Are The Biggest "Farm Group" In Michigan.

America's farm families are traditionally thrifty. The same pattern of thrift is found in Michigan. It is only natural, therefore, that the response of Michigan farm families to one of the oldest forms of thrift—the trading stamp—is so noticeable.

Today over 112,000 farm families save them. You might almost say that these savers constitute the largest single farm group in the state.

During 1957 alone, thousands of dollars worth of trading stamp merchandise went into farm households in the state, and every 2 seconds a farm family is redeeming trading stamps.

There is still another side—direct income for farmers. During 1957 the stamp industry purchased from Michigan farmers $975,000 worth of primary materials that go into the manufacture of merchandise for stamp redemption.

No one can contemplate these facts and fail to realize that both personally and economically the trading stamp industry is a meaningful and welcome force in the life of our state.

This message is published as public information by THE SPERRY AND HUTCHINSON COMPANY, originator 63 years ago of S&H Green Stamps.

Class in Government Tours County Offices

BRITTON—The American Government Class of Britton-Macon High School recently toured the County jail, the administration building and the court house in Adrian.

They were accompanied by their teacher, Russell Spalding.

When they visited the offices, each official gave a short report of the function of his position.

After lunch they visited the Court building and listened in at a meeting of the county supervisors.

Later Judge Rex Martin spoke to them about various court trials and stated that divorce cases were among the most numerous of those handled.

Food Industry Did Big Job During 1958

NEW YORK—The nation's food industry did the greatest job in its history in 1958, and is faced with an even bigger job in 1959, Ralph W. Burger, president and board chairman of The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company, says.

"The entire industry, including farmers, processors and distributors, can be proud of its collective accomplishment during 1958," Mr. Burger said. "It provided more good food and better service to more people than ever before, and by so doing, rendered a real public service.

"I am impressed with the great progress in our industry during the past ten years due to research, technological advances and the continuing drive for greater efficiency.

Mr. Burger cited five major facets of the industry's accomplishment during the past year:

1) There are almost 3,000,000 more people in the United States today than at the end of 1957, and the food industry has had to provide the food and facilities to serve this growing population.

2) The food industry did a great job in holding food prices down despite rising costs. During the month of November the cost of food declined for the fourth straight month, at a time when the overall consumer cost-of-living index was creeping steadily upward to hit an all-time high of 123.9.

3) To provide improved service, retailers built thousands of new stores and did major remodeling on additional thousands of existing outlets. This represented a total investment of well over $1 billion in construction and inventory.

4) The trend towards built-in services to simplify the housewife's tasks through package mixes, pre-packaging of foods and the expansion of the Frozen food industry continued at a phenomenal pace.

5) The entire food industry adhered to its traditional low-profit rate. Chain retailers, for instance, continued to operate at the low rate of 1.25 cents profit on each dollar of sales, while the profit rate for food manufacturers was two-and-a-half cents.

"All these factors served to keep the American public the best-fed people in the world", Mr. Burger said. "Per capita food consumption is approximately one-eighth higher than in the years immediately preceding World War II."

Mr. Burger attributed this progress to two major factors: first, the industry's recognition of its public service responsibility; and the intense nature of the competition existing in the food business.

"Some idea of the healthy competition existing in the food business," he said, "may be gained from the fact that there are about 40,000 food manufacturers, 3,500 canners and frozen food packers, 5,000 meat packers, 6,400 bakeries and 385,000 food stores in the United States.

"And there are millions of farm families producing the food to feed America.

Commenting on the need for further progress, Mr. Burger emphasized the fact that the food industry is dealing in the prime necessity of life that takes 25 to 30 per cent of the family's budget.

"Here lies our great opportunity and responsibility," he said. "Today the average family budget is subject to many strains. In many cases, income has been reduced.

"A large part of the expendable income of most families has already been committed for payment on insurance, homes, automobiles, home appliances and other things that they bought on time. In all cases, the problem is complicated by the inflationary pressures that have resulted in higher costs and reduced purchasing power in the dollar.

"It is obvious that in such a situation the food industry must continue its never-ending search for more efficient cost-saving methods all along the line."

Here Are Tips on Plant Care

You may be comfortable in your "winterized" living room but not so the flowering plants you received for Christmas or New Year's.

How to keep them blooming and healthy?

1. Keep plants in a cool spot in bright light (even direct winter sun may be good). Choose a location free of drafts and subject to as little temperature change as possible.

2. Water with rain water, melted snow or distilled water when the soil is just dry to the touch.

Hard city water, chlorinated, or artificially softened water is never entirely satisfactory, and plants may show signs of deterioration after three to four months of using such water.

The poinsettia, a tropical plant, is especially sensitive to drafts and temperature change. If placed in a cold place, leaves may drop. Night temperatures should not be lower than 60 degrees. Keep in good light and water immediately if the plant begins to wilt.

Cyclamen will tolerate cooler night temperatures than the poinsettia — down to a minimum of 50 degrees. Put it in a bright, cool corner also. Keep the soil moist, but avoid getting water in the crown or it may rot.

Sponsored by Teen Tours, the seniors will travel by the B & O railroad.

Army Offering Series of Free Motion Pictures

ANN ARBOR—The Ann Arbor Army Reserve Center is inaugurating a series of movie nights that will show films free to the public.

On the first program—Feb. 6—will be a sound picture of "The Nurenberg War Trials."

The monthly programs will be presented at the Reserve Center, 524 Main St., the first Friday night of every month.

The films will be Army-released productions similar to those seen on the television hour, "The Big Picture."

Those scheduled for showing here include "Face to Face With Communism"; "Survival in Atomic Attack"; "Why Korea?"; "Battle of the Marianna Islands"; and "All-Time Sporting Events."

Groups and clubs may reserve seats on movie nights by calling the Army Reserve Center, NO2-0566, a week in advance of the showings.

In addition, if an organization wishes a similar movie program at its meeting place, it may be obtained via requests made a month in advance. All such service is performed free of charge.

The programs will run on an average of an hour and a half.

GIRLS CARRY TREES TO BURNING AREA TO START SUNDAY'S CEREMONY

Girls Shiver at Sunday's Ceremony

"Shivers" took over at the annual Burning of the Greens, second annual Twelfth Night celebration, staged by the Tecumseh Girl Scouts Sunday afternoon in near-zero weather.

Braving the freezing blasts at Recreation Field Troops 16 and 17, under the direction of their leaders, Mrs. Victor Peterson and Joanne Johnston, got the procession under way.

Each troop had a tree for the flames and they piled together by the girls as they marched around.

Inez Boltz read the scripture from St. Matthew. Camilla Grigg gave the prologue followed by the group singing, "O Christmas Tree" led by Susan Day.

Cynthia Poley read a poem and the group again sang before the fire was lighted by Mrs. Robert Anderson.

Evelyn Beland gave the epilogue followed by the benediction spoken by Susan Harris.

Through My Window

Black Hoods And Yellow Bills

The little Juncos do their best to help compensate for the loss of those timorous souls who, at the first inkling of cold weather, beat a hasty retreat to the warmer climes. True children of the winter, the Juncs are never happier than when hopping about on the hard crust of a snow blanket.

This snow bird is an odd looking little fellow. His round head is completely covered by a black hood — a hood which, nicely blends with the black on his back and is in sharp contrast to the pearly gray vest which covers his lower abdomen.

A ridiculously small but amazingly bright yellow bill pokes through the black hood and his eyes are so small and dark that they are unnoticeable.

Unfailing field identification marks are the two white outer tail feathers. When the bird flies these are most noticeable.

☆

THESE SPARROW-SIZE, stout hearted birds were once called Snow Birds, but that picturesque name is used now only as a description.

Junco hyemalis hyemalis is their scientific name and for some unknown reason we, the unscientific bird watchers, have adopted the first of the technical name for our own use. Junco is now the name in vogue.

Just to make the name question thoroughly confusing the origin of the name Junco is unknown. One theory is that it is the corruption of the Latin word juncus which means seed.

In the winter the Juncs are completely vegetarian; their day-long search for food is aimed at the weed seeds which are either scattered on top of the snow or are still clinging to the brown, dead looking stalks that stick up through all but the deepest of snow drifts.

Many people find these little black hooded birds regulars at their bird feeder. They are, it seems, not above supplementing their weed seed diet with a free hand-out of scratch feed.

ALTHOUGH WE SEE lots of Juncos, they have never become daily visitors to our feeding trays. We watch them flitting about, playing on our post and rail fence, and hopping across the snow but only occasionally do they drop in at the station for a free meal.

Actually these little birds are more fun to watch at a distance than they are up close. When on the feeder, only about three feet from the window, their black, black hood with only the tiny bills to offer relief, gives them a dummy uncomplete look.

They are most unphotogenic. We have tried and tried to get a good picture, but the results are always disappointing.

After all, who wants a picture of an apparently eyeless bird with only a speck of yellow where the bill should be?

On the ground, however, or playing about in the trees, their appearance is quite a different matter. There they are quite amusing to watch.

☆

THEIR MOVEMENTS are lightening fast and when flying away, a cocky flip of the tail shows the two white tail feathers. On the ground, they move about in a way pecular to themselves.

With toes spread wide and legs moving together, they bound about in a stiff-legged hop; it is a bit similar to the Bluejay but much more exaggerated.

Although we enjoy watching the four or five Juncos that play in our yard and along the creek bank, our biggest Junco thrill came two years ago.

It was October and we were taking a color tour of the Upper Peninsula.

Just as we entered McClain State Park on the western side of the Keweenaw Peninsula everything — trees, ground, road and even the air itself become alive with little black birds showing white streaks on either side of their black tails.

We were in the midst of a fall migration and how exciting it was. Even a rough estimate as to the number of birds was an impossibility. There must have been thousands.

☆

THE PARK contained many magnificient maple trees and we were fortunate to be there when the gorgeous colors were at their best.

The trees were topped with banks of gold and, of course, a carpet of the same rich color covered the ground.

Imagine driving through such a fairyland—the warm fall sunshine filtered through the golden leaves, and on the ground, hopping through the dapple pattern of sunlight and shadow which fell on the leaf carpet, were thousands of black headed Juncos.

The Juncs in our own yard are fun but we still never forget the excitement of encountering them in such an uncountable quantity.

OIL YOUR TV?

A lady asked us a good question at COOK ELECTRIC . . . "Why should my television need servicing; there are no parts that move and need oiling? Why should it wear out?

It proves that the average person has mechanical understanding and they apply it to electronics. I pointed to a nearby electric light bulb and asked how often it burned out and needed replacement. I explained about electronic friction in connection with heat, and that TV, radio and other electric devices do wear out and need replacements and servicing. There is theory and electronic practice to figure out that is not along the same lines as mechanics.

I'm not sure that I answered this lady right because she suggested that I get rid of that friction right away.

When you phone 692-J you'll discover that we'll do our best to answer your questions, and mainly, do a job that will be satisfactory.

THE Long & Short OF IT

By TOM RIORDAN

ONE GOOD WAY TO FIND out how retail business was in Tecumseh during December is via parking-meter receipts.

Don Murphy of the Chamber of Commerce did some checking and here are his findings, comparing the immediate past month with one year ago.

December 1957 ..... $365.50
December 1958 ..... 558.45

WATCH FOR SOME IMPORTANT developments on the Community Center project within the next few weeks.

☆

TIM NEILL, TECUMSEH PRODucts safety director, used to be a professional football player.

Those days are long gone, but Tim is still a battler—now instead of knocking down opposing linemen though he's fighting accidents on the job.

From a glance at the current record, Tim is doing a bang-up job.

Going into the New Year, Products employees had turned in 2,104,958 work hours without a lost-time accident.

In the current issue of the plant publication, The TP Broadcast, Tim congratulated the workers and then asks, "Can we make it three million?"

We'd like to add our praise and hope that the 3,000,000 is reached.

☆

THERE'S A NASTY RACKET going on around town.

Victims are daily newspaper carrier boys and some householders.

One delivery boy has been nicked for $20, another $8, reports Harold Sisson who distributes dailies in the Tecumseh area.

A few readers have found themselves paying twice.

Several brazen teenagers, who are not paper boys, have been collecting along various routes.

Mr. Sisson warns that customers should know their carrier boys and only pay them.

He points out that every customer is entitled to a card which is punched each time a collection is made, thus protecting him from having to pay twice.

If a strange boy stops at your home and says he is collecting, it might be well if you question him closely. In case of anything suspicious, telephone police.

VINEGAR-TONGUED Charley Haun is a throw-back to the olden days of daily newspapering in the way he talks — or rather shouts — at everyone.

But his outlook at the profession is as modern as interplanetary missiles.

Charley is picture editor of The Detroit Free Press.

He spoke — that is, bellowed — at a group of editors, publishers and lensmen during a photography workshop I attended at Wayne State University Friday.

"People don't just read, they see," Charley growled at us.

He explained that too many editors think only in terms of stories. Almost as an after thought they say, "We better have a picture."

While a city deskman, Charley became keenly interested in the use of pictures in the Free Press half a dozen years ago. He saw great possibilities in attacking news from the pictorial angle.

Apparently never one to withhold his thoughts, Charley soon found himself picture editor.

He told his audience that editors had to take a new attitude towards pictures.

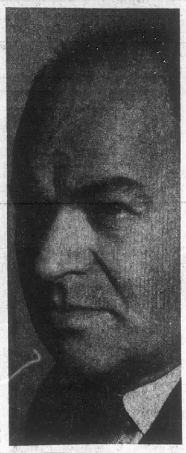
"Photography is a language," Charley twanged, "Since its invention just over 100 years ago, photography has done more to tell us history than any written words."

"What makes a good picture?" he asked himself, then added, "I'm still trying to find out."

The volatile Mr. Haun confided to the group he knew nothing about photography — only what rubs off — and he didn't want to. What he does is sit in judgement for half a million or so Free Press readers when a batch of pictures is tossed on his desk.

If a shot tells Charley something, it will do the same for his unseen audience, he reasons. That's the one he'll use.

Careful cropping and enlargement of certain portions helps bring out the real heart of a photo.



CHARLEY HAUN

Charley pointed out something that every editor should realize — but probably doesn't — pictures get 100% readership. If a news story has 75% of the readers view it, that's excellent. An average of article readership would be somewhere near 25%.

But everyone sees the pictures.

Charley's conclusion on this point is that a lot more attention should be given pix, the best-read part of our papers.

"Editing of a picture starts before it is taken," he said. Charley almost always confers with his cameramen (and the Free Press has 19) before sending them on assignment. It is here that most ideas are carefully planned.

"You wouldn't have a house built without seeing the plans. It's the same with pictures," he grunted at us.

Someone asked about "rules of thumb" to be used in editing pictures.

Charley snapped, "Rules have been the curse of photography."

A young cameraman ventured a question: "What if your editor only allows you to use two pieces of film for a job?"

"Film is the cheapest part of this thing. The expensive part is paying for jerks like you," and Charley grinned. The youngster reddened and edged down in his seat, probably thinking he'd love to fire at Charley — and not with his camera.

But like him or not, Charley had made some excellent points.

WHEN BOYSVILLE IS MENTIONED, a few uninformed folks imagine some sort of detention home for juvenile delinquents.

This couldn't be farther from the truth.

Boysville is a boarding school, in fact it rates as one of the best in the country.

Its faculty is exceptionally well-trained. Being members of a religious order, the teachers are completely devoted to educating their charges. This is their life work.

The misunderstanding about Boysville seems to arise because 98% of its students come from broken homes. Either there is a divorce or a drunken parent who abuses the boy, making it impossible for the young man to have a normal home life. Through his parish priest he is sent to Boysville.

The youth may have faced unusual problems during the early years of his life, but this doesn't make him a delinquent.

In the case of others attending Boysville, those with normal home life, the situation is usually one where a youngster has an educational difficulty which the brothers will tackle in special sessions.

This is strictly the case of a parent taking advantage of the background and talent of the Boysville faculty.

In 25 Years, Bank Has Grown 30 Times

By JIM LINCOLN

An institution affecting our lives daily helping, controlling and maintaining our high standard of living has just completed an amazing 25-year record.

The United Savings Bank of Tecumseh closed its books Dec. 31 on a record which resounds with emphasis on growth and prosperity. Officers and directors can be proud, and justly so.

Elsewhere in this issue of The Herald, readers can compare records and see exactly what has taken place here since 1933 when the local bank was reorganized.

The bank's resources alone have jumped from $207,789.48 to $3,989,844.90, an increase of nearly 30 times. Undivided profits total over $120,000.

Growth abounds everywhere. Personnel has increased from six to 22 now, and there are now 11 directors compared to seven.

"Our growth is due to the growth of the community and the bank's deep interest in the welfare of its customers, whether they're borrowers or depositors," exclaims John R. Thompson, bank president.

The bank contemplates further growth, and last August it purchased the three-story building in which it is located at the intersection of Chicago Blvd. and N. Evans St.

Definite plans as to the use of the upper two stories of the building have not been completed.

In 1953 the bank expanded, taking over what was Green's Clothing store, and completely remodeled the interior and front. All new fixtures and some new equipment were added at the time. The cost of $60,000 has since been written off.

Mr. Thompson and Glenn VanDenbergh, vice president, were with the bank when it reorganized in 1933. At that time Mr. Thompson was cashier and Mr. VanDenbergh, assistant cashier.

Other original officers were E. E. Hendershot, president, and George U. Smith, vice president. Clerks were Bernice I. Duncan and Marjorie Barber Moon.

Guy E. Belding was the second president, retiring a little over a year ago when he was succeeded by Mr. Thompson. Mr. Belding remains on the board of directors.

Britton Gets New Cage Coach

BRITTON—With school board approval pending Wednesday night, Vern Neidlinger, rural Tecumseh, has been appointed to succeed Moses Walker as Britton-Macon basketball coach.

Mr. Neidlinger, a veteran in the coaching circles, has been recommended by Supt. Russell Spalding. He is a graduate of Western Michigan and has 11-years of coaching experience.

The 31-year-old Walker was relieved of his coaching duties last Thursday by the school board. The board's action affected only his coaching, not his teaching in the school.

Supt. Spalding says the reasons for the board's dismissing Walker as coach arose from differences between him and the youthful mentor.

"The way he handled the team and the way he took directions," (administrative)," explained Supt. Spalding, "are the reasons for Mr. Walker's dismissal as basketball coach."

☆

THE SCHOOL official says rumors and misquotes in other newspapers supposedly by him and board members caused some tension in the community, but they have since eased.

"I did not tell him how to coach the team, what players to use, or anything of the sort," says Supt. Spalding.

Walker reportedly accuses the official of yielding to a small pressure group. Mr. Spalding denies this, saying dismissal simply resulted from differences between the two.

Coach Neidlinger has been tutoring the squad this week and will be on the bench when the Tories tangle Friday night at home against Whiteford. Britton's record is 6-1.

Last Friday, Supt. Spalding handled the reins with the Tories whipping North Adams, 49-41.

Fog Wednesday Closes Schools

Dense fog and slippery driving conditions prompted all Tecumseh schools to be closed early Wednesday afternoon so that bus pupils could be transported home.

WABJ MANAGER RESIGNS

Tom Fish has resigned as Tecumseh manager of Radio Station WABJ after serving in the capacity since October. No replacement has been announced as yet.

It's A Family Affair

John Deere Day in Tecumseh, as staged by Whelan's Implement Co., has established quite a reputation for itself over the years.

Each January area farmers and their families come to town for the all-day affair, which features movies at the Strand Theatre furnished by the Deere Co. and a free meal served by the Tecumseh Grange at Whelan's store.

More than 575 guests were on hand Monday for the day.

Beginning with an hour of films in the morning, the group broke for lunch promptly at noon.

Awaiting their arrival was a team of Grange members, directed by Mrs. Floyd Barrett.

They manned several long, cafeteria-type tables, laden with piping hot beef stew, bread and butter, donuts, coffee and milk.

The rear of the Whelan layout, usually loaded with implements being repaired, was transformed into a spotless dining hall.

Within a matter of 25 minutes the nearly-600 guests were served. And they ate and drank heartily — 200 pounds of top-grade beef, 40 loaves of bread, 58 dozen donuts 25 gallons of coffee.

Whelan's has promoted official John Deere Day 23 years, as long as the company has offered the films to its dealers.

Before that, stretching all the way back to 1925, the firm staged its own "Day."

The late Hoyt Whelan, who took over the local implement dealership in the early Twenties, assisted by his wife, would locate a well-worn tractor.

With about 75 guests on hand, company representatives would tear down the vehicle, replace worn parts, point out proper maintenance procedures. Then there would be hot dogs and coffee.

One year, the Deere Co. was introducing a new grain grinder and wanted to show Whelan guests how well it worked. Mrs. Whelan said if they'd grind her flour she'd make pancakes and sausage. That proved quite a workout.

In 1928, Mr. Whelan died and Mrs. Whelan, in her words, "kept the business going some how" until Faye could complete his junior and senior years at Michigan State and take over.

He has been at the helm ever since and is being assisted by son Dick.

Always there was a special day for Whelan customers who often come from as far as 40 miles.

This year, in addition to the usual program, Faye offered a free dynamometer check to farmers who brought in their tractors, a service normally costing $5 plus time and materials. Many took advantage of it.

Said George Cagney of Dexter, Deere's territory manager, "Nobody does a better job than Faye at getting out the crowd."

Jaycees Will Again Present 'M' Glee Club Show Here

Several projects were adopted by the Tecumseh Jaycees last Thursday night, including bringing the University of Michigan Glee Club here to the Strand Theater, Feb. 26.

Members approved equipping monument park, just north of Raisin River bridge on N. Evans Street, with facilities for picnics.

Replacing or repairing the high school's public address system; donation of $25 to the Teen Club towards purchasing a hi-fi set; and to buy two tumbling mats for Boy Scout Troop 4.

Plans are nearing completion for a Jaycee state basketball tourney here Feb. 19-20.

At the Feb. 5 meeting, Bosses Night, a distinguished service award will be made along with the selection of the area's outstanding young farmer. An expert on the St. Lawrence Seaway will be the speaker.

Neighbors Help Save Herd, Barn

TIPTON — A telephone party-line alert system here helped save 61 Holstein cows and a barn from being completely destroyed by fire Tuesday night.

A freak blaze at the Clifford Hardy farm on Munger Rd. began at 7:30 and so badly burned 14 animals they had to be destroyed.

Valued at $6,000, they were covered by insurance. The remainder of the 75-head herd — mostly registered—was unhurt.

Here is how it happened and how the phone system averted disaster.

Hired man Raymond Strachm had just completed milking and was in the milk house adjoining the barn.

He heard a commotion among the cows and returned to find one row of stanchion ablaze and saw flames leap over the alley to the opposite side.

Mr. Strachm notified Mrs. Hardy, who in turn phoned Tipton operator, Mrs. Fay Luce. She immediately rang neighbors closest to the farm and they responded on the run.

Then she phoned the Tecumseh fire department, which arrived shortly afterwards. In the meantime, the neighbors had held the fire in check with hand extinguishers and cans of milk.

The fire apparently started when a 100-watt light bulb exploded and scattered sparks in straw beneath the animals.

"Due to the telephone system and good neighbors, our large barn and adjoining buildings were saved," Mrs. Hardy said.

Unconscious Since Sunday, Man Dies Wednesday Morning

Frederick Anderson of Hendershot Highway passed away Wednesday morning after suffering a stroke Sunday afternoon from which he never regained consciousness.

He has been in failing health for the past seven years after suffering another stroke at that time.

Mr. Anderson, 76, was born in Macon township Nov. 2, 1882 the son of Samuel and Hannah Anderson.

A retired farmer, his entire life was spent in the area.

Survivors are his wife, Mary; three daughters, Mrs. Glenn VanVleet, Mrs. Ray Williams, Mrs. George Nicholls of Jackson; four grandsons, three granddaughters and one sister, Mrs. Tillie Hunt of Rockwell City, Iowa.

He was preceded in death by five brothers and two sisters besides his parents.

Funeral services will be held Friday at the Collins-Corkery Funeral Home at 2 p.m. Burial will be in Ridgeway cemetery.

$1,000 to Cancer If Local Chapter Joins United Fund

The American Cancer Society in Lenawee County may have $1,000 from the County's United Fund, if it will join future group drives.

This marked the third organization to be contacted by Howard White, County Fund president, with such an offer.

Previously, Muscular Dystrophy and the March of Dimes received similar offers.

As in the case of the others, the Cancer Society was told it could have had $1,000 for its current budget, if it would come into next year's United Fund.

Home Environment and Personality Traced in Film

"Preface to a Life" is the title of a film to be shown to the parents of children enrolled in the Tecumseh Nursery School.

It deals with the influence of home environment on personality and adjustment, picturing a baby and the course his development could take depending on what his parents do about their dreams for his future.

Four possibilities are traced:

1—If he were victim of their conflict.

2—If his mother's overprotection won out.

3—If his father's demanding attitudes dominated.

4—If they were flexible.

The film will be shown Monday at 9:15 p.m. the Schroer residence, 806 Red Mill Drive.

Anyone interested in seeing it may arrive at that time.

The meeting for nursery mothers, however, begins promptly at 8 p.m.

Gloria Dei Will Choose 3 Councilmen

Members of Gloria Dei Lutheran Church will hold their annual congregational meeting Thursday, Jan. 15 at 7:30 p.m.

Highlights of this meeting will include the election of three councilmen to fill expired terms, the consideration of the purchase of an organ and acceptance of the pastor's resignation.

The reports for the year will outline evolution from pre-organization status, with services held in the High School, and with about 20 families committed to the proposed congregation to an organized group with over 40 families who own a chapel that has been remodeled.

Plus this there has been two expansion efforts to provide more seating space, a parish house which provides facilities for a Sunday School that has doubled.

"The aspect that is most important in the development over the past year is that the church has taken its place in the community and has been well accepted," states the Rev. Bob Bergman. This makes possible the effective Christian Witness and Service for which the church has been planted."

You Told Us

BY DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Some Tecumseh residents are beginning to have the worn haggard look that comes from burning the midnight oil with income tax return forms. It used to be a standing joke around our house about this time of year when mother and dad got at the annual job, first thing we knew they weren't speaking to each other.

The merry twinkling of their eyes was the only thing that made us realize that it was only in fun and they were still grateful to be citizens of the good old USA.

Some still have a while before being confronted with the problem so they are entertaining and not worrying—yet.

Liquor Commission Files Violations Against VFW Club

Violation reports affecting the Tecumseh VFW Club have been filed with the State Liquor Commission, local police and James Qigley, state liquor agent, report.

Violations were incurred early Saturday morning, Dec. 27, after the club manager, bartender and club board member were abusive to the police.

The men admitted drinking at the bar after closing house.

Police Chief George Kilbourn says local officers were refused admittance to the bar about 4:30 a.m.

State regulations require the bar to close at 2 a.m. and patrons must be out by 2:30.

When police were rebuked, they contacted Mr. Qigley.

A hearing before the state commission is expected in the near future.

'Please Hand Me The Asprin' — Coach Lawson

Airport rolled over Tecumseh last Friday night, 62-53, handing the Indians their sixth straight loss.

Coach Vic Lawson's cagers will attempt to snap their losing streak and cop their first league win here Friday evening against Bedford.

Larry Yoakum, top Indian scorer, kept the Airport fray from turning into a rout with 20 points. Airport's Andy Herman his for 26 and teammate Lowell Potrata, 22.

Not until the final period were the Indians able to close the gap against Airport, and then outscored their opponents by only three points.

Mentor Lawson used 10 players in an attempt to halt the skidding Indians who have yet to hit the bucket consistently, either from the field or free throw line.

Yoakum was the only Tecumseh scorer to break the double figure column.

Tax Aid for Farmers

There is nothing magic about a good farm account book, but it sure helps to take the hokuspocus out of filing Federal Income Tax Returns, so says Louis G. Hall, County Extension Agent.

At the request of many Michigan farmers, a simple and practical farm account book has been prepared by Michigan State University accountants which removes not only much of the mystery about tax reporting, but also reduces the overpayment of taxes resulting from sloppy bookkeeping procedures.

This supplying of books in response to a state-wide request for assistance to farmers in financial management has resulted in banks and other business agencies joining forces to distribute more than 40,000 books a year in Michigan.

☆

IN MOST CASES these have been donated by the banks, or other distributing agencies, at no cost to the farmer.

Bankers know that their farmer clients will be more successful businessmen is their management decisions and credit needs are based on a good set of books.

Farmers are learning that the income tax computations are also used for reporting social security taxes due the government. Thus, the same books solves two perplexing problems to the farmer with the same stroke of the pencil.

The response to this educational service is growing and County Extension Agent Hall suggests that farmers contact his office or their local banker for a copy of this book for use in

Post Office Drivers Honored

Tecumseh post office vehicle drivers were singled out for outstanding performance in safety during 1958 by the Chicago Regional Operations Director Robert R. Justus, it was announced by Jack G. Metcalf postmaster here.

For a second straight year the seven-member Tecumseh team, which distributes mail and parcel post packages, turned in a perfect record — not a single accident.

Among its members are Percy Bowen, Roger Gillespie, Jack Dull, Dean Craig, Percy Cadmus, Mrs. Wilma Godzina and Sam Sisson.

The citation is an annual award presented to postal installations with improved accident experience ratings compared to the average regional rate of vehicle accidents occurring in each 100,000 miles of travel on official business.

"When delay of mail service is caused by an accident, our efficiency of operation is affected," Mr. Justus stated. "Your employees have definitely contributed to good service by preventing accidents by mail vehicles. To maintain our objective of "Moving Today's Mail Today", cognizance is being given to the fact that "Safety is Everybody's Business" by Tecumseh employees of the Post Office."

☆

SINCE THE Post Office Department began its campaign for safety four years ago Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield has been presented the coveted National Safety Council award for "outstanding contributions in the Nation's traffic safety effort."

It is the first time that one organizational group has been given this honor four years in a row.

Tecumseh drivers are a part of the huge postal fleet which travels more than 884 million miles per year.

Prior to 1954, the Post Office Department possessed one of the worst traffic safety records in government.

The Department's present intensive program, which includes safe driving instruction, driver examination and licensing, rules for safe operation, awards and other incentives for safe driving is paying off year after year.

"This program has now paid off in 1958 with the lowest accident rate and casualty rate in history for postal vehicles in our Chicago Regions," Mr. Justus commented.

Librarian Is Speaker

Mrs. Conrad Fosbender, Tecumseh librarian, spoke to members of the Tecumseh Monday Club Jan. 5 when they met at the Aebersold Hostess House.

Mrs. Kenneth Hunter, chairman of Literature and Art Department, introduced Mrs. Fosbender who used as her subject, "Panorama of the Library."

She said, "The Tecumseh library is under the supervision of the school system and along with the schools has shown tremendous growth in the five years since I have been in charge."

Mrs. Vanyard Close opened the meeting reading the religious thought and Edith Ingersoll gave a short talk on New Year's resolutions.

☆

MRS FRED NASH was welcomed as a member, Mrs. Clyde Bailey was reinstated, Mrs. Earl Updyke and Mrs. Charles Pearson sent in resignations.

Several committee reports were given before tea was served from a lace-covered table centered with a floral arrangement.

Mrs. Earl Wickwire was the hostess and the refreshments were served by Mary McWilliams and her committee, Mrs. A. J. Todd, Mrs. Truman Rentschler and Mrs. Norman McConnell with Mrs. Todd and Mrs. Frank Mills pouring.

The next meeting will be a family night with supper at 6:30 p.m. at The Tecumseh Grange Hall, Jan. 19.

The speaker for the program will be announced later and tickets at $1.50 and $1 may be had by calling Mrs. M. G. Partridge, Mrs. Fred Marsh, Mrs. Wesley Mast, Mrs. Floyd Elliott, Mrs. Charles Stevenson or Mrs. Lee Purkey.

Reservations should be in by Friday, Jan. 16. Hostesses will be Mrs. Lee Purkey, Mrs. Charles Stevenson and Mrs. Vaynard Close.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Yes, We Think It Does

(Editor's note: In The Blissfield Advance last week, Duane DeLoach fashioned an editorial, which we are happy to reprint. It was entitled "Does Advertising Really Bring in Trade?")

Those who watched the Quaker Oats tournament of roses on New Year's Day (that's the TV program which sandwiched in glimpses of a parade between commercials) may hold a somewhat dim view of advertising.

Yet advertising, no matter how badly it is used or disused, affects all of us in our daily lives. Advertising has made it possible to get wide distribution on many commodities at popular prices. It's a powerful tool that turns the wheels of business.

Probably nowhere in America is this more clearly discernible than in the small towns of America. Here where neighbor knows neighbor, and you call each other by first names, you still go into a store and ask for advertised brands. They are recognizable as old friends. Advertising has conditioned you to accept them, and to express a preference for them.

The same preference for stores — the store that gets the business—is built up over a period of months and years by consistent advertising. In a small town, the weekly newspaper is the market-place of advertising which reaches most of the families in a trading area.

Folks who know the stores, get used to seeing their ads in the newspaper, actually look forward to read what is offered each week, and are attracted to go in and buy—these are the best proof that advertising really brings in trade.

Another proof that advertising brings business into the town is the advertisers themselves. They use advertising consistently, week-in and week-out throughout the year, not just to see their names in the paper but because it brings business. If it didn't bring business, they wouldn't do it. They are successful stores. Arvertising has contributed to their success. It has brought customers into their stores.

To get back to Quaker Oats for a moment: Every farmer knows that the price of oats has declined in the grain market. Some say this is because people no longer eat hot oatmeal for breakfast like they used to. The Quaker Oats people have set out to show in their advertising just how many uses oats — meal, flour, or flaked — have in food preparation today, other than as a cooked cereal. When combined with fruit for breakfast, with meat for patties or loaf, with apples for a baked dessert, in cookies, cakes, pie crusts or filling, oats is a versatile grain that they hope, quite naturally, will grow in popularity. And very likely the money that's spent on advertising will help the farmer market his grain at a higher price.

The small towns which are the heart of America, where originality in tasty recipes still abounds, have been neglected by many national advertisers seeking to improve the market for their product. But some day, we hope, they will discover what our home-town grocers — Sprunk Brothers, Crist's Newcombs, the A & P and Lipps — have already discovered, that if you want to sell food products to home-town folks, you can do it best by advertising in the home-town weekly newspaper.

Learned 'Bitter Lesson'

There was stimulating news on Tecumseh's industrial front last week—announcement of a new plant here and a report on the moving schedule of H. W. Tuttle Co. from Adrian to a location here.

All of which should make us realize how extremely fortunate our community is.

In Sunday's Detroit News there was quite a nice feature on nearby Clinton with a headline "Engine Firm Returns and Town Is Reborn."

Relating how Clinton Machine Co. had long been an established industry, the story told what happened to the town in 1950 when labor trouble prompted the firm to close its Clinton location and move to Iowa.

Besides throwing 1,500 out of jobs, the sudden departure of the plant changed the economic face of Clinton. Folks discovered that the biggest taxpayer to the town and township had vanished and citizens were forced to make up the difference.

Two years went by and the company realized it had to expand. Still owning property in Clinton, officials decided to re-open the Michigan location.

Clinton's Chamber of Commerce president and its weekly newspaper editor, H. H. Farley, told the News reporter: "We used to take our industry for granted, but we learned a bitter lesson and don't intend to forget."

The News writer went on: "He (Mr. Farley) said that today the village government turns an ear of consideration when Clinton Engines requests added parking facilities, or questions its share of the local tax burden."

Tecumseh city officials are on their toes when it comes to industry here, as far as we're concerned. Ditto, business men.

But it never hurts, every so often, to re-evaluate the situation and make sure we're always alert to ways in which we can aid our industries, large and small.

Others Could Follow

One of the biggest boosters for this city, right from the time he arrived in Tecumseh two years ago, has been Ted Templeton.

Ted acclaims the virtues of his adopted hometown and his efforts are paying dividends to the community. He has some fine selling points—excellent schools, churches, neighborhoods and government, as well as considerable new housing, including, of course, the homes he builds.

It was through Ted that Joseph Weyn picked Tecumseh as a headquarters for his Thornton Products Co., which announced last week the construction of a plant here on a 10-acre sight.

This is just the beginning for Thornton. Mr. Weyn told The Herald that the firm in conjunction with Lightmetals Co. of Wayne, Mich., is in the process of negotiating an exclusive U. S. license for the plating of refrigerator trays with a new method they own.

"If such negotiations result in a successful conclusion it may very well be that allied industries of the refrigeration field will locate in this area," Mr. Weyn stated.

All of which is wonderful news.

Join Goodwill's Drive

As members of the Commission on Religious Institutions, The Detroit Round Table of Catholics, Jews and Protestants, we urge peoples of all religions to cooperate with Goodwill Industries in a community-wide clothing bag distribution during the week-end of Jan. 17 and 18.

Because Goodwill Industries exemplifies the spirit of brotherhood, it is appropriate that all groups in the area join in a drive for discards to keep Goodwill's employees working through the slow months of the year.

Goodwill Industries is a community project, employing people from all faiths. The only requisite for vocational training or a job at Goodwill Industries is a physical handicap.

At this time of the year Goodwill Industries urgently needs repairable discards to insure steady employment for these men and women. The workers clean and repair all clothing and other household articles in the Goodwill workshops which are then sold at budget prices.

All proceeds from these sales go into the wages of Goodwill employees, who become substantial citizens instead of tax consumers.

Autos on Ice Court Danger

ANN ARBOR — Ice fishermen who drive their automobiles over frozen lakes can be flirting with danger, even if the ice is "thick."

Information supplied by the Meteorological Laboratories at The University of Michigan indicates that a vehicle moving across ice produces a traveling wave of ice all around it.

The ice is pushed down or deflected most beneath the vehicle. Moving progressively away from the car there is a point of no deflection, then an upheaval of the ice, and finally a gradual return to normal.

Of course, the deflection and upheaval amount to less than an inch of change. But under certain conditions — say, when the water isn't very deep — this flexing will break the ice and put the car in the water.

Friends Surprise Miss Edna Gamboe for Her Birthday

Edna Gamboe was pleasantly surprised Sunday when a group of friends came to her home for a potluck dinner honoring her birthday.

The dinner featured a birthday cake honoring Miss Gamboe as well as John Abner and his daughter, Betty, who also had birthdays.

Other guests were Mrs. Abner and family and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peiffer, all of Blissfield, Mrs. Maggie Abner, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Abner and family and Mr. and Mrs. George Meads and family.

Miss Gamboe was expecting the Mead family for dinner and was quite unprepared for the other guests who came with the baskets of potluck.

Marda Gene Duncan's Through My Window

TEMPER, TEMPER, TEMPER

It will long be remembered how 1959 slid in on a glare of ice and was so ashamed of itself that until late in the afternoon it hid behind a heavy thick fog.

Weatherwise, the New Year got off to a miserable start. New Year's Day was good for only two things — sleeping and watching the TV coverage of the different parades and football games.

About eight o'clock New Year's morn we took a quick look outside and decided that the only prudent thing to do was to go back to bed. Our idea was to catch an additional fast forty winks, but outside, a little squirrel had different ideas.

Hardly had we closed our eyes and snuggled back down into a warm comfortable spot in bed when we were shocked awake by a horrible noise. It was a frantic scratching and clawing on something metal.

A squirrel was crawling up and down the screens on our porch.

AT FIRST we tried to ignore the din. We were reasonably sure what it was but, as the noise continued, we finally had to give in—Mom had to get up, open the back drapes and curtains and sure enough, we were right.

Our sleepy eyes were greeted by the sight of an angry squirrel working himself in to a wild frenzy.

With our suspicion confirmed and the source of the loud scratching identified, we tried to recapture the smoozing mood and pick up our nap where it was so rudely interrupted.

It was a vain attempt, however, because each time we would start to drop off, the squirrel would resume his loud climbing.

With the feeders and the ears of corn on the fence heavily encrusted, almost buried beneath a thick coating of ice, the squirrel was apparently attracted to the sunflower heads we have stored on the back screened-in porch.

Believe me, his frantic efforts to secure breakfast were not appreciated.

☆

WELL, WE finally gave up and got up. (It is amazing how little birds and animals can direct our lives.) We had given in once, but it was not going to be a complete surrender. His breakfast was going to wait on ours.

It was much too wet and slippery for anyone in their right mind to venture out without first being fortified with a cup of coffee and the traditional New Year's Day Viennese cinnamon loaf.

His hunger was not so urgent that he couldn't wait a few minutes. All the day before he had gorged himself on corn.

Although by now our eyes were still only at half mast, we did laugh, just as the west curtains and drapes were opened, to see the squirrel abandon his futile attempt to break into our cache of sunflower seed and try to scurry away.

The ice was bad for little squirrels too and he slipped along, unable to get any traction at all for running. What a funny, stiff-legged gait and how careful he tried to be.

Marsh's and Gertrude's feeder apparently offered nothing better than ours because, in a few minutes, still slipping and sliding, back came our squirrel. Oh, by this time his disposition was really bad.

☆

SHINNING UP to the feeding area he took one look at the still ice-covered tray, blew his little fur covered top, and started to frantically claw and scratch at the ice.

As a reward for his efforts, a chunk of ice in which were embedded bits of corn and sunflower seeds finally broke free.

Picking his ice coated breakfast up in those amazingly hand-like front paws, he settled back on his haunches, gave us a nasty look and started eating.

If ever three people were the recipients of a scornful look which clearly showed of digust and wounded dignity at being kept waiting, it was us as we laughingly watched at our west window.

Our little squirrel had a big hunger and he was not too long satisfied with ice coated tid-bits. He was after bigger things and in a minute, the ear of corn felt his fury.

Breaking through the ice and picking off one kernel of corn at a time was hard work. In a real display of temper, he opened his little mouth wide and taking a firm hold on the whole ear of corn, started to pull with all his might.

By now he had lost all self control. When he couldn't take the whole ear of corn off the feeder he was furious.

☆

THE FEEDER was still slick and slippery, of course. Pulling and pushing and tugging as hard as he could, he tried frantically to brace himself and get a good foothold.

His feet just slid out from under him. Temper, temper, temper—the harder he fought the more he slipped. After a while, completely distraught and unnerved, he gave up and went into a nearby tree to sulk.

By now, our coffee was dripped and breakfast laid. With a half-sheepish grin on his face and a slight apology in his voice, Dad excused himself for a minute. He would be right back, but before sifting down, he mumbled that maybe he should take a little food out to the birds and squirrels.

Who won the battle for breakfast?

Chemical Is Black Listed

Aramite, a chemical used for mite control on fruits, has just been removed from the recomended list.

This action was taken by the Food and Drug Administration after tests showed that the chemical can have a harmful effect.

Kelthane, a new insecticide tested in field demonstrations last year, showed that it will give good control of mites in post-bloom applications.

Other miticides that may be used after bloom include Chlorobenzilate, ovex and Systox.

For early season mite control Genite EM-923 and Tedion gave good control in 1958 demonstrations. Mitox and ovex will also give early season mite control, according to research studies.

Farm Yields Increase

Corn and soybean acreage will continue to increase in Michigan, believes Milton Erdmann, extension farm crops specialist at Michigan State University.

Acreages of hay and oats, on the other hand, will keep dropping. Sugar beets, potatoes, field beans, wheat and barley acreages are expected to hold steady.

Mr. Erdmann points out that acres of corn in Michigan have steadily increased. In the last five years alone, more than 250,000 acres have been added, making a total of nearly 1,900,000 acres this past season.

Yields, too, have gone up steadily.

The 1944-'48 average yield was 32 bushels per acre while the 1958 yield is estimated at 56 bushels per acre.

More Michigan farmers will find corn a profitable crop as new hybrids are developed.

Soybean acreage has made a spectacular jump in recent years. The 1949-53 average yearly acreage was 99,000 while the 1958 estimated acreage was 265,000.

Yields will continue to move up, too, as new varieties are developed for Michigan's growing conditions. Government agricultural programs limiting corn acreage have helped boost the soybean acreage in past years.

Commenting of the wheat acreage picture, Mr. Erdmann says little change is expected in the future. However, changes in government agricultural programs could easily make a rapid difference.

Acreage in 1958 was down about 200,000 acres from the 1949-53 average of 1,322,000 acres. The 1958 estimated yield was 38 bushels per acre, biggest on record.

☆

POTATO ACREAGE is stabilized, according to Mr. Erdmann, although a slight increase is possible. More and more Michigan potatoes are being processed into chips and there is a possibility that a potato flake factory will be built in the state.

Barley, which has slipped in acreage for the past 20 years, is levelling off now. Winter barley acreage may go up slightly.

Sugar Beet acreage, down considerably from 20 years ago, does not show that sugar beets are a "dying" industry in Michigan, says Mr. Erdmann.

Yield per acre is nearly twice now what they were 20 years ago. In 1958, the estimated yield per acre was 15.6 tons.

Oats will likely continue to drop in acreage, on a moderate basis. A big drop occurred in the past five years. Yields can be expected to move up and possibly within another 10 years may take a large jump with the development of new varieties.

Average field bean acreage will hold steady although year-to-year acreages may vary considerably. Current acreage is above 1944 levels although yields have been fairly constant.

☆

HAY ACREAGE will continue to drop as it has for about 20 years.

Mr. Erdmann says that cropland will continue to be taken out of production. In the 10-year period, 1945-54, about 4% of the state's cropland went into other uses.

The next 10 years will probably see another 4 to 5% removed from production through construction of highways and expansion of industries and urban residential areas.

Patterson Citizens Club Names Itself

The Junior American Citizens Club at Patterson School held a meeting recently and decided to name itself "The Osburn's 5th Grade Club."

Called to order by president Linda Bush, the meeting was opened with the Pledge of Allegiance and the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner."

The president read a prayer.

During the business session it was decided that Tim Dickinson and Kingsley Dunn would be the color guards.

Miss Bush read the creed and appointed Phillip Barber, Pat Green and Marsha Richard to arrange a program for the next meeting.

She also appointed Tim Dickinson, Lee Selders and Kinglsey Dunn to write the rules for discipline.

Cynthia Tatar is the reporter.

'Good Grooming, Hair Styling'

Mrs. John Saling was the speaker at a meeting in December held by the Future Homemakers Club in the Home Economics room of the High School.

She talked on "Good Grooming and Hair Styling."

The group repaired toys and donated food and clothing for a needy family.

Refreshments were served by Loraine Williams and Sharon McMichael.

Business Will Boom, Kiplinger Predicts

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Business will boom in the 60's, according to a year-end report from the Kiplinger organization on changes and growth during the next decade.

The business boom will flow from population growth, plus rising productivity which will increase the output per man-hour, plus higher incomes, plus the pull of people who want more and better things for themselves, plus the nimble shifting of business patterns, Kiplinger says.

Companies will expand, despite painful and expensive growth. They must add capacity, products, diversity and new outlets as a hedge against the rapid changes that would drive them down and possibly out.

More chains, larger stores and many stores taking on additional lines is the revolutionary picture for merchandising in the 60's.

The food store will become a general store, with other things than groceries. The end of the trend is not yet for the super-super-market.

Pre-packaged and frozen foods, requiring more complex equipment, fancier fixtures will all bring on new kinds of warehousing needs.

☆

ALSO THERE'S automation . . this tide is rising fast. It means more mechanical equipment and system to replace muscle power. It's a must for domestic business, and it's a must for our foreign trade.

Automation downgrades muscle, but it upgrades brains. Increasingly, college graduates will be lapped up and trained for top executive posts, technical and engineering jobs.

And, surprisingly, the lower-echelon jobs such as foreman and supervisor will be filled by college grads.

As business gets to be in bigger units, it will need more trained brains. As it gets more far flung, more responsibility will rest on the individual. Business processes themselves are being upgraded and the men who run them. Automation adds to the need for the trained and the educated in key spots.

Wages and salaries are bound to rise, following the patterns now. Despite higher prices of everything—probably 20% higher by the late 60's—most people will be able to afford more things.

☆

THIS MEANS a continuation of inflation at about the same rate as in past decade. Savings, pensions, etc., will shrink in terms of what they will buy.

Unions will be affected by the growth of white-collar workers, specialists or experts in various fields. Unions will find it harder to unionize effectively. Union leaders are already foreseeing the trend.

More women will join the ranks of workers in the 60's. They've got to work, for the growing economy requires that they do work.

Now 60% of women working outside the home are married and run households. The proportion will rise, especially women in the 45-to-54 age group who have raised their children. About 45% of the women of middle age will be working by the late 60's.

'Light Metals Age' Will Affect Tecumseh

(Editor's note: The Detroit Free Press carried an article on a new light metals plating process last week. The patent is exclusively licensed to Thornton Products Co., now of Tecumseh. Thus the material covered by FP Industry Editor Fred Olmsted in his piece can greatly affect the future of this community. Below is his story.)

A simple low-cost process that was called impossible may put the bloom on a budding "light metals age."

It is an electroplating process using zinc and titanium, discovered by Carl Cooper, 64, an extool and die worker, in his laboratory at Grass Lake, Mich.

The new process is said to provide:

1—Greater adhension to most metal surfaces, including steel and aluminum, than is possible with other platings.

2—A tough coating for aluminum and magnesium that vastly increases their wear resistance and paves the way for the first really satisfactory chrome or other bright finishing of these metals.

3 — Increased workability of aluminum and magnesium, including welding and soldering, bringing a broad increase in their usefulness.

A Big Three automobile maker has indicated that the process may be the answer to one of the biggest problems of the aluminum engine—how to protect the pistons and cylinder walls from wear.

☆

THE NEW plating may eliminate the need for iron liners in the cylinders and is reputed to be superior to high-silicon aluminum alloys, with which the industry has been experimenting to meet this problem.

One Big Three technician said the new process has advanced the aluminum engine by as much as three years.

James V. Sheridan, a chemist and patent attorney who lives at 541 N. Melborn, Dearborn, has done the development work on the process. He says all the auto companies are fitting the zinc-titanium plating into their plans.

Sheridan has formed the Light-metals Plating & Chemical Co., 42056 Michigan, Wayne, to pioneer commercial application of the process. He points out other possible uses in car-making.

The process would permit the chrome-plating of aluminum bumpers. Bodies which are sometimes dipped in a rustproofing primer, Sheridan said, could be plated for better protection at less cost and in less time.

☆

THE ZINC-titanium process can deposit 2.0 mills of protective covering on aluminum or steel in 10 minutes. It takes 40 to 85 minutes to deposit the same thickness of nickel plate with conventional procedures.

"It has been used to plate tail pipes 3 inches in diameter, which were then swaged, (reshaped) to a diameter of 1 inch without cracking the plating," he said.

The process also provides aluminum, for example, with a surface which can be welded or soldered, Sheridan said. This opens up wide uses for the process in aircraft, missiles and electronics.

Zinc, chief component in the plating process, is a relatively inexpensive material. Titanium, which is more important, costs 95 cents a pound as scrap.

"But the titanium," said Sheridan, "forms only one-tenth of 1 per cent of the material. This makes the cost of the titanium about 1 cent per 200 square feet of plated surface."

☆

COST IS kept down too, Sheridan said, by the fact that the process requires only five steps, compared to as many as 17 for "zincating," another process previously used with light metals.

The process, called Metadox "It isn't orthdox and it isn't a paradox, but something in between," explains Sheridan), has elicited interest from all over the world.

Inquires have come from Japan, England, Germany, Italy, France and from all over the United States to Thornton Products Co.

Sheridan's firm is one of two U.S. licensees. The other is Altimag, of Indianapolis.

☆

THE LICENSING is being handled under exclusive rights by the Thornton Products Co., of Tecumseh, Mich.

"Plating of metallic titanium on aluminum from a water solution has been proved thermodynamically impossible," said Sheridan. "But we're doing it."

He credited Cooper with what is being called "the greatest plating advancement in 25 years."

ICE-LADEN TREES WERE PICTURESQUE, BUT THE WEIGHT BROKE MANY BRANCHES.

THE Long & Short OF IT

By TOM RIORDAN

Kids are the most wonderful people to photograph.

No pretense, no sham to cloud the issue—and those expressions are priceless.

The nursery class Mrs. Les Bennett conducts at the old Pink School west of town was the scene last week for a visit by The Herald photegrapher.

These youngsters, ages three and four, were so busy with their painting, tea parties, jungle gym climbing they hardly noticed the camera when it appeared.

Mrs. Bennett, highly-trained for such teaching, didn't seem to notice the high-pitched little voices or the confusion of scattered blocks.

This was free time and the youngsters were permitted to enjoy it as they desired.

Their little faces shone.

Then it was time for a snack and Mrs. Bennett had eager volunteers to help with the fruit juice and graham crackers.

One little fellow dove in before his class mates were seated, snatching a bite of cracker and then dumping the remains back into the basket.

He had an audience of one in the cameraman and he wanted to perform.

When the children were seated, they bowed their heads in prayer. It wasn't marred by a sound or even a wiggle, certainly excellent for a couple of tables of pre-schoolers.

"How would you like a story?" Mrs. Bennett asked after everyone had been fed.

Soon they were crowded around her feet and she began to read about a little elephant, holding the book at arm's length so that all could see the large illustrations.

One lad just had to sit in the teacher's lap.

As the cameraman slipped out the door, the children were still listening intently, in wide-eyed pleasure to the plight of the little elephant as he roamed through life facing one problem after another.

It had been a charming experience.

In after hours Mrs. Bennett is now busy preparing for the school's second semester, which opens Feb. 3.

Parents pay $32 for the 18 weeks—two mornings a week—and until now there has been a proviso that mothers help out at least four times each semester.

At a meeting of parents Monday evening, it was decided that for a slightly-increased fee, mothers who couldn't help, would be excused from the task.

Complete details about the school can be obtained from Mrs. Bennett by calling 7052-R.

☆

Patterson PTA has a money problem.

No, members don't need it, they're looking for a way to spend what they have—almost $900.

This is indeed an interesting twist, since the usual dilemma is "where can we get some cash."

The group worked at the situation last week and came up with at least two things, a desk for the teachers' longue and coat racks for adult school guests.

But that still will leave a pretty fair-sized chunk.

We'll keep you posted.

☆

A recent Saturday Evening Post yarn about Danny Thomas brought out several interesting points.

First of all, Danny was born in nearby Deerfield.

Secondly, in relating to writer Pete Martin his early days, the comedian said,

" . . . dad was driving a dry-goods wagon through lower Michigan towns like Dundee, Tecumseh, Monroe and Coldwater . . . "

Gives a person a warm feeling to see the old hometown mentioned in a national magazine.

"Extra"

(Editor's note: When seventh and eight graders of St. Elizabeth School toured The Herald last week, they were asked to prepare their impressions of the visit. This one has been selected as the most outstanding.)

Mr. Gutenburg, you have my complete admiration. Your printing press has made possible today's newspaper. The heart of this power-house of public education is labor, unceasing labor, pressing time, and accurate care. This, combined with the interests of the public, make the newspaper a wonder of our times.

After my interesting trip through The Herald's printing office, I realized just where I had stood. Where? With the many Americans who daily leaf through their editions unaware of the time and work behind it. Now, every issue pops up before me as a representative from a devoted public service, our newspaper.

Will Swap Lots

By JIM LINCOLN

An apparent move is under way for the city to swap lots with the Federal government for location of a new, future post office building across the street from city hall.

Council agreed Monday night, without taking any official action, that trading the lot behind Easton's Service Station and on S. Pearl St. for the park across from city hall would be beneficial to both parties. The government owns the lot on S. Pearl St.

City attorney James Beardsley was requested to have a resolution available at the next Council meeting. The resolution, if approved, would place the issue before the voters at the April election.

☆

THE PLANNING Commission, last week recommending the sale of a lot to Butler Motor Sales, then reversed itself Monday night at a special meeting.

Muscular Dystrophy Says 'No'

"An offer of $1,000 to the Muscular Dystrophy Association and an invitation to join the Lenawee County United Fund has been rejected", announced Howard White, president of the County Fund.

"Our check for the sum of $1,000 has been returned to us by the National office of the Muscular Dystrophy Association with the statement:

" 'Our Association has not concluded any agreement with the Lenawee County United Fund and, therefore, is not in a position to accept an allocation from it'."

"We regret this action by the Muscular Dystrophy Association," White stated, "as we are confident that a large proportion of the County citizenry would want to see these separate campaigns consolidated into one major effort.

"We are also confident that we can raise sufficient funds for this worthwhile organization as well as all others.

"One important fact seems clear from this action however," White remarked, "and it is that the United Fund board of directors will need support and assistance from interested individuals and groups if this community problem of 'too many campaigns' is to be solved."

Charles O. Butler, agency owner, explained the necessity of owning the lot at last week's meeting. The commisison agreed to his request at that time.

Robert Bonner, chairman of the Planning Commission, reported to Council that members of the commisison failed to express themselves at the original meeting.

The Commission has now recommended that Council let Butler's lease the lot, located behind the agency. The lot, according to Mr. Bonner, is included in the downtown off-street parking plans.

Before taking any definite action, Council tabled the recommendation to the next meeting and requested that Mr. Butler be invited to attend.

BUILDING PERMITS, electric inspections and other routine problems were discussed.

Council asked City Manager Ed Nelson to see that the police enforce the city's zoning ordinance.

Chamber Board Re-elects All Top Officials

Re-election of all officers for the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce highlighted the regular meeting of the board of directors last week.

Dr. Richard Coak was renamed president, Richard Eggleston, vice-president and Gale Fisher, treasurer.

Reports were given as to the progress several committees have made within the Chamber in the past few months.

A pamphlet about the industrial potential is soon to be completed for future industrial information about the city.

Ice Storm Grips Area Wednesday

BULLETIN

Howard Alverson, Adrian manager of Rural Electrification, was electrocuted Wednesday at 1 p.m., while working on an REA line two miles south of Tecumseh on Occidental Highway.

Area folks awoke Wednesday morning to find themselves in the midst of the year's worst ice storm.

Freezing rain fell during the night, crusting a heavy blanket of snow which covered the community late Tuesday.

Trees took a serious toll as ice-covered branches bowed low and in many instances snapped off.

Street gutters were filled to overflow with water, snow and slush, as clogged storm sewer lines were unable to function property.

City employees worked all night Tuesday with plows and graders, states city manager Ed Nelson, and continued right through Wednesday. Keeping catch basins open was a major problem.

Despite severe driving conditions all Tecumseh District schools were on regular schedule. St. Elizabeth students, however, were given a holiday.

General Telephone manager here, Dale Clark, reported that 541 telephones of the area's 10,300 were out of order. A six-man maintenance crew, headed by Jerry Smith, 602 Island Dr., was busy from 7 a.m. restoring service.

The Village of Maybee was hard hit, with 80 phones out and all toll trunks dead. Bell Telephone Co. of Monroe sent a mobil unit there to make long-distance calls possible.

Consumers Power had 17 overhead linesmen in the area, including four special crews from Adrian and Jackson, reports Richard Lehman of Jackson.

Britton was hardest hit, about one-third of its homes without electricity until Wednesday afternoon, when a pair of 7,200 volt lines were snapped.

In Tecumseh there was no major electrical trouble only isolated instances where falling limbs shorted service to homes.

Mrs. Herbert Murphy was in charge of the decorations.

The program also included two whistling solos, "One Alone" and "The Whole World Knows" by Ardith Drewyor, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Paul Brantingham.

Mrs. Brantingham also played a piano solo, "The Butterfly".

Mrs. Wilfred Waldron, president, conducted a short business session and mentioned the bookmobile and the Indian scholarship which the club is helping to sponsor.

Buelah Robinson Married to Richard Weisenreder

Three bridesmaids in blue lace preceded Buelah Robison down the aisle of the Macon Methodist Church Jan. 10 when she became the bride of Richard Weisenreder.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manley Robison of 4115 Arkona Road and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Weisenreder of 3950 Weber Road.

The Rev. Walter Damberg performed the ceremony before an altar of white gladioli and carnations with a green background.

The bride wore lace over satin featuring a U-shaped neckline. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a pearl and rhinestone crown.

She carried a white Bible topped with white carnations tapered to a V-shape.

Bonnie Robison of Saline was her sister's maid of honor in pink lace with a floral head piece and pearls at her throat.

Mrs. Richard Wenk of Ann Arbor, Mrs. Rosemarie Weisenreder and Janet Marion, both of Saline, were the bridesmaids. They carried bouquets of pink, white and blue carnations.

With Tecumseh Teens

BY MARY V. SEAGER

There was a well-attended record dance after the Bedford game, which we won Friday night. The dance was sponsored by the Future Teachers of America.

The Teen Club held a record dance Saturday night at the usual time.

A new rule stating that no jeans or Bermuda shorts are to be worn at the dances was put into effect that night.

The yearly membership drive for the Teen Club will start after semester exams.

In all probility, it will begin sometime next week. Memberships to the end of this school year will be sold for 50c and ones running for a full year will be sold for $1. Anyone from 13 to 19 is eligible to join.

☆

At the pep meeting Friday, a new cheer was introduced and a banana plant was cultivated by the cheerleaders. The new cheer was the question and answer type in which the cheerleadgrs shout a question and the crowd answers it.

The banana plant was introduced as a species discovered by Mr. Tatar. He said that every time he had raised his voice in class the plant had grown a little. He added that he would like to see what happened in a pep meeting.

With each cheer, the plant (an intricately cut newspaper, you know the trick) grew about a foot. At the end of the pep meeting, the plant had almost reached the rafters.

Several times during the meeting, students came out on the gym floor to ask where Joe was. Where, who, and what is Joe? This writer never did find out. It was extremely frustrating.

☆

There was a meeting of "The Scout" staff Thursday night after school. Assignments were passed out and the deadline was set for Monday at noon. The copy was taken to The Herald Wednesday. The Saturday morning workshop was held as usual.

The third issue will be sold next Tuesday for one thin dime because the paper now has advertising.

☆

Those people interested in Forensics have been asked to sign up with Mr. Babcock.

☆

Plans for an all-school play are being made. Mr. Babcock will be the director.

☆

To most adults, this week is like any other in the year. To all of the town's teenagers, it has rolled around, once again, too soon.

This is the week of semester exams, dreaded and feared by all because they confirm the teachers' suspicions that you haven't been studying.

The tests run from Tuesday through Thursday with Friday as a day of rest. School resumes on Monday.

Youths Want Discipline

"Teen-age boys and girls need discipline and they want it," Mrs. Faun Platt, Lenawee County juvenile agent, told Patterson PTA members last week.

The guest was relating her opinions, based on experiences in dealing with delinquent youths.

Mrs. Platt explained how a teen-age girl she had angered because of discipline, wrote Mrs. Platt six months later. The youngster said she had hated the court official at the time, but gradually realized the action had greatly helped and she was saying thanks.

When Probate Court refers a youth to the agents, deciding exactly what to do is the biggest problem.

The child can be sent home on probation, put in an institution or a foster home.

Each case must be carefully weighed, she said.

☆

PREVIOUS to the speaker, the PTA had a business meeting, devoting its attention to:

1. The coming Patterson Fair.
2. Where its $857 treasury might be spent.
3. Outdoor play equipment.

The Fair will be March 21 with six co-chairmen, instead of the usual chairman.

Sharing the responsibilities will be Mrs. John Surratt, Mrs. Lowell Edwards, Mrs. Carl Kennell, Mrs. Jim Barton, Mrs. Aden Mead and Mrs. Kenneth Hinkleman.

PTA president Oscar Bryan, who conducted the session, asked that members save old comic books, soft-covered novels records and plants which can be donated for sale at the Fair.

He also said any contributions for door prizes would be welcomed and can be made to the co-chairmen.

☆

THE PLAYGROUND equipment situation was raised and Jack Puffer said a committee intends to have something done in the future.

He explained that the school board will give Patterson any gear it picks up from playgrounds of district schools no longer being used.

Mrs. Bertram Updike, kindergarten teacher, asked that the group consider jungle gym equipment and a small swing set for her students and first and second graders, to be located near these rooms.

☆

AS FOR THE money the group has accumulated, it was suggested that a desk be purchased for the teachers' lounge and racks for several hundred coats also be obtained.

The latter would be used for the Fair and at other times when persons visit the school.

Rufus Gillam, principal, told the group the school could make good use of more film strips. He added the school had recently purchased a motion picture projector with the percentage it received from sale of student pictures.

The members agreed to the desk request and a committee of Mrs. Purnell Osburn, Mrs. Homer Colson and Bob Anderson was named by Mr. Bryan.

☆

IN OTHER ACTION, a by-law amendment was approved. It calls for meetings every other month, replacing the old schedule of monthly gatherings.

Mrs. Edgar Buttolph's first grade had most parents present and thus won a book.

The next meeting may be a week earlier due to the Fair. Announcement will be made in a future edition of The Herald.

'Lodging for a Night' Lists Tecumseh Motel

ITHACA, N.Y.,—The Tecumseh Motel has received national recognition in the 1959 edition of "Duncan Hines Lodging for a Night" just off the press.

It is the only motel in Tecumseh included among 4,500 selected lodging establishments "Recommended by Duncan Hines" out of nearly 100,000 lodging places in North America.

Roy H. Park, Vice President, Duncan Hines Institute, Ithaca, N.Y., said, "We are happy to give deserving recognition to this establishment by including it in a selected group. This establishment is one of 4 out of 100, for our listings of selected lodging places represent only 4 per cent of the total in America."

This marks the beginning of the third decade of publishing "Lodging for a Night" (384 pages.)

The other new Duncan Hines book just out is "Adventures in Good Eating" (384 pages) which lists 3,500 of the best places to eat.

Trio Stars as Indians Snap Losing Streak

By JIM LINCOLN

A six-game losing streak and indifferent play screeched to a halt last Friday night when the Tecumseh Indians notched their first league win with a 60-49 decision over Bedford.

Perhaps it was the band — its first appearance of the season — but more likely it was the scrap and scoring by Bob O'Neill, Jim Poley and Jack Sisson.

These three Indians showed more initiative and basketball ability against Bedford in four quarters than the Tecumseh cagers have mustered all season.

O'Neill paced the local scorers with 15 points. Sisson tallied 13 and Poley, 12.

Larry Yoakum, tossing in eight points in the final stanza, scored a total of 10 points to give Coach Vic Lawson four scorers in the double-figure column.

Before the Indians went ahead for keeps early in the third period, the score was tied nine times and 12 times the lead changed.

Ron Couch topped all scorers with 19 points. The lanky guard was responsible for keeping the Mules in the game and was one of the most outstanding performers to play here this season.

The Indians travel to Hillsdale Friday.

Tecumseh's reserves outplayed their opponents for over three and a half quarters before falling apart in the final minutes to lose by one point, 39-38.

Object: 4th Perfect Season

Tecumseh High School girls basketball team begins its quest for a fourth straight undefeated season Monday evening.

Dundee comes here for the opener with a reserve battle starting things at 6:30.

Since Carol Sheffer became THS feminine tutor three years ago Tecumseh has not been beaten.

Although her squad dumped Dundee twice last year, Coach Sheffer is concerned about Monday's tilt because of her lack of returning materials.

Only forward Sherry Tucker and guard Joanne Wing are returning starters.

Guard Grace Dennie and forward Mary Colgrove have some varsity experience.

This quartet will be starters. Sharing the other two posts will be guards Sandra Howard and Kathy West and forwards Carol Spangler and Kendra Ringman.

The return tilt with Dundee will be arranged for Monday.

Other games scheduled so far: Feb. 2—Airport, here. Feb. 5—Bedford, here. Feb. 19—Bedford, there. Feb. 26—Airport, there.

Contests with Chelsea and Hudson are in the arranging stages as is a game with Woodville, O., Miss Sheffer's home town.

TECUMSEH HERALD PHOTO

READY FOR OPENER — Mary Colgrove, Sherry Tucker, Joanne Wing and Grace Dennis, returning varsity veterans, will be in action Monday evening against Dundee when the local girls' basketball season opens. A reserve game at 6:30 p.m. starts the program. Tecumseh girls haven't been defeated for three years.

Driver Killed When Car Skids into Pole

Occidental Highway has taken another Tecumseh life.

Edwin H. Strand was fatally injured Thursday at 7:15 p.m., south of Gady Road, about two miles south of Tecumseh in Raisin township.

Traveling alone toward Adrian, Mr. Strand was on his way to attend the reserve meeting of the 446th Transportation Co., U. S. Army of which he is a member.

At a curve, his car skidded off the left side of the highway striking a utility pole broadside.

Sheriff's deputies said that the highway was icy and had a light covering of snow at the time.

Dr. A. J. Phalen pronounced the victim dead on arrival at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

He was 25-years-old, born in Tecumseh Dec. 29, 1933, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Strand who preceded him in death.

☆

AN EMPLOYEE of Tecumseh Products Co.,

Mr. Strand is survived by two brothers, Henry Strand of Tecumseh and William H. Cook of Jackson; four sisters, Mrs. John Moody of Tecumseh and Mrs. Eva Ensign of New London, Ohio; Mrs. Elbert DeJonghe of Britton and Mrs. Luke McCarty of Clinton.

He was a member of the Glenn-Daykin Post of the American Legion of Britton who performed the graveside services at Brookside cemetery.

He was also a member of the Eagles in Tecumseh.

The Rev. Paul Brantingham officiated and pall bearers were members of the 446th Transportation Co. who also furnished the firing squad.

Honorary pall bears were Dale Willis, Ralph Swain, Michael Gomez, Henry Childs, Clarence Morningstar and Dwight Gaydosh.

Funeral services were held Monday at the Collins-Corkery Funeral Home.

Torie Quintet 7th in State

Britton-Macon rolled to its 7th victory, its first under new mentor Vern Neidlinger, with an easy 72-59 romp over visiting Whiteford last Friday night.

The victory helped Britton-Macon's state ratings, putting the Tories seventh among Class D schools in the Detroit Times weekly chart.

Big Jerry Benedict paced the Tories' attack, swishing the nets for 32 points with 15 two-pointers coming from the floor.

Only in the first period did the Tories have trouble. Whiteford built up a 20-14 lead but then wilted.

Britton's Koman and Ivan also hit in the two-figure column with 15 and 12 points respectively.

VOICE of THE HERALD

No Mountains To Move

This week we'll serve up a little potpourri in the regular editorial spot. No mountains to move, no great crusades to open, just some over-the-back-fence chatter.

A couple of columns to the right you'll note a picture taken downtown recently. It's the first of a new series.

The experts tell us newspaper readers like to see familiar things and that a regular presentation, such as the one we're starting, is well received.

We hope so.

As the opportunity arises, Herald cameras will snap local shots and they'll appear under the heading "Tecumseh Scenes."

Along this line, you might suggest to us what you'd like and we'll endeavor to make a photo of it.

Besides this, you might have some ideas about what the hometown weekly should be printing. We'd like to hear from you. Your idea could start the ball rolling in a new direction.

Something none of us can do anything about—except hope—is the weather and Tecumseh has been having its share. Take heart though, they say a tough winter means an early spring.

Taking hope on another front is basketball coach Vic Lawson, who has done everything to get his squad rolling but climb into a pair of non-skids and rush into the game.

Vic's opposite number at THS, Carol Sheffer, gal's cage coach hasn't lost a game in three years, but Tuesday morning had the crying towel out relating how few veterans she had back for this season which opens Monday.

Look for another undefeated record for the girls.

And be sure to look when driving or crossing our icy streets.

75 Attend Session of Soil District for Lenawee County

Seventy-five members attended the recent meeting of the Lenawee Soil Conservation District in Adrian.

Color slides of conservation practices installed in Lenawee were shown by Woodrow Barclay, United States Soil Conservation Service. He also reported on accomplishments for the past year.

Voting for a director to fill the expired term of Clarence Kleidinst resulted in the election of Donald Gust, Route 2, Ottawa Lake.

Director Leland Brighton presented a plaque to Mr. Kleidinst honoring his 13 years of service as a director of the soil conservation district.

Speaker Allan J. Collins, State Soil Conservationist, paid tribute to the job that has been done and stressed the need for continued effort in the field of natural resource conservation.

"Water conservation will need to progress rapidly in order to keep up with the needs of an expanding population. Not only are there more people to use the water but the per capita consumption has doubled since early 1900", he stated.

Entertainment was provided by Laverne Allshouse, accordionist and his sisters, Caroline Nancy, Corlene Sue and Carma Lee, of rural Adrian. Refreshments were served by Ladies Auxiliary. Mrs. Hal Benner, Mrs. Lloyd Ruesink and Mrs. Clarence Ehlert.

City Directory Information Is Being Collected

A new city directory will be available to Tecumseh citizens early this spring.

Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary members are taking the information necessary for the directory as a money-making project.

Mrs. Fred Randall and Mrs. Ray Sluyter are co-chairmen of the project.

Beginning the latter part of this week and continuing next week, members of the Auxiliary will be going from house-to-house obtaining the necessary information and taking orders for directories.

Both business and home editions will be available and only the number ordered will be printed.

The last city directory was compiled in 1956 by the same company that will be preparing the current copy, the George C. Robinson directory service of Hillsdale.

Hospital Staff Elects Officers

How DO They Provide Cut-Rate Prescriptions . . .
There is no product or medicines that cannot be supplied a little cheaper. Here are some of the short-cuts.
*Substitution. Most drugs can be imitated in an uncertain quality.
*Research Failure. There are suppliers who do no research, do nothing for betterment. Their product is cheaper—usually far behind.
The Wright Drug Store dispenses drugs from recognized manufacturers, who provide quality control and research. Dependability is our most important ingredient.

Michigan's Factories, Farms and Stores Depend on Trucks

Manufacturing, farming, the retail business — all have one thing in common: each needs transportation facilities.

And, since the motor truck provides fast, flexible, direct service unequalled by any other form of transportation, more tonnage is shipped by truck in Michigan each year. (Nationally trucks haul more than 3 times as much tonnage as all other systems combined!)

Every truck you see on the road is working—working to help keep Michigan's economy humming, to help keep employment and sales high. There isn't a corner of the State that isn't served daily by trucks. And factories and shopping centers can be located anywhere and be assured of efficient truck service so long as they're on a road.

You see how vital trucks are to Michigan.

Through My Window

AND SUDDENLY THEY WERE ALL GONE

As a late rising sun—a big, red circle of fire—slowly worked its way up through the rosy pinkness of the winter morning, we looked forward to a good bird day. By mid-morning things were working out much as we expected.

It was an ordinary day, very busy, but there were no indications that something different was about to happen.

Our every-day bird friends were milling about, enjoying breakfast. Red, blue, gray white—as the different colors flashed by there was a warm feeling of contentedness. Everything was as it should be.

On such a brisk, clear morning the birds were enjoying their multi-course breakfast and we were thoroughly enjoying watching them partake of it.

After noting that breakfast was served properly and that all the old regulars were present and accounted for, our attention was directed to matters inside.

We were right in the midst of that easily put off job, slide cataloguing, when suddenly, the mood outside changed.

The "all's well" peaceful ness transmitted through the window by the happy breakfasting had vanished. The absolute stillness and emptiness of what only a minute ago had been such a busy, active place was startling.

The sudden silence attracted our attention as a loud noise never would.

Where were the birds and why had they gone? What had the broken t h e morning's feast? What intruder was responsible for such stillness?

Where before three Cardinals had munched sunflower seeds, a Chick-a-dee had picked at the suet and a flock of Sparrows had mobbed every empty spot they could find, now there was nothing. Why?

☆

LOOK AS MUCH as we might, but nowhere was there a trace of a bird and neither, at first, could we spot the cause of this abrupt and unexpected departure. Suddenly, looking out through the front window, we spotted something.

There he was, about the size of a mourning dove, sitting on the top rail of our fence close to the clump of barberry by the driveway. Was this the cause of our breakfasters' flight?

Was this a Sparrow Hawk?

Unfortunately, we will never know for sure. Because it was morning and a bright clear day, the sun was streaming in my south window and the back lighting was such that we could see only a silhouette of the bird.

He was about 50 feet away and at that distance, with so much light behind him, it was impossible to distinguish any color or identification marks.

His silhouette and upright sitting position were hawklike but so diminutive. His tail was blunt, his head round and the way he held to the fence hinted of strong legs and claws.

Alertness was indicated by the quick movements of his head, but unfortunately, again because of the distance, we couldn't distinguish the type of bill—whether it was hooked or straight.

When, in a few minutes, he flew away, his course was straight for Marsh's big evergreen, their popular bird hotel. From there, he went around their house and out of sight.

Instantly, we made a dive for the bird books. Our reading about Sparrow Hawks before this had been influenced by a "never saw one before but maybe, if I'm lucky, I might spot one someday" attitude; but now we were quite sure that one of these little birds had actually been in our yard. With this added incentive, the reading proved fascinating.

☆

THE SMALLEST of all falcons, the Sparrow Hawk, about 11 inches long is most social toward man and is, like all of his often misunderstood kin, most beneficial.

Misnamed, because his diet actually consists of very few small birds, he exists largely on insects, such as crickets, spiders, grasshoppers, and mice. When reading his detailed color description our disappointment at not really seeing our morning visitor increased.

Just listen to the colors he wears—bluish-ash, chestnut, yellowish-white, dusky-ash, cinnamon rufous, black, white, and yellow. How striking he must be.

Historically, it was noted that the Sparrow Hawk was used in the old sport of falconry. In England, when hawking was "the" thing, the rank of an individual could be told by the kind of falcon he carried on his wrist—the Sparrow Hawk was carried by a priest.

☆

AS MENTIONED before, I can't say for sure that our mid-morning fence sitter was a Sparrow Hawk.

I do know that several years ago one was seen in the neighborhood and, although the books say they are not a great threat to other birds, this one was seen to pounce upon a Sparrow.

Even so, I do hope our morning caller was a Sparrow Hawk, it is always exciting to see something new and besides, the other birds seem to know how to take care of themselves.

One moment they were flocking everywhere, busy at their breakfast and then, when the Sparrow Hawk (?) flew in, suddenly they were all gone!

All in all, it was a most exciting morning. (Oh yes, our regulars came back but they were gone a good hour and a half. Cautious souls, they wanted to make sure the coast was clear.)

Next Week:
A GOOD START FOR THE SECOND YEAR.

"NEVER TAKE COUNSEL OF YOUR FEARS"

Fear is a bad adviser, particularly when your health is concerned. Some people are afraid to consult a physician when sick. They fear they may have a serious trouble and are afraid to find out the truth.

A physician can soon relieve fear, by accurately diagnosing the cause of the sickness, which then probably can be soon cured. Even if the sickness were one of the few incurables, an early diagnosis and proper treatment would make it easier to live an almost normal life. Depend on your physician and the medicine he will prescribe.

'STRETCH' PORK LOIN

Michigan State University extension home economists suggest a way to "stretch" a pork loin is to have a rib end roast cut off, then have the remainder cut into chops. The chops can be wrapped in mealsize packages for storage in freezer or refrigerator.

Choice Meats Are Feature of Market

Tecumseh's newest food outlet, Country Markets, Inc., opens its doors Thursday in the former Kroger building at 205 E. Chicago Blvd.

In the completely refurbished and re-equipped building, Country Markets will offer everything in the food and meat line.

With 5,500 square feet of sales area, the outlet, fifth in the firm's chain which began in Clinton, features custom-cut meats in choice and commercial grades.

For frozen foods, there is a giant case, 48 feet long.

Managing the store will be Merle Hoag, who is moving to Tecumseh from Ann Arbor. In the food business for five years, he joined the Country Market chain to run the Tecumseh store.

Assisting him will be Merle McKeever, already a Tecumseh resident, who'll be meat manager. Mr. McKeever has been an employee of Country Markets for half a dozen years.

Owen Merrill of Tecumseh is produce manager.

Other full-time employees will be Mrs. Andrew Lewicki, Mrs. Salinn Weaver, Mrs. Leroy Williams, Jack Ekin, Carol Sue Rutherford, Mrs. Chester Frear and Joan Johnston.

Part-time help includes Carman Hendershot of Macon, Carolyn Cowen of Tipton and Doris Williams. Carry-out boys are Pete Dabe, Jay Andrews, Jim Tonneberger and Larry McKay.

Asphalting of free parking areas behind the store was completed before the cold weather arrived, providing room for 65 cars. This spring, spaces for another 50 will be hard-topped east of the building, where a residence has been removed.

Thirty free prizes are being given in conjunction with the opening — from G. E. portable hand mixers to Presto heat controlled grills.

The first 100 customers Thursday, Friday and Saturday will each receive a large loaf of bread.

Country Market will be open from 8 a.m. until 9 p.m. daily and on Sunday from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m.

STOCKING SHELF—Mrs. Andrew Lewicki, along with our Country Markets, Inc. employees has had a busy time in the past few weeks pricing and displaying merchandise in the new Tecumseh outlet. The store opens Thursday. It is located in the former Kroger building, offers 5,500 square feet of sales area, is the fifth store in the chain.

48 Hours Before She Can Speak

After more than 48 hours in a semi-conscious state, Mrs. Elizabeth Wing was able to speak Sunday from her bed in Herrick Memorial Hospital.

However, she could recall little of the near-fatal auto accident she had been in last Thursday afternoon.

The 37-year-old Mrs. Wing, who lives at 105 W. Pottawatamie St., was traveling west on US 112. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mary, 14; mother, Mrs. George Schumm, 67 of 508 W. Chicago Blvd. and aunt, Mrs. Louise Bauman, 75 of 212 Wyandotte St.

Although going only about 45 miles an hour, an icy stretch caused a skid.

In order to avoid sliding into oncoming traffic, Mrs. Wing spun off to the right and her auto crashed broadside into a tree.

All four occupants of the automobile were rushed to Herrick Memorial with Mrs. Wing in the most serious condition. She had nine broken ribs, a broken shoulder and concussion.

Mrs. Schumm's injuries were a fractured pelvis and right wrist and facial cuts.

A broken bone in Mrs. Bauman's left ankle and serious facial bruises were her injuries.

Mary had a severe laceration on the back of her head and a concussion. She and Mrs. Bauman are expected to be released in about two weeks.

The Wings' 1956 Ford station wagon was completely demolished.

THE Long & Short OF IT

By TOM RIORDAN

Our front page for last week's paper was pretty well planned by Tuesday afternoon.

Then we got up the next morning and saw how the area had been socked in by an ice storm.

Our original plan called for a pretty peaceful layout—pictures taken at the Nursery School.

The whole thing was scraped as the staff dove into the weather story, which topped everything.

Pictures were taken between 9 and 10, developed, printed and engravings made on our machine. (Bless that Scan-a-graver.)

With telephone lines to Consumers Power, Rural Electric Co-op, the Phone Co. and the schools busy, busy, busy, it was difficult getting through to obtain facts.

But by noon, everything was pretty well wrapped up. Stories and pictures were going into the front-page form after lunch when word of a death on the highline arrived.

It took some doing, but we finally obtained the unfortunate fellow's name and the fact he worked for Rural Electric Co-op in Adrian.

With these meager facts, we went to press.

Later we found out more details, that the REA'er had been at work on trouble calls since 1 a.m. that morning (he was electrocuted at 1 p.m.)— 12 straight hours of restoring service to farms on the Co-ops lines.

In tracking down the facts, the Adrian office reported this had been the worst storm in its territory (Lenawee County in Michigan and Fulton and Williams Counties in Ohio) in 20 years.

Folks along Staib Rd. will agree with this, I'm sure, having been without electricity for 64½ hours as a result of the storm.

We'd like to salute people who unselfishly battled the storm, particularly City employees who had the almost impossible job of keeping streets open.

☆

Everyone has troubles. Each of us think his is the worst.

The other day a letter arrived in Tecumseh from Detroit working gal and without a doubt here was trouble, spelled with a capital T.

Just listen to this poor soul's woe:

"Since I think you consider me a fairly reliable person, I trust you'll believe I'm not writing you fairy tales. A stranger might really wonder. (Don't think I don't wonder where and what is reality!)

"Almost everything has happened to me since last talking to you.

"I've been robbed (two days before Christmas), had our only two December art jobs cancelled (through skulduggery) and had a brand new art director take his position with us under false pretenses, work for the three weeks preceding Christmas, take a check from me the day after Christmas, go to the bank and return and quit.

"He had previously invested $10,000 in another studio where he was to start the first of the year, but I guess we looked good for a little Christmas money. (He accomplished nothing in those three weeks, but we had been looking to the FUTURE!)

"As if that weren't enough, he said he'd do everything to help us get more slidefilm business, but what he did was try to hire our cartoonist and slidefilm assembler, call a client and infer that we couldn't get their job out without his art direction and the job was cancelled leaving us with a big loss.

"Through all this was woven my experiences of viewing the lineup at Bethune Station to identify "my" thief (no less than a $40-a-day dope addict with a three-page crime record), signing the warrent in the prosecutor's office, going through several courts, etc. I got quite an education in the seamy side of life.

"It's pretty hard to spend time in those surroundings without feeling as if you were guilty too. If the detective I was working with hadn't been such a fabulous and delightful person (unfortunately married), the whole experience would have been grimmer than grim.

"I can't remember whether I had related to you earlier our charming experience of discovering that a man whom my father had started negotiations with to sell our art business to decided that he could get our business and our people without paying us anything, and he was continuing negotiations — behind our back — with one of our artists (the temperamental one) and one of our salesmen. He told them one story and us another.

"As you might well imagine, I have been teeming with very un-Christian thoughts."

Yes, we can imagine.

Mike Walters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Walters, 1013 Red Mill Dr., has received an alternate appointment to the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, Col. Extremely active in high school athletics and other extra-curricular activities, he is a member of the First Baptist Church.

PETER GLUCKMAN

'Flying Watchmaker' Picks Up Meyers 200

Peter Gluckman, San Francisco's Flying Watchmaker, is in Tecumseh to pick up his Meyers Aircraft Model 200.

It's the ship in which he'll attempt a 7,000-mile, non-stop flight from Tokyo to New York this spring.

If Mr. Gluckman succeeds, it will establish a world's record in distance for a single-engine ship.

The craft, just completed, is undergoing a series of final tests — even before it receives a final paint job.

Tuesday afternoon there was a junket to Dayton, O. where a prop vibration check was made.

Mr. Gluckman expects to have everything in jig order by this weekend so that he may return in the ship to the Coast and begin test hops.

☆

ALREADY THE holder of one world mark, a flight across the polar cap in a single-engine ship, Mr. Gluckman is an addicted businessmen-flyer.

Ten months of the year he works at his trade of watchmaker and the other two he devotes to flying.

His polar cap hop was one leg of a 25,000 mile odyssey, which took him to South America, over the Atlantic to South Africa and up to London, which his parents live.

The 32-year-old flyer made a thorough investigation of American-built small ships and choose the Meyers 200, which went into production last summer after several years of development.

Captive of Rebels Speaks to Methodists

A young Methodist missionary, who was a captive of the Algerian rebels for 40 days, will speak at the Methodist Church in Tecumseh Sunday morning at 10.

The Rev. Lester E. Griffith, whose American home is Cleveland, returned to the United States in October, shortly after he was released unharmed last September.

He had served in Algeria five years as a literacy teacher and social worker.

On August 18, Mr. Griffith was taken prisoner by a rebel commando group while he was on the way from Algeries to his home at Fort National in the Atlas mountains.

For several days, he marched over rugged terrain with his captors and then spent three weeks in a rebel camp, where he lived as one of the group.

Because of his knowledge of the language and of Algerian customs, he was able to communicate with his captors on every level from the highest officers to the ordinary rifleman.

AFTER TALKING with Colonel Ammirouche, a high-ranking rebel commander, Mr. Griffith was released at a misison station of the Roman Catholic White Fathers.

He was reunited with family and friends during the annual meeting of the North Africa Methodist Conference.

Mr. Griffith is believed to be the only American to have been a prisoner of the Algerian rebels for so long a time, since the French-nationalist conflict began in 1954.

For three years, Mr. Griffith worked in towns where French-Arab tension and even violence were rife—Fort National in eastern Algeria and in the city of Algiers. He worked for a time at 11-Maten, also in eastern Algeria, but left when that mis-

Mrs. Harold Easton, March of Dimes chairman for Tecumseh and Tecumseh township, announced Tuesday morning that the Polio March will remain Thursday, Jan. 29 as planned even though other communities in the county have changed the date.

Members of the Jaycees and their Auxiliary have made preparations for "Boss' Night" on Feb. 5 and members of the VFW and the Auxiliary will be serving the dinner that night therefore it was deemed necessary to carry out the drive as originally planned.

Boysville Opens New Dormitory

BOYSVILLE — A new 80-boy dormitory here, which is being moved into this week, has been named Cardinal Mooney Hall.

Located between the gymnasium and chapel, it will make possible an enrollment increase of 20 young men.

The other 60 places are being taken by boys moving from older residence buildings, which in turn are being made into recreation halls.

Total capacity at the school is now 170, states Brother John Lavelle.

The Brothers of Holy Cross conduct Boysville.

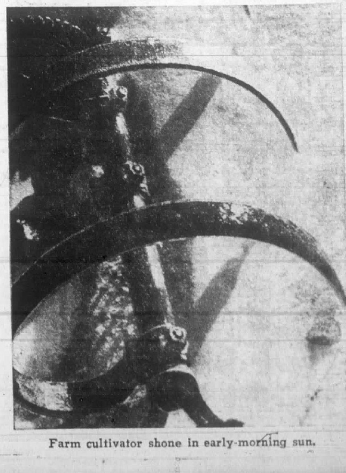
The benefactor who provided the funds for the new dormitory is a good friend of boys, explains Brother John.

Since Boysville's beginning he has watched with interest its steady growth from a small school of 18 enrollment in 1948.

Since he was a great admirer of the late Cardinal Mooney he wished to remember him by having the new facility named in his honor.

Taken to Ann Arbor

Mrs. Pauline Kopka was taken to the University Medical Center in Ann Arbor Thursday for observation and medical care.



Farm cultivator shone in early-morning sun.

Available: Generators

When trouble strikes, as it did last week, and area residences are without electricity, the Tecumseh Civil Air Patrol can provide immediate help.

Within an hour, thanks to a prearranged state CAP plan, 100 gasoline generators, some large enough to provide power for three farms, can be brought into the city.

Bill Davenport, commander of the local 15-man unit, explains that CAP is set up to assist in two other ways.

It has mobil communications in VHF car and field radios. These can be quickly moved into a troubled air to keep messages flowing.

Then there is the matter of aircraft, which might be needed for searches. CAP here can call in 25 ships from within 25 miles.

There is no charge for any of this emergency help, he states.

CAP, which is an Auxiliary of the Air Force, has headquarters in Detroit. When a community is in difficulty, word quickly goes to the Motor City and people with emergency gear are called to stand by to fly it in.

Mr. Davenport states that should anyone need help to call 1173 or 1118.

You Told Us

BY DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Courtesy is and has been a key word in Tecumseh the past week since snow, cold and ice have been so prevalent. Many has been the car of a lady, in distress which received a kindly push when that auto just would not move on the ice.

So it was with this writer last Monday morning after taking Papa to work.

Changing gears and rocking the car back and forth just did not produce power enough to climb the slight incline over the track near Tecumseh Products.

When despair had almost taken over, a figure from the gloom hurrying to work put a shoulder to the offending auto and away we went.

The figure disappeared into the early morning darkness again and left this gal with a tremendous feeling of gratefulness toward him and all others who have been so gracious to mankind during the poor road conditions.

People still come and go. We do hope it is with extreme caution and only when necessary.

Kiwanis Guest Enthralls Group with Church Talk

Clifford Knudson was speaker at Kiwanis Club Thursday evening and quite enthralled his listeners as he spoke on "Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints."

He presented slides and gave the historical background of the Church which was founded April 6, 1830 in Palmyra, New York.

Because of duress the saints moved west finally settling in Salt Lake City where one of the 13 Mormon Temples in the world is located.

Approximately a million and a quarter members in the U. S. are governed by a president, two counsellors and a quorum of 12 men called apostles located in Salt Lake.

There are 25 districts in the country and each church has the same type of governing body.

Mr. Knudson spoke concerning pologamy which was stopped in 1890. About 3% of the people were involved in pologamy at that time due to the scarcity of men.

Carl Lamb presided at the meeting and introduced the speaker following the song fest and dinner.

Correspondent Speaking Feb. 6 at Institute

Lenawee County Teachers' Institute will be held Feb. 6 in Ridge Auditorium at Adrian College.

During the morning program the teachers will hear Robert St. John, a famous correspondent and best-selling author.

In his travels he has remained in most of the places long enough to gain an understanding of the hopes, fears, dreams and problems of the people.

While others have hunted "headline names," Mr. St. John has studied the minds and hearts of the ordinary people wherever he has gone.

His subject next Friday morning, "Pattern For Democracy" is a constructive and optomistic lecture on the 20 years of living in, observing and reporting from the various capitals of Europe.

The principal speaker of the afternoon meeting will be Dr. Beryl D. Orris, a leading authority on human relations, world youth movements, mental health, and why we act the way we do.

Lenawee Population To Double by 1970

"People are markets," Glenn Cox of Muskegon told a recent Rotary gathering.

Cox, director of marketing and merchandizing for the General Telephone Co., added that Michigan, and in particular the five or six southeastern counties, are going to be a bigger market because there are going to be a lot more people.

His prediction that Lenawee county will double its population by 1970 was based on research studies by MSU and Central Michigan College of Education.

Five counties of southeast Michigan will have 55 per cent of the state's population by 1970, he went on, and those fringing it up the east side of the Michigan mitten will have 29 per cent of the population.

He estimated the population of our five counties would be 5,787,000 people in another 11 years.

This tremendous growth, he pointed out, creates multiple problems for our industry. It means more telephones, more exchanges, more service demanded by "strip towns" of the future

Tecumseh, he added, will have dial telephone service by 1960.

Carbon Tetrachloride Can Be Dangerous

Impact of Seaway

A meeting of special interest to local businessmen will be held next Thursday night when the Tecumseh Jaycees will be hosts to E. O. Jewell, general manager of the Port of Toledo.

The topic for the nationally-known speaker undoubtedly will be the impact of world trade through the opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway, the expectant growth of industry and shipping trade to and around the Ohio port.

Also on the program will be announcements and presentations of the Outstanding Young Farmer award for this area, and for the first time, the Distinguished Service Award for Outstanding Young Man (21-35) of Tecumseh.

Judges were swamped with nominations for the farmer award, which is being offered for the second year.

Each winner will be presented with a plaque.

Mr. Jewell, an expert in world trade circles, has been employed by the city of Toledo to adapt the port of world shipping. He was formerly employed in similar positions by the cities of Norfolk, Va., and New Orleans.

The meeting, starting at 8 p.m., is open to Tecumseh businessmen. Dinner for Jaycees will start as usual at 6:30.

At Least They're Polite about It, This Slaughter

Young ladies on Tecumseh High School's basketball teams politely slaughtered Dundee Monday night.

The Varsity game score was 36-21 and the Junior Varsity, 16-6.

Saturday, the girls tipoff at Hudson, 10:40 a.m.

Coach Carol Sheffer was pleased that the gals here with little experience showed up so well against Dundee.

Sherry Tucker scored 20 points to pace the varsity attack.

Miss Sheffer said, "The guards won the game for us, their defense was so good. It's harder to stop some one else making a basket than to put it in there yourself."

Quantities of cookies and milk were enjoyed by the happy hoopsters following the games.

Don't Worry If Date Is Wrong

Several subscribers to the Tecumseh Herald have been disturbed because the expiration date has not been changed on their papers even though they have recently paid for their subscription.

Perhaps others would be interested to know that the office is using a card file to record payments and the dates will be gradually deleted from the subscribers plates of the Addressograph.

IN THEY COME—It was moving day at Boysville last Friday, when the new dormitory, became ready for occupancy. The boys moved in the front door as the painters, and plumbers moved out the back doors. With the completion of the new dormitory the enrollment increased from 150 to 170. During the semester weekend Boysville welcomed 30 new boys. Most of these boys were from the Detroit area. Others travelled from as far as Bessemer, Michigan, about 500 miles from Macon.

Welcome, Country Markets

We'd like to welcome Tecumseh's newest business, Country Markets, Inc., which begins operations here this week.

The local outlet is No. 5 for the growing grocery and meat chain. One of the three men who own Country Markets, Chuck Carlton, Jr, explains that the firms' "master plan" calls for 10 stores.

As soon as everything is completed here, a new market will be gotten underway in downtown Clinton. The present Clinton store, the first outlet, will be turned into a meat processing plant.

At present Country Markets steaks and chops are prepared in the rear of the No. 1 store, but much more space is needed.

After Clinton, the next stop will probably be Brooklyn.

Moving into the old downtown Kroger store several months ago, carpenters and painters began a complete remodeling job. All new fixtures and lighting have been installed and the floor plan altered.

In addition to Mr. Carlton, Jr., the other owners are his father, Charles, Sr. and Joseph Busch. We wish them and their staff here all the best of luck.

Signal Light Needed

We understand that highway folks have been running checks on traffic crossing the N. Evans-Herrick Park Dr. and W. Brown intersection.

This is the progressively more busy junction where the new A&P store and Standard Service Station are located.

At times there are real pile-ups as cars, bumper-to-bumper, await an opportunity on the secondary artery to get across Evans.

It's a dangerous situation, especially under poor driving conditions as we have been "enjoying" the last week.

We'd say a signal light is certainly needed there.

Performing on the monkey bars are Jimmy Christian and Johnny Merz. Parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Christian of N. Adrian Highway and Mr. and Mrs. Al Merz, 9716 Tecumseh-Clinton Rd.

STEREO AND HI-FI

From questions asked at COOK ELECTRIC, we feel that a lot of people think that hi-fi and stereo sound production are the same thing.

They are not. The great difference is that stereo recordings are made with two microphones some distance apart, each recording its tone on a separate track within the stereo record groove. When the record is played on regular stereo equipment, there are actually two different relationships of sound emitting from two speakers. Hi-fi is not recorded with this principle.

Phone 692-J if you have any questions about this subject. We'll do our best to answer them for you.

Cancer Society Sends Back $1,000 Check

The Lenawee County Chapter of the American Cancer Society has decided not to join the Lenawee County United Fund, announced Howard White, president of the County Fund.

In a letter from Mr. H. H. Hemgerford, president of the Lenawee Cancer Society, Mr. White reports, the following pertinent statements were made:

"We sincerely regret that the limitations that would become effective upon our acceptance of your generous check for $1,000 prohibits the Lenawee County Unit of the American Cancer Society from so-doing.

"In our county, there is need for both United Fund and independent health agencies to build a program and raise funds, each in its own fields.

"We trust you will recognize the importance of our National, independent attack on Cancer just as we recognize the need for the United Fund to serve prominent charitable and welfare agencies?"

☆

"NATURALLY, we regret this decision by the Cancer Society and that of the Muscular Dystrophy Association last week," White stated.

"It is quite apparent to me, as I hope the general public will realize, that the solution to this problem of 'too many campaigns' is not an easy one," White continued.

"It is really a community problem which requires the active interest of the citizenry and one which the County Fund board of directors cannot solve alone.

"I am confident that, in time," White concluded, "the will of the contributing public will prevail. When this does, the few remaining independent organizations will join with the more than 40 important Community Service and health agencies that now comprise the United Fund."

New Industry at Clinton Will Start Hiring

CLINTON — A new industry, which will employ 40 to 50 people, is coming here.

Pop Tent Corp. has leased a portion of the Clinton Woolen Mfg. Co. plant and will begin hiring next week.

It is affiliated with King-Seeley Co. of Ann Arbor and has moved from there to Clinton to obtain greater floor space.

Pop Tent Corporation was organized about two years ago to market tents and other types of canvas shelters of unique design and featuring modern color trends.

Design of the tents and shelters also embodies ease of erection and compactness for carrying.

The company sells its products nationally, principally through major sporting goods dealers and department stores.

The company has introduced a wide range of new design in camping equipment. The U. S. Department of State recognized these designs by selecting four products for exhibit at the 1958 Brussels World's Fair.

The company's products have had nation-wide publicity in magazines, newspapers, and in books such as "Ford Treasury of Station Wagon Living." The products have been seen on network television, as well as local shows such as "Michigan Out-of-Doors."

Gray Ladies Elect Officers for Year

Refreshments were served by the hostess to nine members present.

Men Not Women Elected To Board

Give Your Silage Taste, Color Tests To Check on It

Take a look at the silage you put up last summer and you'll get an idea of what kind of a job you did.

If the feed is other than a dark or olive green color with little smell and clean sour taste, it was put up too wet or too dry and fermentation was not good.

S. D. Dexter, farm crops scientist at the Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station, lists the following types of silage and the causes for the condition.

If it is dark in color and has a sweet tobacco smell plus a slightly sour taste, it was put up too dry and not packed enough. Air got in the silage heated.

If the silage is light green in color and rather damp with a bad smell and a bitter taste, it was put up too damp or too fast, or it got a lot of rainwater during filling. Dexter says sometimes it is this way only on the bottom due to drainage water.

If the color is good but the smell is strong along with some dampness near the top and end surfaces, chances are melting snow or rainwater got into the silage and is damaging an otherwise good feed. It needs protection.

Molding spots indicate air getting in, either through dryness, poor packing or because water is carrying air in with it. Dexter says most of these conditions can be corrected at filling time next season.

Baptist Church Plan 4 Meetings for February

Plans have been completed by the Rev. Blair Bashore for four Sunday evening meetings at the First Baptist Church during the month of February.

Those planning to attend will receive greater benefit from the study if they read the book several times before the meetings begin.

THIS WEEK'S Police Blotter

A minor accidnt occurred last week at the intersection of Union and Patterson St.

An auto driven by Howard E. Walter of Delta, Ohio collided with one driven by Edna Diederman, 301 W. Russell Rd. No summons were issued.

√

Earl A. Marsh, 41-years-old, 615 S. Pearl St. pleaded guilty to a charge of assault and battery in Justice Robert French's court. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $20 and costs of $4.30 and placed on 30-day probation.

Marsh was arrested by Tecumseh police and booked at the County jail on a complaint signed by his wife.

√

Tickets for traffic violations were issued last week to Charles H. Kingon, 831 College Ave., Adrian, and Jerry C. Benedict of Ridgeway Township. Both summons were for speeding.

√

Southerly breezes removed the ice from the trees and took some of the sting out of our blizzard-like weather over the week-end.

Temperatures began rising about mid-day Saturday, but soon dropped leaving the streets as treacherous as before and City police answered calls for collisions which resulted from slippery streets.

A freak accident in which occupants escaped serious injury occurred Saturday afternoon on S. Adrian St.

Mrs. Arthur Hare and son, Dannie, of 207 N. Maumee St. were traveling south on Adrian St. when she lost control of her car on ice.

It skidded into a tree, turned upside down and came to a halt in the driveway of Henry Korth. The auto was estimated to be a total loss.

√

Cars driven by Clarence Goshorn of Clinton and John Finnegan of Centennial Rd. were damaged slightly in a collision at 2 p.m. Sunday.

Finnegan was attempting a left turn off Evans St. onto Herrick Park Drive when his auto slid into Goshorn's who had made a safety stop on Herrick Park Drive before entering Evan's St.

No summons was issued.

√

Denton McCarley, 409 E. Logan St., was charged with violating the basic speed law after his car struck another owned by Robert McKee of 207 N. Van Buren.

The McKee auto was parked on the east side of Wyandotte when the accident occurred at 8:20 p.m. Sunday.

Veterinarians Attend Session

Dr. Carlos Knisley and Dr. William S. Britton, both of Tecumseh, attended the 36th annual Post-Graduate Conference for Veterinarians at Michigan State University last week.

About 350 practicing veterinarians from Michigan and several other midwest states heard about advance in the treatment and care of farm and home animals.

G. S. McIntyre, director of the state department of agriculture, declared that "Michigan has one of the soundest disease control programs in the nation, thanks to the fine cooperation between the Michigan veterinarians and the Michigan Department of Agriculture."

The annual conference also served as the College of Veterinary Medicine Alumni Program. Each of the colleges sponsors such a project, in conjunction with the Office of Alumni Relations, during the school year.

Brucellosis Is on the Run

Brucellosis can be licked. For proof just look at the trend in the number of reactors slaughtered.

In January, 1,425 reactors were slaughtered. By July the number ped to 1,000. And in November, only 425 reactors were slaughtered.

Now that the disease is on the run in Michigan, George Parsons, dairy specialist at Michigan State University, warns that the big job is to keep the disease out. He suggests the following steps:

Get heifer calves vaccinated. Some areas are doing good but Parsons points out that there are a lot of future cows with no protection against the disease.

If you must buy cattle, make sure they are blood tested first.

Parsons winds up with this thought: "The local auction market may be a good place to sell slaughter cattle. But it is not a good place to buy replacements for the dairy herd."

Milan Club Hosts City Music Group on February 17

"Russian Music" was the program topic presented by Mrs. Fred Oberlin Tuesday evening for 13 members and two guests of the Music Club.

The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. James Danforth with Mrs. Leslie Bennett assisting hostess.

Mrs. Paul Davis of Adrian sang "None But the Lonely Heart," accompanied by Mrs. Paul Brantingham.

Refreshments were served.

The club has been invited to attend the meeting of the Milan Club on Feb. 4 and the next regular meeting of the local group will be Feb. 17.

Ginger Wins Title

Seventeen-year-old Ginger Barth of rural Adrian has won the title of 1959 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow for Tecumseh High School.

Making the announcement is her economics teacher, Mrs. Leva Brown.

Miss Barth received the highest score in a 50-minute written examination on homemaking knowledge and attitudes taken by graduating senior girls.

She will receive a homemaking pin with the slogan, "Home is Where the Heart Is."

Her examination paper will be entered in competition with those of other school winners in the state to name the state Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow.

The test is designed and judged by Science Research Associates.

Each state Homemaker of Tomorrow will receive a $1,500 scholarship from General Mills, an educational trip April 4-10 with her school advisor to Washington, D. C., colonial Williamsburg, Va., New York City and Minneapolis, and she will be a candidate for the title of All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow.

The school of each state winner will receive a set of the Encyclopaedia Britannica. General Mills will award a $500 scholarship to each state runner-up.

Winners are being chosen for 12,260 schools throughout the nation.

Dairy-O-Rama Will Feature Farm Survey

Quality products, the greatest sales force for the dairy business, has a prominent place on the Dairy-O-Rama program, announces ohn W. Comstock, Lenawee county extension agent.

Dairy-O-Rama is scheduled for Feb. 26 at Clinton High School. Farmers may come at any time during the day although no parts of the program will be repeated.

One feature of the program will be a report on a dairy farm survey of compliance with health regulations. A member of the division of dairy of the Michigan Department of Agriculture will make this report.

Following this report, Donald Murray, dairy extension specialist at Michigan State University, will explain and exhibit some techniques and practices that farmers can use to comply with health and sanitation regulations.

The health and sanitation discussion will be centered around the production of Grade A milk. Highest return market for milk is the fluid milk and dairymen must meet certain requirements to qualify for and keep this market, reminds Murray.

The Dairy-O-Rama program will cover many phases of the dairy farm operation. On those farms where dairy is the main source of income, investments are high. All phases of the operation must be in balance for greatest possible income. The Dairy-O-Rama program will explain how to keep the operation in balance.

Friends Church Minister Given Swivel Desk Chair

The Rev. Paul Brantingham was the receipient of a fine swivel desk chair last Wednesday evening when 70 of the Church and Sunday School of the Friends Church met in the basement after prayer meeting to honor his birthday.

Refreshments were served including a huge birthday cake in the shape of a man's white shirt, folded.

The cake, made and decorated by Mrs. Clarence Randolph, featured a monogrammed pocket and a tie all in yellow and white trim.

Mrs. Melvin Muhn and Mrs. Harry Creger made arrangements for the party which was a complete surprise to the minister.

"EVERY AGE HAS ITS PROBLEMS"

Not so many years ago, old age presented few problems because the average person did not live very long. There were always exceptions, but usually forty was considered aged.

Nowadays, past seventy is average life expectancy. The problems now is to make certain that all these extra years medical research and potent new medicines are giving us, can be enjoyably lived. We have many new sustaining geriatric drugs and energy producing vitamins that can make your added years happier ones. Visit your physician for regular health check-ups. When necessary, he will prescribe the medicines that can help you to stay younger than forty years.

Through My Window

A GOOD START FOR THE SECOND YEAR

It hardly seems possible, but with this column, it has been exactly a year minus a day since I first asked if I might share with you the excitement and adventure which goes on outside my windows.

For me it has been a most pleasant experience and what better way to start our second year than by being able to tell of the fulfillment of a long standing wish.

Beth and Ella, they finally came.

For a month or so, we had been getting reports about a small flock of Evening Grosbeaks. They seemed to be hopscotching their way through various yards, skipping from one feeding station to another.

Well at last, the other day, at exactly 12:15, they visited us.

Such perfect luncheon guests —their dress was exquisite and their manners impeccable.

The seventh sense, the one which prompts us to pull our nose out of a book or otherwise stop whatever we are doing and look outside, alerted us just as a lovely lady was taking stock of the luncheon buffet.

☆

SURROUNDED by sunflower seeds, scratch feed, corn and suet there, in the middle of our feeder, stood a beautiful Evening Grosbeak.

The female Evening Grosbeak has the same soft, peaceful demureness that typifies the female Cardinal. She also has the same big pole bill and short blunt tail that her mate has but lacks the brilliant yellow that he sports.

Her head is a smoky gray and her inter-tail feathers are broadly end-tipped with white.

During the few minutes that it took our first diner to look the food situation over, the rest of the small flock flew into the nearby "wren tree". What a thrill.

When the first bird left the feeder, she flew into the tree and down, to take her place on the tray, came a big strikingly colorful male. For some minutes the birds traded places like this until each had his or her turn.

Then, after making sure that everyone's hunger had been satisfied, the entire flock flew away in a loosely knit group.

☆

IF THE FEMALE Grosbeak is a vision of pastels, the male is a breath-taking riot of color.

As the males, one at a time, glided down to partake of their noon time meal, we could not help but exclaim at their vivid coloring.

Like his mate, the male is about eight or nine inches long, has short legs and beautiful black and white wings which are nearly twice as long as the slightly V-shaped tail.

His head is beautifully marked. His forehead and a tapering stripe above each eye are brilliant yellow while the top of his head, almost like a little cap, is jet black.

The rest of his head, neck and upper-back are a rich olive which changes gradually, on the shoulders and breast, to a lemonish yellow. Truly a bird to brighten up a dull winter's landscape.

The disquieting thing about the Grosbeak's luncheon visit, the thing which makes me most disgusted with myself, is that I have no pictures of the adventure.

The day before had been very uneventful and because that morning, so dark and dreary, had promised to be little better, we had not taken the time to aim the camera on the feeder and put the switch on my bed.

Imagine—in a rush to save two minutes, we lost the perfect chance to get pictures of these beautiful birds.

☆

WE THOUGHT we had important things to do but surely, nothing accomplished that day can, even in a small way, compensate for such a loss.

It only takes a minute or so to get the camera set and believe me, never again will I set such a premium on my time; nothing has to be done so immediately that we can't steal a minute or two to get ready for what ever may happen.

Just let the Grosbeaks or any other new birds come along and from now on, we will be ready.

Actually, that we are still looking forward to getting pictures of our Evening Grosbeaks proves an important point.

One of the exciting things about a backyard birdwatching hobby is that there is always something to anticipate, there is always something new, never does one reach the stage of having seen it all.

We thank the Evening Grosbeaks for the expert timing of their first visit; surely experiencing the thrill of having these beauties in our own yard is a good start for the second year.

Nine Weary Months of Cold and Sleet

This appropriate parody was given to The Herald by David Locke of 923 Occidential Rd. when he recently visited the office.

"MICHIGAN, MY MICHIGAN"

Home of my heart I sing of thee, Michigan my Michigan.
A colder land there ne'er could be, Michigan my Michigan.
Nine weary months of cold and sleet we limp around with frozen feet.
Your darned old climate can't be beat, Michigan my Michigan.
Your loyal sons will ne'er forget, Michigan my Michigan,
This year, the coldest winter yet, Michigan my Michigan.
Your cold winds howl about our knees, we poke the fire and sit and freeze.
Oh what's the use of BVD's, Michigan my Michigan.

THE Long & Short OF IT

By TOM RIORDAN

Without a doubt the world's most famous personage of the professional basketball floor is Goose Tatum and he's coming to Tecumseh.

There'll be other hoopsters to round out a squad with Goose called the Harlem Stars who'll stage an exhibition here Feb. 27 against the Jaycees.

But none will come close to matching the hardwood history the Goose has carved.

No one can.

Goose first reached national fame as a member of the Harlem Globetrotters, the brain-child of Abe Saperstein, one of the sports world's top promoters.

GOOSE TATUM

Abe formed a band of touring colored players who went from town to town, clowning through one exhibition after another.

For years the returns were meager, but Abe hung on.

Along came Goose and Abe saw a star was about to be born. Fashioning the act around the smiling giant, the Trotters were soon recognized as one of the best exhibition teams in the game.

But Abe, the Goose and his fellow players knew they were also excellent performers and wanted to meet top pro teams.

They got their chance when Abe was able to enter the squad in a professional tournament at Chicago Stadium right after World War II. There was no question about the competition—the rundown of quintets included the finest from U.S. pro leagues.

This time, the Trotters played it straight and they won. Their victories helped to open more and more doors all over the world.

Abe had his crew playing the year round, in something like in 200 games. When the team performed in an outdoor court at Berlin the crowd topped 50,000. And how they loved the Goose.

Well, as it often happens, the star and promoter reached some disagreement and Goose left to form his own club, the Harlem Stars which will hit Tecumseh in three weeks.

Admittedly, the Stars probably couldn't beat the Trotters (Saperstein's farm system being what it is), but by the same token nothing the Trotters have in individual stars can stack up against the Goose in popular appeal.

The Kiwanis Club here is sponsoring the game with tickets going at $1.50 for adults and $1 for students. They can be obtained from Hodges Drug Store and the D&C.

Carl Lamb, Kiwanis president, is general chairman.

Proceeds will go to the Teen Club, the Forney Clement Foundation room at University Hospital and help purchase the electric football scoreboard here.

☆

When they hand out a "Red Badge of Courage" around town, there's one fellow who should certainly get it.

LaVern Seizert, age 56, is the candidate.

A driver for Hayden Mills, LaVern lost a hand last week when it became caught in his truck's auger as he slipped on ice.

All alone when the accident happened, he had to regain his footing, re-start the auger so that he could extract what was left of his hand.

Then he walked into the office.

Don't you agree with the nomination?

☆

A comment made by judges who picked this weekly as one of the state's best touched us deeply:

"Good coverage and support of community enterprises."

I hasten to admit that continued improvement is always in order on this subject — and the man who says the job he does is perfect rates a dunce cap.

But it's certainly nice to have an outsider, who has no ax to grind, comment us on this important point.

Of course, Jim and I modestly accept our state award, which doesn't make us feel complacent, but rather stimulates us to try and do a bigger and better job.

In printing this month's TP Broadcast, the time of an important Union meeting was off by one hour.

This note is for folks who plan to attend: it's 9 a.m., not 10.

Don Martin Joins Million $ Club

Don Martin, local Gamble dealer, was presented with an engraved plaque for membership in the company's Million Dollar Club.

The recent presentation was made at the Morrison Hotel in Chicago. The award represented distribution of over one million dollars in merchandise.

Mrs. Martin accompanied her husband to the banquet and meeting, which featured new spring and summer merchandise lines.

Herald Again Wins High State Honors

For a second straight year The Tecumseh Herald has been rated among the best weekly newspapers in Michigan.

In the annual state General Excellence Contest, The Herald won a runner-up position in the 2,000-to-4,000 circulation group, finishing next to The Northville Record.

The Belding Banner News was third and honorable mentions went to the Brighton Argus, Fenton Independent, Otsego County Herald Times, Romeo Observer Press, Richmond Review and Chelsea Standard.

Judges from the journalism department of Florida State University said of the Tecumseh paper:

"Front page has crisp, open appearance. Good pictures reproduced well. Front page column is a good feature. Good coverage and support of community enterprises."

A certificate was presented to Herald co-publishers Jim Lincoln and Tom Riordan at the All-Michigan banquet Saturday evening in Kellogg Center attended by nearly 400.

The dinner was the climax of the 91st annual Michigan Press Association gathering for daily and weekly newspaper editors, publishers and their families from throughout the state.

Highlights of the two-day meeting were talks by Sidney Bernstein, editorial director of Advertising Age; Dr. Joseph Kaplan, chairman U.S. National committee for the International Geophysical Year; Frank Prior, chairman of Standard Oil Co. and Inez Robb, syndicated columnist.

Arrival of Twins Surprise to Folks

When Mr. and Mrs. Lavern Marine hurried to Herrick Memorial Hospital Friday they knew their third child was about to arrive.

What they didn't know was that No. 4 would also be making an appearance.

The couple got there at 1 p.m.

By 4:09 they had twin sons, the two lads arriving nine minutes apart.

Both are heavyweights — Kurt Albert at 7 lbs., 3 ozs. and Kent Arland at an even 8 pounds.

The 24-year-old Mrs. Marine normally weighs about 140. With this pregnancy she gained about 40 pounds and now she knows why.

The family moved into a three-bedroom home last summer at 715 Ternes Rd. and now Mr. and Mrs. Marine are wondering where they'll all fit. Other youngsters are Diane Joyce, 4 and Keith Phillip, 2.

Mr. Marine is employed at Tecumseh Products.

Misses Talk, Has Operation Instead

Carlos Jones, president of Rotary here, had been eagerly looking forward to the visit in Tecumseh Tuesday of Stanley Leverton from London.

That afternoon, without warning, he became ill and had to be rushed to Herrick Memorial Hospital.

As Mr. Leverton was giving his scheduled speech before about 150 Rotarians at the Methodist Church, Mr. Jones was undergoing surgery for a perforated ulcer.

His condition Wednesday morning was satisfactory.

Citizens To Discuss Tax Crisis

A meeting of Lenawee County citizens to discuss the current Michigan financial crisis will be held Monday in Adrian at the St. John's School at 8 p.m.

It is located on E. Church St. near Grinnell's Music Store.

Open to the public and nonpartisan in nature, the session has been dubbed County Meeting on State Government.

The idea was hatched early this week when 25 County leaders gathered at the Rock Inn.

On hand to answer questions on state spending and taxes next week will be Sen. Elmer Porter and probably Rep. Rollo Conlin. There also may be a third member of the State Legislature present.

All types of questions regarding Michigan finances are to be considered. These can be sent to The Herald by Saturday. They'll be presented to a special screening committee which will eliminate duplicity and arrange for presentation to the guests.

The gathering will be of the "town meeting" type with questions also asked from the floor. William Walker, an Adrian attorney, will serve as moderator.

A turnout of between 300 and 400 is expected.

Council Delays Action

Council delayed taking any action on sale of a City lot to Butler Motor Sales Monday night after C. O. Butler, agency owner, asked City officials to study the issue.

Mr. Butler told Council that the lot was necessary for him to continue business in the downtown district. Otherwise, he would have to move to a new location at the intersection of W. Chicago Blvd. and Occidental.

He said the City had ample off-street parking in his business block, if the present parking lot was improved.

The City lot in question adjoins the Butluer property and would be used for the agency's used car lot. Most of the lot is now used by the firm.

The discussion between Council and Mr. Butler dealt about the effect of new business moving east towards City Hall; off-street parking in other blocks; possible location of a new post office building across from City Hall; growth of the Tecumseh business district, etc.

(Editor's note: Please see an editorial on this subject, first page of the second section.)

Council discussed a solicitation ordinance; requested the City attorney to prepare legislation for registering new businesses; and scheduled the next meeting for Feb. 17, since election day falls on the regular scheduled meeting date.

$1,142 Is Collected for March of Dimes

The March of Dimes door-to-door campaign held Thursday evening netted $1,142.10 with about 80 volunteers taking part in the soliciting, reports Mrs. Harold Easton, general chairman.

One volunteer was heard to say that the highlight of the evening for him was when one little old lady popped one dime in his cannister and said, "I was afraid you had forgotten because its getting so late and so rainy."

The dime given so graciously made the evenings efforts in the cold and drizzle seem even more worthwhile.

Mrs. LaVern Seizert, Legion Auxiliary president, and Mrs. Gaza Kish, co-chairman, wish to thank all who gave so freely of their time as well as those who donated.

Fast Boy Scout First Aid Pays Off

James Ashley is an 11-year-old Tenderfoot Boy Scout from Dundee who has learned quite a bit about Scouting in a short time.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Erving C. Ashley, Jim discovered Friday night what Scout first aid is all about.

Along with seven other members of Troop 99, Jim was slated to spend the weekend at Camp Kanesatake, which is about 15 miles west of Tecumseh.

It was a pretty exciting experience and Jim just wasn't for sleeping the first night in camp.

When Terry Miller, a senior patrol leader, arrived following the Dundee High basketball game that evening, the boys decided to go sledding.

Roaring down the rugged CK hill, steepest in the area, Jim was thrown from his sled and cracked his left leg into a small tree.

There was a snap and the bone midway between ankle and knee fractured.

That ended all play and started some serious first aid.

Terry, a First Class Scout, assisted by Larry Schultz, fashioned a splint from a comic book, making it firm with tape.

Other Scouts helping were Mickey Trinacty, Larry and Gary Gray and Rickey Good.

They loaded the injured lad on a sled, covered him with jackets, and then pulled him back to the cabin.

From there, George Roe, Sr., an assistant Scoutmaster of troop 11, drove him to Herrick Memorial Hospital, where he is now a patient.

When Dr. W. T. Claxton examined the youth he commended the Scout first aid and said placing the leg in a cast was all that had to be done.

You can bet that Jim will be an avid student of first aid in his future years of Scouting — it helped him in a real hour of need.

Jim's dad, who is a maintenance welder at Tecumseh Products, is also Scoutmaster of troop 99.

Girls Enjoy Weekend at Greenfield Village

A group of Senior Girl Scouts enjoyed the weekend at Greenfield Village in Dearborn with leaders, Mrs. Julius Vincze, Mrs. Clifford Cameron and Mrs. Orville Bishop.

They toured the village by open sleigh, visited the museum and had luncheon in the Terrace Room at the museum on Saturday.

That evening dinner was served in historic Clinton Inn with Mrs. E. Rock, the housemother, giving commentary about all the many interesting features there.

After receiving their linen, the girls were escorted by Mrs. Rock to Lovell Hall where they enjoyed a song fest with other troops of Girl Scouts who were spending over-nights there.

The dormitory is housed with the gymnasium, swimming pool and Lovett Hall in the Educational building at the Village.

The girls enjoyed all the facilities and were pleased to have Mrs. Rock tell them that their conduct was such that they were invited to return for a longer stay another time.

After breakfasting at Clinton Inn on blue berry muffins the Scouts boarded a chartered bus and returned to Tecumseh Sunday morning.

Historical Background

Newscasting was done by Den 2 which also gave historical background for the skits of the various Dens Friday.

The Revolutionary War and the signing of the Declaration of Independence were portrayed by Den 4.

Den 10 had the telegram wires strung and messages were sent on authentic keys.

Even a cotton-pickin' time was held by Den 3 with President Lincoln giving his "Emancipation Proclamation".

When the Union Pacific met the Southern Pacific, cubs of Den 7 were the engineers.

There was no trouble with party lines for Den 1 had its own telephones, poles, wires and operators.

☆

EVER DREAM of the world series on ice? Well, Den 6 slid into home plate plenty of times to portray New York's wins in the baseball world.

When they make states bigger than Texas, it has to be Alaska. Igloo, Eskimos, dog sleds, Ice fishing plus the flag with 49 stars was Den 5's contribution toward our country's history.

Cubs and parents gained knowledge in the history of our flag when Den 9, musically as well as oratorically, unfolded the flag's colors.

Past, present and even the future reports were acknowledged when Den 8's cub reporters had an interview with the professor who had landed on the moon.

'Her Pupils Learned More Than Music'

"Her pupils learned much more than music. They learned a way of life."

So wrote the Port Huron Times Herald at the death of Mrs. Lina F. Lauzon, a sister of Mrs. Dorothy Updike of Tecumseh, Patterson School kindergarten teacher.

The paper related that Mrs. Lauzon "was more than an accomplished pianist and music teacher. She was a devoted mother, a warm friend and a vital person more interested in others than herself.

"She taught piano, organ and voice to hundreds of students. Some of them gained musical scholarships and went on to prominence in the music world. But all gained from their association with her.

"One mother said Mrs. Lauzon was an inspiration to her children. One of them studied with her for eight years.

"Mrs. Lauzon served as a charter member and past president of the Port Huron Musicale.

☆

"SHE WAS A director of the Port Huron Musicale chorus and in 1930 she directed the chorus when it sang at the annual convention of the Michigan Federation of Music clubs in Grand Haven, Mich.

"She gave many piano recitals here and throughout the State.

"She was one of the music teachers who volunteered to teach the music pupils of Sister Catherine Genevieve at St. Joseph's school in April, 1955, after Sister Genevieve was injured in a traffic mishap."

A member of the First Church of Christ Scientist, Mrs. Lauzon appeared in Who's Who in American Education in 1948, held national and state offices in the Federation of Music clubs.

The article concluded:

"Even on the day she died, Mrs. Lauzon was planning a lesson for one of her pupils."

Mrs. Updike attended the funeral last week.

VFW Opposes Tampering

Lee Coffey, commander of the Tecumseh VFW, attended the recent Sixth District meeting at Carleton in which a resolution was adopted opposing "misuse of the Veterans Trust Fund."

"WHEREAS the Michigan Veterans Trust Fund has provided assistance to needy veterans at no taxpayer expense in Michigan since 1946.

It stated:

"AND WHEREAS the funds made available to each County would have had to have been supplied from the local tax rolls to meet this need.

"AND WHEREAS if this fund is used for any other purpose than originally intended, the funds used to aid needy veterans, would have of necessity been paid by each local tax payer.

"WHEREAS that to misuse the Bonds or Funds of the Michigan Veterans Trust Fund is to shift the responsibility of assistance to needy veterans to the local taxpayer. When funds are already available to meet this need through the use of the interest from the fund alone.

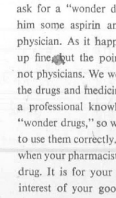
"THEREFORE BE RESOLVED that the Sixth District Department of Michigan Veterans of Foreign Wars from Jackson County, Monroe County, Lenawee County, Washtenaw County, Livingston County and Ingham County, assembled at Carleton Michigan, on January 18, 1959 do herein oppose any misuses of the Veterans Trust Fund of the State of Michigan for any purpose other than that which it was intended.

Foreign Models

Paced by a quartet of Italian models and an English car that will be making first appearances in the midwest, the Henry Ford Museum's Eighth Annual "Sports Cars in Review" will open on Friday.

The Show will include more than 50 sports models, all high performance vehicles designed for competitive driving.

"How about one of those wonder drugs?"



"I've got a cold," the man said, and he went on to ask for a "wonder drug." The pharmacist sold him some aspirin and advised him to see his physician. As it happened the aspirin fixed him up fine, but the point is this: Pharmacists are not physicians. We work with doctors, providing the drugs and medicines they prescribe. We have a professional knowledge of the powerful new "wonder drugs," so we know how important it is to use them correctly. Please do not feel offended when your pharmacist refuses to sell you a certain drug. It is for your protection and in the best interest of your good health. Always see your doctor when potent medication is required.

Smiley Tries a "Treasure Hunt"

They're already pouring foundations for Smiley Roberts' new store, now that the old house on the place has been torn down in record time.

"Those wreckers sure did a fast job," Smiley explained with a chuckle. "Of course, I helped speed things up myself.

"Someone found a letter behind a rafter. Gave me an idea. I put $20 in an envelope, hid it, then 'discovered' it right under their noses. After that, the boys worked so fast I gave them that thirty dollars as a bonus!"

From where I sit, some things—like being a good neighbor—shouldn't require "special inducements." That's something we should all want to be—just automatically. When you visit my home, for example, I try to be a good neighbor by serving you your favorite beverage—be it coffee, tea or a glass of beer. Extend the same courtesy to me, and I'd call that a "bonus" of good neighborliness.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editors:

The last year and a half has been one of real enjoyment for me. My experiences with the many people of Lenawee county interested in the 4-H club program have been very gratifying.

Recently some significant changes were made in the County Extension Service. Essentially, that we will again have five agents.

With the additional help, some changes of title and responsibilities were made. One of these was that my work will now be primarily with the adult agricultural phase, and more specifically with the livestock work. Another, that we are especially fortunate to have a young man join our staff whom we feel will be a real asset to the program. He is Max Benne who recently received his Masters degree from Michigan State University and joined the Michigan Cooperative Extension Service.

Max will be doing the 4-H club work in cooperation with Miss Lord. We know you will be anxious to meet him and help him get acquainted with our county.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank each and every one for the fine cooperation you have given me, especially during the time when only four agents were here.

Your strong and expanding 4-H program is an excellent example of the fine work you are doing.

Very Sincerely Yours.
John W. Comstock

To the Editor's

I had the privilege of seeing a program put on at the Tecumseh Acres School by Mr. Sawyer's fifth grade pupils. It was called, "Sawyer's Talent Show".

It consisted of 21 acts that were put on with simplicity, but with the enthusiasm of a Broadway show.

I was amazed at the moment of talent of this younger generation.

The children made posters advertising the show and displayed them in classrooms. Students not in the acts acted as ushers, stage hands, etc., so that all class members had a part in the program.

I feel that a great deal of praise is due the whole class and their teacher.

Mrs. Harold Warren

—o—

Dear Editors:

Tecumseh is fortunate in having a large number of generous, self-sacrificing citizens who devote themselves to worthwhile projects for the common good.

Their labors go, for the most part, unheralded, unpaid, and unthanked. An example of this are the Girl Scout and Boy Scout leaders of our community, whose unstilted efforts are reaping rewards for our children, in the form of worthwhile activities for our boys and girls now, and for us all, in the form of worthwhile adults in future years.

It has come to my attention that the Scout Cabin is badly in need of a good upright piano. The one in use is in bad condition with many keys that do not even play.

The Scout Leaders would be most willing to pick up and deliver to the cabin a used piano in good condition. Anyone wishing to donate one kindly call Tecumseh 991.

A Scouting Enthusiast.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Watch for 'Trap' Block

As your two Herald publishers were sipping luncheon appetizers Friday noon in the Kellogg Center Big Ten dining room, Governor Williams was passing among the tables.

There were eight folks at ours and one of the men called him over. He arrived with a wide smile and there was a moment of small talk. Then up popped the state financial plight.

One man mused, "I suppose there's a way out."

Soapy grinned and rejoined, "Yes, if you have fast feet." Then he dashed off.

There seems more truth than poetry to the Michigan chief executive's remark.

We admire a fellow who can come up with a quibb once in a while; that's the mark of a good politician. It is not necessarily the mark of a top-flight administrator.

No matter what anyone says, no matter how many excuses are tossed about in the public prints or over TV, the fact remains Williams' administration has had the final responsibility for state finances the past 10 years.

Quite obviously, they have not been well managed.

Williams threw up a real smokescreen in last fall's election, charging his opponent Paul Bagwell with giving Michigan a black eye because he said industry was unhappy with the Wolverine state.

This, while Michigan was at the brink of its most serious financial plight in history!

That takes complete innocence—or guts.

Bagwell had estimated the state would be in debt $60 million by 1960, but this turns out to be a conservative estimate. It'll be twice that.

Now, Williams has proposed his answer to the mess and it's one with which a lot of people fail to agree.

Slapping new taxes onto old is not in itself the solution. Fine-tooth comb investigations of all facets of government spending must be included.

There has to be a lot of soul-searching as to where this state is heading. When any one group—and in this case it's the big-time labor boys—gets too entwined in government there is bound to be warped and one-sided thinking.

One of the Michigan publishers present at the weekend press meeting operates just a few moments drive from a large Ohio city. He explained it's nothing for his town's citizens to drive over the line where they can purchase groceries without sales tax, buy gasoline much cheaper than in their home state.

Yet Ohio has been riding the pleasant crest of reasonable financial stability.

We're not professing to be experts on the subject, or anything resembling them, but we read and hear much opposition from well-qualified folks and it makes us wonder.

The football coach trains his interior linemen to become immediately suspicious when permitted to crash easily through the opposition's forward wall. When this happens they'll likely be sliced down from the flank on a "trap" block.

Michigan citizens have got to look for that same thing now. We might feel "what's the use, the state needs the cash, let's go along with governor's proposals."

What we fail to realize is all new taxes will be forever. If we get tagged now, we can figure we'll be paying them right along.

Our question is: after the deficit is cleaned up, what then?

Unfortunate Timing

It's truly unfortunate that Tecumseh should be considering a $100,000 revolving fund at the same time that Michigan is struggling to right itself in a financial crisis.

Actually though, these are two separate situations.

The fund would be used solely for improvements, which the property owner must in turn repay the City on a special assessment basis.

None of the revolving fund could, by law, be used for operating expenses.

It's a fool-proof plan.

City financing all over the state has always been a hand-to-mouth operation. No municipal coffer, in our knowledge, ever was capable of undertaking large curb-and-gutter or sewer projects without borrowing from a bank or floating a bond issue.

Such financing costs money and often takes considerable lengths of time.

The revolving fund also requires a special fee — when it is established. The amount would be quite comparable to what we spend in a year's time — year after year after year for "crash" financing.

Once the fund has been established this cost is behind us. If judiciously managed, the interest collected on "loans" to citizens for property improvements would offset the running cost of purchasing a $100,000 bond.

If we get the fund, the first project will be a $91,000 sewer and water effort for about 142 homes in the Tecumseh Acres subdivision.

That means almost all of the fund would go right to work. The City would pay probably 3½% interest on the $100,000 bond and in turn collect about 4½% as the $91,000 is paid back.

As this is completed, new projects could be started and the money would continue to circulate.

The bonds would likely be obtained on a 15-year basis and so at the end of the period the City would have the $100,000 fund intact with no interest payments to be met.

After careful consideration from all sides of this proposal, The Herald concludes that the revolving fund would be a sound investment by the City.

We urge all property owners to approve it Feb. 16.

Should City Sell Lot?

Should the City sell an adjoining lot to Butler Motor Sales?

This question has been juggled by City Councils for years, the issue being passed from one Council to the next. It appears that the present Council must find an answer.

Selling or keeping, we think, hinges on whether a new post office building is constructed on S. Pearl St., behind Easton's Service Station, or across Chicago Blvd. from City Hall.

A likely trend of new business to Tecumseh may well be located in the next block or two east of the present downtown section—especially, if the new post office site is in that area.

Relocation of the post office on Chicago Blvd. would give the City ownership of the large lot on Pearl St. Improvements there in off-street parking, improvements behind the Strand Theater and at the huge lot between S. Evans and S. Ottawa would reduce downtown parking problems to one block.

Off-street parking in the business block between N. Evans and N. Ottawa is critical. Merchants there have practically no parking for customers.

Except for one business block, we feel that with blacktopping, lighting and other improvements of the present off-street parking lots, the City has ample downtown parking.

Admittingly, there is an issue with arguments for both sides. However, we think that Council should agree to sell and to negotiate with Butler Motor Sales for a fair price, assuming a new post office is located across from City Hall, thereby freeing the S. Pearl St. parking lot for improvements.

"School days can be the happiest days of your life, if your child's old enough to attend."

Tecumseh Nazarenes Show Grows Along with National Body

Impressive gains in every area made the 1958 golden anniversary year one of the best in denominational history for the Church of the Nazarene.

Annual statistical showed that 232 new churches were established. These increased the total number of churches to 4,587.

Church membership climbed about 9,500 persons to 301,700, or a gain of 3.8 per cent. During the decade of 1948-58, the denomination gained 85,500 members, or an increase of 39 per cent.

Three large anniversary year goals were exceeded.

A total of 1,126,50 persons was witnessed to during the first church-wide week of witnessing, Oct. 5-12.

For the first time in denominational history, the special offerings for world missions at Easter and Thanksgiving each exceeded $1-million.

Tecumseh Nazarenes are proud to have shared in the setting of these records, states Dale Harvey, pastor.

Membership in the local church increased by seven. The per-capita giving by local Nazarenes was $136.68. A sizeable reduction in financial indebtedness has been achieved this year.

"One feature of church life of which our people are proud is the sumer Vacation Bible School program. Outsiders reported to us that we presented one of the best arranged and conducted schools in this area.

"This feature will again be presented in the early summer. It will be open to all children of all faiths whose parents wish them to be acquainted with a conservative knowledge of the Bible, and of its influence in the development of society," the pastor said.

Ministers Tour Products Plant

During their regular monthly meeting 23 members of the County Ministerial Association toured the Tecumseh Products Company last Monday.

R. W. Herrick spoke to the members before they were conducted through the plant.

Irish Hills Area Is Most Hazardous in State for Cars

Tecumseh Acres PTA met Thursday evening with an attendance of 75.

Mrs. Mildred Bower, County Health Nurse, presented a report on the eye examinations given recently to children of the first, third and fifth grades.

Testing procedures were demonstrated and parents were cautioned to follow through with their own optometrist if they received a report that their child's vision needed correction.

State Trooper Ray Valley of the Clinton Post gave an informative talk on safety on the roads in Michigan.

Tecumseh police officer J. T. Callihan was also present and took part in the question-and-answer period following.

Statistics show that Michigan drivers are the least cooperative when emergency vehicles approach traffic with their red lights flashing and drivers fail to heed the right of way.

He stated that the Irish Hills area is the most hazardous driving in the State.

Another common fault of the Michigan driver is passing on the yellow line.

When questioned about the safety of the Occidental Highway to Adrian Mr. Valley stated that most of the accidents occurring on that road have been because of excessive speed.

He did point out that it is tricky when there is the least bit of moisture on the pavement.

The presence of a policeman at the school cross walk has proved to have more affect than a stop light in the close area. Children respect the uniform and enjoy the friendship of a policeman.

There is always the danger of a child darting into the street at a light change or a motorist racing the light change.

During the business meeting conducted by President Robert Wood, it was voted to give $5 to the March of Dimes.

Mrs. Lynn Reese volunteered to act as chairman of a committee to learn the cost and supplier of black-out curtains for the gym.

Mrs. Wallace Rutherford, Mrs. Lynn Reese and Mrs. Herbert Cleveland served refreshments.

Well, Fellows, You Have Weather for It

Plans have been completed by 11 Scouts of Troop 73 to obtain the Polar Bear badge by camping out-of-doors Feb. 14 and 15 at Camp Muscootah near Hillsdale.

Howard Wilson, Jr. Scoutmaster, will go with the group as they eat and sleep outside for 24 hours.

The boys must be first class Scouts, purchase and pack their own food, having made up the menu and then carry their equipment at least one-half mile into camp.

Judging from the past few weeks, weather less than 20 degrees won't be difficult for them to obtain.

Hailed in State by Dairy Farmers

Michigan dairymen are tipping their hats to record-keeping programs. Most of the credit for the improvement of the cows in their herds goes to information contained in the records.

Farmers use the records for making decisions on feeding, culling cows out of the herd and selecting replacements.

Most dairymen use one of three record-keeping programs that are available. They are Dairy Herd Improvement Association (DHIA), Owner-Sampler and Weigh-a-Day-a-Month (WA-DAM.)

The main difference between the three programs in the amount of information provided to the herd owner.

County agricultural agents and local DHIA supervisors can explain the details of record plans to interested dairymen.

DANGER-TV EXPLOSION

A lady phoned the COOK ELECTRIC and excitedly demanded:

"Come over quick; the TV set is going to explode. I've chased the kids out of the house and I'm waiting. The screen keeps flashing all over when I turned it off."

This flashing is not unusual, and there is no danger of blowing-up. It is only the filter condenser for the high voltage discharging because no power is being applied. There is no damage.

In fact, TV sets don't explode, and there has been only a few rare cases around the country of a bad picture tube collapsing and causing a large noise from the terrific vacuum pressure.

To be sure of any TV problem phone 692-J and we'll be pleased to try and answer your questions.

Through My Window

JANUARY 21-22-23, 1959

(Admittedly I am prejudiced; if I had to contend with slippery roads and treacherous walking conditions undoubtedly my viewpoint would be much, much different! With apologies to those who had trouble during the ice storm, may I proceed?)

Early Wednesday morning, just after she had taken Dad to work, Mom came bursting into my room full of enthusiasm. As she flew from window to window, opening curtains and drapes, I began to appreciate the reason for her high spirits.

The aftermath of an all-day snow fall followed by a night-long rain was indeed thrilling: the world outside was a vertible wonderland of ice and snow.

As gradually the darkness gave way to light, the beauty of the winter spectacular increased. It was a breath takingly beautiful landscape I looked out upon.

The ground, the bushes, the trees—everything was blanketed under a clean, new-fallen snow which in turn had been covered by a thick coating of clear, hard ice.

All day it rained and, with the temperature hovering in the low thirties, froze. As ice formed on ice the excitement and beauty increased.

☆

IT WAS A harsh, wild, frantic phase of nature to watch, but so exhilarating. Hour by hour the ice load grew and the tree limbs arched more and more and dropped lower and lower.

The telephone and electrical wires sagged, loaded sometimes beyond capacity.

One by one, ornamental trees and evergreens gave up and draped over the ground. The roads became a nightmare of ice and walking was next to impossible.

All too soon we began to hear disheartening snaps and crashes which bespoke of branches unable to hold their icy weight.

Darkness came early that day and it was a much-needed relief, at least for us inside. The fury of the weather was contagious and we were almost exhausted from our day-long vigil of watching the excitement build and build.

We went to bed that night wondering what more Mother Nature had in store for us.

☆

IF WEDNESDAY had been beautiful, Thursday was gorgeously fairyland. As the sun came up in a cold blue sky it turned our winter wonderland into an ice paradise.

The trees, still so coated that we feared for their safety, looked like fragile blown-glass things.

The clump of barberry by our drive was a mound of sparkling, glittering ice which held millions of bright red berries captive.

Long tapering icicles, crystal clear stalactites, hung from the awnings. Microscopic irregularities in the ice that covered everything acted as miniature prisms and as the light beams were broken, tiny sparkles ranging the entire color spectrum appeared everywhere.

Our fairyland was alive with sunshine, ice and color.

☆

THE CREEK, too, was a fascinating thing to watch. What with all the rain and snow, it quickly changed from a small, quiet stream into an angry, fast flowing and furious river.

As the temperatures dropped, the rush of water was so strong that it withstood freezing for some time.

Finally, the cold won out. Slowly and grudgingly, the creek froze over — the ice formed along the creek's banks and inch by inch, worked its way out until at last, even the deepest and strongest channel was covered.

By Friday everyone was asking, "How long can this last?"

This was the storm the likes of which even the old timers could not remember and as it happened, we were not out of it yet. All day Friday and half of Saturday, bright sunshine fought with sullen cloudiness.

It was, however, a rehash of the two previous days and as such, could not regenerate the same reckless enthusiasm and wond-

☆

ALTHOUGH IT was still beautiful and we enjoyed much "good looking", we could take time out to bemoan the damage done to the trees and sympathize with the hardships which must have been wrought on the birds and squirrels.

Saturday afternoon a brisk wind and a moderating temperature signaled the end of our icy fairyland. In loud shattering crashes it came down.

In summing up I am reminded of an article I recently read in which a winter-scape was described as "raw and magnificent".

How apt—the ice storm was destructive, but the views from my window were beautiful and lovely and exciting as never before.

An Early Valentine

When Car Skids

"Do you know what to do if your car starts to skid?"

This timely question was put to drivers today by J. Robert Cooper, president of the Michigan Trucking Association, in connection with the trucking industry's January courtesy and safety campaign, "Safe Winter Driving."

Cooper urged drivers to remember the following pointers when they begin to skid:

1. Take your foot off the brake and accelerator pedals; let the car roll free. Leave the car in gear.

2. Turn the front wheels in the direction of the skid, but be careful not to steer so far or so sharply that you will begin to skid in the opposite direction.

"Of course," he continued, "the best idea is to avoid skidding. It can be done. Remember to make all changes in speed and direction as gradually as possible to maintain whatever traction is available on a slippery road.

"Watch well ahead for turns; get in the proper position for the turn well in advance. Slow down before you start to turn.

"Still more important, is the necessity for anticipating stops. Watch well ahead on the road, so that you can make all stops gradually. In traffic, stay well behind the vehicle ahead, to give yourself as much stopping room as possible. Remember that stopping distances increase from 3 to 12 times on slippery pavement," Cooper warned. "Above all, reduce your speed," he concluded.

Protection from Cold

Cold winter winds accent the desirability of protection around the farm home and buildings. Protection can be had easily in many instances by planting a windbreak of evergreen trees on the windward side of the buildings.

Such a windbreak helps to keep the farmyard, feedlots and driveways reasonably free of snow. Not only is this protection provided the home but livestock in open housing units are more comfortable.

Also, birds find a haven in the evergreens.

By planting a shrub border of honeysuckle or other bushes along side the windbreak, berries and seeds will be available as well as nesting cover for the birds.

White pine, white spruce and Norway spruce are evergreen trees adapted to most of the soils in Lenawee and one excellent for windbreaks.

For this purpose, they should be planted in three rows 80-150 feet from the buildings. A spacing of 10 feet between trees and eight feet between rows is satisfactory on most sites.

☆

OBVIOUSLY, a windbreak planted this year is not going to be effective for several years. But as much as three or four years time can be gained by using the larger transplants rather than seedlings.

Before planting, the ground should be prepared as for a good seedbed. The trees should then be cultivated two or three times each year for the first three years. Protection from livestock is necessary.

Any losses should be replaced so no gaps are in the windbreak. Because of posisble loss, a few extra trees should be ordered which can be used for replacements, if needed.

Trees are available from private nurseries, Michigan Department of Conservation, Lansing and Michigan State University, East Lansing. Order blanks may be obtained from Extension Service or Soil Conservation Service offices in the Court House at Adrian.

"THE PRACTICE OF MEDICINE IS A THINKERS ART"

If you have headaches often, it is not enough to just get relief from the pain. The cause must be discovered and cured.

Headaches can be a symptom of fever, acute indigestion, chronic appendicitis, eye strain, food poisoning, constipation, or even a brain tumor. When a physician prescribes a medicine, you can be sure that he will not only relieve the immediate pain, but will also try to cure the cause. Be wise. Depend more on your physician than self-treatments.

LENAWEE COUNTY'S LARGEST WEEKLY

VOL. 108 — ONE HUNDRED NINTH YEAR — NUMBER 17 TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1959 22 PAGES — TEN CENTS A COPY

THE Long & Short OF IT

By TOM RIORDAN

To help pave the way for Hospital Auxiliary members selling Herald subscriptions, this issue is being mailed "general coverage."

That means every home in the surrounding area — more than 6,000—has a copy of The Herald for the week.

Most of these folks will be contacted by Auxiliary sales gals to see if they'd like to sign up for the next 52 weeks— or pick up a renewal where homes already are on the mailing list.

For those whose door bell isn't rung, there's a handy blank on page one of the third section. It appears in an ad which gives all the details about the Auxiliary effort.

You really have to hand it to the Auxiliary. Its members dig in on one project after another as they move along the trail to $2,500, which will equip a surgery recovery room.

The gals just wound up a canvass of Tecumseh to gather facts for the new City directory. This was a chore of many details, but in the usual efficient manner of the ladies, it was done to perfection.

Mrs. Fred Randall and Mrs. Jesse Sluyter co-chairmaned the task, which when the totals are all in, should bring the Auxiliary about $800.

Naturally, we hope you'll sign up for a subscription and give the Auxiliary a boost, at the same time help yourself to weekly reading enjoyment all year 'round.

There are some people who refuse to subscribe—they tell us they can't wait until Thursday's mail for The Herald. Wednesday afternoon and early evening, as the papers go on newstands around town, these folks are on hand to snatch up a copy.

Naturally, we love them dearly.

It might be interesting to note that nearly 700 papers are sold weekly at area drug stores, super markets and neighborhood grocery stores.

If you are the patient type and can wait for the postman, it could mean a savings of about $2.20 a year.

Les Bennett, chorus director at the High School, is sporting a snappy new brown hat these days.

The head piece is a gift, but Les doesn't know from whom.

He received a phone call from Harold Green recently to tell Les that he was to pick out a hat in his shop.

"Who's buying?" Les wanted to know, but Harold said he was sworn to secrecy.

So Les says "Thanks, whoever you are."

I'd like to add that the popular young Mr. Bennett is certainly deserving of the gift for the excellent work he has done with our young people interested in voice.

☆

Hasn't this weather been just grand?

I refuse to say anything more on the grounds that it may tend to incriminate me.

☆

What appears to be a bald eagle has been sighted south of town on the Garrison property, reports Terry Mackin of Tecumseh Materials.

So far no positive identifications have been made.

Maybe it's the U. S. eagle, sick of Washington politics, looking for a quiet place in the country.

☆

Despite positively horrible driving conditions, citizens from all around the County were on hand for the "state financial crisis" session in Adrian Monday.

At the last minute, I had to cancel plans to go. Duane DeLoach, Blissfield publisher, told me the next day that in the tradition of politicians, there was considerable hedging from the platform.

Duane felt that the legislatures could have spoken more frankly with the folks who voted them into office.

☆

One interesting fact brought out by E. O. Jewell when he told Jaycees about the Port of Toledo:

Toledo is closer to Holland by boat than New York City.

Helps you realize the impact of world trade after the Seaway is in business.

Subscription Campaign Opens

An area-wide campaign to see Tecumseh Herald subscriptions is being opened this weekend by the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, with Mrs. James Lincoln as chairman.

The Auxiliary will receive $1 for each new subscriber signed up and 25c from renewals.

These earnings will go into the Auxiliary's fund to equip a surgical recovery room at the Hospital. Estimated cost of the project is $2,500, which is needed to purchase beds, resuscitator and oxygen gear.

Nearly 40 volunteer saleswomen will start Friday a door-to-door selling effort, which is scheduled to continue until Feb. 27.

This is the first full-scale subscription campaign for The Herald since the ownership of the paper changed in October of 1957.

During those 15 months, the paper's weekly press run gradually has increased from 1,950 to 2,700. The Auxiliary's subscription drive is expected to push circulation over the 3,000 mark.

In the last two General Excellence contests for state weeklies, the Herald was rated among Michigan's best papers. Nationally, the feature "The Long and Short of It" was judged fourth best among columns in United States non-metropolitan papers last week.

At present, The Herald is read by nearly 8,000 persons every week.

Hamilton Is Named 'Young Man of Year'

"Service to his community and its youth was the determining factor in selection John Hamilton as Tecumseh's Young Man of the Year—recipient of the first Distinguished Service Award here."

So read a citation which accompanied announcement of the honor at last week's Jaycee Bosses Night.

Judges who picked the winner from among four finalists were Dwight Hodges, Don Murphy and Tom Riordan.

Runners-up included Ted Templeton, Dr. Richard Coak and Merlyn Downing.

The citation for Mr. Hamilton, who is 33, continued:

"The three judges agreed, John had indeed compiled an impressive record during 1958.

"Among his contributions:

"Loyal service to city government as a councilman.

"Ready help as a volunteer fireman.

"Active assistance to young people — as a member of the Tecumseh Teen Club advisory board and as advisor to the Presbyterian Senior High Westminister Fellowship group.

"Here's just one example of John's unselfishness and thoughtful actions in behalf of youth:

"He devoted his vacation last summer to drive a group of young people to the Presbytery Point camp in the Upper Peninsula and then donated his time to serve as a councilor.

"All of these things have required many hours of John's 'spare' time, time he has given freely and willingly.

"In concluding this citation, we would like to quote the comments made by the Rev. George E. Walworth, who nominated John for this honor:

" 'He has shown such continual evidence of spirited sacrifice and concern for others that he would wear the first Distinguished Service Award with the credit intended by the originator of this plan. John is the most exemplary citizen of the community and member of this Church we have ever known' ."

A sales representative for Gulf Oil, Mr. Hamilton is the father of four, Carol, 10; John, 8; Mark, 5 and Kimberly 4.

Prior to accepting his present position Mr. Hamilton operated the local Gulf station for nine years.

YOUNG MAN OF YEAR—John Hamilton was accorded the title last week by the Jaycees. With him in this family portrait are his wife, Winona; children Mark, Carol, Kimberly and John, Jr. John's service to his community and its youth gave him the judge's nod. A plaque was presented at last Thursday's gathering by Don Murphy.

Pick Up Blanks

Women who are selling subscriptions are asked to come to The Herald either Friday between 3 and 5 p.m., or Saturday morning from 9 to 11:30 to pick up receipt books and check the locations in which they will sell. This was originally scheduled to be done at the Tuesday night meeting of Auxiliary, but it was called off due to the weather.

Citizens Prefer More Sales Tax

If the Michigan Legislature were to act upon wishes of 400 hearty souls from Lenawee County there would be no more talk about a state income tax.

Instead, if more revenue is needed (and who can argue that it isn't), there should be increased sales tax.

The 400 braved fog and ice to fill St. John's Lutheran School auditorium in Adrian Monday night.

On the stage to attempt to answer their questions were three state officials — Sen. Elmer Porter, Rep. Rollo Conlin and controller C. J. McNeill.

The trio spent most of the two and one-half hours talking around the querries.

They didn't seem to hear the request for re-newed efforts at economy and greater efficiency to keep state spending close to income.

Their plea was the lobby groups exerted considerable pressure on their ranks in Lansing.

A lone voice asked, "How about you being our lobby?" The question drew a round of applaus.

☆

BUT THE Lenawee citizens' probe into state financing seemed almost doomed from the outset and that was the way it wound up. Nothing really concrete had been established.

That is, expect for the vote heavily in favor of increased sales tax over personal income tax. This came near the end of the program when moderator Bill Walker, an Adrian attorney, asked for a show of hands.

Only a few of the 400 raised their arms for an income levy, while almost everyone present shot up his hands favoring sales tax.

A panel consisting of Ed and Dick Potter of the Hudson Post-Gazette and Duane DeLoach of The Blissfield Advance, helped keep the questions flowing.

Later, Mr. DeLoach wrote in his paper:

"When a politician uses wisecracks and the impatient brushoff as a protective shield for his ignorance of the subject, his unpreparedness to discuss it, or his unwillingness to level with his constituents, he underestimates the mind of the home-folks."

☆

ANOTHER BLUNT statement was made by Dr. D. F. Sarapo of Adrian, who organized the rally.

"When they (legislators) cease

Opening of Seaway Will Affect Tecumseh

Opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway next summer will eventually affect all the area within 200 miles of the Port of Toledo, E. O. Jewell, its general manager said at Jaycees Bosses Night program last week.

"You'll grow bigger in spite of yourself," he smiled. "Tecumseh is in an ideal situation, close to Toledo, Monroe and Detroit, all of which will become world ports."

He cautioned that there will be no industrial mushrooming when the Seaway opens, but rather a gradual, steady development.

"A port is not a wharf where ships tie up," he explained. "It's much more than that."

With the use of a giant wheel, he placed 14 spokes into it, each represented an important segment of an inland world port.

1. The St. Lawrence Seaway.
2. Transportation.
3. Terminals.
4. Industries (heart of port.)
5. Agriculture (we'll be one of the grain markets of the world.)
6. Bank facilities.
7. Labor.
8. Export and import business.
9. Freight forwarders.
10. Community interest.
11. Publicity.
12. Government agencies.
13. Port Authority (to coordinate agencies.)
14. You.

All of these ingredients are present within the Port's "hinderland" — the area within 200 miles of Toledo.

MR. JEWELL was formerly chief administrator of the Port of New Orleans, guiding it to become the second largest in the world in dollar volume of cargo handled.

Toledo already ranks ninth among U. S. port and last year shipped and received 31 million tons. He estimated that in 10 years, this figure will probably be close to 150 million tons.

Shipping has a tremendous financial effect on the area around a port.

In a study made at New Orleans, it was discovered when a ships arrived fully loaded and left the same way $110,000 worth of payroll began to revolve in the city.

In closing he cautioned his audience to seek out the true facts about the effect of the Seaway and its ports on this area—then make decisions for the future.

School Board OKs Contracts

The Tecumseh School Board Monday night approved new contracts for 1959-'60 to all present teachers and members of the school staff.

Supt. James McDowell, reporting an expectant increase in enrollment for next year of more than 150, recommended the employment of three new teachers, two in the Junior High and one in Senior High.

In other action, the board approved the annual salary increment for teachers; and signed a contract with the City for management of recreation fields.

A request from the teachers to consider raising the base salary from $4,200 to $4,300 was discussed with the board deciding to wait until summer to see how the state distributes financial aid to the schools.

Grant for $360,000 Insures Continuance of Health Study

ANN ARBOR—Continuance of The University of Michigan's community health study of Tecumseh has been assured by a five-year grant-in-aid from the National Institutes of Health, a division of the U. S. Public Health Service.

The study is an intensive survey of the general health picture of a single community. It began in 1956 under a state appropriation for research in human resources.

It involves some 8,500 persons in the Tecumseh area.

Work thus far on the project has involved a census of the population by both households and kindreds and collection of data on diseases and disabilities.

Actual investigations are conducted by individual departments and research groups in the School of Public Health and the U-M Medical Center. The overall program is directed and coordinated by Robert J. M. Horton, M.D., professor of epidemiology.

☆

INFORMATION already gained on the study has formed a basis for research on heart disease, influenza and cerebral palsy.

Additional studies are being made of immunization against respiratory infections, the relation of blood groups and fertility, and the development of the infant and pre-school child.

The National Institutes of Health granted $86,250 for the

7 Churches Unite for Annual 'World Day of Prayer'

A World Day of Prayer service, this year to be held in the Assembly of God Church, Bidwell St., offers an opportunity of uniting with thousands of Christians around the world in a service of prayer and thanksgiving.

Traditionally held on the first Friday of Lent, the service will be Feb. 13 at 2 p.m., and is open to all residents of this area.

Each year the service is prepared by a different country. The service for 1959 comes from Egypt, with the theme "Lord, I Believe".

Leaders for the responsive service of worship will be from the Presbyterian, Baptist, Friends, Nazarene, Episcopal, Gloria Dei and Methodist Churches.

Mrs. Pearl Powers of Adrian will speak on the theme.

☆

IN THE United States the World Day of Prayer is sponsored by the General Department of United Church Women of the National Council of Churches.

In Tecumseh, an interdenominational committee is in charge of the observance, this year with Mrs. D. L. MacPherson as chairman.

The offering from the World Day of Prayer is used for interdenominational mission work through the Divisions of Home and Foreign Missions of the National Council of Churches.

to be our (taxpayers) lobby in Lansing against special interests, then our control over the democratic principles of government will have ended."

When Dr. Sarapo made his comment, echoes of approval were heard in the crowd, which was orderly, patient, deeply serious. Its members represented a cross-section of business, labor, farming, industry and professional men.

When Rep. Conlin made the remark, "It's a foggy situation," he wasn't talking about the weather.

And that's the way the session concluded — folks were still in a haze.

When the officials returned to Lansing duties they couldn't help but have a vision in their minds of intent, concerned people in Lenawee County seeking economy and order in state government finances.

NO SCHOOL TUESDAY

Poor driving conditions Tuesday prevented school busses from using country roads and only Tecumseh District classes in session were at City buildings.

Britton Church Holds Bible Study Class

BRITTON — The Rev. Clarence Burkhard will conduct a Bible Study Class on the book of Isiah during the Lenten season at the Methodist Church here each Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. beginning Feb. 18.

coming year's research program. Future grants are expected to bring the five-year total to approximately $360,000.

According to Dr. Horton, "The new grant will support planning activities and further basic research studies. Individual projects will be integrated into a study of the whole community health picture."

Tecumseh is believed to be the first community in the United States—if not the world — in which such a comprehensive health examination is being made.

"A Scout is Reverent"—12th Point of Boy Scout Law.

Tecumseh people have a right to be proud of the five boys who received God and Country awards this past Sunday. Parents who have boys in the Scouting program are aware of the effort necessary to qualify for these awards.

But perhaps there are those who do not know that it requires no less than two years of concentrated church study, approximately 200 hours. The citation compares with the Eagle award.

It is given by the church where he has worked with his clergyman.

Orville Collins, district Scout executive, said that the three Irelan boys and the Osburn youths (see pictures in this issue) are the first brothers in the district to receive the awards.

√

Tecumseh is also proud of another bigger boy, a former resident.

When Lt. Colonel Leon M. Williamson, who recently spent a weekend here, arrived in Washington he was informed that he had been promoted to the rank of full colonel in the Marine Air Corp Reserve.

He was decorated with the Navy Cross in the Battle of Midway by Admiral Nimitz.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Rutan of Michigan Center were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Burlin Brees, who arrived home from a two-months stay in Florida last Friday. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Brees of Brooklyn.

They enjoyed their visit with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Ramsey, and helped their grandson, Richard Ramsey celebrate his 17th birthday anniversary. He plans to enter college in Chicago in June.

√

Mrs. A. R. Shigley of Freemont, Mich. has been visiting her daughters, Mrs. P. G. Colgrove and Mrs. Jens Touborg. She left recently for the Virgin Islands where she expects to spend a month with a friend at St. Croix.

√

Nicky Touborg spent some time between weekends with his sister, Mrs. Frank Klapperich of Newport, R. I., and friends on Long Island and in New York.

√

Hal Warren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Warren, celebrated his 11th birthday anniversary twice. Three friends, Ricky Nighswander, John Wirick and Ricky Brighton spent Saturday afternoon with him skating. They were guests in the Warren home for dinner.

On Sunday a family gathering was held at the Warren home in his honor with a cooperative dinner. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Warren and children of Addison, Mrs. Bert Warren, Midge Warren and Mr. and Mrs. Harlon Boyes and son, John.

Hal's day was complete when his brother, Jim, who is stationed at Milton Field, Fla. telephoned his congratulations.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. McCoy left Monday for a few weeks vacation in Washington, D. C. and Florida.

√

Betty Day was home last week from Western College at Kalamazoo for some time between semesters.

Mrs. Jennie Lister received word of the birth of a daughter, Denise Ann, born Friday to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davidson of Allen Park, Mich. This is the third great granddaughter for Mrs. Lister.

√

Noble Gregg, George McKendry, Edsel Brooks and W. G. Waldron attended Farmers Week at Lansing Friday. Mr. Waldron was at a meeting on the St. Lawrence Seaway at Kellogg Center in the morning and meetings on Township and County zoning and building in the afternoon.

√

Mr. and Mrs. John Keeney are spending two weeks in Fort Myers, Fla.

√

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Murray and family moved last week to their farm home south of Tecumseh.

√

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McConnell, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Puffer, Sr. and Jack Puffer attended the showing of "South Pacific" in Detroit Saturday evening.

√

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Laidlaw are in Chicago this week attending the Chicago Area dental convention.

Dr. Arthur H. Brown and Mrs. James E. Blocker returned today from Chicago where Dr. Brown has been attending the annual Oral Surgery Clinics at the Chicago Dental Society.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Gaza Kish and family and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Retter and family were guests recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gerten of Blissfield. The group celebrated the first birthday of the Gertens' daughter, Jean.

√

Mrs. Donald Wright is recuperating in her home after suffering a fractured left wrist and a wound on her scalp received when she fell in her home.

Mrs. Wright called her physician immediately and the receptionist made arrangements for a cab to take her to Herrick Memorial Hospital where the wrist was placed in a cast and stitches were taken in her scalp. She is recovering nicely and Mrs. Maude Cummings is her companion at this time.

√

Carl and Robert Wilt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wilt, participated in the Junior Livestock Beef Tour that was held Feb. 6. They attended the meeting at the Fred Frye farm with their parents. The boys each have two steers of their own.

√

Mr. and Mrs. George Bailey and son, Joel, were in Frankenmuth over the weekend for a belated birthday celebration for their grandson, Paul Weber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Weber.

Paul has been a patient in the hospital and because of this the celebration had to be delayed.

Now He Knows Why His Sister Was So Insistent

Roger Hoag was a surprised boy Friday afternoon when he returned home from a visit to the barber shop.

Eight of his friends had gathered at his home for a surprise party honoring his tenth birthday.

Only then did he comprehend the reason for his sister, Jean Ann's, insistent appeal to "get all dressed up to go to the barber shop."

Games were enjoyed and prizes presented to the winners.

A birthday cake decorated in pink was a feature of the refreshment table which also held favors for each guest.

Those attending were Mark and Steve Hinkleman, Charles Mensing, David Dustin, David Kennel, Scot Edwards and Rusty Leist.

Olive Grace Married to Kenneth Koons

Three bridesmaids wearing gowns of white crystal bordeau with red cummerbunds and sashes preceded Olive M. Grace down the aisle of the Clinton Methodist Church Saturday evening when she became the bride of Kenneth E. Koons.

As she approached the altar on the arm of her father she was wearing a floor-length gown of satin and lace styled with a V-neckline and three quarter length sleeves.

Sequins were used on the Alencon lace bands that outlined the neckline and down the front of the full skirt which was worn over a hoop.

A chapel-length train fell from the petal draped back. Her sequin trimmed matching lace crown held the double finger-tip-length veil in place.

The bridesmaids were Dianna Fox, Carlyn LaLonde and Joyce Wilbar.

Diana Socks was the maid-of-honor in an all-red gown with white shoes and head band. The flower girls also wore red dresses.

Mrs. Wesley Proctor presided at the organ.

John Koons was best man and the ushers were Douglas Grady, Gene Hoover and Herb Williams.

At the reception held in Clinton Community Center the bride's table was trimmed in red and white and featured a five-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

The newly-married couple will make their home at 111 Brown St. in Clinton.

The bride graduated from Tecumseh High School in 1958 and is employed with the Woolworth store in Ann Arbor.

The groom graduated from Clinton High School in 1956 and is employed with the Clinton Machine Corporation.

HAPPY FAMILY — There's a reason, dad has just been named Young Farmer of the Year. He's Oliver Mueller of rural Britton. With him are wife Carol, holding month-old son William, daughter, Nancy and son Steve. Plaque was presented to Mr. Mueller last week at Jaycee Boss' Night by Jack Shutt, president of Junior Chamber.

Wall Street Journal Among Reading Fare

Oliver Mueller, 33, of rural Britton, was named Young Farmer of the Year in the second annual Jaycee competition.

A plaque was presented to Mr. Mueller by Jaycee president Jack Shutt Thursday evening.

Charles Wheeler was in charge of the contest this year with judges being Dale Dean of Ridgeway, Jens Touberg of Tecumseh and Elwood Little of Onsted.

In a corporation with his two brothers, Leslie and Robert, Oliver helps farm 1,537 acres. Besides this, they also operate a fertilizer and seed business in Britton.

Their crops include corn, wheat, soybeans and oats.

Oliver and his brothers each put up $600 when they joined forces in 1947 and their investment now is worth many times that.

OLIVER AND his family—wife Carol, daughter Nancy, 6 and sons, Steve, 3 and William, one-month — will be moving into their own farm home on Holloway Rd. this month.

Until now they have lived in a place on Palmer Rd. owned by Dalton D. Walper of Tecumseh.

The year's Young Farmer is an avid reader—from farm magazines to the Wall Street Journal.

"I'm always looking for newer and better ways of doing things" Oliver says.

It has been by this desire to learn — and a willingness to work — that has made Mr. Mueller such an outstanding and successful farmer.

Young Farmer contest runners-up were:

Dick Bruce, Jim Squires, Russell Pilbeam of Britton; Fred Feight, Fred Long and Lawrence Young of Tecumseh; Dick Smith of Tipton; Marion Schultz of Onsted.

Youths Arrested Sunday at 4 a.m.

Darrell Shewman, 18-years-old, 107 Pine St., is being held at the Lenawee County jail on a warrant for illegal possession of 3.2 beer following his arrest Sunday morning at 4 on Chicago Blvd.

With Shewman at the time were three minor delinquents, all of Adrian. They were taken into custody by City police.

The minor boy is being detained at the Juvenile Children's Home in Adrian.

All three will appear in probate court as delinquent minors at a later date.

Chief Kilbourn said "We would like to remind the parents as well as the young people that we do have a curfew law in Tecumseh and we just aren't going to tolerate these shenanigans from minors."

Carson Bayless was called to Knoxville Tenn. by the death of his father who was killed in an auto accident last week. He returned to Tecumseh Saturday evening.

Two cars of Explorer Scouts from Post 87 attended special services for Scouts at the Old Mariners' Church in Detroit Sunday afternon.

They were accompanied by Franklin Fergus, their advisor.

The sermon theme, "On Your Honor" was presented by the Rev. Elmer B. Usher.

Newburg Farm Bureau Talk about Taxes

The Newburg Farm Bureau discussed the state income tax proposal at their meeting Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Halley.

The ladies of the group also made plans for a father and son banquet to be held in March.

Mrs. John Brooks was a visitor for the evening.

CHAMBER of COMMERCE

Murph Reports

By DON MURPHY
Executive Secretary

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce unanimously agreed to support the $100,000 revolving fund proposed by the City as a means of getting work done that can't be done now because of lack of sufficient funds.

The fund will enable the City to get these projects completed without any additional cost to the tax payers, sounds funny doesn't it, but it will do just that.

If you are in doubt about any part of this Fund there are several people in town that would be glad to answer any questions.

Ed Nelson, City manager and Jim Beardsley, City attorney, Council members, any one of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce can provide you with complete details.

We ask all property owners to vote Feb. 16 — think long and hard on this revolving fund and we feel sure that when you have learned what it is about that you will cast your vote YES in favor of the fund.

All-Aluminum Home Will Be on Display

A revolutionary, all-aluminum home will be open to the public in Tecumseh's Sunset Meadows subdivision this Saturday and Sunday from 1 until 9 p.m.

Tecumseh Homes, Inc., local National Homes builder-dealer, will put the Fair-L-Wood, a four-bedroom model, on display.

"We are eager for the people in this community to see this exceptional home," said Jack Shutt.

"Its maintenance-free quality represents a tremendous step forward in home building," he continued. "The saving on maintenance and repair is estimated to be as high as $4,000 over a 20-year period. This is enough to send a child through college or to furnish the home completely."

Better than a ton and a half of aluminum has been used to finish the exterior of this home, according to the local builder. He pointed out that this finish will give the home added protection against wear and the weather.

☆

"NOBODY COULD build a house like this until now," Mr. Shutt said. "National Homes, with the cooperation of ALCOA, Reynolds and Kaiser, the country's major aluminum producers, has achieved a major breakthrough in the technology of home building.

At a three-day market test held recently in Lafayette, Indiana, 81 of 90 home buyers selected models with aluminum exteriors, citing the maintenance-free quality as the reason for their choice.

National Homes' new California Contemporary styling is introduced in the Fair-L-Wood Viking Line home on display here. It features the popular board-and-batten aluminum wall and roof construction.

"Inspired by the informality of western living, this new California Contemporary styled home has four bedrooms, kitchen, bath, and a large garage with an abundance of storage space.

Another outstanding feature is the extra-wide, double window-door entranceway, accenting the out-of-doors mode of western living.

DECORATED INSIDE and out, the Fair-L-Wood has fully insulated walls and ceiling, weather-stripped doors and windows, roomy, floor-to-ceiling bedroom closets and other closets for linen and guests' clothes.

Highlight of the spacious kitchen area is the new National Homes kitchen, with its double sink, Formica work surfaces on the base cabinets and the fruitwood finish on the base cabinets as well as the overhead cabinet areas.

The closet closures are of the newly-developed vinyl-fold, which has a rich, fruitwood, finish that is easy to keep clean.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Vote 'Yes' on Fund

When City of Tecumseh voting polls open next Monday morning at 7, only one question will be considered and only property owners will vote on it.

"Shall the City borrow the sum not to exceed $100,000 and issue the general obligation bonds of the City therefor, for the purpose of establishing a local improvement revolving fund?"

This is the subject which has been given considerable publicity in recent weeks and has been a popular over-the-coffee-cup topic of conversation.

City officials have studied the idea at great lengths and feel it would be a sane and sensible approach to a planned improvement program—as opposed to the old catch-as-catch-can arrangement.

The Herald has also investigated it thoroughly and agrees with City Fathers.

To review briefly:

1. The money can only be used for programs which property owners (giving their permission) will pay for on an installment plan. For example: curb and gutter, sidewalks, water and sewer lines.

2. The City will spend approximately 3½ interest on purchase of bonds; property owners are charged at a rate of approximately 4½, which is still less than if they borrowed from a regular lending agency for this purpose.

3. When bonds are paid for in 15 years, City will have $100,000.

4. If passed, the first project would be a $91,000 sewer-and-water installation in Tecumseh Acres area.

5. Probably most important to everyone concerned—there would be no increase in City taxation.

We recommend a "Yes" vote on the revolving fund.

One Answer for Peace

A solution to the vexing problem of international tensions?

World trade can do it.

So opinioned an expert on the subject, speaking in Tecumseh last week. He is E. O. Jewell, who heads the Port of Toledo and formerly held a similar post in New Orleans.

"You don't shoot at your customer," he said simply.

This makes a world of sense—maybe it could a world of peace.

The guest advocates both export and import through all United States facilities and sees no danger in buying from foreign folks, who buy from us.

When you're doing business with someone—and that someone could be a Russian or a Pole or a Cuban — you come to know him and he to know you.

If there's a misunderstanding or disagreement, both parties are anxious to find quick and peaceful ways to a solution. As Mr. Jewell says, "you don't shoot at" the fellow.

Nice Going, Fellows

We would like to add our congratulations to those already received by two area young men, John Hamilton and Oliver Mueller, who have been singled out by Tecumseh Jaycees.

John was chosen Young Man of the Year and Oliver as Outstanding Young Farmer.

Both are extremely deserving of the crowns and we know they will wear them with great humility and credit.

The Jaycees are deserving of praise for staging these annual contests. It's a stimulating experience for those considered for the honors and does much to place the community's attention onto the accomplishments of its younger citizens.

AUGUST DATE — The engagement of Ruth Elaine Benedict to James L. Stutsman, son of Mrs. Vadah Stutsman and the late Walter Stutsman, is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer W. Benedict of Grand Haven. Miss Benedict is associated with the Emmaus Bible School at Oak Park, Ill., and is living for the present at Oak Park. Mr. Stutsman is a student at Eastern Michigan College, Ypsilanti. An August wedding is planned.

Last Wednesday, 14 Future Teachers traveled to Adrian for a County-wide meeting of the FTA Clubs. The President of Adrian College, Mr. Dawson, held a question-and-answer period.

☆

The Teen Club legislature, committee chairmen, and officers held one of their regular meetings last Wednesday at the Teen Club.

Some members of the service clubs were also present.

Plans for the Peanut and Balloon sale were discussed as were plans for the coming open house.

☆

Proceeds of $125. from the Teen Club's sale of peanuts and balloons last Saturday on the Four Corners downtown will go to the March of Dimes.

☆

New red and white cafe curtains and the new hi-fi system were on display at the Teen Club's highly-successful dance Saturday night.

The curtains were made by Mrs. Tucker, Mrs. Al Helzerman and Mrs. Ralph Helzerman. A vote of thanks to these kind women.

☆

There will be a record dance at the Teen Club Saturday night with records from 9 to 2.

☆

Last Saturday the Tecumseh Grange held a dance at which the Five Aces, a local band, played.

☆

The Scout will go on sale Tuesday during last hour. There will be copies available at Wright's Drug Store after school.

There will be a staff meeting Wednesday in Mr. Babcock's room. It is important as assignments will be given out.

The Student Council is sponsoring a dance after the Airport game Friday. It will be held in the cafeteria. A disk jockey will be present to spin the records. Come one, come all! (High school students, that is.)

☆

In last Thursday's basketball games with Bedford, the GAA teams again preserved their undefeated record.

The JV team squeaked past with a 13-11 victory.

The Varsity swamped their first team, 49-6.

In the JV game, Peggy Robinette made the winning basket as the buzzer sounded. The scoring was: Peggy Robinette — 4, Carol Grieman — 2, Slyvia Klught — 5, Mary Roberts — 2.

The Varsity forwards hit well over 50% of their shots to run up their high score.

Mary Colgrove led the scoring with 19 points. The other scoring ran as follows: Sherry Tucker — 12, Kendra Ringman — 10 and Carol Spangler — 6.

One of their toughest games is with Hudson, which is on Feb. 16, a Monday night, here. Good Luck, Girls!

Polio Group Refuses To Join County Fund

The National Foundation agency conducting the March of Dimes campaign, has returned the Lenawee County United Fund check for $1,000 and declined an invitation to join the Lenawee County Fund.

Blake E. Ferris, Eastern State Representative of the March of Dimes, wrote that "our policy is such that participation in joint fund-raising programs . . . or the acceptance of funds so raised is expressly forbidden".

One of the reasons for this policy, as pointed out by Mr. Ferris is that "it would be unfair to deprive residents in Lenawee County of the right to participate in the March of Dimes".

He also adds "effective action against disease is the result of the free exercise of individual responsibility to face a problem willingly, examine it intelligently and give it whatever support it appears to merit".

☆

HOWARD WHITE, County chairman commented on the letter:

"We are very much in accord that individual citizens should be free to exercise their individual responsibility, not only in so far as their contributions go, but also with respect to their right to participate in the establishment of the fund-raising policies of the voluntary organization to which they contribute".

"While we are disappointed that the March of Dimes does not see fit to unite with our effort, we appreciate that this decision is dictated by the policy of a militant national organization and that the local chapter has no choice in this matter".

"The Lenawee County United Fund is convinced from the success of our first campaign and from opinions expressed by citizens of our county that there is an increasing desire in our area for a 'One for All" campaign.

"Through our organization and our 'Open Door' policy, we are offering this objective or eventuality to our County.

"It is, of course, up to the discretion of individual citizens and organized groups as to whether they prefer to unite with us or be dictated to by a national organization in whose affairs they have little or no voice".

"We believe it should be pointed out to those who favor a single, United Campaign," White concluded, "that the Lenawee County United Fund already includes health agencies that work toward the treatment and solution of important health problems. For example, Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation (polio), R. B. Jackson Memorial Laboratory (cancer research), Arthritis & Rheumatism, Cerebral Palsy, Heart, Multiple Sclerosis, etc."

Present Citation to Herald

A Certificate of Appreciation was presented The Tecumseh Herald by the Junior Chamber of Commerce at its gathering last week.

The citation read:

"Whereas, the American Press, ever conscious of its obligation, faithfully observes, records and interprets the acts of mankind toward civic and social advancement; and

"Whereas, in fulfilling this obligation, the Fourth Estate becomes a counselor of incalculable value to those banded together for promotion of national welfare; now

"There, be it resolved, that the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce and the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce express in this way, gratitude and appreciation for the inestimable benefits which have accrued from a cordial relationship, together with hope that the future may witness the same splendid co-operation."

Work Session Is Planned by Club

A work session was planned at the regular meeting of the BPCPSC Club Wednesday when the group gathered at the home of Mrs. Cecile Smith.

It was decided to have the work session following the potluck supper at the next meeting Feb. 20. Hostesses will be Mrs. Carl Thompson and Mrs. George Green, Sr.

Refreshments were served and prizes were given to the members.

Natuarally, It's Brotherhood Week

The men on Tecumseh Police Force are kindly souls.

When one of their co-workers, Robert Arwood, was taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital for a nerve condition they decided that each man would work an extra shift each day to insure a pay check for the Arwood family.

Mr. Arwood entered the hospital Feb. 3 about 1 a.m. and was released on Saturday. By Monday he was able to return to work.

Indians Split 2 Games

In two games during the past week, the Tecumseh Indians broke even, swamping Blissfield 79-43 and dropping their second game to Monroe CC, 68-61.

The hapless Blissfield five never had a chance.

Larry Yoakum topped the scorers with 17 points. Dan Cisco tallied 11 and Jack Sisson and Bob O'Neill each netted 10.

Monroe capitalized on fouls to defeat the Indians at Monroe.

Cisco, the game's outstanding player with 25 points and top rebounder, fouled out early in the fourth stanza.

O'Neill and Jim Poley left the tilt in the third period and Steve Kruger in the fourth—all via the foul route.

Before the loss of key players were felt, Tecumseh trailed by only one point.

Cisco, grabbed 27 rebounds.

Attends First Aid Course in Muskegon

A General Telephone employee from Tecumseh, Dolores Bush, recently attended a First Aid Instructors Course at the YWCA in Muskegon.

The week-long course, which started Jan. 12, was conducted by Carrie Anderson, General Telephone Traffic Assistant and C. W. Egner, Toll Tesiman for General Telephone.

Mr. Egner is qualified by the Red Cross as a First Aid Instructor Trainer. He majored in and taught First Aid while serving as a Scoutmaster and became a First Aid teacher upon joining the Red Cross.

He has instructed seven National Aquatic Schools attended by students from all parts of the United States and countries around the world.

The General Telephone course is designed to give the teaching principles and basic first aid fundamentals to those attending so that they may in turn instruct their own departments in first aid and safety.

The ultimate aim of the program is to equip all General Telephone employees with a working knowledge of first aid to enable them to handle many of the emergencies they may encounter on the job.

LeSABRE, the Buick you can own for only $200 more than the best models of the leading low-priced cars . . .

This is in no way a "stripped" car you're looking at. Come in and study the manufacturer's suggested retail price of a Buick LeSABRE like this, equipped with Twin Turbine automatic transmission, radio, heater, white sidewall tires, and anything else you want in your next car. Then do the same to the top models of the leading low-priced three, and you'll find the statement above stands up.

What a difference for only $200!

Now think how much more you'd enjoy a Buick. A comfortable, substantially built automobile. A car with the finest ride in all Buick history. A car with Buick's exclusive fin-cooled brakes, and the smoothest type of transmission money can buy. A wonderfully quiet and greatly respected car!

Owners report QUALITY outstanding

Your money in a Buick today puts you in on the ground floor of what promises to be a long new time of leadership for Buick cars. "My sixth Buick and the best I ever owned!" . . . "Best-operating car I've driven in thirty years!" . . . "Much the best Buick yet!" . . . Reports like these mean extra pleasure in your Buick ownership . . . and they mean hard dollar value when the time comes to trade. It all adds up to the best proof in 50 years that: "WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT, BUICK PEOPLE WILL BUILD THEM!"

New in gas economy, too!

In planning the '59 Buick, the new Wildcat engines, transmissions, and axles were all engineered to work together for greater gas mileage. Across the country owners tell us they are getting 15 to 20 miles per gallon in the '59 Buicks. And in a recent thorough test of Buick LeSabre against another car of comparable size and a good reputation for economy . . . the Buick won in every case under all kinds of driving conditions.

So we think we've got a new kind of value in this Buick LeSabre. And we suggest you go to your Quality Buick Dealer's and see whether you agree before you buy a new car.

AUTO RADIO BUGS.

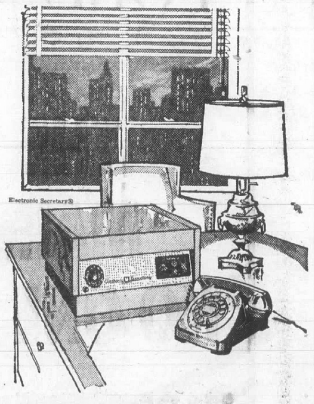
Some of the auto radio trouble brought into the COOK ELECTRIC shop is not caused by the radio at all, but from sources in the automobile. Here are a few of the bugs:

Auto generator interference causes humming in the radio speaker. To stop it, clean and tighten all the generator connections, and replace the condenser.

Sharp, crackling noises are usually loose connections on the ignition system. Tighten these on the distributor, coil and plugs and check ground wires, too.

Sometimes curb feelers and tire valves can cause static popping in the radio. Tighten curb feelers and use anti-static powder in the tires to solve this.

If these precautions do not help, bring your set over to 115 S. Evans St. and we can service it on our shop bench. Or, phone 692-J for any kind of electronic services from television to electric organs.



This "secretary" works overtime and loves it

Nighttime, daytime, all around the clock — this Electronic Secretary sees that you never miss a phone call when you're away from your office.

Automatically, it promptly answers every call with a courteous recorded voice — advises the callers that you're not available at present—asks them to speak the message which will be recorded. It's as simple as that!

All you do is play back the messages when you return. In fact, with a remote call-back attachment you can phone your own office and hear the playback of messages wherever you are.

Wonderful, isn't it? And most wonderful of all, you can have this dependable service, free of human errors, at a surprisingly low cost. For full details, phone our Business Office.

Members Run 'M' Glee Club

For a second straight year, Tecumseh Jaycees will present a concert by the University of Michigan Men's Glee Club.

It will be Thursday, Feb. 26 in the Strand Theatre with Les Bennett as chairman.

This group is different from most other college glee clubs in that it is completely student operated.

The Club has been organized, administered and maintained by its own members since its founding in 1859.

The Club's officers are chosen by petition and majority vote of the Club near the end of each academic year.

Starting the next fall, they take over the duties of managing the Club's internal affairs, setting up campus appearances, managing tours throughout the country, organizing and distributing publicity material, and finding means of financing these activities.

The Club runs itself democratically. All matters which concern the group as a whole are brought to a vote. This allows the great diversity in the membership of the Club to express itself.

The men come from all of the undergraduate colleges in the University as well as from the professional schools.

Glee Club alumni Tom Dewoy receives citation as Centennial Concert.

They are tied together by a common bond, a love of singing, and it is to this goal that they dedicate their efforts.

For an extra-curricluar activity, the Glee Club has kept itself quite busy in recent years gaining many laurels throughout the country.

A few years ago they made a film for RKO-Pathe in which they sang the favorites of more than a dozen colleges.

The Club has toured from eNw York City to as far west as Portland, Ore., and as far south as Memphis, Tenn.

Four years ago it made a record for Decca of over two dozen songs of different colleges.

In the summer of 1955, the Club toured Europe. The six countries visited were: Holland (where they gave a command performance for Queen Juliana,) Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Italy, and France. Last spring the Club toured the West Coast.

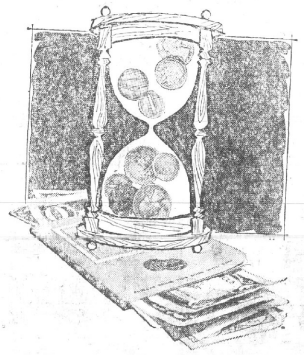
VOTE YES

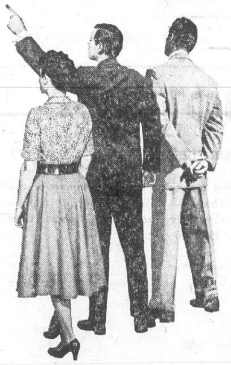
FEB. 16th for

$100,000 REVOLVING FUND



MR. PROPERTY OWNER . . .

IT'S TIME TO SAVE!



Next Monday, Feb. 16th, you will Vote on Tecumseh's $100,000 Revolving Fund Issue. This Fund can be a source of Savings for your City Government and for you. Use of a Revolving Fund has been investigated and discussed thoroughly at Council meetings and at various community organizations. Many property owners have voiced favorable comments, feeling it is the best way for the way for the city to go ahead with special assessment projects–and it will not raise City Taxes. Only you, a property owner will vote on the Revolving Fund next Monday. It's a Fund we are sure you will want to approve.

VOTE YES — IT WILL NOT RAISE TAXES

What Will the $100,000 Revolving Fund Do for You & Tecumseh

Voter's approval of this fund, created by sale of bonds, is sought by Tecumseh Council for several advantages not attainable in the past. Only recent state legislation established revolving fund possibilities for cities such as Tecumseh.

Your city officials have studied and approved the revolving fund, voicing opinions that electoral approval at the polls on Feb. 16th will expedite future special assessment projects and stimulate the growth of Tecumseh.

PASSING A $100,000 REVOLVING FUND IN TECUMSEH WILL NOT INCREASE CITY TAXES. Only those participating in or benefiting from the revolving fund (benefiting by choice) naturally will pay a slightly higher assessment in ensuing years. The number of years and increase are dependent on property owner's preferred method in paying off the improvement.

The revolving fund will allow property owners more time to pay for special assessment improvements, and at lower interest rates than procurable from financial institutions.

The city would charge an interest rate to the property owner to support the interest on the revolving fund bonds and the city's cost for handling. If the city is able to sell bonds at an interest rate of 3½%, for example, probable interest rate to the property owner would be 4½% (considerably less than the interest rate a property owner can secure from financial institutions).

Property owners, in effect, will be able to borrow from the revolving fund for special assessment projects. They may spread the cost over a period of years, up to five years if necessary.

In the past, Council's loans often have taken months in going through "red tape" and other legal procedures. The revolving fund would give the city immediate funds to start projects at once. Present loans, which are necessary, occur at least once a year, sometimes twice, with interest, legal expenses, etc., running to approximately $1,000 for each loan.

Approval of the revolving fund by the property owners will get the city out of the financing business, since some past expenditures for improvements will not realize monetary returns to the city for years to come. The city is financing, and has financed, some construction work for which it will not recover costs until future dates.

Officials in the past have necessarily juggled the general fund for many expenditures, including special assessment projects. The revolving fund will eliminate pressure on the general fund and provide means to plan entire projects, thereby curtailing much piece-meal construction work now practiced.

Retirement of the bonds will be made through the city's general fund (at a cost less than annually expended now for the smaller loans), thereby, keeping the $100,000 intact for property owner's use.

The Council feels a revolving fund is vital to the growth and progress of Tecumseh. Other Michigan cities are expected to take advantage of it, producing statewide popularity in the near future. It will be your advantage to—VOTE YES ON FEBRUARY 16th and PASS TECUMSEH'S $100,000 REVOLVING FUND.

Shirley Kotts handles the bottle as brother Johnny holds their lamb, "Patty."

Bottle Feeding Lamb Delights Youngsters

A four-day old lamb drank milk from a bottle to the delight of young students at Patterson School on a recent Tuesday.

Named "Patty", it was brought to class by John and Shirley Kotts, eight and 10-year-old children of Mr. and Mrs. John Kotts, 8367 N. Adrian Highway.

Because it's mother has no milk, the lamb has to be bottle-fed—every three hours, day and night.

Mrs. Bertram Updike's kindergarten room was the scene for the fun, which was watched by her morning pupils and youngsters from first and second grades.

John and Shirley took turns administering the bottle, which was emptied by "Patty" in a matter of minutes.

The formula 'Patty" (which is short for Patterson, in honor of the school) gets is the same as a baby's, made from Carnation milk.

John plans to bring back his lamb once a month so that the students can see how it grows.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lembrick and family of Britton, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Cook and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Cook and family, Joe Cook of Ann Arbor and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cook were dinner guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. John Cook, Donald and Mrs. Emma Jackson. The occasion was in honor of the birthday of John Cook.

Sale of Property Must Be Reported

Income to the farmer can result from sales, trades or exchanges of many different kinds of products or property.

The income tax law provides that all income must be reported, unless specifically excluded by the law.

Do you know the latest about taxable income? Whether it SHOULD or SHOULD NOT be included on your tax return?

Your best bet is the FARMERS TAX GUIDE which can be yours at no expense to you.

Your County Agricultural Agent or the local Internal Revenue Service office has one for you.

9 Dial Systems Going in This Year - We're 1960

General Telephone's Board of Directors has approved a $12,800,000 improvement and expansion budget for 1959.

Bulk of the budget is earmarked for further conversions of exchanges to dial operation, extension of outside plant to serve rapidly growing areas.

Expansion of central office equipment in exchanges approaching the capacity of present facilities is another factor.

In 1958, 14 exchanges were converted to dial operation, including major exchanges such as Ludington, Alpena and Coldwater.

At the end of last year, 75% of company telephones were dial operated and 1959 will see the firm closer to an objective of 100% dial service.

At least nine dial conversions are planned for 1959.

Tecumseh is scheduled for 1960.

Experiencing an increasing demand for service, General Telephone gained 26,000 new customers in the past two years with a 15,000 increase expected in 1959.

As Michigan's second largest telephone company, General Telephone now serves 34% of the state through 160 exchange communities.

Local Farm Will Be Analyzed at Dairy-O-Rama

An actual average dairy farm in this area will be analyzed to bring it into proper economic balance at the Dairy-O-Rama, Feb. 26 at Clinton High School, according to John W. Comstock, Lenawee Extension Agent.

Charles Beer, Michigan State University farm economist who will do the analysis, says that a dairyman ought to aim for a yearly production standard of 250,000 to 300,000 pounds per man.

He'll use this standard in making adjustments in the operation of this average dairy farm. A system of analyzing this farm could be used on any dairy farm, according to Beer, to decide what, if any, changes can be made to make the farm more profitable.

For instance, a farmer may know that a certain change in his operation will increase income more than other changes. But the analysis of the entire operation may show that this change is not possible considering available capital or Labor.

Beer says that he will bring out the factors that affect income so that farmers attending can apply them at home. Each operator must make his own decisions about what changes he can make and a careful, thorough analysis can point the right direction of change.

Beer is one of several specialists who will take part in the all-day Dairy-O-Rama program. Speakers will have exhibits to visually stress their main points. Starting time is 10 a.m.

Which Industry Now Betters the Living of 3 Out of 4 Michigan Families?

. . . Here Are Some Surprising Facts About The Trading Stamp Industry

So far, whenever our nation's economy has needed expansion, a new industry has sprung up to help the country go ahead.

The automobile industry, employing millions, was followed closely by the development of radio and radio broadcasting to make more millions of jobs. Then came the airplane industry, air conditioning, plastics, television, frozen foods, to change our lives some more.

The trading stamp industry, while not new, belongs to this expansion group and has been one of the fastest growing of all. Today it betters the living of more than 3 out of 4 Michigan families who save trading stamps.

Obviously, an industry affecting such a large proportion of Michigan's population must bring far-reaching benefits for Michigan's economy. And it does. In 1957 the trading stamp industry bought $9,816,000 worth of products from Michigan's manufacturers. In one way or another, it provided employment for 1,016 Michigan people in many different industries.

The people in the trading stamp industry, its merchandise and redemption stores, its warehouses and transportation and all the activity that goes on within it are integrated economically everywhere within our state.

Thus it seems plain that the trading stamp industry along with the 1,690,000 Michigan women it serves has become, like other expansion industries, a living, vital segment of Michigan's economy.

FOR ALL WE HOLD SACRED
. . . ATTEND CHURCH !

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Mark	6	13-16
Monday	John	17	1-26
Tuesday	Acts	13	1-17
Wednesday	James	5	13-16
Thursday	Acts	6	1-8
Friday	Luke	24	1-13
Saturday	Deuteronomy	30	11-14

WHO ARE THEY?

Who are these children?

Probably, you'll never know their names. The countries from which they come encircle the globe. They speak many languages. But each night, before they go to bed, they all say their prayers.

Prayer is the greatest common denominator. You can go to church in Japan or Chicago and, regardless of the language being spoken, you will find that you feel equally in communion with God.

On World Day of Prayer, join your friends and neighbors in church. Let your prayers mingle with those of other people in churches everywhere. Remember that throughout the centuries, prayer has proven itself the greatest of forces. Let it do so again!

Breed of Corn Continues To Be Improved in State

That old standby of many Michigan farmers, corn, is continually being experimented with, and the process of growing it is being improved.

Michigan farmers at Michigan State Universities Farmers' Week were brought up to date on some of the things Michigan State has been learning about corn by James A. Porter, MSU extension soils specialist.

One of the interesting observations Porter related was that where legumes are included in the rotation, there is little difference whether they are harvested or left on the field, as far as benefit to the following crops is concerned.

Minimum tillage permits more corn in the rotation, Porter said.

RESEARCHERS are still trying to find a field of either muck or mineral soil where magnesium gives a response. When magnesium deficiency is identified, there is no increase in yield when it is corrected.

Methods of applying of nitrogen were also discuesed. If the newer type deep-band planter placing fertilizer about two inches to the side and two inches below the seed level all the nitrogen might as well go on with as starter, at planting time.

But no more than 100-150 pounds should be used at planting.

Generally, nitrogen should be supplied in small amounts with the band or starter application, and other, if necessary, should be applied later.

Fertilizer cost recommended by the soil specialist ranged from $19 per acre for a hypothetical 75 bushel yield to $56.52 per acre for a 150 bushel yield. Costs included application.

Senator Pat McNamara's Washington Report

WASHINGTON — This column is the first of a weekly series of discussions of issues as seen from the U. S. Senate. I am grateful to the editors of The Herald for the opportunity to put some of my thoughts and views before their readers.

It is appropriate, in this first column, to deal with a primary subject — education.

We all have been aware of the education crisis that has been growing greater each year. There is an increasing awareness, I am sure, of the bitter results if we don't meet that crisis.

The world in which we live, the peace and freedom that we must secure, the needs of our children in an age of increasing specialization — in short, America's future — require the best educational system we can provide.

Last year, we passed the National Defense Education Act to provide some assistance at higher levels of education. While an important measure, it did not get at the heart of the problem — the classroom shortage at the compulsory education level.

This year there are more than 34.5 million children in public schools, a 3.9% increase over last year and 40.5% over 10 years ago. Construction of additional classrooms and of necessary replacements has not kept pace.

Meeting the school room shortage requires, inevitably, the expenditure of money. Bricks and mortar cost dollars, and so do teachers, who must have better salaries.

In Michigan local property owners and the average worker who pays the sales tax have borne the major share of the cost of the programs. But in too many cases, there just aren't enough dollars — a condition that holds true in most other states.

That is why I think the more equitable tax base of the federal government should be used in this emergency.

Thus, I have again introduced my bill to provide federal aid to the states for school construction. It would provide $1 billion a year for two years, with each state's share based on the number of its school-age children and with each state matching the federal contribution.

We estimate that such a program would help Michigan to build up to 6,000 new classrooms in the two-year period.

It also would enable the State and local units to divert more funds into the vital area of improvements in teachers' salaries.

Finally, I want to emphasize that the bill is designed to prevent any federal interference in local school programs or policies. None of us wants federal control over education.

CHEVY'S NEW HI-THRIFT 6

More miles are back in a gallon of regular-grade gas—up to 10% more—and Chevy's new Hi-Thrift 6 engine puts them there. It also gives you more "git" in the speeds you drive the most.

Here's an engine that always seems able to coax extra miles out of a tank of regular-grade gas. In fact, if you're one of those drivers who keep tab on things like gas mileage, you'll soon see for yourself that this new Hi-Thrift 6 gets up to 10% more miles a gallon.

Another thing you'll like about this 135-h.p. 6 is the extra pep it gives you for passing and climbing hills. This is due to higher torque at normal speeds.

It may be hard to believe anything that looks and moves like this '59 Chevy can be such a stickler for economy. But—whether you pick the Hi-Thrift 6 or a vim-packed V8—this is just one more reason Chevy's the car that's wanted for all its worth. Stop by your dealer's and see.

A message from Ralph Hodges, "Your Pharmacist"

THERE ARE MANY GOOD REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD ALWAYS OBTAIN YOUR MEDICINES AND HEALTH-AIDS FROM A PHARMACIST.

The next time you are tempted to get them elsewhere remember these important facts.

WE ARE TAUGHT HOW TO PROTECT AND PRESERVE POTENCY.

Medicines must be carefully stored to insure best action. Some must not be exposed to light. Others must be kept away from heat. Only a pharmacist studies the proper methods.

EVERY PHARMACY IS REGULATED BY LAW.

We welcome the unexpected visits of inspectors who make certain we have fresh high quality medicines.

OUR PROFESSIONAL REPUTATION INSURES YOUR SATISFACTION.

Pharmacy's Code of Ethics directs us to consider your welfare more important than any immediate greater profits. We can advise you about precautions, that are often necessary when taking medicines or using health-aids.

THE PRICES WE CHARGE ARE NO GREATER.

Super-markets or variety store do not charge less for medicines, tooth pastes, shampoos or the other health-aids we have traditionally supplied. They are not open the long hours we find are necessary to make certain medicines available for your emergency need. Few of them will deliver. None of them can give you a pharmacist's personal, attentive, safer service.

MAKE THIS RESOLUTION.

Since the prices we charge are the same and the personal service and safety we supply is better, get all your medicines and health-aids from us. We will appreciate your preference.

Circular Tells about Clear-Span Construction

Clear-span construction continues to gain in popularity for today's farm buildings. And now the idea is being used in the construction of pole-type buildings.

Farmers like the pole-type, clear-span idea because they can combine good quality and economy into one attractive building.

Agricultural engineers at Michigan State University have developed a new publication on the construction of farm buildings. Entitled "How to Erect a Pole-Type, Clear-Span Building," the publication points out that farmers can save time and money if they map out the operation in a certain order.

The booklet outlines the steps of construction including preliminary planning, lumber and poles to be used, laying out the building procedures.

The basic building presented in the publication can be used for machinery storage, a poultry house, fruit storage and other purposes.

A copy of circular 735 is available at the county extension office, Courthouse, Adrian or from the Bulletin Office, Michigan State University, P. O. Box 231, East Lansing.

Never Boil Frankfurters Says Expert

In spite of the frequent advice of cooking "experts," never boil frankfurters if you want to preserve their full flavor, their appetizing juiciness, and their sleek looks.

According to Donald Eckrich, the manager of the Peter Eckrich and Sons' meat packing plant in Kalamazoo, the only way to prepare "Frankfurts," is as follows:

Boil water in a pan, remove the pan from the stove, put the hot dogs in the water, and leave them there for 5 to 10 minutes. When you take them out, they will be ready to eat and you will have the best frankfurters you have ever tasted.

The reason that they don't have to be boiled is that the "Frankfurts" are completely precooked in the manufacturing process.

There is no reason for boiling them again. They could even be eaten "cold" as they come from the store—if you like them that way.

Our Readers Write

TO THE EDITORS:

Much has been said and written in reference to the State's financial situation and the placing of blame on the Williams administration.

It seems that the fact that the Williams administration, until the last gubernaorial election, has included a hostile legislature has been entirely forgotten.

It is among the duties of the Legislature to raise and spend tax monies as it sees fit, even to the point of over-riding a governor's veto.

So it seems to me, that the Legislature should come into the picture, to some extent as far as placing the blame for our present State deficit is concerned.

Admittedly, this deficit is not a pleasant situation for the citizens of Michigan to face, but it is a well-known fact that it did not come into being overnight.

Deficit spending is nothing new to our Legislators as one mentioned it, in the amount of millions of dollars, in a talk before a local civic group at least five years ago.

If something had to be done about it, why wasn't action taken on it at that time?

A perturbable situation recently came up in Lenawee County which should open some points of political interest and require careful consideration by the people of this County.

Our governor, on Jan. 30, made a speech on TV giving, in admittedly meager detail, a plan whereby the State could raise additional funds for its operation and possibly reduce our deficit.

This plan was not submitted to the Legislature before TV presentation, but was given to us, the primary governing body of the state, directly.

Yet, before these legislators could possibly have been briefed on it in detail, our two County representatives had derogatory remarks in an Adrian newspaper that went to press before noon the following day.

One representative, the chairman of the state senate appropriations committee was appalled at the governor for having taken an issue directly to the people and suggested, strongly, that it might be good to make it a special election issue.

This of course, would relieve him of a responsibility which he assumed when he was elected and would keep his neck out of the tightening political noose.

The other representative, chairman of the house taxation committee, suggested that the governors plan "gave no industrial relief," but added that his (the governors) plan was apparently our only source of income, thus getting on the bandwagon and alleviating his burden of trying to find some other workable way of raising funds.

From these comments, by our representatives it is conclusive that these representatives are perfectly willing to let Governor Williams take the blame for this deficit when they, as chairmen of the taxing and spending committees, could have presented legislation some years ago designed to eliminate a deficit, but nothing of any apparent significent importance has come from them.

Governor Williams has a right to expect some help from the legislature, but when he has to go directly to the people with a plan because of lack of this help and apparent use of so-called party politics then I say he has a lot of "guts" and a great deal more interest in Michigan than some of our elected representatives.

Sincerely

Wallace B. Whiting

Tecumseh, Mich.

TO THE EDITORS:

I enjoy reading The Tecumseh Herald very much and have never written to the editor of any paper before.

This week's article regarding the conditions of our state got me all "fired up".

I also realize there are several Republicans in office with him. As the old saying goes it looks like he's "Between the Devil and the Deep Blue Sea."

Sincerely,

Mrs. Faith Cote

4393 Comfort Rd.

Tecumseh, Mich.

P.S. I'm glad that situations only look bad because I've learned that if we give anything time and loyalty it will work out and usually better. There's only one thing wrong: the opposition then has the chance to say "you are to blame" or as we often say "Pass-the Buck."

Gentlemen:

In reading through back issues of the Herald last evening, it seemed to me that Macon is slighted as far as the heading for news is concerned. Now, Macon isn't the biggest little town on earth, but let's face it, it really deserves a "heading" that's in a class with "Ridgeway Ramblings" and "Tipton Topics".

May I suggest the use of the words "mentionings" or "maxims"?

Respectfully,

Mrs. Eunice Swanston

Clean Vacuum Lines Regularly, States Dairy Specialists

Here is a reminder from dairy specialists at Michigan State University:

Clean vacuum lines on milking equipment regularly.

Dirty lines can slow milking time even when the pump, motor and milking units are in good condition, they say.

The specialists suggest that lines be flushed with a lye solution made of one can of lye in 12 to 14 quarts of water.

Suck a quart or two of the hot solution through several of the stall cocks starting with the one closests to the pump. Follow with a hot water rinse and let pump run with cocks party open to dry out the line.

If line is rinsed monthly, up to a pail of the solution could be drawn in at the last stall cock without plugging the line. Otherwise, it is a good idea to draw no more solution into the line at one time than the capacity of the tank on the milking machine pump.

A CHANGE OF PLANS!

I've had it! For some time now discretion has held away and I have pushed aside the urge to talk about B-B guns. I have not wanted to sound like a stuffy prude; I hope never to be accused of being a spoil-sport.

Anyone who "knew me when," knew me as a tom-boy and as such, I am certainly not going to preach against kids having fun.

Fun, however, need not be destructive or cruel! I was just about to dictate this week's article—which by the way was announced to be "An Early Valentine," and will, for sure, get to it next week—when I saw something which caused this "change of plans".

Trudging down the frozen-over, snow covered creek came two boys, one of whom had a B-B gun cradled across his arm, and a dog. The boys were making a careful and systematic check of the trees looking for birds.

Fortunately, their aim was poor or at least, although we saw the one put his gun up many times and I presume he fired, we saw no hapless little birds fall.

Until the boys came, it had been a wonderful bird day; we had enjoyed Cardinals, Blue-jays —all our happy winter friends. You can imagine how we feared for their safety.

☆

THE BOYS made several trips up and down the creek—oh, they were very thorough! Soon, of course, they had succeeded in driving all the birds away, and were out of targets; however, they were still not satisfied.

They turned their gun sight on bigger game and were unfortunately more successful in hitting their mark.

Penny, the harmless little neighborhood rover, who always so happy for human companionship, had innocently tagged along after the boys, was their new victim.

From her actions, a couple of shots were fired—I am sure they caused no more than a smarting sting, but nevertheless such senseless shooting at the dog was most uncalled for. A fine way to repay her friendliness.

☆

CERTAINLY IF parents are going to give their children guns or even give permission for the children to have them, they, the parents, have the responsibility of teaching the safe and proper use of these guns.

Correctly used, a gun can be fun. Target shooting and legal hunting are great sport.

Improperly handled a gun, any kind of a gun, is a dangerous, even lethal weapon. A harmless looking little B-B gun can put an eye out, destroy one's hearing, to say nothing of the windows that can be broken, the innocent squirrels maimed and the beneficial, enjoyable birds killed.

Apparently there is no ordinance against the shooting of B-B guns inside the City limits. More and more cities are adding such a statute to their books, it might be well for the City fathers to look into this.

There is, however, a strict state law which prohibits the shooting of any song birds.

Mother or Dad, it might be well, before turning your youngster loose with his new shiny air rifle and an abundant supply of pellets, to warn him against breaking this law. Most of our birds, you know, are classed as song birds!

☆

WELL, ENOUGH of this. Most of the things which I can see from my windows are pleasant, the happy type of thing which I am always pleased to describe.

Occasionally, however, something unpleasant occurs; it is seldom that these things need be told, but this cruel, unthinking shooting of song birds must be stopped.

Please. Please. Oh, please, if there are youngsters with B-B guns in your family teach them the responsibilities which owning a gun involves.

Show them how to have fun without being destructive!

Sheep Shearing School Planned

Michigan State University's annual sheep shearing school is slated for Feb. 16 and 17.

The two-day school is especially for beginners in sheep shearing but more experienced shearers are also welcome, according to Graydon Blank, extension sheep specialist at Michigan State.

Starting time of the two-day school is 9 a.m. on Feb. 16. Persons interested should report to the Livestock Pavilion on the campus at East Lansing.

Covert Your Drill into Band Seeder

If you want to improve your seedings, convert your drill into a band seeder. If will cost you about $15 but will earn this in decreased seed costs in one year.

But the main improvement will be in providing more reliable seedings for many years, according to M. B. Tesar, who spoke to farmers at their annual educational short course, Michigan State University's Farmers' Week.

Tesar is an MSU farm crop researcher.

The shot in the arm seedlings receive when placed over the fertilizer make the band seeding a superior method.

Using a cultipacker gave 28% better stands at MSU than when no compaction of the soil was done.

Rather than seed alfalfa on wheat in the spring and risk failures two times out of three, Tesar advised farmers to make the alfalfa seeding in August after plowing or disking the wheat stubble under.

If sown in August, seedings must be compacted, he said.

Summer seedings on fallowed ground or on wheat stubble can be as productive as spyring seedings if they are established by band seeding and using a cultipacker or press wheels following the drill.

Your Electrical Genius!

In 1876 at the age of 29, Tom Edison set a goal for himself. He would, he decided, complete a major invention every six months and finish three inventions of lesser importance every month.

He more than achieved this goal. During the next 15 years he averaged a patent every 8 to 9 days. During the 42 years between 1869 and 1910 he averaged a patent every two weeks.

Edison brought electricity out of the laboratory and into practical use for the benefit of mankind. He worked untiringly to develope the first practical electric light bulb, and the equipment needed to bring it into the homes of America. Edison founded an industry that has become one of the nation's largest and most vital . . . an industry that has put the magic of electricity to work in a thousand ways that contribute to the strength and property of the nation.

This week—National Electric Week—marks the 112rh anniversary of the birth of Thomas A. Edison. During this week those of us in all the various groups that make up the electrical industry, unite to pay tribute to Edison and other pioneers of electrical progress. We join today in rededicating our industry to continuing progress and service to the nation.

We Salute THOMAS A. EDISON

This is a good time to ask yourself whether you are able to take full advantage of the benefits of today's wonderful electrical living. The fact is that new developments in electric equipment and appliances in the last few years have outmoded the wiring in most homes. Make it a point during National Electrical Week to have your wiring checked. Have your HOUSEPOWER brought up to modern standards and live better . . . Electrically.

Biggest Guide to Shopping

Why do you read any newspaper? The answer, of course, is news, pictures and shopping information. All three combined in The Herald give you more news, more pictures and more shopping information from local merchants.

There is more news in The Herald about current events here, about clubs and organizations, about your friends and neighbors.

Only The Herald gives you pictures of wide interest, pictures that are newsworthy, pictures telling the story of the Tecumseh area and its people.
And, there is more advertising and shopping information from your local merchants.

During the past year and a half, The Herald has increased its readership or circulation by about 40%. The press run in the 1st week of October 1957 was 1,950. Now, this press run is 2,700!

You did it! A call by phone, a letter, or stopping by at The Herald office increased circulation. Many of you have paid The Herald fine compliments, and they were encouraging and appreciated. Some have questioned our editorials, and even these comments, pro and con, were welcomed.

All factors—news, pictures, advertising, and subscribers—have given your local paper the help necessary for its acceptance in your home and its position as a prize winning newspaper in the State of Michigan.

During the next two weeks through the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, The Herald will attempt to bolster its position in The Tecumseh trading area. If you read The Herald once, you'll want it 52 times a year.

Order 7,200 Poppies

Mrs. Vern Manwaring reported the purchase of another mattress and a wheel chair for fracture patients to be used by the community at the American Legion Auxiliary meeting.

She will make an investigation and recommend some regulations concerning the equipment at the next meeting.

For information about the equipment call Mrs. Manwaring.

Mrs. John Zarnoch reported on Civil Defense and Mrs. R. C. Osborn reported that 25 members of both organizations had helped with the Polio Drive.

Mrs. Robert Smith told of the qualities that Girl State Girls are chosen for and reported that she had received confirmation of the reservations.

Mrs. Richard Beasley, Poppy chairman, was directed to order 7,200 poppies for sale this year.

Mrs. Milton Meyer urged that members write to Senators Pat McNamara and Philip A. Hart requesting that they join with the sponsors of Senate Resolution 19, which would provide a long-need Veterans Committee in the Senate.

Letters should be addressed to the Senate Office Building, Washington 25, D. C. with a reference to Resolution No. 19.

During the meeting members voted to order 12 dozen paring knives for resale; to donate $10 to Polio and to place the meeting dates on the Band Boosters calendar.

Mrs. Meyers also suggested that the organization send for 200 pamphlets, "How a Thought Becomes a Bill and How a Bill Becomes A Law", to be placed in the schools. The motion was passed.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Dave Higgins, Mrs. George French, Mrs. Edwin Gollar, Mrs. Harold Green and Mrs. Meyer.

Does Hanging Up Clothing Get You Down?

Does hanging up clothes get you down?

Here are a few tips that can make the job easier for you. They're offered by Ruth Kettunen, extension specialist in home management at Michigan State University.

You can begin making the job easier even before you get to the clothes line by sorting clothes as you take them from the washer.

For instance, if you like to hang all your towels together on the line, take these from the washer at the same time. Things that must be starched can be kept together, too.

☆

"SMOOTH AND straight"—this is the way to hang clothes. Although it takes a little extra time, it will cut down on ironing later. Remember to put clothespins at the strongest part of the garment, continues Mrs. Kettunen.

To keep clothespins handy, put them in a clothespin apron or in a bag that can be pushed along as the clothes are being hung.

Fold and sort your clothes as you take them from the line. You can also save time by slipping clothes that need sprinkling into a large plastic bag. Later, you can simply add water to the bag and your "sprinkling" is all done for you.

☆

YOU CAN SAVE a lot of bending by raising your clothes basket. If you don't have one of the new clothes baskets on wheels, put yours on a wheelbarrow, an old baby buggy, or borrow Junior's wagon.

Your clothes line should be taut — non-stretch plastic lines work very well. Keep your line as low as possible when you're hanging clothes. It can be raised by clothes poles after you've finished.

If you're drying clothes inside, create your own breeze with an electric fan. This can save from two to four hours of drying time.

Let's Go Back To The Bible

How wide is this ad? You might guess eight inches. Another might guess ten inches. Who is right? How do you find out? You get a ruler and measure, and all of us accept the measurement of the ruler or yardstick.

Why can we not do the same thing in religion? Which church is right? What should I do to be saved? One group will express a totally different one. In religion these opinions are known as "creeds." Who is right? Let us get the divine yardstick, the Bible, and find out.

The Bible was given us for a yardstick, a guide from earth to heaven. "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine (teaching), for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works." (II Timothy 3:16, 17.)

The Bible is neither Jewish, Catholic, nor Protestant. It is the inspired Word of God. "For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man; but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Spirit." (II Peter 1:20, 21.) There came the prophecy or teaching in the spoken word, the seed of the kingdom. First, then, there came the church which resulted from men and women believing and obeying the spoken word of God. Then, God inspired certain men to give us a complete revelation, the Bible. (Ephesians 3:3,4.)

No man is given authority to change the Bible. "For I testify unto every man that heareth the word of this prophecy of the book. If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: and if any man shall take away from the words of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life and out of the holy city and from the things which are written in this book." (Revelation 22:18, 19.)

Let's go back to the Bible! Study the Bible to see if what you believe and practice is true according to this divine yardstick.

Folder Help Communities Plan Zoning

Michigan's communities are rapidly changing and it's up to residents to guide these changes in the directions they want.

That's the advice offered by Louis A. Wolfanger, extension specialist in land use at Michigan State University.

Writing in two newly published Extension folders, Wolfanger says that people can't stop the changes that are taking place in their local communities but they can guide them.

Wolfanger urges that residents study Michigan's rural planning and zoning laws and learn how a community can work out a good blueprint for its development.

These two Extension folders available at the Lenawee County Extension Office can help County residents think about planned development, believes Louis G. Hall.

☆

ONE FOLDER is called "What is Happening in Your Community." It describes the changes that are taking place in farm communities, suburban communities, lake and river-side communities, unincorporated villages and northern Michigan rural communities.

"Rural Zoning in a Nutshell" is the second folder written by Wolfanger. In it he points out that any Township or County is permitted by Michigan law to plan and zone its rural or unincorporated area. This includes that "fringe" area around the cities as well as the more outlying lands.

The Michigan State specialist states that zoning is not intended to exclude any legitimate or appropriate use of land or property. A good zoning ordinance, he says, tends more to "zone in" than "zone out" land uses—to invite in or encourage those for which a zoning district seems best suited.

Ag Income Was Up in '58

EAST LANSING—United States agriculture in 1958 enjoyed the highest income since 1953, but Michigan farmers as a group did not share fully in the rise, reports an agricultural economist at Michigan State University.

Lower milk prices, loss of outside income and higher production costs influenced Michigan farm income statistics.

Sale of dairy products accounts for nearly 30% of cash receipts from Michigan farming.

And though the state dairy herd was the smallest (845,000 head) in over 20 years, a climbing milk production rate per cow increased 1958 output by 5.4 billion pounds over 1957, a 2% gain.

"However, during 1958 the sales of fluid milk failed to increase in Michigan," the article relates, "perhaps because of continued high levels of unemployment in most major industrial centers in the state.

"As a result more of the milk had to be used as manufactured milk products such as cheese and ice cream which return a lower price to the producer. Beginning in April 1958, the price support level for manufactured dairy products was lower from the 1957 level.

☆

THE 1958 MICHIGAN parity ratio—a comparison of prices received by farmers to their farm production costs—was only about 76 as compared to 84 for the United States.

This difference, "reflects the heavy weight of fluid milk prices in Michigan compared to the U. S. It also explains why many Michigan farmers have not shared in the general optimism regarding 1958 farm income.

Average statistics are deceiving and some Michigan farmers probably enjoyed their highest income from farming in years, if not in history.

"The producers of meat animals received their highest prices in nearly five years," it states. "This, together with large feed supplies and consequent low feed prices, resulted in good margins of profit.

"Field crop producers in Michigan, as in most of the country, had record production in 1958. The production of the 18 major Michigan field and fruit crops exceed the previous record year, 1956, by more than 7% with above-average production in all except peaches, sour cherries, hay and buckwheat."

Chance for Handicapped

In a recent talk to Tecumseh Rotarians Carl Hansen of Adrian, Lenawee County Manager, for Goodwill Industries, brought out these facts.

Goodwill opened their first retail store in Adrian February of 1958.

In November the second store was opened.

Their combined receipts total nearly $20,000 and of this amount over $18,000 was paid in wages to handicapped employees residing in this area.

Over 50% of the income was from clothing, repaired and cleaned for resale by these employees.

☆

ARTICLES THAT cannot be processed here were sent to Detroit where Goodwill has an elaborate and efficient plant setup for this purpose.

At least twice each month the unprocessed material is exchanged for merchandise ready-for-sale in the retail stores.

A truck in this area has a daily schedule to pick up the home discards from the various cities and communities and a local representative is available for information.

Over 17,000 handicapped people in the United States are employed by Goodwill, 400 in Detroit and 11 in other parts of southeastern Michigan.

☆

THE LOCAL plant hopes to employ many more by adding a complete shoe repair unit where handicapped men may be also trained to work in local shops or in many cases start their own businesses.

The idea of a Goodwill unit in this area was started by a group of civic-minded people who invested $4,900 to help the handicapped.

"The idea paid dividends at a ratio of over $3 for each dollar invested and even greater was the satisfaction of helping the people to help themselves," said Mr. Hensen.

Goodwill Industries for 50 years, "Give the Handicapped A Chance, Not Charity."

$100,000 Revolving Fund Narrowly Misses

A proposed $100,000 revolving fund for Tecumseh narrowly missed being approved by property owners at a vote Monday.

Although showing a slight-majority—258-217—it was not the required three-fifths.

Only in Precinct 3, south of Chicago Blvd. and west of Evans St. did the issue get over-whelming approval, 110-58.

This is the district which includes Tecumseh Acres, the area which would first be affected by the proposed fund.

Had it been OKed this week, a $91,000 sewer and water project would have been started for 142 homes there.

(PLEASE SEE EDITORIAL ON THIS SUBJECT ON PAGE SIX OF THIS SECTION.)

In Precinct 1, the count rank negative, 57-67, and in Precinct 2, it lost 91-92.

The 475 who clicked machine levers had to be property owners.

How many of the 3,001 registered voters in the City were qualified is not known, reports a City official, so no percentage of turnout can be figured.

Tuttle Move Delayed Week by Weather

Weather conditions have hampered building progress at the H. W. Tuttle Co. plant here, setting back moving one week.

Instead of Tuttle machinery arriving next Monday, it will start coming over Feb. 23, states H. W. Tuttle, Jr., executive vice-president.

The initial phase — resettling 100 pieces of machinery—will be completed in about three or four days he estimates.

This week, the pressure is on installation of heating and plumbing, which is being handled by Clauda Plumbing of Tecumseh.

The new two-story section being built on the front of the plant for office and engineering is nearly six weeks behind schedule and thus probably won't be ready until April.

Until it is, general offices, engineering and assembly will remain in Adrian, Mr. Tuttle explained.

☆

AS SOON as the plant is ready for operation here, families of employees will be guests at an open house. At the same affair, members of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce will also probably attend.

Chamber secretary Don Murphy has already visited with Mrs. Madeline Tuttle, president of the firm, and told her that members are interested in touring the plant here as soon as it is opened. Mr. Tuttle reports that business during the past three months has been good and he expects the next three to continue in the same vein.

He said that all seniority layoffs have been called back.

At present the firm employs 85.

☆

WHILE MAKING provision for expansion, the new site also includes a parking lot and ample loading and unloading facilities for highway trucks.

Access to a rail siding is included as well. Plans and specifications were prepared by Jim Smith of Tecumseh.

"In Adrian," said Mrs. Tuttle, "Our production facilities were split between two plants. Our new plant will bring everything under one roof and increase our manufacturing area by more than one-third.

"In addition, having all manufacturing on one floor will allow us to set up more efficient, modular, 'U' flow type production lines. Our general offices will be much larger and more convenient and we are doubling the space for our testing laboratory and engineering department.

The interior of the new plant is completely color styled using safety techniques to provide greater efficiency and better working conditions, according to the Company.

For maximum adaptability, buss duct has been used for electric power transmission throughout, while machinery and equipment is installed on ready mounts, rather than being lagged to the floor.

SAD SIGHT — When City dump truck driver Ken Zornow of Britton started out to haul a load of crushed stone Monday right after lunch, he didn't dream his vehicle would try to stage a disappearing act on Herrick Park Dr. But it did. Almost succeeded, too. The truck looked like this and (below) the roadway like this. Water from a leaking main had washed away sub soil and the three-inch-thick pavement was merely a crust without foundation.

THE Long & Short OF IT

By TOM RIORDAN

Don Johnson, High School band director, has issued an invitation for oldsters to form a musical group.

To our way of thinking there couldn't be any more fun for exbandsmen.

Each has a talent, developed over the years by practice and lessons. For most, it now lays unused.

A few years back, when I was publishing a paper in a small Ohio town, the Rotary Club there staged a home-talent show.

The thing which far surpassed everything else was the music.

Under the guidance of a talented marimba player, an orchestra was formed — made up strictly of local folks.

They rehearsed regularly and by show time the group was really sharp. I'm sure that for the least excuse the men and women making up that orchestra would have continued on with their music and each would have been the richer for it.

But when the show was over they put away their instruments.

We're sure if Mr. Johnson is able to get a band going here, everyone in it will enjoy playing and that if a public concert is staged, the audience will be well entertained.

It could easily develop into a regular Tecumseh band or orchestra, a group which our young musicians could look forward to joining when they finish school.

A feature article on playwrite Arthur Miller is in the works for Esquire magazine.

It's being authored by Tecumseh's Allan Seager, an old friend of Mr. Miller's.

In gathering the facts, Mr. Seager spent a few days at the Miller home recently, toiling on the details.

As most of you probably know Mr. Miller's wife has another career in which she uses her maiden name, Marilyn Monroe.

This was work?

When a fellow all but gives up on television and decides to toss his set in the trash heap, along comes a singer.

To me that stinger was Playhouse 90 last Thursday evening when it presented a court drama with a gal attorney pleading her first case.

Perfect is the only word which can describe the show.

A top-flight story with wonderful dialogue, the show was brilliantly acted by every person in it.

Before the performance was halfway over my wife and I were not casual TV viewers, we were spectators in a British courtroom.

Let's say a silent prayer for more of the same.

Jack Metcalf and his post office crew did a bang-up job for The Herald last week.

You may recall us saying that the Feb. 12 issue went out to more than 6,000 homes.

It was a chubby, 22-pager, which meant considerable weight to start with.

On top of this we began a new system for blanket coverage of the City and there were a few bugs which Jack kindly worked out for us.

We had plates cut for our Address-O-Graph for every home in town—in fact, we even cut a few extras by mistake for a couple of vacant lots. Jack's lads spotted these in a hurry.

We've long needed such a mailing setup and now we have it.

In distributing direct mail advertising for a variety of customers we have always had to deliver door-to-door in the city and it was a time-consuming and costly problem.

In another week or so we'll formally announce the service as being available to the merchants who wants to do blanket mailings.

We're sorry to learn that Mrs. Florence Weer is going to close her Vogue Dress Shop.

It has been a part of the downtown shopping row for almost 20 years and her gowns have been an important part of the wardrobes of many Tecumseh women.

We wish Mrs. Weer the best of luck.

The January thaw seems to have arrived — about 30 days tardy. Let's hope spring gets no such wayward ideas.

That eagle is definitely around town.

Art Eaton, who lives along M-50 east of the City saw him by his barn last week.

Art says the bird has at least a seven-foot wing span.

Keep watching. We may get a picture of him.

Street Sinks When Main Springs Leak

A broken water main washed out soil beneath a 60-foot stretch along Herrick Park Drive Monday and caused its collapse.

Water bubbling up through the street's surface was spotted about noon.

Before it could be closed to traffic, a City truck, loaded with crushed stone, started west over the troubled section.

The roadway gave way and the vehicle's left rear wheels sunk nearly four feet beneath the surface.

Driver Ken Zornow dumped the stone and the City crane and loader was able to free the dump truck.

The street had to be torn up so that water department men could repair the main.

Luckily, only two homes were affected when the 6-inch main was turned off. Service was restored by 6 p.m. the night of the accident.

The roadway was temporarily mended and re-opened Tuesday afternoon. It will have to be resurfaced this spring.

Activities Room Open to Seniors With 'B' Average

In an effort to promote greater self-reliance, higher academic achievement, and good citizenship among the students of Tecumseh High School, the Tecumseh High School Student Council has furnished a room with new tables, chairs and lamps with funds from their treasury, reports Neville Hart.

"Seniors who have earned a seven-semester scolastic average of B or better and who have displayed a commendable attitude toward self-discipline may use this room for study instead of the regular study hall during their study hall period, Mr. Hart stated.

All official rules of school conduct are to be observed. A student who fails to abide by the rules, or does not keep his grade average at least to B will lose this privilege.

Vogue Dress Shop Will Close Doors

Mrs. Florence Weer owner and operator of the Vogue Shop, and Mrs. Virginia Kingsbury, her daughter, are quitting business after nearly 20 years in Tecumseh's downtown district.

Next fall Mrs. Weer would have celebrated 20 years in business row and all at the same location, next to the Strand Theater.

Methodist Minister Breaks Collar Bone When Car Is Struck

The Rev. James Nixon, Methodist Church pastor, suffered a broken collar bone and minor injuries last Thursday when struck by a pickup truck just north of Sylvania on US-223.

The Tecumseh minister was en route home when the accident happened.

In an attempt to avoid another vehicle, which turned in front of him, Mr. Nixon swerved across the highway and was then hit on the shoulder of the road by the small truck.

The driver who hit the minister apparently saw the acicdent coming, tried to avoid it by leaving the highway, but rammed into Mr. Nixon.

The Tecumseh car sustained extensive damages, especially on the right side where the collision occurred.

Exchange of Property Can Be Made Without Having an Election

By JIM LINCOLN

Council took another step Monday night towards exchanging the lot across from City Hall for the post office-owned parking lot on Pearl St., just south of Chicago Blvd.

City officials approved a resolution submitted by attorney James Beardsley, the resolution saying Council had the authority to trade for the lots without having an election.

The swap would be made on an even footage basis and with the understanding that the government would in the future erect a new post office building.

☆

ALTHOUGH LITTLE mention was made during the regular session, Council later discussed possible ways of helping residents in Tecumseh Acres get sewer and water facilities.

Monday, property owners defeated a $100,000 revolving fund which would have benefited all people included in special assessment projects.

The defeat left Council without money to install sewer and water lines to much of the Tecumseh Acres area and possibly projected Council into the position of necessarily passing a mill or two additional tax levy or taking other action.

☆

IN OTHER action, Councilmen discussed with City Manager Ed Nelson the breaking-up of streets, conditions of three water wells, employment of an electrical inspector, renting the council chambers for meetings, and allowing the Union at Tecumseh Products to use the city's voting machines.

'No Greater Love'

No Tecumseh basketball follower dies more times when things go wrong during a game than Mrs. Vic Lawson, wife of the Indian coach. And no fan is more thrilled or cheers louder than Louise when THS bursts ahead. Here she is as Tecumseh struggled valiantly and finally defeated Airport Friday evening. office box and found a large envelope from the State Highway Dept.

It contained a large sketch, showing the proposed relocation of U.S., 23 from Dundee to Milan.

This was a big story for Dundee and George decided to do something that probably 99 out of 100 weekly editors would not attempt.

He decided to put out an extra —this only hours after he had completed the back-breaking task of putting out a 12-page issue.

The first thing he did was drive to Tecumseh where Jim hurriedly made him a plastic engraving of the drawing.

Then he scurried back to Dundee and got about the task of getting his story into type.

George had four pages of type standing, tore out the week's page one to make room for the story and drawing.

By midnight the job was done.

Dundee residents had their extra in the next morning's mail —and there was no charge, either to the subscribers or advertisers, whose ads ran on the pages used.

The engagement of Shirley Anne Gurtzweiler of Tecumseh to Larry Dean Hedges is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald E. Gurtzweiler. Mr. Hedges is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hedges of National City, Cal. A June wedding is being planned.

It's Broken Bone Month for Grange

Tecumseh Grangers were hosts Feb. 12 when Rome Grange brought the traveling gavel here and presented a delightful program.

After a bountiful dinner the group of about 100 went to the newly decorated assembly room for the meeting and program.

The charter was draped in memory of the recently deceased members Harold Auten and Donna Escott.

Nine visitors attended from Fairfield, Palmyra and Onsted Granges along with 60 from Rome.

The Tecumseh Grange Chaplain announced that the following had received broken bones the result of falls:

Mrs. Ernest Harris, arm

Mrs. Will Grigg, two bones in wrist

Mrs. Mel Partridge, two bones in arm

Mrs. Clarence Keller, ankle

Ruth Kuder, fractured back.

She also announced that Lorna Dicks, former Ceres, is a patient at Herrick Memorial Hospital suffering with a virus ailment.

Following the business session Mrs. Fritz Matthes, lecturer of Rome Grange, presented the program which included a recitation, tap dancing, two humorous skits and instrumental solos.

The masters of the two Granges made the gavel presentation and it was announced that Thursday, Feb. 26, the Tecumseh Grange will meet jointly with Tipton at their hall to present the gavel and program.

All members are asked to watch the paper for further announcement of the time and food they are to furnish.

You Told Us

BY DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Spring is in the air. Yes, it is, too. The sun gets up just a bit earlier each morning and just look at the mud peeking out from beneath the ice.

This writer took her first spill of the winter Tuesday and luckily didn't break anything but her good nature. Many Tecumseh residents have had bad falls this winter with numerous broken bones as the result.

Mrs. Mel Partridge fell in Detroit Wednesday and broke her right arm in two places.

She accompanied Mrs. Owen Partridge there to the home of Mrs. Curtis Grindstaff who was returning with them to make her home here with her granddaughter, the latter Mrs. Partridge.

Just as they were preparing to leave for Tecumseh Mrs. Partridge fell on the icy front porch.

The physician reduced the fracture as best he could, but said at the time he felt that he would be necessary to do the work again. Sure enough when the swelling goes down, perhaps by the end of the week, Mrs. Partridge expects to have the bone reset.

SATELLITE SIGNALS

A customer asked us at COOK ELECTRIC if it was possible to receive signals on his FM Receiver from the artificial satellites that Russia and U.S. are sending around the Earth.

You should be able to hear signals on a sensitive FM set just above the highest FM Broadcasting Station. But, remember satellites are not transmitting continuously; only when triggered by the receiving station that they pass over. You will need a lot of patience to discover the right time.

And if you're running out of patience with your TV or any one of your home electronics, phone us at 692-J for professional services that is right the first time.

County Demoncrats Meet in Tecumseh

Lenawee County's Democratic committee meets in Tecumseh's City Hall Thursday, Feb. 19 at 8 p.m. and all members of the party are asked to attend.

On last Sunday, the Second Congressional District Democratic committee gathered here at the VFW.

Officers from the four counties were on hand for this gathering.

Guests included:

Newly-elected State Representative Win Sterling of Monroe.

William B. Elmer of Grosse Pointe Park and Earle R. MacLaughlin of Midland, who are candidates for Regent of the University of Michigan.

Warren Milton Huff, Washtenaw County farmer, who is a candidate for State Board of Agriculture.

Regular order of business was suspended by chairman Robert Hall of Cement City to give the candidates an opportunity to bid for the Second District delegation support at the State Democratic Convention Saturday in Grand Rapids.

Representative Sterling then gave a talk on action so far in this session of the Legislature.

The rotation of convention committee offices was clarified. Grenval Spangler of Tecumseh, who will meet with the pre-convention committee on education and taxation Friday afternoon, read Section 2 of Article X of the State Constitution. He then stated "The Republican Convention censured Governor Williams for lack of statutory responsibility in finance. This act is an obvious Republican attempt to substitute Statutory Law for Constitutional Law."

Fifth Graders Hear Paragraphs on Abe

Kingsley Dunn reported for Mrs. Osburn's Fifth Grade Club.

President Linda Bush called the meeting to order. Then Marilyn Dick read the minutes. Then Susan Kennel read the Creed. The program committee was Susan Kennel, Beth O'Neill and Larry Kiser.

Each one of them read a paragraph about Abraham Lincoln. Then Miss Bush appointed Gwen Bryan, James Wilbar and Steven Hunt to be the entertainment committee for our next meeting.

Janet Pickford motioned that the meeting be adjourned and Susan Kennel seconded the motion.

The next meeting will be Feb. 23.

The officers club of the Pythian Sisters met at the home of Mrs. Herbert Reed Monday Feb. 16 at 8 p.m. for their regular meeting. After a business meeting a social hour was enjoyed by the group. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Large Attendance Expected Feb. 25 for Cub Banquet

The Blue and Gold Banquet for Pack 4 Cub Scouts will be held at the Union Hall rather than at the Grange Hall, as originally planned.

Reservations are to be turned in to Mrs. Orville Bishop by Friday of this week.

The program will be in the form of a humorous skit presented pantomime style by the den mothers assisted by the Rev. Blair Bashore as narrator.

What's behind the big switch to FORD?

These specific common sense features are the big reasons why Ford is the best seller:
1. Six passengers, not just four, ride in comfort. Yes, even the man in the middle. Because Ford's full-depth seats are extra thick all the way across—there's no hard spot in the center as in some cars.
2. The doors are wider for easier entry. Compared with Ford's major competitor, they open wider : : : and have two-stage front door checks.
3. Ford's styling is sensible. It's clean and simple like the Thunderbird. No useless wings that are easy to dent.
4. Ford's frame is safer. In its field, only Ford has a wide-base frame that seats all passengers within the protection of its husky side rails.
5. Ford's spacious luggage compartment is easier to load and unload. High rear trunk wall on Ford's nearest competitor makes loading difficult.
6. Ford's got the most sound and weather insulation—everywhere. No other low-priced car compares.
7. Ford is economical. You save up to a dollar a tankful with Ford's standard Six or Thunderbird V-8 engines—for they thrive on regular gas. You need change oil only after each 4000 miles. The muffler is aluminized to last twice as long as ever. And Ford's new Diamond Lustre Finish never—ever—needs waxing.

And here's good news for the economy-minded . . .
With all these exclusives, and with the usual optional equipment, Ford prices are as much as $100 lower* than the nearest major competitor.

'59 Can Be Rouser for Housing

This could be a real boom year for Tecumseh in home building. Indications so far point firmly in this direction.

One of the most prominent reasons developed over the weekend. Tecumseh Homes held a showing of its new all-aluminum, four-bedroom model in Sunset Meadows.

A total of 1,000 persons toured the home in two days and several visitors placed orders on the spot. This marvelous turnout took place under adverse weather conditions, proving beyond a shadow of a doubt that there are a lot of folks interested in new housing.

With the financial arrangements made available through GI and FHA loans by Tecumseh Homes and other area builders, a great many people, who never before could buy, are seriously considering owning a place of their own.

At another growing subdivision, Indian Hills, 20 basements have been finished. Ted Templeton, who operates there, reports he'll be getting houses on them just as soon as weather permits.

A third builder has made tentative plans to get underway this spring with a new-type house.

Tecumseh already is a national leader in new dwellings per 1,000 population. You may recall a story we ran last November which told how the United States average is 4.6 per 1,000. Tecumseh's is 24.1.

During 1957 a total of 97 dwelling units were begun or authorized, a gain over 1956 of 11 homes — this during an "off year" in the construction business.

We would guess that 1958 held steady.

And now, we enter 1959. From the fast start, our guess would be it's going to develop into a real rouser.

What of the Other 1,000?

In the special referendum Monday, 258 property owners said they'd like a $100,000 revolving fund in the City; 217 said "no."

There are 3,001 registered voters in the City. Probably, at least half are property owners. On this basis, the turnout was about 33% — not too unusual in a special election of this nature. Not good, you understand, but typical.

What did the other 1,000 or so, who could have offered an official opinion, think about the revolving fund?

We have mixed emotions on an answer for such a question.

A lot of them probably knew little or nothing. Some didn't bother or care. Some were probably afraid that it would raise taxes — which it would not have done.

Two sessions of Rotary and one of Kiwanis centered on the revolving fund, but this touched only a handful of men.

The hometown newspaper carried news stories, editorials and advertisements for the past four weeks. Last week, a full page ad devoted entirely to the revolving fund went into every home on a "blanket coverage" basis.

The property owner, the eligible voter, could have been pretty well informed if he took time to study the facts.

What now?

Well, the issue may go for another vote in the fall and it may be approved then.

Meanwhile, what of the 142 householders in Tecumseh Acres who have wells and septic tanks and would have been the first to benefit from the fund?

Obviously, a lot of them are going to have to wait a while longer for modern facilities.

Drive Rolling Nicely

The current Herald subscription drive, being staged by the Hospital Auxiliary, completes its first week Friday.

So far results have been excellent.

Auxiliary members, who want to earn $2,500 on this and other projects to furnish a Hospital recovery room, have been met friendly and cooperatively by area residents.

Through the mails have come a stream of coupons, clipped from an ad we ran about the drive in last week's paper. As in the case of subscriptions the ladies sell, ones arriving by mail earn the Auxiliary $1 for new and 25c for renews.

A few folks, eager to help, have signed up for not one, but two years.

We might suggest that if you haven't been contacted to call 1161-W or stop at The Herald office. And while you're about it, why not purchase a gift subscription for someone who you know is interested in Tecumseh?

Parsonage Is Refurbished

By MRS. MARION STONE

The Rev. and Mrs. Allison Mitchinson held open house at the Methodist parsonage in Ridgeway Sunday afternoon.

Tea and coffee, punch and cookies were served from a lace-covered table in the dining room.

They were assisted by Patricia Linn, Cynthia Frayer, Vicky Peterson and Dorothy Jewel.

The Mitchinsons have recently moved into the parsonage after extensive rejuvination of it.

Allison Mitchinson came to Ridgeway as pastor in June, 1957 and being unmarried he did not need the parsonage.

For several years the Ridgeway church had shared their pastor with Britton, where he lived and Ridgeway rented its house.

Last August, Mr. Mitchinson and Shirley Sprague of Tecumseh were married and the Ridgeway Church decided something must be done to make the parsonage presentable.

☆

IT WAS IN September 1901 that the Rev. Thomas Mott came to Ridgeway as pastor.

The Rev. and Mrs. Mott decided, and soon persuaded the church members, that a new parsonage should be built. An apartment was rented for the Mott family and building was started.

In June 1902, the nine-room house with basement was completed and the Motts moved in.

Now, 25 pastors and 57 years later, the congregation was appalled to find the place in such disrepair. Members proceeded to do something about it.

☆

THE WINDOWS were reputtied and painted, the furnace repaired, the whole place rewired, paper removed, plaster repaired, walls painted, much cleaning, woodwork refinished, floors sanded and finished, bath redesigned and kitchen remade with new sink, cupboards and cabinets.

All the labor was donated, some by members of the Church and much by friends. "The church is grateful for all the help, both from members and friends," a member states.

ALL NEW — The Rev. and Mrs. Robert Mitchinson show Nilwen Bishop, a member of their Ridgeway congregation, the new birchwood cabinets in the kitchen of their newly remodeled parsonage. Mr. Mitchinson is the minister of the Ridgeway Methodist Church.

Pilot Escapes in Plane Mishap

William Davenport, with passenger-observer Wilson Sessoms, experienced a mishap in his plane Tuesday morning at the Adrian Airport.

He was taxiing on the ice-covered ramp when the ice broke through and his craft stood up on its nose.

The plane propeller was broken but neither was injured.

Club Members Call on 52 Shut-ins

For their observance of Sunshine Day members of the Tecumseh Monday Club called on 52 shut-ins in the City.

Thep presented each with a small gift of fruit and candy.

Mrs. Lillian Hoagland was in charge, assisted by Mrs. E. H. McConnell.

After a potluck dinner served at the home of Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney with Mrs. Ralph Westgate, Mrs. Rhea Laskey, Mrs. Paul Hadsell and Mrs. Thomas O'Hara assisting the business session was conducted by Mrs. Wilfred Waldron.

A trip to the Flower Show in Toledo in March was planned, a communication from the Adrian Progressive Women's Club was read, asking the group to attend a style show at the Consumers Powers Company's building on Feb. 25.

Members also were invited to the Garden Club meeting at the Episcopal Parish House on April 17.

NEW OFFICERS for the year were elected:

President—Mrs. Waldron.

Second Vice President — Mrs. Clifford Knudson.

Members of Executive Board—Mrs. Veva Conner and Mrs. Roscoe Hewlett.

The next meeting will be March 2 at the Aebersold Hostess House when the program will be "International Relations" with Mrs. Knudson as leader and Mrs. Wesley Mast as hostess chairman

Scout Cabin Gets Piano as Result of Letter to Paper

As the result of a letter printed recently in the Tecumseh Herald, the Scout cabin has a piano.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Smith of 305 W. Shawnee St. donated one in excellent condition after reading the letter, stating need for a piano.

The G. & S. Gulf Station loaned a truck and several local men helped in moving the piano to the cabin.

The Wolverine Council and local Scouters are grateful for these gifts.

That's Right---Sweetwater Is His Name

When the Harlem Stars tipoff against the Tecumseh Jaycees in the High School gymnasium Feb. 27 area fans will have an opportunity to see some all-time professional greats.

Of course, Goose Tatum has the brightest name.

Tatum is known to basketball fans the world over as the "Clown Prince" of the courts.

His comedy antics, combined with cat-like agility around the forecourt, have been the despair of countless opponents and the delight of literally millions of spectators in a long career.

Another giant Negro with a sparkling cage past is a gent with an unheard of nickname.

He's Sweetwater Clifton.

When Clifton was starring as a Chicago high school star way back about 1941, he proudly carried the name Sweetwater.

Considered one of the all-time greats of the Harlem Globetrotters, Sweets was with 1958 Detroit Pistons of the National Basketball League, and spent six seasons with the New York Knickerbockers.

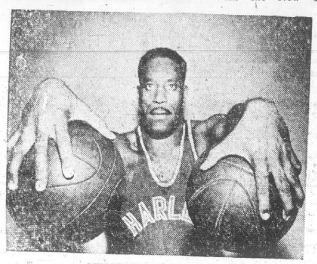
The "golden Goose" is also a former star for the Globetrotters.

Two of the world's greatest dribblers — Marland "Showboat" Buckner, from North Carolina University, and "Tiny" Brown of Wayne U. in Detroit—are with the Harlem Stars.

The Negro cagers also boast such great basketeers as Boid Buie, the only one-armed player in professional ball; Raymond Wilkinson, University of Detroit and Andy Shepherd of Wayne U.

Half-time entertainment will feature Goose, reports Carl Lamb, Kiwanis Club president.

Ticket sale for the season's basketball highlight is being conducted at Hodge Drug Store, the D & C and Krogers.



SWEETWATER CLIFTON

Tippytoes Hockey Six Stops Mops

"We won", said "Buck" Miller when he enthusiastically related the events in a recent hockey game between the Tecumseh Tippytoes and the Hanover Ice Mops.

The foray took place on the pond in front of the Talon factory, with families of the players as spectators.

The Tecumseh Tippytoes team are a gang of hockey enthusiasts, most of whom work together at Tecumseh Products, and none of them professionals.

Last winter they decided to get together for fun. The result—a series of games.

Buck's account follows:

"The highly-regarded Hanover Ice Mops hockey team arrived in force to meet the Tecumseh Tippytoes.

"The Tippytoes continued their domination of the series by winning, 13-7. The constant pressure of the speedy defense finally wore down the Ice Mops.

"After a 1-1 score at the outset, the Tippytoes never lost the lead. After the 'final horn' all players left the ice under their own power which was perhaps the greatest victory of all.

"Art Geisenhaver was the official. The players and their families were guests after the games of the Ivan Lindstroms for refreshments."

Indians Prove They Can Play Basketball

By JIM LINCOLN

Tecumseh proved last Friday night that the Indians can play basketball if they want to.

League leading Airport stumbled here, 59-54, when a usual complacent Indian five refused to give up after a poor first quarter.

Trailing 13-7 at the end of the first period, the Indians went into a full court press, completely befuddling the visitors.

In the wild second stanza, Tecumseh outscored Airport 22-10 with reserve Jim Curth coming off the bench to tally seven points and pace the Indians' attack.

☆

COACH VIC LAWSON'S crew held a six-point advantage at the half and continued the margin through the third quarter.

Early in the final period, Airport trailed by nine points before a hectic finish wound up the contest. Twice in the late stages Airport pulled to within one point.

Jim Poley, handicapped by fouls through most of the game, re-entered the game with less than two minutes to play and popped in six points to thwart Airport's rally.

Dan Cisco hit a bunny as the horn sounded to end the game.

Tecumseh's bench proved to be the difference with Coach Lawson juggling his players without weakening his team. Steve Kruger and Jack Sisson, frequent starters, and Curth took up the slack, and often outplayed the boys they replaced.

☆

TOP INDIAN scorer and rebounder was 6-4 Dan Cisco with 10 points. The big center was invaluable in the second half when he more than held his own against the taller Airport players besides scoring eight of his 10 points.

Airport's Andy Herman easily stole the offensive show with 28 points. The 6-5 center scored 16 points in the final two quarters and with teammate Lowell Potratz, who tallied 14 points, sparked Airport's rally.

Tecumseh winds-up the season Friday night at Bedford, hoping to make it two in a row over the Mules and up the local season mark to 7-8.

Next Tuesday evening, the tournament drawing will be held at Blissfield High School, which also will be the scene of tourney play.

Schools taking part include Monroe CC, Blissfield, Bedford and Tecumseh.

Tournament games will be staged March 3-5, with the finals scheduled for March 7.

Last Wednesday night, the Indians walloped Milan for the second consecutive time, 64-48, with Larry Yoakum and Dan Cisco pacing the attacks with 18 and 16 points respectively. Jim Poley netted nine.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Lucky to Have "Noisy Neighbors"

A recent news item about an Air Force base and the townspeople nearby illustrates a point I've made for some time.

Most of the local people had the same complaint—the roar of jets was irritating—so a group of them petitioned the Air Force to move the base.

Then the Air Force invited the petitioners to the base to show them how vital it was to their defense. The people soon decided jet noise was really a welcome sound—and all petitions were dropped.

From where I sit, jumping to conclusions—without knowing all sides of a question—is something people ought to avoid. It would make living together a lot easier. On little things, too—like your preference for tea or coffee and mine for beer. Understanding the other fellow's point of view will make traveling a lot smoother in this "jet" age of ours.

Friars Love To Kid with the Audiences

One of the small groups, made up of members of the Michigan Men's Glee Club which sings here Feb. 26, is the Friars.

Eight young men who sing well together, they can't resist doing a little clowning and joking with the audience.

The unexpecetd is the rule when they present their portion of the program.

Having sung together at dozens of public concerts over a period of three years, they have developed a polished, spontaneous style.

Modern harmony as well as the familiar barber shop melodies are presented by the Friars to make them one of the high spots of University of Michigan Men's Glee Club concerts.

The members of the octet are: Marshall Franke of Shelby, Michigan, and Fred Farran of Grand Rapids, Michigan, first tenors; Victor Calcaterra of Grosse Pointe, and Ed Farran, Grand Rapids, Michigan, second tenors; Jerome Shaffer of Milwaukee, and Phil Smith of Mt. Clemens, Michigan, baritones; and Dwight Davis of Bloomfield Hills, Michigan and Peter Patterson of Grand Rapids, basses.

Created in 1955, the Friars have been gaining praise with their clever arrangements and pleasing style. Besides appearances with the Glee Club, the octet has represented the University several times in Detroit and Ann Arbor.

The Friars are named after a colorful student drinking and singing society which was in existence near the turn of the last century. Needless to say, they have captured the spirit, without the "spirit."

Adult Musicians Invited To Form Their Own Band

So often a person plays a band instrument for years in school and at the conclusion of his formal education, the horn is put away never to be played again.

The remedy of this situation is to have a band in which adults may participate for their own amusement (or amazment).

If there are enough people interested in forming such a group the High School will provide the place, music, a few of the large band instruments and other equipment for a band.

If you find yourself interested in such a group, no matter how long ago or how recently you have played, please call Don Johnson at his home, Tecumseh 344-M.

I Pray . . . That They May All Be One"

America is today divided into more than three hundred distinct religious denominations or sects. Nineteen centuries ago the Apostle Paul wrote, "Is Christ divided? . . ." (I Corinthians 1:13) "I beseech you, brethren, through the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you . . ." (I Corinthians 1:10) Earlier Jesus himself had said, "I pray . . . that they may all be one." (John 17:20-21).

More than sixty generations after Jesus, the potential force of Christianity is largely wasted by the lack of unity among believers. A hand full of sand, with its hundreds of tiny grains, has little power . . . UNTIL SOME COHESIVE FORCE BINDS IT TOGETHER AND MAKES OF IT A ROCK.

In Christ's name let us go back to the common denominator—the Bible. When we speak where the Scriptures speak and are silent where the Scriptures speak and are silent where the Scriptures are silent, we will be one, with Christ, and with each other.

If there is an emptiness in your life, if you feel there is something missing, we have an answer which has meant a richer, fuller life for millions. May we help you?

Plow-Planting Corn Is Cheaper, Boosts Yields

Planting corn in a single operation not only saved labor and money, but produced nearly 11 bushels per acre more than the usual method.

This is according to a research report made by Clarence Hansen, a Michigan State University agricultural engineer.

Equipment designed to plow, plant, fertilize and apply preemergence spray for weeds in a single operation was tested on 11 Michigan farms.

Yields were 10.9 bushels per acre larger than, on companion plots tilled the conventional way.

Michigan State agricultural engineers compared the method with minimum tillage in 1958. Yields for both operations were about the same.

The once-over operation saves 36% on fuel and 37% on horsepower hours, as compared to the minimum tillage methods. Savings over conventional systems was more than 50% in fuel and horsepower.

The equipment designed for the experiment was mounted on a four-wheel tractor. The method of plow-planting used in this research would save about $3 to $6 per acre, Hansen's report indicated.

Morning—Chevy panel hustles over causeway to St. Petersburg.

Chevy panel steps lively in Florida...runs day and night, delivers 19.3 miles per gallon!

This '59 Chevy panel is on the go morning, noon and night; it covers as much as 587 miles a day . . . runs so constantly that its engine never cools off completely. Yet Mr. Clark Farber, the Tampa Tribune's circulation manager, reports that the truck is delivering 19.3 miles per gallon!

This year, the light-, medium- and heavy-duty trucks of the 1959 Chevrolet Task-Force fleet are out to whip anything that comes their way—and they've got what it takes to do it!

Take the panel pictured above, for example. Powered by the '59 Thriftmaster 6 with new economy-contoured camshaft, it's building a sensational economy record, despite the sizzling pace of its work. That's typical of the way Chevies of all sizes are turning-to on the most challenging jobs in America. The way they're made, with tough-built truck components, they make the hardest hauls look easy!

If you have a job that puts a truck on its mettle, see your Chevrolet dealer!

Mrs. Donald E. Tyler

"I've seen the time when washday meant a full day of hard work. With an Automatic Clothes Dryer the usual work is cut about in half. Clothes dry much nicer than they used to out on the line, too. They come out soft and easy to iron."

Experienced homemakers like Mrs. Tyler are all in favor of drying clothes the modern way. It's easy to see why. With an Automatic Dryer you eliminate heavy lifting, hauling, hanging clothes and taking them down. Just a simple turn of a dial is all that's needed. It changes a load of wet wash into a stack of dry, sweet-smelling clothes. Sound good? Sure it does. Go see your Dryer Dealer today!

How do you tell a drunk?

The man was acting strangely. You know what people thought. But the neighborhood pharmacist had a hunch, took a close look, gave the man sugar. Then he called a physician who found the man was in insulin shock. Too much insulin, not liquor. Without prompt treatment, he might have died. This story illustrates the potency of modern drugs. Before using powerful drugs you should see a physician and then follow directions to the letter when taking them. There's a happier moral. Without modern drugs, the diabetic in this story wouldn't have had a life to save.

Through My Window

AN EARLY VALENTINE!

It all happened a few weeks ago, I'm not sure as to the exact date, but it was sometime during the first of the month. Mother Nature's valentine arrived early but who am I to speak of that.

She was ahead of the calendar, but because of the last week's "Change Of Plans", I am late in telling you of the holiday treat she afforded me.

It was a beautiful valentine which she sent—very lovely and much, much appreciated. Style-wise it was very typical — all fuss and frills. Bright red hearts stood out against a background of fragile white lace.

Of course, the lace wasn't really lace, it was a heavy fog or frost which froze on the trees and the bright red hearts were big beautiful Cardinals.

On this day our west-facing window certainly lived up to its name — it was truly a picture window.

And the lovely picture it framed was magnificent enough to grace the front of any St. Valentine's card.

☆

OUR BELOVED Evans Creek was almost frozen over, only a narrow twisting, turning ribbon of dark, fast-flowing water showed.

The ground was covered with soft white snow. The trees—oh, the trees were beautiful almost beyond description.

A heavy fog and a sudden drop in temperature had worked the magic that adorned each branch, limb and even the tiniest of twigs with a thick covering of frost.

All up and down the creek bank, big sturdy trees proudly supported their fragile mantillas of starchy white lace.

What a playground for the Cardinals

Have you ever noticed how expert these red beauties are in selecting for themselves the most complimentary backgrounds? As they flew in and out among the now white tree limbs, what a brilliant streak of scarlet they were.

It was an even more gorgeous sight when they selected an advantageous spot and perched, for a moments rest, at a branches end.

Very valentiney, many times we could count four big red hearts picturesquely tucked amid the frilly folds of the ruffley tree lace.

☆

BY LATE afternoon, the lace was beginning to droop. The trees were still covered, but instead of an even coat, the top of each pencil-thin branch was bare and from the underside hung globs of the still frozen frost.

The scene was still beautiful, but it had lost the crisp starchiness of morning. Now the Cardinals, big handsome male specimens, decided it was time to be generous. Such big-heartedness.

All day they had dominated our picture valentine and now, only a few hours before dark, they decided to let their women folk in on a good thing.

What the signal was or how the females knew that they were now welcome, we, of course, don't know. Suddenly, however, from out of nowhere, came five quiet and lovely Mamma Cardinals.

We have often noticed this uneven-five to four combination. It makes little difference now when the birds aren't paired off in mates but I wonder what will happen this spring.

☆

PLAYING AGAINST a background of white, the males had, all day, been gaudily beautiful; now the females, with their prim, neat, soft-colored gowns, were absolutely lovely.

Their peaceful pastel hues look much at home against the rich old lace which was gradually and gracefully leaving.

In the few hours of light that were left we happily watched as both the male and female Cardinals played through our valentine. There was of course, not the tender exchange that there will be come spring, but Lord Cardinals did allow Her Ladyship tolerably near.

Could it be that the spirit of the day, of which we were getting a preview, had entered and softened his heart?

When at last the still early setting sun slipped out of sight and thus ended our Valentine's Day preview, we heaved a deep sigh of contentedness.

All day we had been permitted to enjoy a magnificent living valentine.

Next Week:
Oh No — Not Again!

By his kindness he has enabled our mailman, milkman and all the other people who travel our road to carry on as usual.

Thanks, John, we appreciate what you have done for us.

THE Long & Short OF IT

By TOM RIORDAN

Before February gets away from us, we've get to have one cute Valentine story.

When youthful Bobby Williamson wanted to send his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Purkey, remembrances of the day, here is the way he addressed the envelopes.

"Gram and Gramp"
"N. Occidental"
"Tecumseh."

The cards arrived in the next mail.

Roger Gillespie, rural carrier, knew right where it went as that's the designation the Purkeys have painted on their mail box.

Bobby is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williamson, 1110 Murray Dr.

☆

Broken collar bone and all, the Rev. Jim Nixon was out Monday morning clearing snow off the walk in front of the Methodist Church and parsonage, using his good arm. Now here's a really considerate neighbor.

☆

Dentist Bob Murray and his family have moved onto a farm along Green Highway.

There's a flurry of activity in the old house as it is gradually being transformed into a show place.

Mrs. Murray has earmarked the kitchen as No. 1 project to be completed. It's going to be Colonial style. A rustic fireplace has already been constructed.

The kitchen beams will remain exposed and from them Mrs. Murray plans to hang old utensils (fry pans and the like) as decorations.

She's asking her friends who might have something they'd like to include to drop it off.

☆

Our weekly column of opinion, "Voice of The Herald", presents a provocative editorial this week.

It has to do with the proposed community center and appears on page one of the second section.

I say provocative because the piece has been discussed with several persons and there has been some violent opposition expressed against it.

All the same, there is certain merit, we feel, to the thought.

Jim Lincoln and I, your publishers, are firm believers in the theory that the duty of a hometown newspaper is to speak out about things which affect its readers.

There is always the danger of brickbats sailing back in reply—verbal and otherwise—but that doesn't lessen the paper's responsibility.

Our idea might prompt some one among our 8,000 readers to come up with a counter proposal. Fine, we're all for that.

That's why in our editorial we suggest that you write your opinion—and we mean it.

TUTTLE MOVING IN—Another load of H. W. Tuttle Co. machinery is carefully backed into the rear entrance of the firm's new location in Tecumseh late Tuesday. Directing the operation is Andy Muaj of Dearborn Machinery Movers Co., which began the job Monday. Everything for the fabricating and press room will be in by Friday and plans calls for the plant to get into operation here Monday. (Please see an editorial about the Tuttle move on page one of the second section.)

Her Goal: $800

Sharon Muhn managed a smile for the camera (see adjoining cut), but she's deadly serious about life these days.

The 18-year-old Tecumseh High School senior has a pesky financial hurdle to clear within the next six weeks.

A matter of $800.

Sharon is among a group of 100 outstanding southeastern Michigan seniors who sing and was chosen for a summer concert tour in Europe.

It's with the Michigan Chorale, which is formed annually through the Ann Arbor Council of Churches.

Each of the youngsters must pay his and her own way and provide incidental expense money, too. The total is $800.

So far, Sharon has $220. The $200 comes from her parents and the $20 was earned by singing at the recent Rotary Club ladies night program.

Sharon is eager to perform in order to pick up additional cash and can be reached by calling 451-J.

The group leaves June 24, but all financial arrangements must be made by April 15, so time is closing fast.

The European junket — a once in a lifetime opportunity — will take the youthful vocal group into many of the Continent's most famous cities.

Arrangements have been made so that the young people will live with citizens of the community in which they sing, thus eliminating hotel expenses.

But there's still transportation and food.

'Goose' Coming to Town Friday

No, sonny, the circus is not in town!

But Goose Tatum, Sweetwater Clifton and the Harlem Stars are. And, that's a many-ringed circus on any basketball floor.

The Harlem Stars clash with the Jaycees on the High School floor at 8 o'clock.

Tecumseh's Kiwanis Club is sponsoring the contest.

"Clown Prince" of the courts, Reece "Goose" Tatum, provides the comedy antics in the basketball circus. And, Clifton, considered one of the greatest stars in the Harlem Globetrotters annals, is Tatum's henchman in fun.

Although the two ball handling wizards provide a barrel full of laughs, the game itself is a dead serious proposition.

There's plenty of "tall" men on the Stars roster. Tatum towers six-three; Clifton is six-eight; Ray Wilkinson of University of Detroit is six-seven; Ray Barber, with the 1957-'58 St. Louis Hawks, is six-seven; and Andy Shepherd, from Wayne U., towers six-five.

The only "shorties" on the Harlem Stars are dribbling wizards Marland "Showboat" Buckner and "Tiny" Brown, the latter an ex-great at Wayne.

Newest addition to the Stars roster is Julius McCoy, the former Michigan State All-American.

Tatum is "Mr. Basketball" as far as the cage fans are concerned. He's as well known in Hong Kong and Manila as he is in any of the major cities in the United States where he's shown his wares.

One-arm Bold Buie, late of Tennessee State College, captains the Harlem Stars. He's the only one-wing player in the professional ranks.

The Jaycees squad, which plays in the Adrian City League, is made up of Jerry Barton, Russ Hyatt, Douglas Wilson, Thomas Jacoby, Allen Barrett, Charley Pwens, Dike Helms, Bruce Corley, Ralph McNally, Carl Powers and Gerald Miller.

Kiwanis is going to use the proceeds to help the Teen Club, the Forney Clement room at University Hospital and donate towards the Exchange Club's electric football scoreboard.

Members of the Teen group have been given the refreshment and coat check concessions for the evening.

$280,000 Heart Grant Given To Health Study

A second grant has been given the Tecumseh Heart Study.

This one is for $280,000 and comes from the National Heart Institute.

The other, announced two weeks ago, totaled $360,000 over five years and insured continuance of the research program.

The latest grant makes possible a completely new phase of the study of the health and ill-health of 8,500 persons residing in the Tecumseh area.

An examination clinic, under direction of Dr. Frederick H. Epstein, has been established in the basement of the Herrick Memorial Hospital's west wing.

During the next two years — length of the Heart grant — it is hoped all people in the study will pass through the clinic.

Emphasis will be placed on heart trouble, high blood pressure and related illnesses.

There will be no charge for the examinations, which will be scheduled at the convenience of the people in the study area.

As nearly as possible, entire families will be scheduled at the same time.

Each person will be notified of the results of the examination and detailed medical reports will be sent, upon request, to the family physician.

Trained interviewers will call at each home to fill out the medical history questionnaires and arrange appointments for the clinic checks.

Dr. Robert Horton, director of the study from the University of Michigan, states that this will be the first time the collection of such detailed medical information has ever been attempted for a whole community.

He emphasized that success of the project depends on a "continuation of the splendid cooperation shown by the people of the Tecumseh area in earlier phases of the study."

This research program, fast gaining national recognition, will lead to a better understanding of many factors underlying health and ill health, the director added.

"It is expected to provide clues which point to earlier detection and more effective prevention of disease," Dr. Horton concluded.

Tecumseh Gets Fund Trophy

Tecumseh topped all communities in percentage over 1958 Lenawee County United Fund drive quotas.

For this, a large trophy was presented to Walter Nichols, local chairman, at the Campaign Recognition Banquet at Adrian College Tuesday evening.

The trophy will be on display in the window of the United Savings Bank.

In winning it, Tecumseh scored 110½% of its quota, topping Hudson (100.7%), Adrian (91.3%) and Deerfield (69½%). These were the four communities taking part in the drive.

Other Tecumseh folks honored Tuesday with either Certificates of Appreciation and/or United Fund "Oscars".

Harry Spencer, who was general chairman.

Perry Satterthwaite and Don Nixon, co-chairman of Tecumseh industrial.

Virgil Tucker, Tecumseh Products chairman.

Bob Montgomery and John Dunbar representing independent unions.

In the business portion of the gathering, Robert Bonner and John Surratt were elected to the 12-man United Fund board of directors, Mr. Bonner for one year and Mr. Surratt for three.

Elliott Youth Hurt in Crash

Mr. and Mrs. Max Elliott and family were involved in an auto accident near Coldwater Tuesday evening.

Marlowe, 12-year-old son, is a patient at the University Hospital in Ann Arbor where he underwent surgery following the accident.

Tecumseh friends were assured that he would be all right. His room number is No. 6, East.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott and daughter, Carol and Sharon, were not seriously hurt.

Mr. Elliott is owner of the Elliott Construction Co. here.

$6,500 Blaze Guts Station

Billows of ugly black smoke filled the downtown sky Wednesday morning as flames gutted the Texaco gas station at 121 N. Evans St.

Complete loss of a $3,500 inventory was reported by Henry Childs, 219 Chippewa St., who has leased the property the past 14 months.

None of it was covered by insurance.

One of Child's employees, Virgil Smith of Macon Rd. was burned about the face when caught in the greasing room where the blaze began.

Childs explained that the heating element atop a water heater "popped", shooting flames into the room. He and another employee Anson Farmer of Occidental Highway, were in the office. Neither was hurt.

Tecumseh firemen arrived at the scene a few moments after the blaze began, at about 10:15 a.m.

It took almost an hour before the smoke and fire could be brought under control.

The building is owned by Hubert VanCamp of Clinton and fully insured. He states damages to the structure will probably range between $3,000 and $5,000.

The Touberg Enterprises, Inc. of Tecumseh has been dissolved by a vote of three-fourths of the stockholders. The corporations books and records will be kept by Jens Touborg.

Medical Staff Advises Polio 'Booster' Shot

A polio "booster shot" for persons who completed their series of three innoculations more than one year ago is being advised by the medical staff of Herrick Memorial Hospital.

In their regular Saturday meeting, correspondence with Dr. Jonas Salk regarding polio immunization was reviewed.

Dr. Salk has stated that in most instances the regular three shots are enough.

However, in a small percentage of individuals a fourth shot is required to produce "antibody levels."

"Inasmuch as it is not practicable to do antibody titer levels on the entire population which has received immunization for polio," a staff release states, "It is recommended that a fourth shot be given to persons who had their third shots in excess of 12 months.

These shots are available at the offices of all local physicians.

The doctors add, "Our primary concern is still for the persons who have had no immunization at all."

Model Home Will Open for Viewing Friday, Saturday

Another model home makes its debut in Tecumseh with an open house Friday and Saturday.

Built by Lee Fogelsong Construction, the house is located at 121 Burt St., which is the road that passes by the Country Club.

With attached garage, three bedrooms and paneled family room, the home is L-shaped and features a kitchen, which has built-in appliances.

All of Fogelsong's homes are custom-made and this marks the 38th one which the firm has constructed in the Tecumseh area during the past four years.

The house will be open for inspection on Friday from 7 until 10 p.m. and Saturday from 10 until 10.

It will also be open all of next week from 7 until 10 p.m.

42ND ANTIQUE SHOW

The 42nd Semi-annual Detroit-Redford Antique Show will be held March 6, 7 and 8 at the Carpenters Auditorium, 22521 Grand River Ave. Hours will be 12 noon to 10 P.M. daily.

Guest Lectures Will Be Given

Neville L. Hart, Tecumseh High School principal, has arranged a series of four lectures by prominent leaders of the community for the 600 THS students.

The first will be given Thursday at 8:51 a.m. by the Rev. James Nixon, pastor of the Tecumseh Methodist Church.

The second is scheduled for Wednesday, March 11 at 9:54 Layton, president of Tecumseh Products.

The third will be delivered by Dr. Richard Coak on Thursday, March 26 at 9:54 a.m.

The fourth is to be given by attorney James Beardsley on Tuesday, April 7 at 10:57 a.m.

All lectures will be held in the high school gymnasium and the general public is invited.

Dates Established for M&M Show

The Fifth Annual VFW Merchants and Manufacturing Show will be held April 17, 18 and 19 with chairmen, Gaza Kish and Harley Slick.

Members selling booths are Roy Beasley, Warren Filter, Lee Coffee, Dean Schnerlia and either chairman.

Glee Club Is Real 'Cross Section'

Second annual Tecumseh appearance of the University of Michigan Men's Glee Club will be Thursday evening at 8 in the Strand Theatre.

Again sponsored by the Tecumseh Jaycees, co-chairman for the affair are Les Bennett and Art Schwartz.

Tickets are $1 for adults and 50c for students.

No better cross section of American college students can be found than the 60 young men who compose the Glee Club. A look at the Club's leading soloists furnishes ample evidence of this fact.

Joon-Min Kim first tenor soloist is from Seoul, Korea.

Joon is in the Literary College and a Chemistry major. He plans to go into the field of industrial chemistry.

Joon participated in some musicals while attending high school in Korea.

Baritone soloist Warren Jaworski from Dundee is a sophomore in Music Education.

Warren was recently in a summer camp chorus which made some 22 recordings for Fred Waring. He soloed on the 1957 Varsity Night Show.

Warren hopes ultimately to work into opera or musical comedy.

Second tenor soloist Bruce Wilson from Wilmette, Illinois is a sophomore in the College of Music.

Bruce has done extensive solo work on the University of Michigan campus, singing lead parts.

Last year he took the part of Charlie in "Brigadoon" and this year the part of Bill Calhoun in "Kiss Me Kate".

These soloists exemplify the diversified backgrounds and interests of the members of the Michigan Men's Glee Club.

The Club, which is an extracurricular organization, is composed of students in the colleges of music, business administration, liberal arts, architecture and designs and engineering.

All of these men, however, have in common the desire and the ability to sing, and they are enthusiastic in their efforts to maintain the University of Michigan Men's Glee Club's ranking as one of the top college singing groups in the country.

You Told Us

BY DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Certainly the bright sunshine this week fortells an early spring. At least Tecumseh residents are hoping this is true.

The John Surratt family bring good news from Indiana where they spent last weekend. Mrs. Surratt said there was no ice there and they didn't see it until they came as far north as Bryan, Ohio.

Ann and George went with their parents when they visited Mrs. Surratt's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keiser, John's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nash of Tipton, Ind. and also to celebrate Grandma Small's 89th birthday anniversary. She is spending the winter with another daughter, Mrs. Jonas Smiley also of Tipton.

Mrs. Small will not be coming to Tecumseh for some time because she recently suffered a fall and just isn't traveling.

This writter suggests that her many Tecumseh friends might like to send her a card in care of Mrs. Smiley, Atlanta, Indiana.

Another of the Surratt family, Paul, stayed close to home and the hospital because of a recurring appendix attacks. Tuesday that offending member was removed at the Herrick Memorial Hospital.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Warner and two sons, John and Jerry, attended a family gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ylyse Beck in Bridgewater Sunday to honor the birthday of Mrs. Warner's cousin, Mrs. Kenneth Cole. Nineteen attended.

√

Mrs. Charles Dodson of Wilton, Conn. spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dodson, Jr. Barbara Struck and Bruce Dodson were Sunday dinner guests.

√

Mr. and Mrs. LaVern Seizert entertained guests Sunday at their home on North Adrian Highway. Mr. Seizert is satisfactorily recovering from the recent amputation of his hand.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dean Seizert and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Banks of Toledo, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Summers and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Smith of Swanton, Ohio.

√

Ronnie, Donnie, Bonnie and Connie Nichols of Detroit spent the weekend with their grandmother, Mrs. Charles Nichols.

√

Lt. Norbert and Neal O'Hara were home over the weekend from Michigan State University.

√

Mrs. LeRoy Titley and Mary McWilliams were in Ypsilanti Thursday to visit the latter's sister, Mrs. M. C. Lathers. They expect to spend this Thursday there too.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Robison and two sons and one daughter are moving from the Hodges home on S. Union St.

√

Cecile Smith, Geraldine French, Myrna Tingley and Ann Watterman of Clinton were in Detroit over the weekend. They saw "My Fair Lady" while there.

√

Mrs. E. J. Aebersold is expected home Thursday after spending several months in Bradenton, Fla. and with her son, Gregg, and family in Montgomery, Ala.

√

Cecile Smith's sister, Mrs. Harmon Covell of Dundee is in critical condition in Ann Arbor Medical Center as the result of an auto accident Monday. Mr. Covell was killed instantly. The accident happened on North Custer Rd. between Dundee and Monroe as the couple were returning from Dearborn.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stearns, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Laidlaw and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Riordan attended the showing of the stage play, "My Fair Lady" in Detroit Thursday evening.

Karl Schneider, Mrs. Karl Schneider, Sr., Dr. and Mrs. Richard Hammel, Mrs. Harry Hammel and Mrs. Ned Baldwin attended the same play Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Karl Schneider Jr. was called to Gladstone Wednesday due to the illness of her father, Joseph P. Lewis, who is hospitalized.

√

Mrs. Bart Aiuto entertained 14 young ladies from Brownie Troop 29 and other friends in honor of her daughter, Susan's 10th birthday anniversary Saturday.

Birthday games were enjoyed and prizes awarded to Barbara Clark and Gail Lister. Susan presented each guest with a favor and she opened many lovely gifts.

√

Two interesting remarks made by youths in Tecumseh were related in the office this week. Perhaps it will give our readers a chance to grin too as they read them.

As Tom Corkery and his pretty wife, Katy, were having dinner one evening they overheard their son, Tommy, say to the other son, Kevin, "I'd like to drill a hole in your head." Quite surprised Katy asked, "Why?"

Tommy replied, "To see what he's got on his mind."

The Robert King family have a natural born comedian in their midst. One night at dinner last week Mrs. King remarked that she was planning to attend a baby shower. Later in the evening son Gregg asked, "Mom, what time is this bath, anyway?"

√

Mrs. Charles Curtiss and family with Janet Allshouse visited Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Reside and family at Ecorse, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Majtyka and family in Hazel Park and Mrs. Joseph Majtyka, who is a patient at the hospital, in Detroit Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Hartsell, Charles and Larry, Mrs. James F. Hartsell and Mrs. Fred Marsh spent Saturday in Pontiac at the home of Mrs. Harry Dernberger.

THE CHURCH

What is the church of the New Testament? It is not a social club nor a fraternal order. It is not the meeting house. The church is not a denomination. The church is the kingdom. (Matt. 16:18-19). The Word of God is the seed of the kingdom. (Luke 8:11). The church is the house of God or His family. (First Timothy 3:15, Ephesians 3:15). It is one body (Ephesians 4:4). Christ established the church on the first Pentacost after His resurrection. (Acts 2:41-47). He purchased it with His blood. (Acts 20:28). He is the Savior and the head of the church. (Colossians 1:18). "For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ." (First Corinthians 3:11).

The word "church" is used in a general sense and a local or congregational sense. In the general sense it includes all who have obeyed God by doing and keeping His commands. In a local sense, it includes His people in a given community or city, as "the church of God at Corinth." (First Corinthians 1:2). " . . . the churches of Christ . . . " Romans 16:16.

Believing penitents who were baptized for the remission of sins were added to the church. (Acts 2:41-47).

Local Ambulance Answers Call When Another is Wrecked

Corkery-Collins ambulance was summoned by State Police last Wednesday to take Elizabeth Cook to the St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor.

She had fallen near her home and suffered a broken hip while walking to the St. Joseph Shrine for early Mass.

After lying helpless for some time she crawled one mile and a half to the home of her nearest neighbor, Mrs. Julia Brighton, who lives at the rear of the Irish Hills Towers.

She fell about 7:05 a.m. and reached the Brighton home about 11 a.m.

Miss Cook was in good spirits when he left her at the hospital Tom Corkery said.

The Proctor ambulance from Clinton originally summoned, collided with a truck as it was enroute to answer the call.

Mr. Proctor miraculously escaped with bruises and injury to his nose from bumping the steering wheel.

The ambulance was extensively damaged as was the truck driven by Boice E. Matheny of Adrian.

Senator Pat McNamara's Washington Report

WASHINGTON—This week, I introduced two measures in the Senate which would further guarantee the right of every American citizen to vote in Federal elections.

It seems somewhat incomprehensible to us in Michigan that there still are areas of our country where this Constitutional right is actually denied many citizens.

It is true, and unfortunate, that far too many eligible citizens in Michigan and other States simply don't bother to vote and thus voluntarily disenfranchise themselves.

But findings of the Federal Civil Rights Commission, which we created in 1957, have shown that thousands of persons who really want to vote apparently have been refused a voice in choosing the officials who govern them.

This is done by poll taxes, phony literacy tests and other devices.

The two measures I have introduced in the Senate, either singly or together, would put a quick halt to such abuses.

One is a bill to implement Sec. 2 of the 14th Amendment to the Constitution.

This section provides that any State which denies or abridges the rights of any of its citizens to vote shall have its representation in the House of Representatives reduced proportionatelly.

In other words, if a significant group of citizens is not permitted to vote for its Congressman, there won't be a Congressman.

While this provision has been a part of the Constitution since 1868, it has never been followed up by the necessary law to make it effective.

This is what my bill would do. It would establish a Joint Committee on Congressional Representation which would meet following each election. On the basis of evidence presented, it would decide whether any State violating the law would have its representation reduced and by how much.

Congress could review these findings and pass final judgment on each case.

The second measure I introduced in the Senate would establish maximum—not minimum—eligibility standards for voters in Federal elections through an amendment to the Constitution.

These maximum standards would require United States citizenship, six months residence in the particular State and attainment of the age of 21.

Since these are maximum standards, a State would not be prevented, say, from lowering its voting age limit to 18.

Also, these standards would not prevent a State from disenfranchising persons adjudged mentally incompetent or those who have been convicted of crimes.

The Constitution now permits a State to set its own voter qualifications. However, Federal precedent in this area long ago was set in the 15th Amendment, which prevents discrimination in voting because of race or color, and the 19th Amendment, which permitted women to vote.

There will come a day, I hope, when the right to vote is as academic in every corner of our land as is the right to breathe.

But to bring that day closer, Congress must act to protect these fundamental rights of every American citizen.

Ronald Wears Cap of Chef With Honor

Ronald Pilbeam will fry the fish for the Grange supper March 5.

Sunny Rays Do Their Bit for 4-H Week

It will be held April 18 at 7:30 p.m. in the Ridgeway School. The Macon Rangers Club will be guests.

Concrete Stave Silo Can Be Cheaper

If you handle a lot of silage, an upright, concrete stave silo may be a lot cheaper for you than a bunker-type silo.

Ray Hoglund, farm economist at Michigan State University, reported this idea at a session during Farmers' Week.

Chief advantages of the bunker silo is its low initial cost, Hoglund said, Chief advantages of the upright silo are less storage losses and opportunities for complete push-button feeding.

When no more than 400 tons of silage are harvested each year, there is very little difference in the annual cost of owning and operating the different types of silos but the stave silo costs about $4,000 more for 400 tons storage capacity.

When 600 tons or more are harvested, annual storage costs are lower for the tower silo. When 800 tons are harvested and handled, annual costs per ton are $3.50 for the wood bunker and $2.23 for the tower silo.

Annual costs of storing silage are greatly reduced when silo size is increased. In a 16 foot by 40 feet silo, costs per ton are $2.24, and in a 20 feet by 60 feet silo, cost are reduced to $1.21.

Initial investment is still higher in the tower silo.

Through My Window

OH NO, NOT AGAIN!

It was never going to happen again, but it did. If ever there was a perfect picture of maddening frustration it was yours truly on, and I will never forget the date, Feb. 5.

Just a few short weeks before I had vowed and declared that never again would I be caught unprepared, never again would something exciting happen on my feeder and find me with my camera not set to record the happenings on film.

The reason for this rash and, as it turned out, unfulfillable vow was the first visit of the beautiful Evening Grosbeaks.

The reason for my second day of frustration was a return of these same Evening Grosbeaks.

Oh, the irony of it. The first thing each morning since their first visit, with almost a fanatic faithfulness, we had aimed the camera, checked the focus, set the aperture opening and rechecked the time; the switch was pinned to my bed and we were set for anything that might come along.

This had been our routine every day until the fateful Thursday—and the first day on which our "ritual of preparedness" was disrupted, had to be the day which the Evening Grosbeaks picked for their second trip to our yard.

☆

IT HAD started out to be an ordinary enough day, the usual free loaders were busily patronizing our well stocked smorgasbord.

Suddenly the ordinary became most extraordinary, the feeders and the nearby "wren tree' were bedeckd with brilliant splashs of yellow, white and black. The evening Grosbeaks had returned and I was caught without film in my camera.

Before going further let me hasten to explain, in self defense it must be told that the filmless situation was not entirely our fault.

Late Wednesday afternoon I had taken the last picture on the roll which was in my camera and hastened to report same to Mom.

She made a careful search downtown, but everybody was out of Anscochrome, the film, which because of its speed and soft color rendition, works best for us. Oh, what a situation.

☆

FINALLY,, WE decided that the best, and in fact the only, thing to do was to ask June if she could pick up some film in Adrian. She would not however, be going over until Thursday afternoon.

We would just have to be without our camera for one day and keep our fingers crossed that nothing too tremendous would happen.

Well as you know, it did happen. They arrived about 10:30, a little earlier than before when their visit was a noontime affair, and taunted me for the rest of the day.

Our frustration was almost akin to suffering; our plight, the helpless frustration, will be readily understood by any camera bug. For the second time, a golden opportunity was afforded us and we were completely unable to capitalize on it.

As if realizing our situation and enjoying it as a great joke, the Evening Grosbeaks spent the entire day with us.

Sunning in the trees, playing on the fence, exploring the snow and ice-covered ground and feasting on the sunflower seeds which were fortunately piled high on the feeders—they had a wonderful time.

As three, four even six or eight came to the feeder at one time, their very movement seemed a well-calculated pose. With such gay spirited, feastively garbed models, how quickly could I have used up that film which I didn't have.

☆

WELL, FINALLY the tantalizing day came to an end and although we bemoaned the lack of pictures, we had thoroughly enjoyed the "good looking". June came with several rolls of film and immediately the camera was loaded.

To make a perfect ending to our thrilling Evening Grosbeak adventure, we were almost overwhelmed at our good fortune when, bright and early Friday morning, the small flock of those gorgeous birds returned.

Actually, they were around for the next five days—need it be added that, with a fresh supply of film, our camera as the busiest one in town.

☆

NOTE: Awhile back an interesting question arose, "Why are Evening Grosbeaks so named?"

In our bird-book reading, one theory advanced was that early ornithologists, having discovered the bird in the Canadian conifer forests, initiated the name Evening Grosbeak because they thought the birds sang only in late afternoon and early evening.

A most inaccurate observation on their part, but this is the most plausible explanation of the name that we have found.

'Hello, Mr. Chips' Trip to England for Todd Herrick

Todd Herrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Herrick, will make an "Hello, Mr. Chips" trip to England this summer along with 200 other American boys attending Independent Schools.

Todd is a student of Howe Military Academy.

The youths, between 15 and 18, assemble in New York July 9 to fly to the British Isles.

The boys who make the trip will be accepted on recommendation of their headmaster, and must have completed grade nine and must not have yet entered college.

They must be in good health, and must be desirious of learning about British history, government, and literature, at its source, and must want to spend three weeks as a student in one of the great "public" schools of Great Britain, beautiful St. Peter's College, Radley, situated just five miles from Oxford.

The group will be accompanied through the entire trip by outstanding masters from American Independent Schools, specialists in British literature, history, government, or the arts.

☆

THREE WEEKS will be spent visiting the literary and historical high spots of London the Shakespeare country, the Hardy country, the Lake Poets' country, the Scott and Burns country, the Bronte country, as well as Edinburgh, Wales and the historical sites of Great Britain in general.

On August 1, the whole group will assemble at St. Peter's College, Radley, where they will stay for three weeks.

The Radley masters will conduct classes as they would for their own boys. The American boys will have as companions a group of Radleians, who will act as escorts and will teach the boys the customs, games and rules of the school.

Opportunity will be given to play such British games as cricket and "Fives". As Radley is a rowing school, those who wish to row will be coached in rowing.

At various points on the trip, the groups will be greeted by distinguished British men and women, and will have the opportunity of meeting and talking with many others.

Quality Forage Can Mean Gain of Over $1,000

A 20-cow dairyman can gain $1,000 or more by feeding high quality forage rather than average forage, claims Donald Hillman, extension dairy specialist at Michigan State University.

Hillman will explain how high returns from improving forage quality can be gained when he speaks at the Dairy-O-Rama event on Feb. 26 at Clinton High School.

In feeding trials at Michigan State, early harvested legume hay meant either $10 extra milk per ton of hay or $10 less grain to maintain production.

Research clearly shows, says Hillman, that forages should be the main source of nutrients for dairy cattle; early harvesting is an important means of improving milk production value and grain value of forages; and that many opportunities exist for high returns on harvesting investments by improving forage quality.

Other points that Hillman will discuss at the Dairy-O-Rama include grain feeding for top production and profit and calf feeding systems.

Dairy cattle feeding is only one of the major topics to be included in the all-day Dairy-O-Rama. A question and answer period is planned for dairymen to personally talk with extension specialists and others who are appearing on the Dairy-O-Rama programs.

Be Sure To Have a Will

Many a family suffers needless worry and delay and expense in settling of the estate of a father or other relative who dies without leaving a will—or who leaves one not properly drawn.

It happens all too often, according to Lucille Ketchum, extension home management specialist at Michigan State University.

And with a little forethought and a relatively small fee, it should never happen at all.

☆

IF YOU DIE without leaving a properly drawn will that distributes your property as you want it distributed, inheritance laws of your state can take over.

For instance, an estate might be divided by law among a wife and children when a father actually wanted his wife to have sole control of the funds to support and educate the children.

Drawing up a will should not be a do-it-yourself project. You need the help of a competent lawyer.

He can tell you, for example, about the uncertainties and possible tax disadvantages that may go along with joint ownership of property and joint bank accounts-two things that many couples think make a will unnecessary.

HE CAN also tell you about the need for witnesses, and who they should not be-such as anyone named in the will to receive any legacy.

A lawyer's fee for drawing up a will is usually moderate, explains Miss Ketchum. It's even nominal in the case of small estates where the will contains no complicated provisions.

Whether you are married or single, male or female, the cost of the lawyer's service can save your heirs unnecessary later expense and trouble. It provides the best guarantee that your own wishes about your estate will be carried out.

Key: Good Management

Good management is the key to survival for small farms.

That's the opinion of Michigan State University farm economist L. H. Brown.

Brown analyzed records of 131 southern Michigan dairy farms which were milking less than 30 cows to get an idea of which small farms are surviving today.

He divided the farms on the basis of labor income. Some 21% of the farms were poorly-managed, 40% were average and 38% were well-managed.

The poorly-managed group includes farms with less than $1 income per dollar of expense and the well-managed group had $1.25 or more of income per dollar of expense.

☆

THE REPORT indicates that the poorly-and well-managed farms have about the same amount of land with the average group a little less. The well-managed group has 14% more cows than the poorly managed farms.

But Brown points out that the well-managed group cares for these cows with 19% less labor and sell 15% more milk per cow with 7% less feed.

They grow almost 30% more feed per acre with only 13% more spent for seed and fertilizer.

The well-managed farms have 52% more gross income per acre with 6% lower expenses.

They also have 13% less farm business investment per cow which is reflected in lower buildcow, Brown says.

Here's Real Winter

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brock and son, David, have just returned from a trip to Toronto, Montreal and St. John, Quebec.

While in Toronto they visited Mrs. Brock's sister, Mrs. George Wright, also his mother who passed her 90th birthday Oct. 24.

While in Montreal they were guests of Mrs. George Day, Mrs. Brock's cousin, at the Mount Stephen Club.

Mrs. Brock informs us that when they arrived in Montreal a blizzard was in progress with temperatures five degrees below ezro, no cabs were running and it was necessary to walk three blocks to a hotel.

This happened at midnight Feb. 11.

In St. Jeans, Quebec snow was mountainous high, in places it had drifted from the eaves of houses over door ways and windows.

In the streets plows had made paths for cars on each side of the street and piled the surplus in the center.

A car passing on one side was unable to see a car on the opposite side.

Mr. Brock muses, "What a flood they are going to have."

The Brock family went through a flood themselves before coming to Tecumseh some years ago. They were living in Leamington at the time.

Sponsor Flower Show

Mrs. Don Ketteman opened her home for members of the Little Garden Club Feb. 17.

Mrs. Byron Goodman assisted.

As the members arrived each was presented with her copy of the 1959 program booklet which was attractively made and individually initialed by the program committee.

The club approved assisting the Monday Club and the Tecumseh Garden Club in sponsoring the Junior high science teacher for a week this summer at Higgins Lake to study conservation.

Members of the Club are invited to attend the April 17 meeting of the Tecumseh Garden Club to hear George Tatar lecture and show slides of his stay last year at Higgins Lake.

Enthusiastic interest was shown in participating with other garden clubs of Tecumseh in planning a combined flower show this year.

Two new committees were organized — the civic committee consisting of Mrs. Dan Reed, chairman, Mrs. Ray White, Mrs. Byron Goodman and Mrs. Robert Bowers; the exhibit committee, Mrs. Don Ketteman, chairman, Mrs. William Schroer, Mrs. Don Purkey and Mrs. Paul Burns.

Mrs. Al Helzerman spoke on "Previews of 1959 Gardens", in which she revealed many helpful garden hints.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Orrie Gilbert.

WIND STORM TV TROUBLE

During wind storms we usually get a few phone calls at COOK ELECTRIC about white flashes on TV screens and cracking sounds from loud speakers. When the storm ends, the trouble usually ends.

This usually is the first sign of antenna trouble; connections are loose and there might be breaks in the feeder cable. Wind will generally finish off a corroded connection, too.

Phone 692-J for antenna services, or any kind of electronic services. Our business is a service and not a mystery.

Members Open Session Singing '4 Leaf Clover'

The 4-H Knitting Club, Clicky-Klack-Maidens, was called to order by the president, Patty Green, Feb. 17.

The club said the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag, the ritual was read by the vice-president Susan Kennel and members sang their own song, "I'm Looking Over a Four Leaf Clover."

Secretary Marsha Richard read the minutes and Karen Long led the group in five songs.

During the knitting period which followed Marilyn Dick distributed the treat of fudge.

The meeting closed at 5:06, reports Diane Coak, publicity chairman.

St. Peter's Holds Two 'Quiet Days' in Coming Week

"A few hours of God-directed silence in the midst of a noisy world" are words which might describe the Women's Quiet Day to be held at St. Peter's Episcopal Church Tuesday.

The Rev. Carl Sayers, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Allen Park will present several short talks designed to direct the participants thoughts and meditations.

The "day" will begin at 10 a.m. with a celebration of Holy Communion.

A bring-it-yourself brown bag lunch will be eaten in silence at noon with an appropriate selection being read aloud during the meal. Coffee and tea will be served.

Quiet Day will be over at 3 p.m. and the silence will be broken in a coffee hour.

A Quiet Day for men has been scheduled for Sunday, March 8, beginning at 4 p.m. Further announcements will be made later.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editors:

I am writing this on behalf of the young folks who have to walk back and forth to school from Herrick Park.

Why can't the people who are driving have the common decency to slow up or pull over from the edge of the road when coming up to a group of young folks especially when there is water and mud on the road?

I've known some who have been splashed from head to foot and if the rest of the mothers feel as I do, you don't appreciate muddy water on their clothes.

Sometimes they don't even get a chance to jump out of the way the driver is coming so fast.

Wonder how they (the driver's) would like the same done to them.

I'm a firm believer in the old adage, "Do unto others as you would have done unto you."

Seems like this is one road courtesy that should be enforced as much as the other ones.

Only one disgusted mother,

Inspection Report Read for Auxiliary

Thirteen members were present at the meeting of the VFW Auxiliary Feb. 18 to hear the annual inspection report.

Special reports were given by Mrs. Gaza Kish and Mrs. Earl Kruger on recent dinners served; by Mrs. Harold Meade on the Valentine party given for the Girl Scout Troop and by Mrs. Kruger concerning the joint party of the Post and Auxiliary.

Mrs. Richard Eisenmenger was made chairman of Poppy Days.

Final plans were discussed for the Chamber of Commerce dinner, which was to be held Feb. 25. Mrs. Kish was named chairman.

Members voted to serve the Explorer Scout Mother-Son banquet in April.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Willie Horky.

Indians Fall in Last Game

A second-half rally netted a 66-58 victory for Bedford over Tecumseh last Friday night, the game ending the regular season for both clubs.

Top Indian scorer was Larry Yoakum with 21 points. Bob O'Neill tallied 15. Roy Couch, outstanding Bedford guard, connected for 28 points.

Dan Cisco, 6-4 center for Tecumseh, missed the game because of illness.

Community Center Thought

We're still extremely interested in the possibility of having a community center for Tecumseh.

The subject was first brought up about six months ago by a group of citizens avidly concerned with the future of the City.

They discussed what such a center should contain—possibly a library, auditorium, meeting rooms, maybe even a gymnasium for adult use.

The center would provide, too, for teen-age gatherings.

A person could do considerable thinking about such a structure and what it could mean to everyone in the area.

One of the first things which comes to our mind is a lecture-concert series, such as many large cities and college communities have. It would mean regular gatherings featuring leading musicians, singers, speakers. Theatre groups could appear in Tecumseh as well.

Building a community center would, of course, be a costly thing. How much—maybe $75,000 or $100,000, possibly twice that amount. Then there would be the annual operating costs.

We would like to advance an idea, hoping to get some reaction from our readers.

Each fall community residents and industries gather thousands of dollars for charity. Last year the combined amount totaled more than $50,000.

Of it, $5,000 stayed in the community for use by the local fund and the remainder went to about 40 county, state and national charities.

Now, we're not suggesting that we turn our backs on these worthy groups.

Instead, what we have in mind is a re-appraisal of the entire United Fund arrangement locally, with the thought in mind that we combine the community center idea with the annual charity drive.

Some may say this is impossible. Maybe it is.

However, we see a glimmer of hope for such a plan.

Instead of disbursing all money given here, a certain percentage would be placed in a building fund for the center—maybe as much as $15,000 or $20,000. Within several years, the structure could be started.

With future drives it would be paid off and then a specific amount established for annual operating expenses.

In this way much of the money given in Tecumseh would be spent directly to serve its people. At the same time, we still would be assisting such important causes as the Red Cross, County school for retarded children, Leader Dog for Blind, etc. through the County United Fund.

The local budget for Scout activities, Service Club work, etc. would be continued at the regular pace.

Your comments would be helpful.

Welcome to Tuttle Company

There has been a flurry of activity the past few months at the old Admiral plant on S. Evans St.—and this week the pace reached a crescendo.

Now owned by the H. W. Tuttle Co., Tecumseh's newest industry, the building is currently being moved into by the former Adrian firm.

That is, the rear portion, where remodeling has been completed. In the front section, construction work is still continuing and probably won't be finished for several weeks.

The whole interior has been so completely altered that one can hardly recognize it. Particularly impressive is the paint scheme, which includes a variety of soft tones following a scientific motif to promote greater eye ease.

These days of moving are trying ones for Tuttle personnel, but before summer comes (when and if one arrives this year), everything will be rolling smoothly.

We wish the new company "all the luck."

Senior Reaches Finals in Merit Scholarship

A senior at Tecumseh High School has reached the finals of the 1958-59 National Merit Scholarship Program and has been awarded a Certificate of Merit, according to principal Neville L. Hart.

David Holden has received the Certificate, which attests to his high academic promise.

David has distinguished himself by his high scores on the two college aptitude tests used in the National Merit Scholarship competition.

About six-tenths of one per cent of the seniors in each state received the awards. A national total of 10,000 students were honored.

Over 478,000 students were tested in the 1958-59 National Merit Scholarship competition which began last April. The test results have pared the competitors down to the 10,000 Finalists.

☆

SOME 700 OF the Finalists will be named Merit Scholars this spring.

They, and the colleges they have chosen, will share $3.5 million in Merit Scholarship funds offered by over 80 different organizations and individuals.

The winners will be determined by the results of final judging now being conducted. The Merit Scholars will be announced about May 1.

The names of the Certificate of Merit winners are being sent to over 1,500 colleges, universities and other scholarship-granting agencies for consideration for thousands of other privately-financed scholarships offered outside of the Merit Scholarship Program.

Previous experience indicates that the Finalists will be offered some $2.5 million worth of freshmen-year scholarship assistance from these sources, in addition to the awards made to those selected as Merit Scholars.

Why all the red tape?

You can understand why we don't sell narcotics without a physician's prescription. But maybe you've wondered why we're so fussy about other things . . . like penicillin, sleeping pills, the new tranquilizers. These potent medications are called "legend drugs" and you have to have a prescription to get them. Reason: Uncontrolled use may do more harm than good. Only your physician knows whether you should use them or not—and, if so, just how much. So we require a prescription. It's a matter of professional ethics and the law. Always it's common sense.

PONTIAC NAMED CAR · OF · THE · YEAR

"Pontiac with wide-track wheels is the best combination of ride... handling...performance and styling of any '59 car"—The Editors of Motor Trend Magazine

In making its annual automotive award, the staff of Motor Trend Magazine, leading automotive publication, tests and evaluates all new cars. Here are quotations from the April 1959 issue:

"The stability of the 1959 Pontiac is the outstanding automotive advance of the year. Everyone considering a new car should experience it."

"It's the best balanced passenger car in America. We firmly believe that in moving the wheels farther apart, to develop the widest stance of any American car, Pontiac has created an entirely new sense of balance and handling security."

"Pontiac's lines are clean, simple and beautiful. It has a fleet look, a trim appearance. The wide wheel design contributes greatly to its over-all integrated styling. Any comparison with narrower track cars readily shows the difference."

"For the economy-minded, an efficient new engine. The new 420E Tempest economy engine offers remarkable performance along with exceptionally high mileage while operating on regular grade gasoline."

"Pontiac is again tops in performance, based on our extensive road testing. Acceleration is outstanding, yet the engine is unusually quiet and smooth."

Your nearest Pontiac dealer will be glad to let you road-test this award-winning automobile on your own. You'll see why it's the year's most talked-about car!

THE ONLY CAR WITH WIDE-TRACK WHEELS

Wheels are five inches farther apart. This widens only the stance, not the car. Pontiac takes a better grip on the road, hugs tighter on curves and corners. Sway and lean disappear, ride is smoother, balanced, steadier. Handling is easier. You drive with a new confidence, a comforting security. Pontiac gives you roadability no "narrow gauge" car can offer.

FREE! If you would like a reprint of the complete, illustrated article with all the tests and evaluations on which Motor Trend judged Pontiac "Car of the Year"—see your Pontiac dealer or simply send your name and address on a postcard to Pontiac Motor Division, Department 10, Pontiac, Michigan.

See Firm Match Savings $ for $

Kroger employees received additional credits of $1 for each one of their own dollars they saved under the company's profit sharing and retirement income program during 1958.

Carl Fuller, vice president of the Toledo division of the retail food firm, made the announcement.

A portion of company profits is credited to the accounts of employees in proportion to the amount each has saved during the year, Mr. Fuller explained.

More than $187,060 was credited to the profit sharing accounts of 626 Kroger employees in the Toledo division area during 1958. During the same period, their savings totaled $112,488.

In the seven and a half years the profit sharing program has been in operation, the fund has grown to $39,717,593 as of December 27, 1958.

Contributions from company profits plus earnings of the fund during that time, totaling $20,490,498, actually have amounted to more than total employee savings and earnings of $19,218,195 during the same period.

Employee savings are held in cash and U.S. government bonds, while company contributions are invested in Kroger stock and in stocks and bonds of other leading corporations. The fund also owns five Kroger supermarkets which the company rents.

A total of 25,228 or 95% of eligible employees were members at the close of the year. The plan is offered to all regular Kroger employees, 21 years of age or older, who have been with the company two or more years.

"FOLLY CONSISTS OF DRAWING FALSE CONCLUSIONS"

Very few people realize how great a value modern prescriptions really are. Older folks know, because they remember how long it used to take to cure an illness, the medical bill for the many calls physicians had to make and the large percentage of patients who unfortunately never did recover.

It is true that certain medicines, because of costly ingredients and expensive research seem highly priced. But now your physician makes fewer calls, you have much less sickness time and more lives are being saved. If you are ever concerned about the cost of any prescription, we will be glad to show you our system for pricing them fairly.

Circulate 1,968 Books

RIDGEWAY — It was on Nov. 16, 1957 that new life and new purpose was given the Hall Memorial Library here through a complete redecoration of the building and the 70th Anniversary rededication of the facilities to a "new and vital role in the life of the community".

Following this, on January 1, 1958, the Hall Library became a part of the Lenawee County Library System, making available to the community, the 38,846 books, many magazines, film strips, etc., in the County Library.

At the present time, 724 books from the County Library are on the shelves of Hall Library for local circulation in addition to the 2000 books which make up the Hall collection.

☆

DURING LAST YEAR, 1,968 books (640 adult and 1,328 juvenile) and 147 magazines were circulated in the community of the community of Ridgeway.

The Library was opened for a total of 621 hours during the year by Mrs. Gerald Miller, librarian and Mrs. William Skelton, assistant librarian.

The members of the Library board, Earl Pennington, Mrs. Guy Pocklington, Douglas Baker, Robert Ries and the librarians wish to thank all who have helped to make this first year, under the Lenawee County Library System, a success.

"We are especially grateful to Jeanette Roberts and the Lenawee County Library Board for their splendid cooperation and assistance," a boardman stated.

The Board also welcomes suggestions from local residents for improving the services and facilities of the Library to the end that "one of the few remaining private libraries in the state" might better serve the community.

Library Receives $512 from State Under Aid Plan

LANSING—The State Library has begun distribution of $20,084 in state aid payments to 25 public libraries in Michigan, as provided for by the State Aid For Public Libraries law.

The Tecumseh Board of Education, public library account has been mailed a check totaling $512.80.

Payments are based on an allotment of four cents per person served by the library.

This is the second of four payments to be made during the next few months to qualifying libraries.

Checks totaling over $128,000 were mailed last month to 59 other qualifying libraries. Total amount of the 1958-59 general grants will reach about $294,000.

All public libraries in Michigan are eligible for the library grants, provided they meet certain minimum standards set by the State Board For Libraries.

The grants are used to enable local communities to increase their public library service but not relieve them from providing local tax support.

They may be spent for any library purpose except the purchase or construction of library buildings or the payment of principal or interest charges on any indebtedness.

Gifts for the honored guest were placed under a clever pink-decorated pink and blue umbrella.

RONALD BURNETT

Tecumseh VFW Adopts 7-Year-Old Youngster

Ronald Burnett, age seven, was recently "adopted" by the Hall-Slater Post of the VFW.

He lives at the national Home in Eaton Rapids, Mich. in a cottage named for North Dakota.

The Home is self-supporting and has facilities for about 200 children.

Commander Lee Coffee and Senior Vice Gaza Kish made the arrangements in December.

The reason for the adoption is to make holiday time and other special occasions such as his birthday more meaningful for him.

When the members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States created the home in 1925, they declared, "We shall give these kids the kind of a home their fathers would have wanted their children to enjoy if they were living today."

It is this simple creed that makes the VFW National Home the only child welfare project of its kind in the world.

2 Films Shown at Gathering of Druggists

Two films, "Your Customers Are Talking About You" and "What Price Your Life", were shown at last week's gathering of the Lenawee-Hillsdale County Drug Association in Adrian.

McKesson-Robbins provided the movies.

Steve Walsh of Hodges Drug Store and Waldo Ennis reported on the recent meeting of the Michigan State Pharamaceutical Association Council.

Henry Klee of Hudson gave a brief report on a poison control center he is establishing there.

Next local association session is set for March 24 in the Adrian Eagles Hall.

With Tecumseh Teens

BY MARY V. SEAGER

There was a Teen Clug ligislature, committee chairman and officers meeting last week. Twenty-four members of the club were there with five adult advisors from the service clubs present.

The record player was discussed. The group also talked about having the table shuffleboard made into an ice-cream and potato chip bar.

Potato chips and ice cream only would be sold at it with the soft drinks being sold from a machine. There is a possibility that refreshments will be confined to two rooms.

☆

Last Friday at the pep meeting a cheering contest was held between the boys and the girls. The boys won the loving cup made of pennies. A new clapping cheer was introduced.

☆

There was a good crowd at the Teen Club dance last Saturday evening.

A Student Council meeting was held Friday during last hour mainly to talk about plans for Sponge Week.

First on the agenda was a discussion of sending a letter of complaint to WABJ about the records sent for our disk-jockey dance. It was decided to let this drap, but that the Council would sponsor another dance later in the year.

Marilou Layton, chairmen of the Mardi Gras dance committee, made a report on the refreshments and decorations that are planned.

The Council decided to charge $2.50 a couple and $1.50 single for the dance, which will be held Saturday from nine until twelve. Bill Tilkin's Band from Ann Arbor will furnish the music.

Dave Champanois announced to the Council the days that had been approved by Mr. Hart. There were several new ideas furnished by the suggstion box placed in the library.

☆

Sponge Week is a time-honored tradition at THS. This is the week in which the girls take over the boys' duties of opening doors, carrying books, etc., for the girls.

Turnabout's fair play.

Every day of the week something out of the ordinary is done to break up the monotony of school life. Sponge Week started Monday and will end Saturday night with Mardi Gras.

Monday was Kick-Off Day with class meetings during the morning to elect class candidates (boys) for King of Mardi Gras. The freshman is Ron O'Neil, the sophomore is Charles Rebottaro, the junior is Jim Poley and Bill Fielder is the senior.

Tuesday was Old Clothes Day when everyone wore their oldest clothes in comfort.

Wednesday was middle Name-Color Day. All the students were to wear their middle name on a tag so that all their friends can call them by it.

Color means either school colors or off colors. This is also the day on which each pupil brings an apple to his first-hour teacher.

Thursday is Dress-Up Day. Everyone wears their best clothes. On Thursday, there will also be an assembly at which the eRv. Nixon will speak.

The ever-popular Gum and Candy Day is Friday.

All week long, soft music will be played in the library for the relaxation of the students. Also, in the cafeteria at noon, only the girls may ask for dances, and girls dancing together will not be tolerated.

The grand finale of the week is the dance to which the girls ask the boys and furnish corsages for them.

☆

The FNC travel to the Clinton chapter Wednesday night to hear Dr. Wilson speak on Hypnotism. About twenty girls will attend.

☆

The THS marching band will travel to Hillsdale Saturday afternoon for the District Band Festival.

Mrs. Doyle Honored

A baby shower honoring Mrs. Gus Doyle was given by Jackie Rucker at the Doyle home on Pine St. Feb. 12.

Games were played by the guests, Mrs. Vern Brown, Mrs. Don Baldwin, Mrs. Marvin Schroeder, Mrs. Kenneth Shewman, Mrs. Leonard Rucker, Mrs. Lonal Bishop and Janet Kreps.

—o—

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hindes of Clinton were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Evans. Additional guests in the afternoon and for supper were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stark weather of Ypsilanti.

Dac Owner Buying Another Big Chain

H. L. Green Co., Inc., which recently bought out the D&C chain, is now in the process of acquiring controlling interest in United Stores Corp.

United holds control of McCrory-McLellan Stores Corp., which operates about 450 variety outlets across the nation.

When the deal is completed, Green will become the second largest chain in the world. Woolworth tops the list.

Abult Bandsmen Gather March 8

Don Johnson said Monday, "Some interest has been shown toward a community band, but many seem hesitant because they have not played for quite a while."

He adds: "We have music that will compensate for your long lay-off, so come give it a try. We will hold the first meeting in the High School cafeteria at 8 p.m. Tuesday, March 8."

Release News Corn Hybrid for Michigan

Farmers will have a new hybrid corn available to them for planting this season.

It's Michigan 300, a hybrid developed by farm crops scientists at the Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station. A good supply of seed is available this year.

According to Elmer Rossman, corn breeder at the Station, the new corn is rated at about 90 days relative maturity. It is midway between Michigan 250 and 350 in maturity.

It yield tests, Rossman reports that Michigan 300 has the best yield record of competitive hybrids of the same maturity date.

☆

SINCE IT has a better yield record than Michigan 350, Rossman thinks farmers might want to consider using it to get the advantage of the shorter growing season.

The corn is recommended for general use in North central Michigan and for farmers in the south central part of the state who want an early variety or who plant late.

Michigan 300 is a clean picking hybrid. Ears come out of the picker with a minimum of husks because the husks are loose and open nicely, Rossman says.

The new hybrid has a high shelling percentage and the grain dried out rapidly in the field after it is mature.

The corn was nine years in development. All new hybrids must be tested at least three years before they can be released.

Surprise Party Held for Jean

"Surprise! Surprise!"

This was the greeting that Jean Ann Hoag received last week one day when she arrived home after accompanying her father to a Cub Scout meeting to pick up her brother, Roger.

Her mother, Mrs. Herbert Hoag, had invited a number of friends on the occasion of Jean's 16th birthday and she was completely surprised to find them waiting for her.

They played games and enjoyed dinner together featuring a decorated birthday cake.

LENAWEE COUNTY'S LARGEST WEEKLY

VOL. 108 — ONE HUNDRED NINTH YEAR — NUMBER 20 | TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, MARCH 5, 1959 | 16 PAGES — TEN CENTS A COPY

By TOM RIORDAN

"If you put a post office in that park I won't vote for any of you," the lady told Tecumseh councilmen Monday night.

Upset by news that council was going to swap lots with the federal government—the city-owned park across from City Hall for the government property along S. Pearl—she was on hand to voice her opinion.

She loves the little park, which is near her home."

City fathers were attentive to her plea, but her threat didn't seem to bother them. In fact, one said, "My wife would be very happy."

They assured her the deal had not been completed and possibly a post office would never be built there.

Then she talked about her basement flooding and the mess her street was in after a rain.

The city manager explained that the storm sewer there had been a WPA installation.

"They started with 24-inch pipe, when that ran out, they used 18 and when that was used up they switched to 14."

No wonder the water isn't carried away properly.

Other groups of property owners were on hand and council heard them out, watching and listening intently as the tales of woe were unfolded.

When a Tecumseh Acres resident told about his property valuations dropping, city officials said that sewer and water installation would help at least hold the line.

With wells and ceptic tanks there is always trouble looming and re-sale of homes having these facilities is difficult.

"If you people had gotten out and voted for the revolving fund, you'd be getting those things (city water and sewers)," one councilman stated.

"But the people there, the ones who would have benefited, didn't bother to vote," he added sourly.

The man mused, "I can't argue with you on that point."

This was city government in action.

There are a varied and never-ending line of problems which must be faced, handled carefully.

Folks are fast to criticize, but usually don't have the facts. Spending a few hours in the council chambers could enlighten a lot of people.

I don't envy the job our councilmen have voluntarily accepted. They have my sympathy.

Sharon Muhn is finding she has a lot of friends in the area.

In last week's Herald, Sharon's story was told. She has been selected for a tour of Europe with the Michigan Chorale, a group of 100 high school seniors.

Each youngster has to provide his and her own expenses. Sharon is nearly $600 away from her goal, the story related, and she's eager for an opportunity to earn that amount.

However, there just isn't enough time — April 15 being the deadline — and that's where the friends are coming in.

Wheels began to move Monday towards staging some sort of a benefit program in town before that date. All proceeds would go towards Sharon's goal.

If you have some suggestions, please let us know.

Mike Rotunno has accepted the head football coaching position at Saline High School.

After graduation from the University of Michigan in 1958, Mike began his tutoring career as assistant grid mentor at Tecumseh.

Mike was a standout center on Wolverine gridiron crews while at Michigan. His hometown is Canton, O.

During last football season here, Tecumseh had one of its best years. This was due to the combined talents of head coach Duncan Leckta and Mike.

There was a sincere spirit of cooperation between the two and the result spelled great success. This is to the credit of both Dunc and Mike.

Tecumseh will miss Mr. Rotunno, but I think most folks close to the football scene knew that he was heading right up the ladder.

At Saline, a Class C school, he'll have a real building job as the '58 team won but two games.

But that's the sort of a challenge a young man on the move likes to tackle.

Here's wishing you all the luck, Mike.

The first rule a columnist should rigidly adhere to: never write about your children.

But, please, just this once.

My daughter is a second grader at St. Elizabeth. When the sixth grade there produced its own newspaper, she had to have one for her grade.

Now, believe me, it isn't much of a paper. Three short articles all together, but what a thrill for our family.

She poured over her copy Friday night. The next morning father and daughter went down to the shop. My job was to set the type and Carol, assisted by a neighbor lad, Mickey Wykes, ran off about 40 copies on the proof press.

It's quite a sensation to see your offspring deadly serious about the career you secretly hope she'll pursue.

While Michigan is battling to maintain its industry here, we have a Tecumseh lad trying his best to send plants to Brazil.

And, of course, Brazil seems to love him for it.

Fifteen-year-old Arthur Collingsworth celebrated his birthday in New York City Saturday — a guest of the Brazilian Government Trade Bureau.

A lengthy news release arrived from the group telling all about Arthur's trip east, by jet airliner, of course.

This is certainly an unusual career for such a young person.

Arthur has done quite a job on publicizing his activities. He called us Monday to say that the State Department is going to make a movie about him.

As I slipped out of Russ Garno's barber chair recently, his playful partner, Earl Dean Roe, started interrogating a youthful customer of about 14.

"What do you think about this local newspaper?" he started.

I couldn't get my jacket buttoned up quick enough to depart and miss the reply, which went something like this:

"Oh, I don't know. But that thing . . . the editor's corner, or whatever it is . . . that has the dopiest stuff in it. I read it once and couldn't understand it."

I snatched the door knob and exited in a shower of snickers from the two jovial hair-snippers.

From now on I'm going to let my wife cut my hair.

Tecumseh Has 'Hope'

Despite a dismal season, Tecumseh High School enters the district basketball tournament at Blissfield with more than a little hope.

Coach Vic Lawson's hoopsters won only six while losing nine in regular play.

Two of those losses were to Monroe Catholic Central, the club which it meets Thursday at 8 p.m. in the opening round.

Last year, CC stopped THS twice during the winter, but in the tourney, Tecumseh played its best game of the year to win the district session between the pair.

Coach Lawson will send Larry Yoakum, Bob O'Neill, Dan Cisco, Jick Sisson and Jim Poley out for the opening tipoff.

When CC edged Tecumseh here, 70-63, several weeks ago, four of these starters fouled out. At that, THS almost closed the gap. If they can stay on the floor, maybe that will make the difference.

Backing up the starters will be Steve Kruger, Jim Curth, Bob Dick, Dave Hohenstein and Mike Walters.

Tom Walters won't be dressed, having re-injured a bad back this week.

The district was scheduled to open Wednesday evening with Blissfield meeting Bedford. Winner of this game and the Tecumseh-CC battle clash Saturday at 8 in the final.

Blissfield district champion will go to Willow Run for the sectional.

City Master Plan Appears in Sight

By JIM LINCOLN

Initial work for a master plan for Tecumseh appears to be in sight after Council accepted bids from engineering and architectural firms Monday night.

Before awarding the job, city officials decided to meet with the Planning Commission at its meeting next Tuesday night.

Bids received included one from James Smith, well known Tecumseh architect.

SEVERAL RESIDENTS from Indian Acres, especially the Nokomis and Seneca street's area, sought help from Council for installation of a storm sewer.

The home owners, who have written the subdivision's contractor, pointed out that catch basins were installed, but no storm sewer, a responsibility of the builder.

Although no official action was taken, officials suggested withholding building permits for future construction until the storm sewer is constructed.

☆

A RESIDENT from Russell Rd. protested the decreasing value of his home, saying FHA would not accept it for financing.

He blamed commercial construction across the highway in Raisin Township.

Councilmen told him they had no control over the township, and township zoning laws were not in effect when the commercial buildings went up.

No residents protested at the hearing for sewer and water along Russell Rd., and the resolution was passed.

A PETITION for curb and gutter on Ternes Rd. was accepted and a hearing scheduled for April 7.

A hearing for an addition to Friends Church also was scheduled for the 7th.

For this effort, the Auxiliary will receive a commission check for $246.25 from The Herald. It's based on $1 for new and 25c for renews.

Mrs. James Lincoln served as chairman for the Auxiliary.

Products Man Dies Wednesday on Parking Lot

Alvin P. Godfrey passed away suddenly of a heart attack Wednesday morning at 7 as he was leaving the Tecumseh Products parking lot.

His home was at 616 W. Chicago Blvd. and he was 53.

Born in Jonesville, the son of George and Nellie Griffith Godfrey, he graduated from high school there, living there until 1941.

He came to Tecumseh in 1943 from Jackson and has been employed for about 15 years at the Products.

He was a member of the Knights of Columbus and the Eagles.

'Impact of Change in Family Life Social Patterns'

Mrs. H. Lee Prettyman entertained members of Child Study Club 2 Feb. 12 with Mrs. Howard Kromberg and Mrs. Russell Langham as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Prettyman conducted the business session and Mrs. Marvin Rumpf and Mrs. Thomas Jacoby were appointed to plan the annual banquet, which will be called "date night".

Mrs. Franklin Humble had charge of the program which proved to be an interesting discussion of "The Impact of Change in Social Pattern in Family Life."

Roll call was a "favorite winter sport" and varied from staying indoors watching others, outdoors frolicking about, to ice-skate fanciers.

Mrs. David Faling and Mrs. Don Purkey made Valentine men, holding red suckers, for favors.

The next meeting will be held March 12 at the home of Mrs. Gerald O'Brien on Seneca St.

Concert 'A Delight'

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

The Men's Glee Club from the University of Michigan captivated both children and adults in a near-capacity audience Thursday evening at the Strand Theatre.

In the opening selections, "The Omnipotence", by Schubert, was outstanding in its "bigness." Joonim Kim, tenor, was the soloist.

Robert Blasch provided a pleasant interlude between selections with his rendition of "The Girl with The Flaxen Hair" by Debussy and excerpts from "Pictures at an Exhibition" by Mussorgsky.

Warren Jaworski, baritone from Dundee, brought grins to faces of the audience with his excellent performance of "It Ain't Necessarily So" and "Luck, Be a Lady" from "Guys and Dolls" by Frank Loesser.

The latter performed with two piano accompaniment made it a real "cocktail" of listening pleasure.

The marvelous enunciation of the Glee Club made all of its numbers easily understood even though unfamiliar to the listener.

It was most refreshing to hear a child's giggle as the bass section provided answers in "My Good Ol' Man" a Kentucky Mountain song, probably familiar to them because a recording has been used in the school of the number.

During the singing of "Eileen", an Irish folk song, the voices faded to a wonderful melodius whisper supporting the solo tenor voice of William Cole.

The octet, called the Friars, presented several fine numbers and the audience was only disappointed in that they did not provide more encores.

Special arrangements were made for the group by its director, Dr. Philip Duey, who does admirable work with these young men.

Other soloists in the concert were Bruce Wilson, William Cole, tenors; Dave Smalley, baritone and Dwight Davis, bass.

From beginning to end the concert was a delight and an inspiration. It was sponsored by the Tecumseh Jaycees.

Music Planned for Audience at Food Show

The food demonstration, to be presented by Consumers Power home economists, will feature international dishes.

Proceeds from ticket sales will go to charity projects of the sponsoring organization, Sigma Phi Gamma sorority.

Kiwanis Cage Contest Nets Local Club $300

BOX SCORE and JAYCEE TEAM PICTURE PAGE 6

First attempt at promoting basketball proved a most successful venture for the Tecumseh Kiwanis Club.

With president Carl Lamb as chairman, the local group brought Goose Tatum and his Harlem Stars to town Friday.

The Stars disposed of the Tecumseh Jaycees, 72-58.

But the thing the crowd of nearly 1,200 enjoyed most was the comedy, as provided by the Goose.

Hardly bothering to play basketball, Tatum struted up and down the court, making fun of his opponents and the referees.

He calmly held the ball at arm's length as the man guarding him vainly attempted to get it. He stood at one end of the court; refusing to go on defense most of the time; then he'd scream for the ball.

After scoring once, he raced to the sideline, took a flash camera out of the hands of a startled youth and snapped a picture of himself.

Financially, Kiwanis did OK. The club's net: $300.

32 Different Color Shades

A huge oil painting of Jerusalem is now being completed in St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church.

The outstanding work will serve as a background for the three-figure scene of Christ's crucifiction, which stands above the altar.

The painting's cost of $2,000 comes in the form of several special gifts, explains the Rev. Fr. Thomas J. Collins, pastor. None of the money is from the parish operating budget.

Doing the painting is Theodore Jordanoff, a 58-year-old Detroit artist who specializes in large religious murals.

Born in Yugoslavia, he studied three years in Bulgaria at a preparatory art school and then four years in Czechoslovakia's Academy of Ecclesiastical Art.

During those years of training he completed more than 600 paintings.

Since coming to America in 1922, he has done work in Catholic, Epsicopal, Lutheran and Baptist churches in Michigan, Illinois, Ohio and Florida.

This job for St. Elizabeth's began with more than a month's preliminaries. Mr. Jordanoff did three weeks of library research, checking the style of architecture of that era and locale.

Then he made nearly 20 preliminary sketches. Finally he did an oil painting on a canvas about three by four feet in size.

This gave Father Collins an exact rendition of what the large painting would look like.

Wes Haeussler was given the task of fashioning an 18x30 foot "canvas" for the final work. It actually is Celotex, mounted on the wall behind the altar.

To this huge board, Mr. Jordanoff applied three coats of white lead mixed with linseed oil and just a touch of turpentine.

On this, he sketched in colored chalk the outline of Jerusalem, the clouds and mountains in the background.

Working on a large scaffold, the artist began to apply the oils —32 shades of the basic colors, all of which he mixes himself.

The whole painting must be completely covered three times, each with the slightest of tonal improvement.

To do the complete job takes about 180 hours of labor. Mr. Jordanoff averages about six per day—anything more is too fatiguing because of the meticulous detail work.

The artist has been working nearly a month, figures he'll be done in another week.

Patterson Fair Committees Named

Committees for the Patterson Home Fair are busily completing plans for a "bigger and better than ever" day of fun March 21, for children and parents alike.

Tickets are on sale now under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. John Surratt, ticket chairman, assisted by Mrs. James Barton, Mrs. Lynn Cook, Mrs. E. S. Oyer, Mrs. Vern Manwaring, Keith Barron and Lyle Grigg.

Prizes will be awarded to the students selling the most tickets and making the best poster, advertising the fair. A trophy will be presented to the room selling the most tickets.

It is expected that the snack bar will be a popular spot at the fair with Mrs. Richard Loughney in charge of the sale of sloppy Joes, hot dogs, chips, pop, coffee and baked beans.

She will be assisted by Mrs. Wayne Selder, Mrs. Ernest Hammack, Mrs. Wayne Pence, Mrs. Robert Mead and Mrs. Wilber Andrews.

The thrift shop with Mrs. Donald Purkey, saleslady, assisted by Mrs. Harold Black, Mrs. Byron Goodman, Mrs. Cecil Pence and Mrs. Malcolm Campbell, will provide many used clothing items. There'll also be patterns for childrens and adults' clothing, white elephants and even remnants suitable for small articles such as quilt blocks and aprons.

Robert Hamilton will provide the "catch" for many an angler at the fish pond, assisted by Mrs. George Choske, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Engles and Mrs. Kenneth Blummerick.

A choice of "fish" is to be had too, for a penny, five or ten cents.

Readers are asked to watch next week's issue for more about the fair.

Don't Call It Baby Sitting!

(Editor's Note — This is the first in a series of three articles written to acquaint the readers with the local cooperative nursery school.)

When a child reaches the age of five or six, we parents gladly turn their education over to school teachers.

But where can parents get get help during those important years from two-five?

Cooperative nursery schools have been started throughout our nation by interested parents who realized that their children needed a broader world in order to develop their individuality during these early formative years.

By joining together, they can provide pre-school children with the advantages of supervised group play in an atmosphere geared to their individual and group needs.

A definite distinction must be made here between "day care center" and a "nursery school".

Both of which must be licensed by the State Department of Social Welfare.

The person in charge of a nursery school must have a college degree, a teaching certificate, and a certain number of hours of credit in child development, (in addition to certain other general requirements, such as a sense of humor!)

The day care center need not employ a teacher approved by the Dept. of Public Instruction.

Our local cooperative nursery is one of nearly 100 in the state of Michigan alone, and one out of 16 in the Ann Arbor area.

The cooperative nurseries are non-profit. They work together in the Michigan Council of Cooperative Nurseries which was organized in 1952 and in Area Councils serving geographical districts. Next week:

2. "Let's take a look at the pre-school child" or "What are the rewards?"

The following week:

3. "What's in it for the parents and the community?"

Spring certainly is in the air and now we have proof that this statment is fact not fiction. Mrs. Thomas Hamilton called The Herald office this week to inform us that she has snow drops in bloom. She said last year they bloomed in February.

More proof is that Mrs. James Beardsley has already seen a robin.

A number of Tecumseh residents have been spending some time in the sunnier climes of Florida and other southern states, Mrs. E. J. Aebersold falls in this catagory.

She has been spending some time with son Gregg and family in Montgomery, Ala. and was en route home this past week when she was taken ill in a restaurant in Cave City, Kentucky.

The physician engaged had her admitted to a hospital and called relatives here. The story all ended wonderfully Saturday when she was accompanied to her home here by her daughter, Mrs. Henry Smith, and son, Gregg.

Mrs. Aebersold seems to have suffered no ill effects and we are happy to relate that she is home and not ill in a hospital in Kentucky.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Lohrman of Toledo, former Tecumseh residents, visited friends in the City Tuesday.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Woodward from Lansing visited their parents, Mrs. Perry Hayden and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Woodward, here over the weekend.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Brown of Onsted were dinner guests Thursday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thompson.

√

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lowry of Bloomfield Village spent Sunday with his sister, Margaret Lowry.

Mrs. Jessie Sluyter and son, Ray Sluyter, Jr., attended the gift show at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel Sunday in Detroit.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bowen were in Detroit on Tuesday to bring his brother, Ralph Bowen, here from the hospital where he had been a patient for eight weeks.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fleming and sons of Detroit were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Puffer and family.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schwartz entertained her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Martindale, and son from Grand Rapids over the weekend.

√

Recent guests of Edna Gamboe and Mrs. Allen Abner were Mr. and Mrs. John Abner of Blissfield, Clyde Gamboe of Brooklyn and Mr. and Mrs. Forest Abner and daughter.

500 Families Being Moved to New Center

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Alzner and children of Indianapolis were over night guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Artman Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Hayes and daughter, Marta Lu, of Hillsdale were dinner guests that same evening.

The Alzner family left Friday morning for their new home at Somers Point, N.J.

Mr. Alzner is employed by the Government in Technical aeronautical development and is being transferred along with 15 other families from Plainfield, Ind. to the new aeronautical development center at Atlantic City, N.J.

The men are all former pilots of World War II.

Five-hundred families from over the United States, including 35 from the Indianapolis area are being moved to the new development center.

Mrs. Donald Fox Opens Her Home for JC Auxiliary

Mrs. Donald Fox entertained 14 members and two guests of the Jaycee Auxiliary at her home Feb. 25.

Mrs. Roland Redman was appointed representative to sell Easter Seals from the club. Mrs. William Davenport and Mrs. Stanley Dermyer will be on the committee with her.

It was announced that a regional meeting will be held in Ann Arbor March 11 to elect a vice-president from this district.

Mrs. Donald Brazee, chairman for the University Glee Club dinner, gave a report.

Mrs. Fox presented colored slides of the Jaycee Carnival and of the Fall Regional meeting that the group hosted here in November.

The March 25 meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Brazee with Mrs. Herbert Simon assisting.

Ice cream was served with cherries from a chafing dish and waffle rosettes by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Calvin Zorn.

"Mardi Gras," the dance sponsored during Sponge Week by the Student Council was a great success.

The High School gymnasium was decorated in multi-colored crepe paper flowing out from a central point above the floor to the sides of the gym.

There was a large crown in the middle of the floor where the king was crowned. The tables and walls were decorated with cut-outs carrying out the theme in general design and color. Refreshments of pretzels and orange drink were served after the coronation.

Bill Fielder, the senior candidate, was elected as this year's king of Mardi Gras.

The boys were wearing many quaint and colorful corsages, made for them by the girls who paid their way to the dance.

Bill Tilkin's band from Ann Arbor supplied the music from nine until twelve.

He had been in failing health for several months and confined to bed for ten days. He was a member of the Presbyterian church, formerly the Reformed church of Macon.

He is survived by his widow, Rena Morden; three sons, Walter Jr. of Tecumseh; Herbert and Ronald of Macon; two daughters, Mrs. Fred Gillen and Mrs. Ted Greenfield, both of Macon; 12 grandchildren and a sister, Mary Morden of Saline.

The Rev. Walter Damberg officiated and burial was in Mahon cemetery.

Plan To Move? Telephone Jessie

To assist members of the Hospital Auxiliary in obtaining pertinent information for the new city directory, it has been suggested that those residents who are moving or planning to move, to call Mrs. Ray Sluyter or Mrs. Fred Randall.

This will enable the ladies to make the directory more complete.

OLD COACH DIES—E. E. Crampton (center, standing), former school superintendent and coach here, died March 1 at Belding, where he was in the insurance business. Mr. Crampton tutored a semi-pro baseball team and girls basketball squads here for five years. Pall bearers at the funeral Wednesday morning included three of his old players, Lawrence Herrington (seated left), Sam Sisson and Glenn Crittenton (seated right). Other in this picture, taken at a reunion game include Lee Randall and Bert Osterhout (standing) and LeRoy Van Winkle.

Feeding Dairy Herd Right Can Mean $14 a Day

Feeding a dairy herd "right" can mean a gain or loss of about $14 a day, state dairy scientists at the Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station.

The secret is to serve cows the kind of a meal that will give them the necessary nutrients to produce as much milk as they possibly can.

This, according to the scientists, calls for a balance between the amount of hay and silage offered to the cows.

Experiments at the Station comparing all-hay and all-silage rations produced these results: Cows on the all-hay ration ate 0.7 pounds more dry matter per 100 pounds of body weight than did cows on silage of the same quality.

This difference in daily intake for the typical dairy cow is roughly the amount of nutrients needed to produce 16 pounds of milk. To the average Michigan dairyman, this could represent a gain or loss in income of about $14 a day.

Recent developments in mechanical harvesting and feeding of forage have interested dairymen in the possibility of feeding silage as the only roughage.

Scientists are trying to find out why silage depresses the appetite. Studies to date indicate that moisture content and the amount of acid in the silage are not the big reasons for cows wanting to eat less.

Plans Completed for Trip Through Training School

Final plans were made for a tour of the Girls Training School for Feb. 24 by members of the Tri-Town Extension Club. Plans were made when they met recently at the home of Mrs. Dennis Goller.

Plans were also completed for a bake sale to be held March 7 at Eggleston's Cleaners and for the District Tea to be held March 17 at the Youth House of the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. Jerry Eggleston and Mrs. Richard Whelan presented the lesson on County Government.

The next meeting will be held March 16 at the home of Mrs. Ted Sisson.

Singing Contributes Greatly to Banquet

Group singing led by Gerald Janousek contributed much toward making the Blue and Gold Banquet of Pack 4, Cub Scouts a highly successful event Wednesday evening at the Union Hall.

A pinewood derby was held preceding the serving of dinner by ladies of the Tecumseh Grange.

Tables were decorated in the holidays of the year and the guest table was decorated in blue and gold. H. H. Helms and Frazier Tubbs were present.

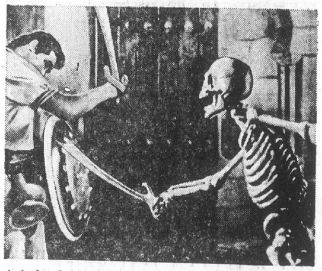
Mr. Tubbs presented the charter to the Rev. B. O. Bashore who accepted it for the sponsor, The Baptist Church.

Orville Bishop, Institutional Representative, accepted the award for outstanding work by the unit in registering on time and completing at least 75% of the goals the past year.

After awards were presented Cub mothers put on a skit entitled, "The Lamp Went Out" in pantomime.

Dr. Richard Dustin narrated and Mrs. Dustin, Mrs. Douglas Hall, Mrs. Paul Wilcox, Mrs. Ray Schlegel, Mrs. Leslie Saunders, and Mrs. Orville Bishop made up the cast. Hugh Des Ermia, Orville and Billy Bishop were stage hands.

The meeting closed by assembly singing of taps and benediction by the Rev. Bashore.



A duel-to-the death between Sinbad (Kerwin Mathews) and a skelton in, "The 7th. Voyage of Sinbad", in Dynamation and Technicolor, plays the Strand Theatre March 11, 12, 13 and 14.

When You Buy ... Tell them why

Each issue of The Tecumseh Herald carries the advertising of reputable merchants who offer you their best values, services and products. They strive to garner your patronage and "good will."

These merchants know that their Herald advertising pays by measuring the results produced in increased sales. However, one result of their advertising is not subject to definite measurement — the intangible factor of "good will."

A friendly word from you, the reader-buyer, will assure the merchant that his advertising is appreciated and is producing the desired results.

Next time you buy — tell your merchant why — tell him you saw his "ad" in The Herald.

And if your favorite merchant is not a Tecumseh Herald advertiser, why not mention the market possibilities he is missing.

Patronizing Tecumseh Herald advertisers helps keep down the cost of your subscription.

IS THE CHURCH OF CHRIST A DENOMINATION?

When we read about the church described in the New Testament we are impressed with the fact that it is not a denomination or sect or religious party. This church is simply the "called out," the saved ones who have obeyed the gospel of Christ and are walking in the way of Christ. Wherever the Word of God is preached and men believe and obey its message you will find the undenominational church of Christ! Jesus said: "The seed is the word" (Luke 8:11). In our modern world the word "denomination" has become synonomous with the Bible word "church". This is most unfortunate because the church which fits the New Testament description must be "non-denominational." It will have no head but Christ, no earthly headquarters, no requirements for admission other than those laid down by Christ, no name but the names used in the New Testament, no organization other than the simple order described in the Scriptures. Christ wants all his followers to be just Christians, nothing more and nothing less. He does not want them divided into "sects," "denominations," "parties" with rival names, creeds, loyalties, and organizations. The church of Christ is non-sectarian. It is the body of Christ, the kingdom of Christ, the bride of Christ. Wherever men obey the gospel of Christ as they did on Pentecost God adds them to the church (Acts 2:47). As Christians they are bound together by their common loyalty to Christ and love for the brethren everywhere.

20 Classmates Surprise Bruce for Birthday

Twenty classmates of Bruce King had a real "ball" Saturday evening when they met at the King home on Adrian St. to surprise Bruce on his 15th birthday.

Bruce was away when the guests arrived and completely surprised when he went to the recreation room to roll up the rug for his parents dancing party (so he thought) and found the room filled with teenagers.

He had blown up about 40 balloons used to decorate the room and chided his Dad that afternoon to get busy and help because it was as much "his" party as Mom's.

Dancing and refreshments, including two decorated cakes, were enjoyed by the group and Bruce received many new records for his collection.

The only "fly in the ointment" was that Bruce's brother, Gregg, was taken seriously ill that day and had to spend the time in bed. He is still convalescing at home.

The engagement and approaching marriage of Marilynn Louise Nash to Morris Earl Tuttle of North Adams, is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nash. Mr. Tuttle is the son of Mrs. Alice Tuttle and the late Ralph Tuttle. The bride-elect is a graduate of Tecumseh High School in 1958 and is presently a student at Jackson Beauty College. She will graduate April 7. Mr. Tuttle graduated from North Adams High School in 1955 and is employed by Goodyear Tire Co. in Jackson. The wedding will take place Saturday, March 28, 1959 in the Tecumseh Methodist Church.

ANTENNA SCHOONERS.

Some of the houses around town look like multiple masted schooners, decked with their sails lowered. For every TV set in the house, there is a separate antenna system. You do not need another antenna for the second set; an antenna coupler will do the job well.

The COOK ELECTRIC has installed many second sets in recreation rooms, bedrooms, kitchens and even in garages and work shops, using the coupling idea from the main antenna system.

Civic Center (Continued)

This editorial could be called installment No. 2 on a Tecumseh community center idea.

It's good to know that the subject has been provoking conversation around town.

Last week, we advanced the thought that possibly the United Fund drive, which locally in 1958 produced more than $50,000, might devert about $15,000 or $20,000 annually towards building a Tecumseh center.

In chatting with a representative of the Lenawee County United Fund, of which Tecumseh is a part, we learned that this would be fine after a center is in operation.

By their charters, United Funds are collecting agencies for charities. This doesn't include, obtaining monies for building purposes.

The local committee is receptive to worthy needs and would probably agree to increase its budget to maintain a center. In that case, the Tecumseh budget would be about $20,000, instead of the $5,000 of previous years.

Thus, getting the building is another job entirely.

Lets explore that phase.

To date, the group working on the community center idea, mainly downtown businessmen, has been annonymous.

They have been mainly concerned with the type of physical structure Tecumseh needs—and will need in years to come. What it should contain has also been seriously regarded.

The group made plans several weeks ago to visit another city, similar in size to Tecumseh, to view its community center and learn all the details about it. The weather man cancelled that junket, but it is slated to be made as driving conditions improve. This visit should provide invaluable background information.

We think the proper steps are being taken. Something as big as a community center should not be rushed into; every possibility must be carefully regarded.

As the rough plan is molded into shape, a location will be the next item to delve into. How much parking area should there be? This is an important phase. There are dozens of others, too.

The Herald would like to see a formal civic center committee established. Its members would have the responsibility to develop and present the over-all picture to area citizens.

Then, the task of raising needed funds for actually building the center could be tackled.

After it's up, we can call on the United Fund to provide the vital operating expenses.

Consider Wash Day When Buying Clothes; That's Important

Next time you're buying clothes or household articles, look ahead to wash day. This tip is offered you by extension specialists in home management at Michigan State University.

They suggest you choose materials and weaves that are easy to wash and iron. For example, a man's shirt made of loosely woven oxford cloth is easier to wash and iron than one made of fine, closely woven broadcloth.

Some fabrics have weaves or finishes that make them slow to soil. Smooth weaves shed dirt more easily than napped or pile surfaces. Weaves such as jersey or terry cloth require little or no pressing. Special fabric finishes can add to ironing ease.

Be sure to read washing tags and garment labels before you buy, advise the specialists. And be sure to save all labels for future reference when laundering.

Select garments that are color-fast, simply designed, and well-made to save your time and energy. If you like pleats, ruffles and fussy trimming — and who doesn't for some occasions — choose them for your very-special-occasion clothes.

Extension Group Gets Street Lights

HOLLOWAY — Ten street lights now illuminate the central roadway of this tiny community, thanks to the effort of the Main Street Extension Club.

Sensing the need for street lighting, the group passed a petition among property owners. All but two of the 20 families signed.

Consumers Power agreed to place lighting in Holloway if the citizens would pay for the electricity.

It's costing each home approximately 50c a month.

Big Difference in Corn Hybrids, Report State

There's a big difference in corn hybrids.

Take an example from the corn performance trails which are conducted each year at the Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station: At one location the highest yielding hybrid produced 152 bushels per acre; the lowest yielding corn produced 95 bushels per acre.

At $1 a bushel, this difference represents an additional profit of No. 57 per acre just for choosing the best hybrids for the soil and climatic conditions. Seeding at the rate of one bushel to five acres, the lowest yielding hybrid should have had $285 sewed inside the bag if income is to equal that of the higher-producing hybrid.

Picking the right hybrid out of the several hundred offered to farmers each year isn't an easy job. The only way to know which hybrids is best is to compare several that are planted side by side under the same conditions for several years, says George Carter, farm crops specialist at Michigan State University.

Each year Experiment Station scientists scientifically measure the performance of over 200 hybrids at one or more of 12 locations in Michigan. Results of the trails are published and are available to farmers to help them select hybrids for planting.

Copies of Folder F-67, "Corn Hybrids Compared for 1959", are available at the county extension office Court House, Adrian, Michigan State University, P. O. Box 231, East Lansing.

Chest Board Meets

Punch and Cookies

The Senior Hi members of the Westminster Fellowship entertained parents and friends in Fellowship Center Sunday evening with a play called "The Accusers."

Those in the cast were Philip Hendershot, Carol Spangler, Bruce Parrett, Karen Hall, Mary Kay Ries, Larry Titley and Gerald Kruse.

Mary Roberts led a discussion following the presentation of the play and Alice Titley conducted a short devotional period.

Punch and cookies were served to about 30 from a table decorated to depict the changing of the seasons from winter into spring.

At one end, a tree covered with icicles and snow sheltered a snowman, in the center the lamb and the lion of, March presided and at the opposite end a flowering fruit tree with green grass and two bunnies represented spring.

John Hamilton and Gerald Kruse attended a planning meeting in Lansing Sunday afternoon for the Presbyterian Spring Rally to be held in Battle Creek.

Herbert Maynard and daughter, Phyllis also attended.

Both the Junior and Senior Hi Fellowship plan to attend Cinerama in Detroit next Sunday.

A message from Ralph Hodges, "Your Pharmacist"

PROPER DIGESTION OF FOOD is necessary for better body health. Mastication, the process of chewing your food enough to permit its preparation for entry into the stomach, is handicapped if your teeth cannot accomplish their duty.

MODERN DENTAL RESEARCH has uncovered many new helpful techniques for making teeth less subject to decay and possible loss. Your dentist judges his professional success by his ability to help you keep your teeth instead of losing them.

A VISIT TO YOUR DENTIST is no longer something to be feared. Your dentist has new "miracle" drugs to prevent pain and promote healing. He can prescribe mineral and vitamin medicines for people who are susceptible to cavities. His local treatments prevent their formation.

SHOULD YOUR DENTIST PRESCRIBE any medications, or specify a particular dental aid, we can supply it from our ample stocks. We are carefully keeping up with the progress of modern dentistry so that we may cooperate with dentists, as we do with physicians for your better health.

Impala Sport Coupe—like every Chevy—has Safety Plate Glass all around.

Chevy stops quickest... goes farthest on a gallon!

Chevy showed the best brakes of the leading low-priced three in a test of repeated stops at highway speeds conducted and certified by NASCAR*. Chevy also won over the other two in a NASCAR economy run—with the highest gas mileage for 6's and V8's at cruising speeds of just over 55 miles an hour.

Here's a car that knows how to get the most out of a gallon. And it's the only car in its field to bring you hydraulic valve lifters in all popular engines—6 and V8. This means smoother, quieter performance for you.

There are many other advances just as fundamental as the efficiency of Chevrolet's engines and the dependability of its new brakes (with more lining area than any other low-priced car). But why not stop by your dealer's and let Chevy do its own sweet talking!

Through My Window

THE COLD WAR!

Lest the title is misleading, may I hasten to explain that we are not going to concern ourselves with the nose-diving tactics in which the thermometers have indulged lately. Rather, our topic is squirrels.

Sunday morning is our only respite from the nerve-shattering, ear piercing, clammering of the alarm clock which, all too faithfully, jolts us into wakefulness at an early hour six days a week.

Quite naturally I think we like to take advantage of our alarm-free morning and catch a little extra shut eye.

One of the joys of Sunday morning is waking up at the usual time — repetition molds strong habits, doesn't it?—realizing that it is Sunday and then turning over, snuggling under the covers and going back to sleep.

The moment of realization, the instant one remembers that it is Sunday, is true luxury.

Saturday had been a mad hectic day, we were busy, busy, busy.

Late at night, when we finally tumbled in, goodnights were said and lights snapped out, my last sleepy thought had to do with not having to get up so early in the morning.

How little I knew.

Sunday morning, we awakened at the usual time and oh, the wonderful feeling of "no, we don't have to get up quite yet."

Then it happened.

We had just burrowed deeper into the snug mound of blankets when we heard the plop which bespoke of a squirrel jumping from one feeder to the other.

Poor souls, we pitied them having to get out and forage for breakfast so early on such a cold morning. Another thud and we knew the squirrel had jumped back to the first feeder.

With a slight prick of consience we realized that, in all the hustle and bustle Saturday, we had, the last thing in the afternoon, not put out a fresh supply of corn and scratch feed.

Oh well, they had eaten well and certainly a slight delay in breakfast would do no harm.

☆

NO NEW SOUNDS for a few minutes and our guilty consciences were eased by the balm of warm comfortable beds. We thought the squirrels had gone elsewhere for breakfast, perhaps the neighbors were better providers than we were.

How wrong we were.

Reconstructing what must have happened in the light of later events, our disappointed breakfaster, incensed at not finding the tables full, must have called a council of war.

Apparently, every squirrel in this end of town answered the summons and oh, what a diabolical form of attack they formulated.

The timing and effectiveness of their tactics were perfect enough to satisfy the most exacting general. Psychological warfare reached its peak that Sunday morning and we were its unfortunate victims.

The cold war started with the thump, thump of a squirrel jumping from one feeder to another.

Just getting back to sleep, we were about one second from that deep sleep from which none of their fiendish tactics could have aroused us. See what I mean about timing—one second away.

The next campaign was launched against the awning. Permanent roll-up aluminum awnings protect my windows, but they extend out a little to allow the opening of the swing-out casement end panels.

The shelf thus formed is perhaps two feet wide and on the west window it is, unfortunately, just a good jump from one of the feeders.

With great clatter and traming and scratching, they, used this metal shelf as a parade ground. Sleep, with squirrels stomping on the awnings—impossible.

☆

OH, THIS WAS a well-planned campaign — phase three was launched without even a short time out for a conference by the commanding brain-trust.

On the back of our room is a big screened-in porch; the screens, in large panels, stretch from floor to ceiling.

The jarring noise of squirrels climbing on these screens is undescribable. Up and down they went and back and forth. We were weakening; perhaps it would be best to get up and have Dad take out some corn for the enemy.

As if they knew we were contemplating surrender, there was a sudden silence. No squirrels raging around on the screens, no drill formations being practiced on the awnings and no feeder-to-feeder jumping competition being held. Maybe we could get our Sunday morning snooze after all.

With the finesse of experts, at just the proper psychological moment, hostilities were resumed again.

This time instead of the obvious loud climbing on the screens, they became subtle. Soft little pitter patters and we knew they were running on the flat roof of our room.

Back and forth, slow then fast, stop for a moment and then start again. This was the last straw—with a deep sigh of resignation we gave up and got up.

As we watched Dad, in pajamas, bathrobe and boots, put out a breakfast of corn, sunflower seeds and scratch feed for the victors, we laughed that once again we had lost a cold war battle to Mother Nature.

Who would ever think that hungry squirrels could be such formidable oppenents?

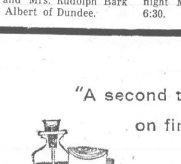
"A second thought on first aid"



We're constantly amazed at the number of children who cut, scrape and bruise themselves within sight (and sound) of our pharmacy. We do a big business in antiseptics, bandages, and other first-aid items. Same everywhere, probably. But sometimes we wonder if people don't depend too much on first aid—neglect proper medical attention. If there's the slightest question in your mind following what appears to be minor injuries, see your physician. First aid has definite limitations. You can only be sure of proper medical care by seeing your doctor. A prompt visit can save a half dozen later.

FOR ALL WE HOLD SACRED
. . . ATTEND CHURCH !

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Mark	9	30-50
Monday	Psalms	1	1-6
Tuesday	Psalms	119	6-16
Wednesday	Isaiah	7	14-15
Thursday	Acts	3	35-40
Friday	Deuteronomy	30	15-20
Saturday	1st John	4	1-4

Of course I don't scare you. I'm only a little boy making believe I'm a big bad man.

Some day, though, I will be big. Some day this game might be real, 'cause even the biggest bad man was once a little boy. And who knows what made him go wrong? That's why early training is so important.

In church and Bible school we learn about God's kindness and love, and how we can trust Him for the things we need. We learn to want to help others, instead of hurting them.

Encourage the children you know to learn all the good they can. Make church and Bible school your family custom—please.

School teachers of Michigan are eligible to apply immediately for an Aviation Award Scholarship which will be given to the teacher who writes the best letter to the Michigan Chapter of "The Ninety-Nines," an international association of licensed women pilots, before March 31.

Tuition, room and board, and books are included in the $175 Aviation Award Scholarship which offers a credit-carrying, educational course to be given during the six weeks summer session, opening June 88 at Miami University in Oxford.

Planning New Weed Spraying Equipment?

Planning to get some new weed spraying equipment for the coming season?

If you are, then you'll be interested in a new extension bulletin just received in the Lenawee county extension office.

Three weed control authorities at Michigan State University cooperated in writing the publication.

Considerable information is included, all the way from types of sprayers to recommendations on how to check the equipment for amount of material being applied.

Seven types of pumps used for weed spraying are discussed in the bulletin. Included are flexible impeller, piston, gear, sliding vane rotary, centrifugal, roller impeller and diaphragm.

Information is given on 13 different aspects of pump operation, construction and use.

Of special interest is a section on spray equipment for planters. Some farmers are now spraying for weeds with a pre-emergence spray applied at time of planting.

If you're interested in this bulletin, ask for a copy at the county extension office. The bulletin is called "Weed Spraying Equipment" and is numbered E-357.

Windy Gets "Collared"

A stranger walked into Pudge Barton's store the other day wearing one of those "Chesterfield" coats. When the boys saw the fancy velvet collar, they broke out laughing.

The stranger seemed to ignore them and went on about his business. He even pretended he didn't hear Windy's remark about the "big city" coat. Then, on leaving, he walked over to Windy.

"I gather you find my coat peculiar," he said. "Well, where I come from we're so peculiar we even extend a hand to strangers." With that, he shook Windy's hand.

From where I sit, the twist on the old adage is true: "clothes don't make the man." We ought to judge a man for what he is. That's tolerance, something we ought to practice every day. For example, you like coffee . . . I like a glass of beer. That doesn't make either of us "different" or anything to laugh at.

Ice on Ground Could Make Dry Growing Season

ANN ARBOR — The layer of ice now covering large portions of the Midwest may prevent proper build up of ground water levels and if we have a warm, dry spring, farmers could be in difficulty.

That's the word from the Meteorological Laboratories at The University of Michigan, where it is pointed out that the large reservoir of water below ground must be recharged during the winter to help provide water for dry spells in spring and summer.

The ideal situation is to have a snow cover which keeps the earth from going much below the freezing point and hence makes it comparatively easy for water produced from melting or rain to soak in.

This is the desired situation for winter wheat, for example, which usually is up an inch or so and has a root system before winter arrives.

But with the ice crust now present, almost all precipitation runs off and is lost. In view of last summer's dryness — which put us way behind in annual precipitation—the water which already has been lost was badly needed.

The recent gradual thawing has been good, however. If it continues and we have a good spring soaking season, ground water levels will come closer to normal.

Unfortunately, though, ice doesn't keep the ground as warm as a snow blanket and freezing has gone deeper this year. This is expected to result in more heaving than usual and hence more rocks on the surface, as we have alternate periods of freezing and thawing with the approach of spring.

If you like figures with your facts, it is estimated that one inch of snow usually is equal to about one-tenth inch of rain, but that one inch of ice is equivalent to nine-tenths inch of precipitation. So we have a lot of rain on the ground right now, but it's not helping much.

Tecumseh Fund Group Considers Civic Center

Tecumseh's Community Chest board is considering a plan to incorporate as an independent group and help build the City a civic center.

It would mean withdrawal from the Lenawee County United Fund, with which Tecumseh was affiliated for the first time last year.

Board members thrashed out the idea until after 11 p.m. Tuesday and adjourned until March 18 when they'll resume the discussion.

The plan would probably work out in this manner:

1. The annual fund drive would be held in October, as previously.

2. Industrial workers would be asked to give via the payroll deduction plan.

3. Door-to-door and business solicitations would be made as usual.

4. Money given by factory workers living outside of Tecumseh would be sent to these communities, thus following the theme "Give where you work, it works where you live."

5. A donation of from $5,000 to $10,000 would be made to County and state United Funds.

6. The remainder of money collected here would then go into the civic center building fund.

Based on last year's giving—$58,000 for Tecumseh industrial and non-industrial—this could mean more than $25,000 annually being poured into the all-community building.

Within several years there would be adequate funds to begin construction, which would cost in the neighborhood of $290,000. After it is up, the operating expenses would then have to be earmarked each year from the regular drive.

☆

ALLAN SEAGER WAS ASKED to report on work a committee, of which he is a member, has done in investigating possibilities of a civic center for Tecumseh.

"No center is exactly like any other," Mr. Seager explained. "It is a reflection of needs and wants of a community."

Of persons he has chatted with in the area, all have said they feel a center should contain:

1. Civic auditorium.
2. Youth center.
3. Library.

Other miscellaneous things mentioned: meeting rooms for clubs, industrial showroom, restaurant, adult gymnasium.

"What we need now," he went on, "is a clearer idea of what the community wants."

He pointed out that a Tecumseh center could be a big attraction. He mentioned two examples: Aspen, Colorado and Stratford, Ontario, where civic center ideas helped bring international fame to small communities.

The western United States city is famous for its winter sport layout and executive training facilities; in Canada, the Shakespearian Festival each year at Stratford attracts thousands.

Members of the Tecumseh Fund board include president Walt Nichols, vice-president Vern Manwaring, secretary-treasurer Merlyn Downing, John Thompson, Mrs. H. H. Hanna, Mrs. T. Rentschler, Owen Partridge, Dr. Richard Coals and Mrs. Barnard Fero.

'So Thrilling'

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

It Is When You Win $850

How does it feel to win $850 in a newspaper contest?

"So thrilling — no one can know," bubbled Mrs. Thomas Smith in a telephone interview Monday night.

She had done just that — with the aid of her husband and the use of her son's name.

It was all perfectly OK, according to contest rules.

The Detroit Free Press sponsored the promotion and allows at least six entries each week from each member of any given family.

That has been Mrs. Smith's technique for the past eight weeks, meaning a five-hour stint to do 30 different combinations of one puzzle.

She has been a fan of the contest for a year, but really got down to business as a regular contestant six months ago, stepping up her efforts the past two months.

A recent entry, listed under six-year-old son Tommy's name, clicked.

It was the only perfect one submitted among 70,000, officials of the Free Press told the Smiths.

Other members of the Smith family are Susan, 8 and Scotty, 4.

Where will the $850 go?

At least $85 is earmarked for the Ridgeway Methodist Church of which the Smith family belongs.

The remainder will probably help purchase much-needed items for the new home the family moved into a year ago at 5542 Milwaukee Rd.

Top priority: screens and storm windows.

As might be expected, Mrs. Smith is already busy on two other contests, one being a jingle.

"You know, these things sometimes happen in threes," she said hopefully.

GOSH, $850 — Tommy Smith, a kindergarten student at Herrick Park, is a celebrity these days. Doing the admiring is classmate Crystal Koeplin, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Kurt Koeplin. Tommy's name turned up on a perfect entry in a Free Press contest, which brought a prize of $850. Actually his mom and dad combined to figure out the answers, but, still, the check will be made out to Tommy and that's enough for Crystal.

THE Long & Short OF IT

By TOM RIORDAN

Steve Walsh, a pharmacist at Hodges Drug Store, was a little hurt at something he heard on TV Saturday night.

Maybe you caught it too.

Sunny Elliott, the late weather man on a Detroit station, bubbled:

"Warmest spot in southern Michigan is Tecumseh—it's down near Dundee someplace."

Steve was miffed and so are we.

He suggested that the Chamber of Commerce dispatch secretary Don Murphy to Detroit at once to fill Sunny in a bit about the "Refrigeration Capitol of the World."

☆

Vic Lawson has done it again. The hard-working Tecumseh High School coach directed his charges to two upset wins in the district tournament at Blissfield.

It took Vic a long time to fit together a combination and instill a desire to excell, but he made it — and when the blue chips were down.

So, once again, Vic has passed the stern test of being able to win tournament ball games, toughest ones of the season.

☆

When someone consistently does a top job, I think that person should be singled out and praised.

That's why The Herald would like to salute society editor Dorothy Grigg.

Week after week Mrs. Grigg performs in top-notch fashion and much of the credit for our news coverage goes to this talented gal.

Having worked for The Herald two years now, Dorothy started without any previous newspaper experience.

She has mastered many techniques of the trade during those months. Besides social news, she also presides over the Calendar of Events, does almost all of the death notices and writes quite a few straight news pieces, too.

Whenever requested, Dorothy will rap out a feature and when spring arrives, she'll be starting up her "What's Cooking in Tecumseh" series again.

All of us at The Herald like Dorothy and her work. This is the best way we have of saying so.

☆

Mrs. Tom Smith, who won $850 in a Free Press contest, told us something about the interrogation her family received before the money was awarded.

It started with a call and series of questions from a Detroit credit agency, which refused to say who was seeking the information.

At this point, the family had no idea about the $850.

Then, Tom's boss at the Products IBM department, Russell Langham, was querried.

Only after this did word arrive about the Smiths winning the contest.

Mrs. Smith said she found out later that the Free Press had to use this system in order to squelch a racket which has sprung up. Sharpies have obtained answers from other cities, where the contest has previously run and entered them here.

Dorothy Grigg thought I was simply shooting up the remaining shots on a roll of film when she posed at her typewriter in the office last week.

Tourney Trail Ends on Tuesday for Indian '5'

DETAILS ON DISTRICT GAMES PAGE SIX

Willow Run turned a close contest into a rout in the second half to wallop Tecumseh, 68-48, in the regional tournament Tuesday night at Willow Run.

Trailing by only two points at the half, the Indians fell nine points behind at the end of the third quarter.

The fourth period was all Willow Run as everything the Flyers tossed at the basket went in.

Top local scorer was Dan Cicso with 13 points. Jack Sisson scored 10, Bob O'Neill 7, Larry Yoakum 6, Steve Kruger and Jim Poley 4, and Jim Curth and Bob Dick, 2 points each.

Nearly as exciting as the game was the loose officiating.

Tuesday night's officiating left a lot to be desired and certainly was not tournament caliber. Fans began protesting shortly after the opening whistle.

Gets White Cap

Elizabeth Barber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy A. Barber, received her white cap from the Gordon Kellar School of Nursing in Tampa, Fla. Feb. 2.

The traditional lamplighting ceremony was conducted at the St. Paul's United Lutheran Church and marks the successful completion of the first six months of nursing education.

Justice Faces Hearing

L. J. Van Deusen, Clinton Justice of Peace, is scheduled to hold a hearing this Thursday afternoon for Robert French, 44, Tecumseh JP, who has been charged with leaving the scene of an accident and driving while under the influence of alcohol.

The local JP and lawyer has entered pleas of not guilty on both counts.

(There is a possibility that the hearing may be postponed to a later date).

French was apprehended last Thursday morning by the Tecumseh police after a call from the sheriff's department alerted officers here.

According to the sheriff's report, French struck the rear of an automobile driven by Jeanette L. Westfall, 33, 1070 Moore Rd., rural Adrian, just north of Adrian on M-52 near Valley Road.

Mrs. Westfall in the report accuses French of striking her car twice from the rear, the first time when she stopped behind a truck at a railroad crossing and then a second time, just beyond the tracks near an elementary school.

Local police met French entering Tecumseh near the Kroger store on W. Chicago Blvd. and stopped him by Protane Gas on Adrian St. He was taken to the Tecumseh police station where the sheriff's deputies took him back to Adrian.

He was released late Thursday

The Tecumseh attorney suffered a blow on the nose and forehead in the accident. He was examined by two local physicians.

Mr. French will be represented by John Zeigler of Tecumseh.

The cars sustained only minor damages.

New Subdivision Opening in Spring

A 44-home subdivision along N. Union St. was approved by the City Planning Commission at its joint meeting with Council Tuesday night.

Subdivider is Yale L. Kerby, Morenci attorney, who presented a plat of the project, which includes a small court and drive onto which homes will be constructed. This was designed with Federal Housing Administration OK.

Formal approval of the plan will be sought from Council at its meeting Monday.

When this is obtained, work will be started on a model home by Mr. Kerby's builder, F. J. Schuktz & Son of Adrian.

The subdividers will provide curb and gutter, water, sewer and streets.

Three-bedroom houses in various styles, to sell in about the $15,000 class, will be constructed.

Included in the plat is a playground, 140x150 in size.

Located within the City limits, the subdivision will encompass 14 acres and be called Kerby Heights. It is on the east side of Union, starting with the last home at the north end of town and running parallel to the railroad track to Paul's Trailer Court.

IN OTHER action at Tuesday's session, which lasted until almost midnight, architect Jim Smith agreed to submit a master plan proposal, which will eliminate fringe requirements that are not needed at this time.

It will be submitted at a later gathering of the group.

City planners and Councilmen discussed zoning for trailer parks, but tabled any action.

Holds Banquet for Dads, Sons

All the men of the church are invited to the Father-Son Banquet at the Friends Church Saturday evening at 6:30 p.m.

Milton C. Porter, County superintendent of schools, will be the speaker.

The ladies Missionary Society with Mrs. George Watson, president, is sponsoring the event.

The committee in charge is Mrs. Harry Creger, Mrs. Melvin Muhn and Mrs. Marvin Johnson.

Now in Air Force

Richard D. Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford W. Baker, and James F. Hartsell, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Hartsell, both of Tecumseh, with Daniel Semark and Randall Beck of Clinton were among those who enlisted in the Air Force in February.

$15,494 Surplus

Over the years, Tecumseh's Community Fund has amassed a reserve or "emergency" fund totalling $15,494.50. It is on deposit at the United Savings Bank.

Fund president Walt Nichols suggested to board members at their meeting Tuesday that a portion of this might be used towards building a community civic center. No action was taken.

Nearly $1,000 more in assets has been added since the last drive, explained secretary-treasurer Merlyn Downing.

Local collections went over the quota by $492.75. Plus this is a check for $528, which was recently received from the County Fund. This was Tecumseh's share for overage in total industrial and non-industrial giving.

School Board OKs Budget of $911,150

By JIM LINCOLN

The Tecumseh School Board approved an estimated tentative budget for 1959-'60 with receipts of $911,150 and disbursements of $894,287.

The budget is approximately the same as for 1958-'59. The biggest disbursements are for instruction and operation of the schools.

The board which has been operating the public library out of school funds for the past seven years, voted to place a .31 mills on the ballot at the July election. Revenue received would cover library operations.

From 1942 through 1951, the library's operations were paid through a voted one-mill tax on local equalized evaluation.

☆

CHARLES GROSS was elevated to assistant football coach, replacing Mike Rotunno who has accepted head grid post at Saline.

In other action, the board approved paying off the Tecumseh bond debt incurred in 1952 and the Ridgeway bond debt of 1953. Payment of $10,000 to Michigan School Service also was authorized.

Custodian salaries were approved, and a decision to limit renting the cafeteria to civic groups only was approved.

SHARON MUHN

27 Attend

Twenty-seven attended the Baptist Youth Fellowship Sunday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dahlke and Steve Naugle presented creative worship revolving around a spoked wheel with a candle in the center.

Members related what the candle represented to them.

Following the business session games were enjoyed with Mrs. B. O. Bashore, Mrs. Eddie Kirkland and Mrs. Stanley Cook as judges.

Music Club Staging Benefit

Sharon Muhn banked $150 in gifts last week towards her European trip.

She still is about half way to her goal of $800, but at the rate help has been arriving Sharon will make out OK.

Latest gifts are from the VFW and its Auxiliary — $50 between them — and $80 from her Sunday School class at the Friends Church.

Now comes what may well prove the best news of all.

The Tecumseh Music Club will present a benefit show April 19 with all proceeds going to Sharon. Miss Muhn will also take part in several numbers.

It's the group's annual production, usually staged just for the members and a few friends.

But when the club learned of Sharon's coming junket to Europe with the Michigan Choral — and of her need to raise $800 — the members decided to go all-out with their 1959 production and make it a benefit.

The Herald has volunteered to furnish tickets and programs at no charge.

A general ticket sale is expected to begin in a week or 10 days.

Sharon was to have had all financial arrangement made by April 15. Leslie Bennett contacted officials of the tour and asked if in Sharon's case there could be a delay of several days due to the date of the benefit. Permission was granted.

You Told Us

BY DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Easter is not far away even though the weather does seem too cold, just 17 more days before the bright and glorious resurrection of our Lord.

Perhaps by that time Lady Spring will be more kindly and give Tecumseh "shiverers" some warm, friendly days.

With the return of spring we also have the returning of the residents who have been spending the winter months in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Munger arrived home from St. Petersburg Sunday evening.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schanz are coming from the opposite direction. They spent the winter in South Branch.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Marx and children, Kristi and Eric, were recent guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Van Winkle.

Mr. Marx formerly with Ford Motor Co., Engineering Department, has accepted a similar position as project supervisor in the Metals Division of the Olin Mathieson Company in New York City.

Mrs. Marx, the former Margie Van Winkle, and children will move east the first of June.

√

Mrs. Elona Barber returned last week from Saginaw where she spent some time recuperating from an illness in the home of her son, Berford Barber.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Riordan and children spent the weekend in Detroit at the home of Mrs. Riordan's mother, Mrs. C. J. Eberhardt.

√

Mr. and Mrs. LaVern Seizert spent Sunday in Toledo as guests of her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Banks.

Darwin Creger, Earl Cook and another bowler from Adrian went to St. Louis, Mo. over the weekend. Road conditions were so bad that they took a train from Indianapolis and picked up their car on the way home.

√

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw enjoyed dinner Friday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Laidlaw in celebration of their granddaughter, Susan's first birthday anniversary.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Van Valkenburg and family entertained her sister's family, Mr. and Mrs. John Kittel and family, of Ann Arbor Saturday.

√

Mrs. Lawrence Cote entertained the Henning children and the Cote children Saturday on the occasion of her daughter, Debbie's seventh birthday.

Those attending the movie and enjoying lunch at the Cote home afterwards were Susan, Joan, Gordon and Larry Henning, Onalee, Christian, Debbie, Lawrence, Jr. and Gregg Cote.

√

Dr. Walter Morden was for many years a medical doctor in the Macon area, not a veterinary, as was printed in last weeks issue.

He was a typical horse-and-buggy doctor and spent many a long hour struggling through the snow banks on foot to visit his patients when the horse couldn't get through.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wolf are vacationing this week in Orlando, Fla.

A/3c Donald P. Buchheimer is spending a 30-day furlough here with his mother, Mrs. Emily Pocklington following 18-months duty at Okinawa. He will report to the State of Washington April 8.

√

Ray Puffer Jr. is back at work after breaking his leg just above the ankle by slipping on the ice after the Goose Tatum game. He has the leg in a cast, but is able to do his work seated.

√

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Puffer returned from South Branch Tuesday due to the heavy snowfall and the cold temperature. Mrs. Puffer said is was 20 below there that morning with snow three feet deep on the level.

√

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Murray with Dr. and Mrs. Carlton Cook spent several days last week in New York City. While there they saw several plays including, "My Fair Lady."

√

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Grigg were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Green, Jr. in Pentwater over the weekend.

Acting Team Will Perform for Groups

John Aronson, professional actor and his wife, Mary Rose McMaster, the actress daughter of Anew McMaster, Ireland's leading Shakespearean actor-manager, will come to Toledo the end of March for a three-week stay at the Plaza.

Main purpose of their visit is to present free dramatic programs for clubs and schools in Toledo and nearby towns.

The Aronsons visit is made possible by the Theatre Appreciation Fund of Toledo, recently established by local businessmen to create an audience for professional theatre.

The Fund is managed by the Toledo Summer Theatre Associates, 721 Adams St. who are handling the bookings.

Persons interested in having the Aronsons appear before their club or school should call CHerry 2-5271 and arrange a call.

There is no charge.

Summer Theatre Offers Chance To Earn Money

Toledo Summer Theatre Associates offer an opportunity to any organization interested in earning money.

They plan to bring a professional New York cast to present five plays in the newly air-conditioned Zoo Theatre in Toledo.

Coupon books are on sale presently with a pre-season price of 12 one-dollar coupons for $10.

Coupons can be used like money during the summer to buy $1, $2 or $3 seats for the plays. Clubs earn $40 for every 25 books sold.

The following plays will be given through July and August:

"Pygmalion" by George Bernard Shaw

"Mr. Pim Passes By" by A. A. Milne

"The Importance of Being Earnest" by Oscar Wilde

"Man and Superman" by George Bernard Shaw

"As You Like It" by William Shakespeare

For more information write or phone Toledo Summer Theatre Associates, 2641 Cheltenham, Toledo 6, GR 2-4776.

The engagement of Carolyn Faye McClure to Gayle R. Wilson of Pontiac is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Worth McClure. Both young people are students at Emmanuel College, Berrien Springs, Mich. A June wedding is being planned.

Baptist Women See Cancer Film Monday

Dr. William Gilkey of Adrian was present at the meeting of the Women's Society of the First Baptist Church Monday evening to answer questions concerning cancer.

Mrs. Charles Stevenson, Tecumseh Area Chairman for the Cancer Society, arranged for the presentation of the revealing cancer film, "Time and Two Women" for the members.

Officers and representatives of the Lenawee County American Cancer Society present were Mrs. Roger Strattman, Mrs. Lewis Kirkwood, Mrs. Calvin Johnson and Mrs. Richard Hurlbut.

Mrs. Benjamin Antrobus read "These Are the Things" as her call to order preceding the meeting.

OUTER SPACE RADIO WAVES.

Many people get excited about the possibility of mystery space radio signals from outer space. Space ships are still being investigated but radio signals are misunderstood by the public.

Actually, scientists have theorized that these radio signals are caused by planet heat and they are being recorded constantly. They have nothing to do with mysterious radio stations on distant planets.

But, if your radio or television set makes noises like the jargon of outer space worlds, phone 692-J The COOK ELECTRIC would like to decipher the trouble and put you on the beam of some clear, unmysterious, smooth programming.

After 36 Years: Retirement

Wilfred D. Mills, noted disease specialist, will retire April from his position as extension professor of plant pathology at Cornell University.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Mills were old settlers in Tecumseh.

Mr. Mills is credited with saving New York fruit growers many thousands of dollars yearly by providing them with accurate information on spraying techniques.

Colleagues say that nearly all the tree fruit spraying practices in New York are a result of his experiment and demonstrations.

☆

HIS NAME is well-known in Western Europe as well, primarily for a chart he developed after years of research showing the specific conditions involved in the development of apple scab, the foremost apple disease.

He also discovered the effect of weather conditions on cherry leaves and primary facts regarding powdery mildew of fruit especially apple trees.

He has been a member of the Cornell faculty for 36 years. He received his B S degree in 1920 and his M S in 1922, both from Michigan State University.

After military service on the Mexican border during the first World War he taught at Michigan State, in 1922 he entered Cornell University and received his Ph D there in 1930.

☆

HE HAS prepared many reports and bulletins and a summary of fruit diseases annually for publication in the State Horticultural Society proceedings.

In 1955 he received the Superior Service Award from the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

He and his wife, the authoress Antonia Thor Schwab, have two daughters.

A brother, Bert, who was also a professor at Cornell, went with an engineering regiment to France and passed away there.

Another brother, Truman R. Mills, served in Russia in World War I and it is from his wife that The Herald received this interesting information.

With Tecumseh Teens

BY MARY V. SEAGER

There was a Teen Club legislative, committee chairmen and officers meeting at the Teen Club last Wednesday evening. The meeting was called to order by the president, Marilyn Helzerman.

The hi-fi installation was discussed. The club also decided to expell those members from the club that were giving it a bad reputation.

They would be given a warning and if anything happened after that, they would lose their membership.

It was agreed that Saturday night would be the best night for the dance last week.

Membership cards were talked about at this time, too. The meeting was adjourned.

☆

The Teen Club held a record dance Saturday night to celebrate our team's winning the district championship for the third time in a row.

☆

Harold Broderick's band will play at a dance at the Teen Club this Friday night.

☆

At the pep meeting last Friday, another cheering contest between the boys and the girls was held.

Of course, the boys won it and the loving cup covered with pennies which they divided among themselves.

Suzie Rohweder portrayed the weather girl with great success.

Carol Spangler, with her puppets Kendra Ringman and Susie Owen, presented the well-known Detroit News singing ad.

Mary Colgrove triumphed as Lawrence Welk.

We won the game with Bedford, needless to say.

☆

Vision tests for the freshmen and juniors are being given this week for those who missed them last week.

☆

Mr. Joseph Layton of the Tecumseh Products Company was to speak to a High School assembly Wednesday morning at 9:54.

☆

Teen Club membership cards are being sold outside the study hall by the club members. Fifty cents will cover a membership until next fall.

☆

The Student Council held a meeting during last hour on Friday.

The profit made on "Mardi Gras" was reported to the Council by the treasurer.

The variety show committee made a report on its progress. It was decided to hold the show sometime in the middle of May.

The sale of book covers was started again outside the study hall at one for 15c or two for 25c.

It was decided not to discipline those students who studied during assemblies as long as they were quiet.

☆

The school newspaper went on sale Tuesday afternoon. There was a staff meeting after school in Mr. Babcock's room on Wednesday.

☆

The students stood in a circle around the cheerleaders at the pep meeting held Tuesday afternoon for the Willow Run game in the first round of the regionals. Signs have appeared all over the school to boost the spirit.

Car Found in Field With All Wheels, Tires Missing

William Powell, local realtor, located the 1959 convertible that was stolen from Schneider Bros. Garage Wednesday night or Thursday morning of last week.

He noticed the top of the car in a field as he was driving along Occidental Highway Thursday morning.

It had been abandoned with the tires and wheels missing.

The loss was discovered when an employee came to work at 7 a.m. and found the side door to the service department of the garage smashed off.

City Police are still investigating the theft.

TECUMSEH HERALD PHOTO

NOT ACTUALLY—Senior Larry Yoakum played exceptional ball in the district games, especially in the upset win over Monroe Catholic Central. However, it wasn't actually an easy as the picture shows. Larry's floor game and "clutch" shooting kept the Indians in charge all evening. With 15 seconds to play he broke a 66-66 tie with two free throws which brought his club victory. Also a standout on last fall's football crew, the stocky, hard-playing Yoakum will really be missed.

Child Study Club Meets in Shutt Home (National, of Course)

Mrs. Jack Schutt entertained members of Child Study Club Monday at her home, assisted by Mrs. Stanley Kruse and Mrs. Robert Ries.

Mrs. Merwin Blanden presented the program and turned it over to Junior High School art teacher Ray Hickerson, who gave a talk on art education.

Mrs. Neal Brazee conducted the business meeting and named the nominating committee for officers for the coming year: Mrs. Douglas Murdock, Mrs. Keith Barron and Mrs. Norman Bailey.

Plans were discussed for the Girl Scout party and Mrs. Arthur Schwartz provided the favors for the evening.

The next meeting will be held April 13.

'Team Effort' Brings Tecumseh District Crown

By JIM LINCOLN

For the third consecutive year, Tecumseh reigns as district basketball champions.

Last week at Blissfield the Indians upset heavily favored Monroe CC, 70-66, and then drubbed Bedford in the finals Saturday night, 50-32.

The tourney was actually decided in the opening game when Tecumseh downed Monroe. Either team would have defeated Bedford for the title.

Tecumseh, tied four times during the game by Monroe, downed the favorites in the final 20 seconds when Larry Yoakum and Jim Poley stripped the nets for four straight free throws.

The Indians generally maintained a five or six point advantage until the final minute when a full court press closed a one-time 11-point Tecumseh lead in the fourth period .

After evening the count, the Falcons apparently attempted a stall in waning seconds for the last shot. A cross court pass backfired when Yoakum picked it off and started upcourt. He was fouled almost immediately for two foul shots, and then Poley pitched in two points after being fouled taking a wild shot off the Monroe bankboard.

The victory was a team effort, highlighting team work not displayed by the Indians before. All five starters had their brilliant opportunities.

☆

THE TITLE CLASH WAS MARRED by a serious injury to Roy Couch, Bedford guard and outstanding area cager.

Couch, driving in for the bucket, fell under the bankboard, suffering a spinal and neck injury which left his left leg and arm partially paralyzed.

Reports Tuesday showed his condition much better and use of his left arm and leg. He was unconscious until after his admittance at a Toledo hospital. He was attended by Dr. Ralph Helzerman at the time of the accident.

Bedford started out to rout the Indians, gaining an 8-0 lead in the first four minutes of play. Tecumseh closed out the quarter only three points behind, and then took over completely in the second quarter to lead at the half, 22-14.

The Mules dropped out of contention in the second half as the Indians pulled farther ahead.

Dan Cisco, who was tough on the boards in both games, and Yoakum shared scoring honors against CC with 16 points each. Yoakum, hitting 8 out of 10 free throws, netted 16 points again against Bedford while Cisco tallied 13.

STAR INJURED—Dr. R. F. Helzerman administers to Roy Couch, Bedford's standout cager, who was injured seriously when he crashed onto the floor. Dr. Helzerman was a spectator when Couch was hurt and quickly came out of the stands. He directed removal of the lad to the locker room and then by ambulance to Toledo. VOICE of THE HERALD

Excellent, Solid Plan

After listening to a three-hour discussion Tuesday evening about uniting the civic center idea with Tecumseh's annual fund-raising drive, The Herald can offer only one opinion.

This is an excellent, solid plan.

Although we would have to leave the Lenawee County United Fund, we would by no means be turning our back on needs of worthy County and state charities.

A part of the plan provides for substantial gifts to the County and state, along with disbursement of individual industrial giving to towns and cities where folks who work here live.

Under this arrangement we would be helping others in need and helping ourselves, too.

If we continue in the County Fund, no monies collected here could be used to construct a building. Only after we had one, would the County OK cash for its operation.

This adheres to the United Fund charter which says money cannot be employed for capital investments. It's a wise ruling, but in itself prevents Tecumseh from realizing a community center within a matter of several years.

We greatly admire the work our local board and the County group did in its first drive. Tecumseh's combined giving—industrial and individual—totaled $58,000. Of this, the City directly received approximately $5,500 for its needs. True, area people are aided by portions of the balance spent with County groups, but the amount is disproportionate by a considerable amount to what was raised locally.

We still must aid these groups, but in a different degree.

Here is a chance to do that and at the same time give Tecumseh a community center—which could well become one of the most important facilities the City would have.

What Is Needed?

"What is needed to make a city a good place for present industry to continue to operate? And what is needed to make a city attractive for new industry?"

These two questions were asked in an editorial entitled "What Does Industry Need?" that appeared in the Cadillac Evening News recently.

The editorial appeared several days after the Northern Michigan community learned one of its largest industries — a B. F. Goodrich Company plant — was closing down.

"Above all, industry needs a good community attitude . . . an attitude that is friendly and one that is based on the realization that each of us has our vital part to play," the editorial said.

"Each individual's attitude toward his community and his fellow citizens is important if any community is to prosper.

"Does each individual employee cooperate in a friendly way with his fellow worker to provide reasonable high production or does he make it difficult for everyone to be happy and productive in his job?

"Does every citizen put in an enthusiastic word for his community so that local people and visitors know that the community is a good one? A non-cooperative, backbiting pessimist never helps his community or himself."

The second and third most important factors considered by an industry considering sites for a new plant are quality of the "physical community" and its future, the Evening News editorial said.

"Does the community have good streets, good police, good fire protection, good water, good schools, good recreational facilities, good churches, good hospital and other assets? These are important to all citizens and of particular value to industry for their own use as well as assuring their personnel a pleasant place in which to live.

"Happy people are good employees," the editorial added.

Regarding the future, the Evening News said an industrial prospect might ask these questions:

"Does the city have good planning and zoning that will not only result in a more livable community but also provide for proper industrial sections where plant expansion may take place and where industry will not be hemmed in?

"Is there planning that will permit proper community growth and development without wasteful taxes to provide unnecessary services?

"Is the community's government in the hands of men who will do a thorough, honest and fair job in operating the community?

"Do all people in the community actively participate in civic affairs so as to make proper development possible?"

Location of the community . . . nearness to raw materials and markets . . . and many other factors are necessary to make a community a good place for industry, the editorial added.

Easter Lilies Will be Sent Out by Mail

Plans for the 1959 Easter sale have been completed by Mrs. William Davenport, Easter Seal chairman for the Lenawee Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Mrs. Roland Redman and the Future Nurses Club will organize the mail contribution campaign and the sale of plastic Easter lily lapel pins in Tecumseh.

A "Good Skate Day" party will be held Mar. 17 from 7 to 10 p.m. at the Skate Arena on M52. All proceeds from this party will go to the Lenawee Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Prizes for games will be given and refreshments served. This is a project of the Roller Skate Rink Operators Association and is conducted nation-wide annually.

Services to 363 crippled children in the County includes training, education and rehabilitation.

Thirteen crippled children attended a summer camp in Jackson last year.

Children were enrolled at Rackham School in Ypsilanti, a division of Eastern Michigan College.

Special equipment and training in rehabilitation centers was provided by Society finances.

St. Elizabeth Holds Science Fair

All winners of the St. Elizabeth School Science Fair are being entered Saturday in competition against Dominican schools in the Detroit Archdiocese.

The local show, first of its kind here, was staged last weekend. Climax came Sunday when winners were announced and awarded ribbons by the Rev. Fr. Thomas J. Collins.

Nearly 200 displays were made by students. All were set up in the school's gymnasium.

They were judged Sunday afternoon in a two and one-half hour session by Paul Burns and Jack Trudeau of the High School staff and Tom Riordan, co-publisher of The Herald.

All local winners and runners-up will be taken to Holy Name School in Detroit where they'll be judged with entries from throughout southeastern Michigan.

Cargo Costs Can be Cut by Seaway

ANN ARBOR—Opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway will provide a wonderful opportunity to replace centuries-old cargo handling methods with modern "package units," says a University of Michigan man.

Harry R. Benford, associate professor of naval architecture and marine engineering, feels shipping cargo packed in units about the size of truck bodies not only would lessen loading and unloading times but also would cut costs and virtually end pilfering.

"With all this emphasis on nuclear powered vessels, it is a strange sight to see an ultra-modern ship being loaded with equipment developed a century ago," he says.

"The unions at New York and other main ports long have opposed changes in cargo handling, but at Detroit and ports along the seaway, this need not be a handicap.

"Packaged units could be loaded right at the factory and brought to the pier on trucks, easily swung aboard and neatly stored, and then as simply set aboard a truck at their destination and driven to the distributor's place of business."

Benford points out there also is an added incentive in improving cargo handling: it's about the only place to economize in ship operation. Fuel costs are as low as possible under existing circumstances and operating labor expenses are rather rigid. Since about 30 per cent of a ship's total expenses go for cargo handling, it would seem much could be done in this area, the professor states.

Detroit would have a special interest in this aspect, too, he adds, because of the possible sales of trucks and containers.

Through My Window

IS IT LATER THAN WE THINK?

Knock, knock—tap, tap, tap!

In the small maple tree, which grows on the creek bank and is directly opposite my window, there hangs a little redwood, used to be, wren house. We could hardly believe our ears or our eyes but that was where all the noise was coming from.

A beautiful black and white striped Downy Woodpecker was giving the house a thorough inspection.

All four sides, the steeply pitched roof and even the floor were being poked and tapped by that long and amazingly strong, black bill.

When finally the Woodpecker satisfied herself that all was well, certainly her "knocking inspection" verified about construction, she settled herself on the small perch just below the doorway. Oh how pretty she was.

Her Downy colors, shiny jet black and dazzling snowy white, stood out so well against the dull rustic bird house.

☆

MRS. WOODPECKER sat for only a second before she started work. The job she undertook was completely new to us—never had we seen anything like it before. We watched in amazement.

With great accuracy and knowhow she used her chisel-pointed bill to enlarge the quarter-size, wren size, doorway.

With faster-than-the-eye quickness her head jabbed back and forth. The tap, tap, tap — now much faster than during her inspection tour—was loud and constant. Such a racket for such a little bird.

We marveled at the enthusiasm and energy of the little Downy. Her fast chiseling soon had little chips of wood flying every-which-way.

Her zeal for remodeling kept her on the job all the afternoon. When finally the worked-over entrance was enlarged enough for her to squeeze through, we thought her job was complete.

Not so, our little Woodpecker was a meticulous person and the doorway to her new home had to be "just right".

It was comical to watch her bobbing in and out; by feel, she was deciding which rough spots had to be smoothed out and just where a slight enlargement had to be made.

☆

BRIGHT AND EARLY the next morning Mrs. Woodpecker was back on the job. The frenzied pace of yesterday had solved a bit but, of course, anyone who has ever built a house realizes that the finishing is much slower and more exacting than the rough work.

By noon the third day, the outside renovating was complete. After a longer than usual lunch hour, Mrs. Downy came back and proudly inspected her handiwork. Our curious wondering, "What next?" was soon answered. Bobbing into the house, she started housecleaning.

From her quick impatient actions we could almost hear her mumbling under her breath. Certainly, her opinions of Mrs. Wren's housekeeping habits were very low.

A big bulging bill-full at a time, out came the old wren's nest. Small twigs, bits of dried grass, shriveled up dead brown leaves — it was amazing how much had been packed into that little house.

Several days later, when the housecleaning was finished, the creek bank, directly beneath the house, was covered with the cast out materials.

☆

WHILE ALL this activity was going on, and really Mrs. Woodpecker was working hard, dapper little Mr. Woodpecker, sporting a cocky spot of red on the back of his head, was not making himself at all helpful.

Several times each day, when she was taking one of her short "coffee breaks", he would fly to the house and give it a quick, almost casual look.

The big boss!

One afternoon, however, he apparently decided it was time to call an his lady love in their new home. No sooner had he lit on the small entrance perch and poked his head inside than he was quickly given to understand that he was not yet welcome.

A very angry Mrs. Downy Woodpecker made it very clear that she was not yet receiving visitors. Subdued by the spirited rebuke Mr. Downy flew away to sulk and we saw him no more that day.

☆

ALL THIS happened several weeks ago and we are still wondering about its significance. The frantic, busy job of remodeling and housecleaning completed Mrs. Woodpecker settled down and is now apparently enjoying herself.

She can usually be seen climbing through nearby trees, lunching on the suet at the corner of the feeder or, and this is what is really cute, sitting in her house, peering out the lopsided circular doorway and watching the world go by.

Woodpeckers, Downys included, have been known to build winter homes. It would seem, however, that the last of February is late for such an undertaking, wouldn't it?

Her actions give every indication of nest building but, by the same token, isn't it early for that? On cold, blustery days, it is nice to think about nest building and the like. It makes one think that maybe, after all, spring is on its way.

And who can tell, maybe Mrs. Woodpecker knows more than we do. Could it be later than we think?

It's Busy Week for Congregation of Grace Lutheran

Fifth midweek Lenten service will be held Wed., March 11, at 7:15 p.m. at the Grace Lutheran Church.

The choir will sing the anthem, "O Sacred Head Now Wounded."

After the service the Girl Pioneers will again sponsor the coffee hour. Last week's coffee hour was well received.

☆

LADIES AID of the Grace Lutheran Church will hear a letter read which has been received from their "adopted" missionary, Richard Poetter in Japan, at their meeting Thursday evening.

All members are asked to bring old Christmas cards that depict the real meaning of Christmas to be packed and sent to the missionary.

☆

THE LUTHERAN Pioneers went on a four-mile hike Saturday as their first outdoor project. Wagons 1, 2 and 3 participated with about 18 boys and their leaders included.

When they reached their destination they were given instruction in wood chopping, knife sharpening and fire building.

Weiners and marshmallows were roasted after they built fires, following their newly learned rules of safety.

Adults accompanying the boys were Kenneth Hinkleman, Frank Humble, Herbert Simon, William Mackey, Robert Kennedy and Fred Ward.

Project: 'Tax Reform'

"Tax Reform" was adopted as a project by members of Tecumseh's Junior Chamber of Commerce at their monthly dinner meeting last week.

As part of the program, five Jaycees are seeking to obtain 500 or more signatures on petitions to reduce government expenditures and institute a tax reform over a reasonable period of time.

The men who are circulating the petitions are Jack Shutt, Dwight Helms, Jerry Miller, Herman Dick and Malcolm Campbell. After March 31, the petitions will be sent to the state JC.

Goal of the National Jaycee program is to present petitions with five million signatures to Congress on April 15, stating the need for a planned tax reform.

☆

AN HONORARY Jaycee membership was given to Don Murphy, Chamber of Commerce secretary, during the business meeting.

The Jaycee group also voted to send one boy to Wolverine Boys State, a week in which 1,000 boys from all over the state are elected to and perform duties in mythical offices.

The gathering will be June 18-25 at Michigan State University, and is sponsored by the American Legion. Name of the boy will be announced at a later date.

Committee appointments for the Jaycee sponsored "Teen-Age Road-eo" to be held in May were made.

Merlyn Downing and Carl Powers are co-chairmen, assisted by Mr. Helms, Allan Barrett, Mr. Miller, Pete Dermyer, Herb Simon, Mr. Campbell and Bruce Corley.

Following the business meeting, Mr. Dermyer showed films taken at the 1956 production, "Womanless Wedding." Many members viewed themselves along with other Tecumsehites who performed in the comedy show.

Other Bearers

Three other area men served as bearers at the funeral of E. E. Crampton, former Tecumseh superintendent who died in Belding last week.

The names of Homer Hanna, LeRoy VanWinkle and Earl Pennington were furnished The Herald after the story of Mr. Crampton's death was reported in last week's edition.

"Why is the bank the saver's best friend?"

Bank savers can answer best; and these are the principal reasons that many of them give. Money-in-the-bank is protected by a unique combination of safety factors; earns a return without the depositor's having to invest; is really handy — ready cash that can be counted upon when needed. And at the bank, savers can tend to other banking matters at the same time they save; can call on experienced help with money matters of many kinds. Why Are There So Many Different Churches Today?

This is a natural question, growing out of the search on the part of our Western world for areas of agreement, the ardent longing for peace, and the realization that confusion and friction in religion do not have the sanction of God. (I Cor. 14:33). It is inconceivable that men should be so divided when Christ died to reconcile our world "in one body by the cross' (Ephensians 2:16).

Several reasons may be given to explain the disparity in religious practice today among so many competing churches.

1. Because men have introduced human innovations. History gives us information concerning the approximate time when the religious movements began that led to the formation of present-day church-bodies. Both Catholicism and Protestantism have developed practices unknown to the New Testament.

2. Because men stopped short in their search for truth. Reformers such as Luther and Wesley and Zwingli led their followers into new understandings and insights. We honor their courage. WE OUGHT NOT TO STOP SHORT, however, of Christ in our search for truth. He, alone, is "the way, the truth, and the life" (John 14.6).

3. Because men have made creeds out of their opinions. Our search for truth cannot stop short of ALL truth which is centered in Christ and revealed in the New Testament. The doctrine of "hereditary total depravity," for instance, has been rejected by most Protestants and it has been completely disproved by educational findings. The fact that it remains in some church-creeds is evidence of the fact that men crystallized their opinions before they knew all the facts. Most creeds contain truths, but the Word of God is able to furnish the man of God "unto all good works." (2 Timothy 3:16, 17).

4. Because some are attracted to the bizarre, the spectacular, or the unusual. For this reason, some people are attracted to cults.

5. Beause many have not accepted the authority of Christ. We must seek the authority of Christ, submit in obedience to his will. We must restore an ancient society—Christ's church. (Matthew 28:19). To know how this church began read the second chapter of Acts of the Apostles. What men did in obedience to Christ then—you must do now.

Costs 30c To Produce 12 Eggs

In Michigan, the cost of producing a dozen eggs ought to be less than 30 cents.

This guide for poultry producers is suggested by Hugh Johnson, extension poultryman at Michigan State University.

Johnson says that poultry raisers need to keep records so that they can check on their costs, even though record keeping may be distasteful to some.

Careful records can uncover some of the "little things" that may be making the poultry business inefficient.

☆

ACCORDING TO the poultry specialists, egg production costs generally break down in this way:

Feed—65%
Labor—20%
Chicks—5%
Miscellaneous — 4% (includes electricity, litter, taxes, vaccine, insurance and repairs)
Depreciation—3%
Interest on investment—3%

☆

JOHNSON POINTS out that feed costs, which cover about two-thirds of production costs, can vary considerably.

For instance, when the flock is laying at the rate of 70% and feed costs $3.50 a hundred pounds, it costs 16 cents a dozen for feed.

But when production drops to 40%, feed cost jumps to 23 cents a dozen. Hens keep eating whether they are laying or not.

Johnson offers this guide in figuring labor costs. Most successful poultrymen are now spending less than one hour per year with each hen.

One man now can care for twice as many birds as he could 10 years ago. All labor costs, including unpaid family labor, should be figured in.

Poultrymen who don't take into account depreciation and interest on investment are not facing the facts, insists Johnson. Equipment and housing lose some of their value every year.

Also, if the money invested in chickens, housing and equipment were placed in a savings account, it would yield at least 3% interest per year.

Let Us Take a Look at Pre-School Child

Editor's note: This is the second in a series on the local cooperative nursery.

Lets take a look at the pre-school child"

Children are learning all the time, so the experiences and contacts which they have should be the best we can offer.

It is during these early years that habits, attitudes, likes and dislikes — personality—is beginning.

What appears to be play to the casual observer is really a learning situation.

A child who plays alone all the time in a world of adults, a child who must fight for his rights with older brothers and sisters, or a child who completely dominates a younger child, gets a much different experience in sharing his activities with others his own age.

A place is won on what a child can offer the group; he learns to win acceptance and to meet rejection. He comes to feel a sense of belonging to a group. He is given a chance to be self-sufficient and independent.

Nursery school offers a play space seldom available in today's homes with equipment scaled in size and capabilities of the child.

Under the guidance of a person trained to understand the needs of the pre-school child, he increases in his ability to handle emotions constructively.

As parents know so well, emotions are so near the surface at this age. Self-expression in art, music, rhythm and language will help him now and in future years as he gets the "creative habit" so needed in this age of television.

Both parent and child frequently benefit from this time away from each other.

Two last words in looking at the pre-school child and his nursery experience: it supplements the home; it acts as a bridge between home and the first school experience.

"You know a good doctor for this?"

It's a question we answer all the time. Sometimes it's someone new in the neighborhood. Sometimes it's an old friend who just doesn't happen to have a family physician. The boy sprains an ankle . . . the baby runs a temperature . . . Grandma has a bad cough. Troubled people often turn to us for help, and rightly so. We work closely with physicians, providing the medicines they prescribe and use in their offices. We know who they are, their specialties, their office hours. In an emergency we're good people to ask. And we're always happy to be of service to our friends and patrons.

'Circle We Live in' Meeting Topic

Mrs. Paul Keyser was hostess to members of Circle 1 of the Presbyterian Church March 3 and served dessert. She was assisted by Mrs. George Rhinehart and Mrs. Peter Michajlenko.

"Circles We Live In" was the topic of the program presented by Mrs. Chester Beach.

Devotions from the Book of Acts were given by Mrs. Harold Simmons.

"BLESSINGS ON HIM THAT INVENTED SLEEP"

A good night's sleep restores the energy we expend during the day, giving us the strength necessary to fight off the invading germs and virus that are constantly attacking our body. Inability to sleep is one of nature's warnings of possible approaching sickness.

It is unwise and sometimes even dangerous to repeatedly take sleep-producing remedies without a physician's supervising care. Sleep is needed, but of greater importance is the curing of the cause of sleeplessness. Only a physician has the knowledge to prescribe the proper medication to accomplish this.

THE Long & Short OF IT

By TOM O'RIORDAN

All the Irishmen around town really poured over their Free Press Tuesday morning — St. Pat's day.

A full-page map of the Emerald Isle (printed in green, of course) was covered with thousands of Irish names, noted in the areas from which the various families sprung.

During breakfast at our house we located three O'Riordans and when I commented that I wish our clan had never dropped the O', daughter Carol said why not sign the week's column this way.

The only O'Riordan in the States who comes to mind is a chap I never met, merely read about, but suppose he was a distant relative. I'll never forget that headline in the Detroit News 20 years ago:

O'RIORDAN ROBS BANK

☆

"You guys called me deceased. You said I was the 'late' weatherman. I'm coming down there sometime and pop you in the nose."

This was Sonny Eliot (and we had spelled it Sunny Elliott). The TV weatherman who had just received a copy of last week's Herald and was phoning from Detroit.

An item in this column had chided Sonny because he had referred to Tecumseh as "down by Dundee" when it happened to be the warmest spot of Michigan a week ago.

Sonny was returning the needle by phone and obviously enjoying every minute of it.

In his rapid-fire style of delivery, just as he uses in giving the weather, Sonny said he once went with a girl from Dundee and that's how he knew the country around there.

Then he ticked off some of the town names he remembers — Petersburg, Blissfield, Deerfield.

"And Ida, don't forget Ida," Sonny added and his grin came through.

Sonny's home port is WWJ-TV, Channel 4, and he performs each evening after the 11 o'clock news. Maybe Tecumseh will come up again on his show. Better watch.

☆

Don't tell me it's drive-in time already.

Yes, thank goodness.

Mr. and Mrs. Les Handy are holding the annual spring opening at their Jack Pine Drive In this Thursday.

Les says that his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Roberts, have joined them in running the business. Gary has just completed a four-year Air Force stint.

Well, spring must really be here.

☆

Did you catch "Train To Tecumseh" on TV Sunday over the General Electric Theatre?

They never did say Tecumseh what; but the community name was metioned several times and every little bit helps.

☆

Dick Eggleston, celebrating his 10th anniversary in the jewelry business here, has come up with a snazzy promotion idea.

All day Friday, on-street downtown parking will be free to motorists.

Dick arranged with the City to rent all meters that day. He had sacks printed and placed over each meter, telling users to "be his guests".

☆

Don Murphy, Chamber secretary, reminds folks that when a solicitor stops, be sure to see his permit for "working" Tecumseh homes.

The Chamber acts as a clearing house, helping protect citizens from unscrupulous door-to-door operators.

Before starting out, solicitors must present their case at the Chamber office and obtain permits.

You can help — yourself and the town — by making certain a salesman can prove he has been OKed.

School Fair Is Saturday

Mary Lou Blumerick won first prize in the Patterson School Fair poster contest.

The Fair will be held Saturday from noon until 7 p.m.

Emily Manwaring won second prize and Slyvia Fritz won third.

All winners were fifth grade students, Miss Blumerick and Miss Manwaring from Mrs. Jean Miller's room and Miss Fritz from Mrs. Purnells Osborn's room.

Prizes of $1, 50c and 25c will be presented in an assembly program at the school Friday afternoon, along with prizes and trophys to the room and the student selling the most tickets.

Hats of cellophane, hats with Patterson School on them, pirate hats, coolie hats, top hats, cowboys, derbys and firemen hats will all be available at the booth where Mrs. Lillian Buttolph is chairman. She'll be assisted by Mrs. Clare Morris, Mrs. Herman Dick, Mrs. Donald Brazee, Mrs. Austin Pickford and Mrs. Stuart Costigan.

The foyer of the school will be decorated with wind chimes and Japanese lanterns, which will also be on sale during the day.

Mrs. Wayne Hebb is chairman of the pantry booth assisted by Mrs. Vern Manwaring, Mrs. Donna Hudson, Mrs. Stanley Cook, Mrs. Glenn Kohler and Mrs. James Feight.

Tiny figurines and animal pets will be on sale there as well as any number of goodies in the baked goods line.

Jack Puffer, R. T. Gillam, Kenneth Hinkleman and Alfred Schweder will roll the film for the movie room which proved a popular spot among the students last year.

Easter baskets will enhance the candy booth this year and be sold along with the candies, pop-corn balls and other confections by Mrs. Ted Pihl, Mrs. Jack Hanna, Mrs. Charles Mensing, Mrs. Karl Schneider, Jr. and Mrs. Helen Damon.
